CHAPTER 1: INTRODUCTION

SECTION 1: INTRODUCTION TO THE ASSET MANAGEMENT HANDBOOK

1.1 ABOUT THIS HANDBOOK

This handbook provides Multi-Family Housing staff with guidance about the Agency's procedures for overseeing borrowers' performance in meeting their responsibilities under the program. Its goal is to help Loan Servicers in Field Offices provide consistent, effective oversight of projects financed by the Agency to ensure that they are operated in accordance with applicable regulatory and administrative requirements. This role is defined as asset management.

This handbook presents the Agency's asset management procedures for:

- Section 515 Multi-Family Housing projects:
 - ◊ Rural rental housing (including congregate housing and group homes); and
 - ◊ Rural cooperative housing.
- Section 514/516 Farm Labor Housing projects:
 - ◊ Off-farm labor housing; and
 - ◊ On-farm labor housing.

The guidance provided by this handbook is intended to be consistent with all applicable laws, Executive Orders, and Departmental regulations, including other Agency regulations. Nothing contained in this handbook should be construed to supersede, rescind, or otherwise amend such laws, Executive Orders, and regulations.

1.2 COMPANION MULTI-FAMILY HOUSING HANDBOOKS

This handbook is the second in a series of three handbooks that describe the requirements and procedures for the Multi-Family Housing direct loan and grant programs. The two companion handbooks are:

- HB-1-3560: Loan Origination. This handbook covers the requirements and procedures for processing loan and grant applications for Multi-Family Housing projects, selecting projects for Agency funding, and closing the loans and grants for these projects.
- HB-3-3560: Project Servicing. This handbook addresses the requirements and procedures for servicing loan accounts, allowable servicing actions borrowers can request, project preservation, prepayment, and Agency actions in the event of compliance violations or project default.

1.3 USING THIS HANDBOOK

The handbook is organized to allow the reader to look up information on specific topics easily. Several graphic tools and conventions have been used to make information easier to find and understand.

A. Citations and Text Boxes

- Regulatory citations. The regulation for Multi-Family Housing programs is provided in 7 CFR Part 3560. The text of that regulation is included in Appendix 1. To help readers locate the regulatory authority for procedures described here, references to this regulation in paragraph headings appear in italicized brackets, for example: [7 CFR 3560.51]. Other regulations or RD Instructions are simply referenced.
- Form references. Agency forms and Agency guide, form, and system letters are shown in italics. All forms referenced in this handbook can be found in Appendix 3 and all letters can be found in Appendix 4.
- Examples and exhibits. Text boxes labeled as examples provide a specific illustration of a concept described in the text. Exhibits illustrate key points and are numbered in sequence, using the chapter number and a sequence number; for example, Exhibit 3-1 is the first exhibit in Chapter 3.

B. Attachments and Appendices

- Attachments. Attachments at the end of each chapter contain technical information that is specific to the topics covered in the chapter. Attachments are referenced in sequence using the chapter number and a sequence letter; for example, Attachment 4-A is the first attachment in Chapter 4.
- Appendices. Appendices at the end of the handbook include forms and other reference materials that relate to multiple chapters.

C. Terminology

Because terminology may vary from state to state and may change over time, this handbook uses certain standard terminology to provide consistency.

- Agency. The term “Agency” is used throughout this handbook to refer to the Rural Housing Service (RHS) within the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) that is responsible for the administration of the Multi-Family Housing programs.
- Approval Official. This term is used whenever someone other than the Loan Servicer must approve an action.

- Borrower. The term “borrower” refers to one or more individuals who are receiving Agency assistance through a Multi-Family Housing program in the form of a loan or a grant.
- Field Office. Because the number of offices and the nature of the work conducted in each office may vary from state to state, the term “Field Office” is used throughout this handbook to refer to the office that is originating or servicing the loan.
- Loan Servicers. This term refers to Agency Field Office staff with responsibility for ensuring that multi-family housing borrowers comply with program requirements and for servicing loan accounts.
- Management Agent. A “management agent” is an entity that contracts with the borrower to perform the management functions necessary to effectively operate a multi-family housing project.
- State Director. This term is used to refer to the Director of the State Office or the Agency staff person to whom the State Director has delegated decision-making authority for a specific aspect of the program. Unless otherwise specified, each State Director may determine which actions may be approved at the Field Office and which must be approved at the State Office.

SECTION 2: OVERVIEW OF THE AGENCY'S MULTI-FAMILY HOUSING PROGRAMS

1.4 GOALS OF THE RHS MULTI-FAMILY HOUSING PROGRAMS

The purpose of the Multi-Family Housing programs is to provide adequate, affordable, decent, safe, and sanitary rental units for very low-, low-, and moderate-income households in rural areas. In providing this service, the Agency strives to meet several goals.

- Customer service. The Agency is committed to providing customer-friendly, streamlined service. The Agency will administer its programs fairly and in accordance with both the letter and the spirit of all equal opportunity and fair housing legislation and applicable Executive Orders.
- Partnerships. The Agency's ability to serve eligible households is enhanced by working with its partners, such as borrowers, property management agents, tenants, other lenders, nonprofit organizations, and state and local agencies.
- Effective use of resources. As publicly funded initiatives, the Agency's Multi-Family Housing programs must use tax dollars efficiently. The Agency aims to minimize administrative costs, underwrite loans responsibly, and leverage funding with private sources of credit to the extent possible.

1.5 SECTION 515 PROGRAM—OVERVIEW

The Section 515 direct loan program [7 CFR Part 3560] provides financing to support the development of rental units in rural areas that need housing affordable for very low-, low-, and moderate-income households, and where this housing is unlikely to be provided through other means.

Section 515 loans can be used to build, acquire and rehabilitate, or improve dwellings in rural areas. The term for loans is tied to the expected useful life of the property, and the standard term for an initial Section 515 loan is 30 years with a 50-year amortization period. However, the term for subsequent loans and loans for special types of properties, such as manufactured housing, may be made for a shorter term based on the project's expected useful life.

Each loan is made at a note rate established by the Agency as prescribed in RD Instruction 440.1. Borrowers approved for initial and/or subsequent loans receive interest credit that reduces the effective interest rate for the Agency's financing, thereby lowering the property's rents. In return for this below-market rate financing, the borrower agrees to lease the project's rental units to income-eligible households at rents approved by the Agency.

1.6 SECTION 514/516 PROGRAMS—OVERVIEW

Section 514/516 direct loan and grant programs provide funds to support the development of adequate, affordable housing for farmworkers that is unlikely to be provided through other means.

A. Section 514 Loans and Section 516 Grants for Off-Farm Housing

Section 514 loans and Section 516 grants can be used for the same purposes as Section 515 loans to finance rental housing for farmworkers. Unlike Section 515 projects, Off-Farm Labor Housing projects may be built outside rural areas, as long as the project addresses a need for affordable housing for farmworkers. These projects are eligible for financing at terms comparable to Section 515 loans, a grant to cover a significant share of the development cost, or a loan/grant combination finance package. Tenants not only must be income-eligible, but also receive priority based on the proportion of their income received from farm work.

B. Section 514 Loans for On-Farm Housing

Section 514 loans can also be used to finance the development of adequate housing for farmworkers involved in a specific farm operation—On-Farm Labor Housing projects. These projects are treated as part of the farming operation, and the occupants do not pay shelter cost (rent and utilities) unless the shelter cost is approved by the Agency.

Labor housing borrowers who are providing shelter for domestic farm housing that is restricted for use by eligible residents supporting the borrower's farming operation may choose to provide that housing to residents without imposing charges for rent or utilities or may choose to impose charges for rent, utilities, or rent and utilities subject to Agency approval.

SECTION 3: GENERAL PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

1.7 CIVIL RIGHTS [7 CFR 3560.2]

The Agency will administer its programs fairly and in accordance with both the letter and the spirit of all equal opportunity and fair housing legislation and applicable Executive Orders. The civil rights compliance requirements for the Agency are contained in RD Instruction 1901-E. Exhibit 1-1 lists the applicable Federal laws and Executive Orders and highlights key aspects of these requirements.

Exhibit 1-1

Major Civil Rights Laws Affecting the Multi-Family Housing Loan and Grant Programs

- Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA). Prohibits discrimination in the extension of credit on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age, income from public assistance, and exercise of rights under the Consumer Credit Protection Act.
- Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Prohibits discrimination in a Federally-assisted program on the basis of race, color, and national origin.
- Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 (also known as the Fair Housing Act of 1988, as amended). Prohibits discrimination in the sale, rental, or financing of housing on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, familial status, or disability.
- Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Prohibits discrimination in a Federally-assisted program on the basis of disability.
- Age Discrimination Act of 1975. Prohibits discrimination in a Federally-assisted program on the basis of age.
- Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs and activities receiving Federal financial assistance from Rural Development.
- Executive Order 11063 as Amended by Executive Order 12259. Prohibits discrimination in housing or residential property financing to any Federally-assisted activity against individuals on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.
- Executive Order 11246. Prohibits discrimination in employment by construction contractors (and subcontractors) receiving Federally-assisted construction contracts in excess of $10,000. Provides for equal employment opportunity without regard to race, color, religion, sex, and national origin.
- Executive Order 12898. Requires each federal agency to make achieving environmental justice a part of its mission by identifying and addressing disproportionately high and adverse human health or environmental effects of its programs, policies, and activities on minority and low-income populations.

A. Nondiscrimination

The various civil rights laws prohibit the denial of loans, grants, services, and benefits provided under the Section 515 and 514/516 programs to any person on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, marital status, familial status, age, physical or mental disability or source of income, or because the applicant has, in good faith, exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1601). Discrimination in employment practices is also prohibited. These same requirements also apply to program participants. Agency oversight of borrower compliance with civil rights laws is covered further in Chapters 3, 6, and 9. Civil rights complaints filed by tenants are handled by the Agency in accordance with RD Instruction 2000-GGG.

Effective management and consistent procedures are good business practices that help ensure that all applicants are treated fairly. Poor program implementation, whether or not discrimination is intended, has possible civil rights consequences.

Key Civil Rights Issues for Asset Management <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Access• Consistency and fairness of treatment• Disparate impacts—intended or unintended• Record keeping

B. Reasonable Accommodations for Persons with Disabilities

In addition to avoiding discrimination, the Agency and loan and grant recipients must make reasonable accommodations to permit persons with disabilities to apply for and benefit from Agency programs. Reasonable accommodations may include providing modifications to the dwellings and facilities so that they are physically accessible. Reasonable accommodations may also include effective communication and outreach tools so that all applicants can obtain program information (e.g., a Telecommunications Device for the Deaf [TDD]).

C. Limited English Proficiency [7 CFR 3560.2]

Borrowers and grantees must take reasonable steps to ensure that Limited English Proficiency (LEP) persons receive the language assistance necessary to afford them meaningful access to USDA programs and activities, free of charge. Failure to ensure that LEP persons can effectively participate in or benefit from Federally-assisted programs and activities may violate the prohibition under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. 2000d. USDA has issued guidance to clarify the responsibilities of recipients and subrecipients who receive financial assistance from USDA and assist them in fulfilling their responsibilities to LEP persons under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act, as amended, and implementing regulations.

D. Civil Rights Impact Analysis

Agency employees will conduct civil rights impact analyses in accordance with RD Instruction 2006-P, to determine whether proposed policy actions, if approved and implemented, will negatively and disproportionately affect employees, program beneficiaries, or applicants for employment or program benefits due to race, national origin, or other protected basis.

1.8 REVIEWS AND APPEALS [7 CFR 3560.9]

Decisions that are not made in favor of a program participant (applicant or borrower) are known as adverse decisions. Adverse decisions must be based upon regulations that are published in the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). For the direct Multi-Family Housing programs, any adverse decisions must be based upon 7 CFR Part 3560 and not the administrative guidance contained in this handbook. Adverse decisions include: (1) administrative actions taken by Agency officials; and (2) the Agency's failure to take required actions within time frames specified in statutes or regulations or within a reasonable time if no deadline is specified.

Appendix 2 contains 7 CFR Part 11, which is the regulation of the National Appeals Division (NAD) and provides procedures that both Agency officials and program participants must follow when an appeal is made. Handbook Letter 101 (3560), Standardized Adverse Decision Letter, will be used for all adverse decisions unless another format is prescribed in this handbook.

A. Informing Program Participants of Their Rights

Whenever an Agency official makes a decision that will adversely affect a program participant, the official must inform the participant in writing that an informal review with the person who made the decision may be requested. If the decision is appealable, the participant will also be informed of their rights to seek mediation or Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) and to request a hearing with NAD; Attachment 1-B is used for this purpose. If the decision cannot be appealed, participants will be informed of their rights to have NAD review the accuracy of the Agency's finding that the decision cannot be appealed; Attachment 1-C is used for this purpose. Mediation or ADR rights are not provided on decisions that cannot be appealed.

Letters notifying participants of adverse decisions must contain the required information regarding an informal meeting, mediation or ADR, rights to NAD, and civil rights. RD Instruction 2000-GGG includes only the specific civil rights language that must be contained in any adverse decision letter. Attachments 1-B through 1-I contain, as necessary, the civil rights language and include information on requesting an informal review, mediation or ADR, and rights to a NAD appeal. The attachments are all titled to assist Field Staff in selecting the correct Attachment for the decision being made. The Attachments do not need to be used when an RD Form, Handbook Letter, or other document already includes the appropriate participant rights.

B. Adverse Decisions That Cannot Be Appealed

Certain decisions made by the Agency cannot be appealed. In these cases, the participant is still provided the opportunity for an informal review, however, appeal rights to an NAD and rights to mediation or ADR are not offered. Participants will be informed through the use of Attachment 1-C that they may request an informal review and write to NAD for a review of the accuracy of the Agency's determination that the case cannot be appealed. Decisions that cannot be appealed include:

- Decisions made by parties outside the Agency, even when these decisions are used as a basis for Agency decisions (such as when an applicant disagrees with a private lender's decision not to provide credit for a leveraged loan);
- Denials of credit due to lack of funds; and
- Rural area designations.

When one or more of the reasons for an adverse decision are reasons that cannot be appealed, the adverse decision cannot be appealed. In these cases, the letter containing the adverse decision will include only the items that cannot be appealed as the reason why the decision cannot be appealed. If other reasons also exist for the adverse decision, they will be listed separately in the decision letter as other reasons the assistance could not be granted.

C. Informal Review

Participants who want to request an informal review with the person who made the decision must do so within 15 days of the date of the Agency's letter notifying the participant of the adverse decision. The participant must make a request for an informal review in writing, and the request will be retained in the participant's case file. The informal review can be conducted, at the discretion of the Agency by telephone or through a face-to-face meeting. The informal review can also be conducted by a representative of the person who made the decision. The purpose of the informal review is to further explain the Agency's reasons for the adverse decision, listen to why the participant feels the decision may be incorrect, and obtain any further information from the participant to support their request. The review must be completed within 45 days of the request, and the participant is notified in writing of the results. The State Director may require that the decision be reviewed by the next-level supervisor or other designated Rural Development staff before the participant is notified of the decision. Attachment 1-D will be used if the adverse decision is not reversed as a result of the informal review. If the decision is reversed, a letter will be sent to the participant notifying them of the decision and next steps.

Participants may skip an informal review and, if applicable, request mediation, ADR, or a NAD appeal. In doing so, participants automatically waive their rights to an informal review.

D. Mediation or ADR

Adverse decisions that are appealable to NAD also require that the participant be given the opportunity to seek mediation or ADR prior to having a hearing with NAD. The purpose of mediation or ADR is to resolve disputes through the use of a neutral mediator. State Directors may wish to consider issuing a State Supplement, outlining the coordination required between the Field Office and State Office on handling mediation and ADR requests.

Participants may skip mediation or ADR and request a NAD appeal. In doing so, they automatically waive their rights to mediation or ADR.

1. Requests for Mediation or ADR

After receiving Attachment 1-B or 1-D, a program participant may request mediation or ADR services. Upon receipt of the program participant's request for mediation or ADR, Attachment 1-E, 1-G, or 1-H is sent to the participant to start the process. The Attachment used depends upon whether the state in which the action applies is covered by a USDA-sponsored mediation program. These Attachments are generally sent by the State Director since costs are involved; however, they can be sent directly by the Field Office at the discretion of the State Director.

2. Cost of Mediation or ADR

There are generally costs associated with participation in mediation or ADR. When there are costs, they will be shared equally between the Agency and the program participant, if Agency funds are available. Where Agency funds are not available, the Agency will participate in mediation or ADR if requested by the program participant; however, the program participant will be notified in advance of the portion of the cost that the Agency will pay (if any) and their estimated cost for this service. The State Director will ensure that all participants requesting mediation or ADR in their state are treated consistently and pay the same percentage of the cost toward this service. The State Director may also consent to pay a larger percentage (up to 100 percent) of the cost of mediation or ADR for participants with incomes below the poverty level. The Agency will notify the mediation or ADR sources of how the cost of such service will be paid. Attachments 1-E, 1-F, 1-G, and 1-H include language to meet this requirement.

3. Mediation in States with a USDA-Sponsored Mediation Program

Many states have a USDA-sponsored mediation program. These programs are funded, in part, by USDA and were established primarily to mediate cases originating from the Farm Service Agency (FSA). If program participants are unsure if a USDA mediation program exists in their state, they should contact their State Director. In states with a USDA-sponsored mediation program, program participants who are provided appeal rights generally will be referred to the USDA-sponsored mediation program. ADR is not applicable in these states. Attachment 1-E may be sent to the program participant to acknowledge their request, and Attachment 1-F may be used to refer the case to the USDA-sponsored mediation program. In states where alternative mediation sources are readily available at a lower cost than the USDA-sponsored mediation program, the state will follow the guidance for states without a USDA-sponsored mediation program, and include the USDA sponsored mediation program on the list of acceptable providers.

4. Mediation or ADR in States without a USDA-Sponsored Mediation Program

In states without a USDA-sponsored mediation program, Agency officials are responsible for maintaining a list of mediators or ADR providers. The State Office will generally maintain this list as program participants are referred to the State Director to initiate mediation or ADR. FSA can generally provide a list of acceptable mediation or ADR sources in a state. Other contacts include the American Association of Arbitrators (AAA) or State bar association. When making contacts with these sources, the Agency must request the services of a mediator and not an arbitrator. (A mediator resolves disputes by negotiating a resolution through mutual agreement; an arbitrator resolves disputes through hearing both parties and then rendering a binding decision and should not be used.) The list of mediators will contain the approximate cost of each service provider, if known. States may handle the list of mediation and ADR sources as follows:

- The state may select a mediator or ADR provider from the list, provided there is not a significant variation in the cost of service providers. The list will be maintained alphabetically and sources selected in sequential order. Attachment 1-G may be sent to the program participant to acknowledge their request for mediation or ADR, and Attachment 1-F may be used to refer the case to the provider. States will need to maintain documentation to ensure that mediators and ADR providers receive an equal number of referrals. If there is a significant variation in cost among service providers, this option will not be used.
- The state may provide the list of mediators or ADR providers to the participant and request the participant to select the source or provide the name of another acceptable source of mediation or ADR. The list will contain the approximate cost of each service provider, if known. Attachment 1-H is used for this purpose and provides the participant with 10 days to select a service provider. After selection, Attachment 1-F will be used to refer the case to the mediator or ADR provider. If the program participant does not provide the name of a mediator or ADR provider within 10 days, their request for mediation or ADR will be considered withdrawn. Withdrawal or cancellation of mediation or ADR does not extinguish the participant's right to an appeal with NAD.

5. Timing of mediation or ADR

Mediation or ADR must be completed within 45 days after the case is referred to the mediation or ADR source, unless the complexity of the case warrants a longer time frame and all parties agree to a specific time frame. A mediator or ADR provider will generally conduct a teleconference between the parties prior to accepting a case to determine if the case can be mediated. The Agency encourages the use of a pre-mediation conference since many adverse decisions in the Multi-Family Housing program may not lend themselves to mediation. Regardless, the Agency will not refuse to participate in mediation or ADR if requested to do so by the program participant.

Mediation or ADR occurs prior to having a hearing with NAD. Requests for mediation or ADR made prior to filing an appeal with NAD stop the clock on the 30-day period during which a participant may appeal to NAD. After mediation or ADR has concluded, any days that remain from the 30-day period are available to the participant to request an appeal to NAD. Attachment 1-I is used for this purpose. The person completing Attachment 1-I will need to determine the number of days the participant took to request mediation or ADR. Hearing dates for participants who request mediation or ADR after filing an appeal must be selected with 45 days of the conclusion of mediation or ADR. Participants may also request mediation or ADR after filing an appeal with NAD but prior to the hearing.

E. Appeal

Participants who wish to appeal an adverse decision must submit a written request to NAD within 30 days of receiving notice of an adverse decision. The request must be signed by the participant and include: (1) a copy of the adverse decision to be appealed; and (2) a brief statement describing why the participant believes the decision is wrong.

Upon receiving a notice from NAD that an appeal has been filed, the Field Office will promptly provide NAD with a copy of the Agency record, specific references in 7 CFR Part 3560 to support the adverse decision, and any other pertinent information. A copy will also be provided to the program participant.

In accordance with NAD regulations, the program participant has the right to a face-to-face hearing in the participant's state of residence. The program participant also has the right to request that the hearing be handled by teleconference. An adverse decision made by the Agency may result in an appeal hearing and require a face-to-face hearing. In these cases, the Appeal Coordinator may request the State Director to provide Field Staff to attend the hearing and represent the Agency. The Appeals Coordinator will provide sufficient documentation and phone resources to the person selected by the State Director to adequately represent the Agency in the case.

NAD will notify the participant and the Agency once it has made a final determination. If NAD reverses the Agency's decision, the next loan processing action that would have occurred had no adverse decision been made must be taken within 30 days after the effective date of the notice from NAD; unless the Agency requests a review of the case by the Director of NAD. See Appendix 2 for more guidance on Director Reviews and other information regarding appeals.

F. Tenants and the Tenant Grievance Process

The Agency has a formal process for resolving tenant grievances. Tenants and applicants for tenancy may file complaints and may be entitled to a hearing, depending on whether the grievance is legitimate and whether it can be resolved through informal means. Tenant grievance procedures are discussed in detail in Chapter 6, Section 8 of this handbook.

1.9 CONFLICT OF INTEREST [7 CFR 3560.10]

All Agency employees must strive to maintain the highest levels of honesty, integrity, and impartiality in conducting their activities on behalf of the Agency. The Agency's conflict of interest requirements are described in RD Instruction 1900-D. To reduce the potential for conflicts of interest, all processing, approval, servicing, or review activity must be conducted by Agency employees who:

- Are not the recipient (applicant or borrower), a recipient's family member, or a close known relative of the recipient;
- Do not have an immediate working relationship with the recipient, the Agency employee related to the recipient, or the Agency employee who would normally conduct the activity; and
- Do not have a business or close personal association with the recipient.

A. Applicant Disclosure

Applicants must disclose any known relationship or association with Agency employees when they apply.

B. Agency Employee Disclosure

Agency employees must disclose any known relationship or association with a recipient, regardless of whether the relationship is known to others. Loan Servicers should notify a supervisor after the application is accepted but before any eligibility determination is made.

1.10 OTHER FEDERAL REQUIREMENTS

A. Environmental Requirements [7 CFR 3560.3]

The Agency considers environmental quality equally with economic, social, and other factors in its program development and decision making processes. Both the Loan Originators and Loan Servicers are responsible for effectively integrating Agency environmental policies and procedures with loan and grant origination and servicing activities. It is particularly important for Loan Servicers to be aware of environmental requirements concerning sites, especially during the liquidation process, when the Agency needs to ensure that it will not acquire property with an environmental liability. The Loan Servicer should also be aware of mitigation measures contained in the Agency's environmental review. Where mitigation measures require an on-going effort of owner and management (such as maintaining the condition of a historic building or not building on portions of the site) these should be a part of servicing. Agency environmental policies and procedures and historic preservation requirements can be found in RD Instruction 1940-G and 1904-G. Agency-assisted properties must meet current Agency guidance on lead-based paint requirements and 1904-G.

B. Construction Standards

Sites and dwellings developed or rehabilitated with Section 515 or Section 514/516 funds must meet the construction standards described or referenced in RD Instructions 1924-A and 1924-C. Existing dwellings must be decent, safe, and sanitary and must meet all applicable state and local codes.

C. Lobbying Restrictions

RD Instruction 1940-Q prohibits applicants and recipients of Agency assistance from using appropriated funds for lobbying the Federal Government in connection with a specific award. This Instruction also requires that entities that request or receive loans or grants must disclose the expenditure of any funds, other than appropriated funds, for lobbying activities using Exhibit A-1 from RD Instruction 1940-Q.

D. Administrative Requirements

Agency employees must comply with Agency and departmental administrative requirements.

1. Procurement

Goods and services procured to support Agency activities such as appraisals, inspections, broker services, and property management services must conform with the policies and procedures of RD Instruction 2024-A.

2. File Management

Files and other Agency records must be maintained in accordance with RD Instruction 2033-A. Additional information is provided in Chapter 9.

3. Handling Funds

Project funds must be handled in accordance with RD Instruction 1902-A.

1.11 EXCEPTION AUTHORITY [7 CFR 3560.8]

Exceptions to any requirement of this handbook or 7 CFR Part 3560 may be approved in individual cases by the Administrator if application of the requirement or failure to take action would adversely affect the Government's interest or conflict with the objectives and spirit of the authorizing statute. Any exception must be consistent with the authorizing statute and other applicable laws.

Requests for exceptions are submitted to the Administrator, through the Deputy Administrator, Multi-Family Housing, and may be initiated by the State Director; the Director, Multi-Family Housing Processing Division; or the Director, Multi-Family Housing Portfolio Management Division.

The exception request must provide clear and convincing evidence of the need for the exception. At a minimum the request must include:

- A full explanation of the circumstances, including an explanation of the adverse effect on the Government's interest;
- A discussion of proposed alternatives considered; and
- A discussion of how the adverse effects will be eliminated or minimized if the exception is granted.

Requests to the Administrator for exceptions regarding architectural, environmental, or civil rights issues will include the review and comments of the appropriate National Office Staff.

ATTACHMENT TO LETTER NOTIFYING CUSTOMERS OF AN ADVERSE DECISION THAT IS APPEALABLE

The decision described in the attached letter did not grant you the assistance you requested or will terminate or reduce the assistance you are currently receiving. If you believe this decision or the facts used in this case are in error, you may pursue any or all of the following three options.

Option 1 - Informal Review

If you have questions concerning this decision or the facts used making it and desire further explanation, you may write this office to request an informal review. There is no cost for an informal review. This written request must be received no later than 15 calendar days from the date of the attached letter. You must present any new information, evidence, and possible alternatives along with your request. You may also have a representative or legal counsel participate in the process, at your cost. The informal review may be conducted by telephone or in person, at the discretion of the Agency. Please include a daytime phone number in your request to arrange for the review. You may skip this step in the informal process and select one of the following two options. If you do, you will automatically waive your right to an informal review.

Option 2 - Mediation or ADR

You have the right to request mediation or other forms of ADR for the issues that are available for mediation. You will have to pay for at least 50 percent of the cost of mediation or ADR. Rural Development will pay for the other 50 percent of the cost, provided the Agency has sufficient resources from its appropriated funds. If the Agency does not have sufficient resources, you will be advised how much, if any, the Agency can contribute to the cost of mediation or ADR. If you need the information to assist you in deciding whether to seek mediation or ADR, you may contact the Rural Development State Director listed below.

If you elect to seek mediation or ADR, your written request for this service must be sent to the Rural Development State Director listed below and must be postmarked no later than 30 days from the date of the attached letter. The Rural Development State Director will advise you of the estimated cost of mediation or ADR, the extent to which the Agency can contribute to the cost, and the process and procedures for this service. In states with a USDA-sponsored mediation program, you will generally be referred to such service. In states without a USDA-sponsored mediation program, you will be provided with the name or names of mediators. You will be advised directly by the mediation or ADR source if they can mediate your case. Once you request mediation or ADR, it stops the running of the 30-day period in which you may request an appeal (described in Option 3). If mediation or ADR does not result in resolution of these issues, you have the right to continue with a request for an appeal hearing as set forth in Option 3.

When mediation or ADR is concluded, you will be notified of the result and the number of days remaining to request an appeal, if applicable. If you request mediation or ADR prior to filing for an appeal, the number of days you will have to request an appeal will be 30 days from the adverse decision minus the number of days you took to request mediation. Mediation or ADR does not take the place of, or limit your rights to, an appeal to the NAD; however, an NAD appeal hearing would take place after mediation or ADR. You may skip mediation or ADR and request an appeal hearing. However, in doing so, you will automatically waive your rights to an informal meeting, mediation, or ADR.

Rural Development State Director address:

Option 3 - Request an Appeal

You may request an appeal hearing by the NAD rather than an informal review, mediation, or ADR. There is no cost for an appeal. Your request for an appeal must be made no later than 30 days from the date you receive the attached letter. You must write the Assistant Director, NAD, for your region at the following address:

You or your representative or counsel may contact this office anytime during regular office hours in the 10 days following the receipt of your request for a hearing to examine or copy relevant non-confidential material in your file. Photocopies will be provided to you. Your representative or counsel should have your written authorization to represent you and review your file.

The NAD Hearing Officer will contact you regarding a time and place for the hearing. You may also request a teleconference hearing in lieu of the face-to-face hearing. At any time before the scheduled hearing you may also request that the Hearing Officer make a decision without a hearing. If you do, the Hearing Officer's decision will be based on the Rural Development file,

CHAPTER 2: MULTI-FAMILY HOUSING PROGRAMS AND ASSET MANAGEMENT

2.1 INTRODUCTION

This chapter introduces key aspects of the Section 515 Multi-Family Housing and Section 514/516 Farm Labor Housing programs. Under these programs, the Agency provides direct loans and grants to support the development of affordable rental housing that serves rural areas. The Section 538 Multi-Family Housing Guarantee program—the Agency’s third Multi-Family Housing Program that guarantees loans made by private lenders—is covered in a separate regulation, [7 CFR Part 3565] and handbook (HB-1-3565).

This chapter also presents the asset management framework that the Agency uses to oversee borrower performance in meeting their responsibilities under the program. The framework provides Loan Servicers with a consistent basis for ensuring that borrowers’ operation of projects meets the objectives of the program and complies with applicable program requirements.

Section 1 introduces the types of loans and other forms of assistance available through the Section 515 program and the Agency’s objectives in providing this assistance. Section 2 describes the loans, grants, and other assistance available to increase the supply of affordable housing specifically targeted toward farm labor. The chapter concludes with Section 3, which outlines the Agency’s asset management framework, as well as the key parties involved.

2.2 OVERVIEW

The Section 515 program offers direct loans to eligible borrowers to provide economically designed and constructed housing and related facilities for very low-, low-, and moderate-income households; elderly households; and persons with disabilities living in rural areas. This section of the chapter describes:

- The types of projects allowed;
- The types of loans available;
- Rental assistance available from the Agency; and
- The Agency’s preference for leveraged projects.

2.3 TYPES OF PROJECTS

There are five types of rental projects that can be developed using Section 515 loans:

- Family projects;

- Elderly projects;
- Congregate projects;
- Group homes; and
- Rural cooperative housing.

The housing must be economical and must not include elaborate features, but must be adequate to meet tenants' needs. The project should be of average quality and cost. With the exception of off-farm labor housing, all projects must be developed in locations that qualify as rural areas.

A. Family Projects

A family housing project is a rental property developed for occupancy by eligible very low-, low-, and moderate-income households. Nonelderly and elderly households may occupy the housing. Household income is the only tenant characteristic, except under extraordinary circumstances such as tenant displacement, which is given preference in selecting among eligible applicants for occupancy. Priority is also given to those needing features of an accessible unit if one becomes available. Occupancy may not be restricted to particular groups of eligible households and may include elderly households.

B. Elderly Projects

An elderly project is a rental property that is developed for occupancy solely by eligible elderly households, which include a tenant or cotenant who is disabled or age 62 years or older. Persons with disabilities and their families are permitted to live in elderly housing.

C. Congregate Projects

Congregate projects are rental properties developed for occupancy by eligible very low-, low-, or moderate-income elderly households, individuals with disabilities and families who require some supervision and central services but are otherwise able to care for themselves. Congregate projects consist of private apartments and central dining facilities in which a number of allowable preestablished services are provided to tenants. These projects are not designed to be nursing homes and, therefore, are not allowed to pay for the cost of medical- or healthcare-related services. When leasing units, priority may be given to eligible elderly households who qualify for the services provided by the facility.

D. Group Homes

A group home is housing that is occupied by eligible very low-, low-, and moderate-income elderly persons or individuals with disabilities who share living space within a rental unit and in which a resident assistant may be required.

E. Rural Cooperative Housing

Section 515 loans may be used to finance rural cooperative housing projects operated by nonprofit consumer cooperatives for the benefit of eligible very low-, low-, and moderate-income members, who will own and manage the project.

2.4 TYPES OF LOANS

The rules governing the origination of Section 515 loans differ slightly, depending upon the type of loan being made. The types of loans available under Section 515 include:

- Initial loans;
- Subsequent loans; and
- Assumed loans.

Loans are only made to projects that further the program's objectives and comply with applicable Agency requirements.

A. Initial Loans

Initial loans are made to projects with no existing Agency loan. Most initial loans are made to build new properties. However, the Agency does make initial loans for rehabilitation of existing properties when it is in the Agency's best interest.

The interest rate for these loans is set at the note rate established in RD Instruction 440.1. The Agency then provides interest credit assistance, which reduces the effective interest rate to 1 percent¹. Interest credit is only provided for units occupied by eligible tenants paying at least 30 percent of their income for rent. The administration of interest credit is covered in Chapter 7 and also in HB-3-3560.

The Agency establishes the term of these loans to correspond to the expected useful life of the property. The maximum term is 30 years with a 50-year amortization period.

¹ Some existing projects do not receive interest credit, while others receive interest credit that reduces the interest rate to three percent. However, all initial loans made by the Agency following the publication of this handbook will receive interest credit as described here.

B. Subsequent Loans

Subsequent loans can be issued during the term of an Agency loan to help an existing borrower pay for repairs or improvements to the property or in conjunction with the transfer of a property where the purchaser is assuming the initial Agency loan. The key differences between processing requirements for subsequent and initial Section 515 loans are discussed in Chapter 11 of HB-1-3560. Guidance regarding the requirements and procedures for processing project transfers is covered in the HB-3-3560. Subsequent loans may also be used to finance equity to avert prepayment of the project.

C. Assumed Loans

Section 515 loans may be assumed in conjunction with the transfer of ownership of the property. The terms and conditions of the assumption depend upon the needs of the project at the time of the transfer.

1. New Rates and Terms Assumption

Most assumptions of Section 515 loans are new rates and terms assumptions—that is, the purchaser assumes responsibility for all or a portion of the remaining debt. To conserve the Agency’s budgetary resources, the transaction does not involve paying off the old loan and issuing a new initial loan. Instead, the purchaser assumes the outstanding debt, which is reamortized at new rates and terms. New rates and terms assumptions are used when the purchaser will experience financial difficulties under the terms of the initial loan or when a change in rates and terms is necessary to facilitate the transfer. Purchasers may apply for subsequent loans to make up the difference between the amount of debt assumed and the purchase price or to address physical needs at the project.

2. Same Rates and Terms Assumption

Transfers may also take place in conjunction with a same rates and terms assumption. Under this type of assumption, the existing note terms, including the interest rate and the remaining repayment period, do not change.

2.5 PREFERENCE FOR PROJECTS THAT LEVERAGE OTHER FUNDS

To maximize the number of units produced with Section 515 loan funds, the Agency gives preference to project applications for new loans that leverage other funds, thereby reducing the amount of Section 515 loan funds needed to develop the project. The greater the leveraging proposed in a project application, the greater the preference for funding. Examples of funds that count as leveraged funds include borrower resources beyond the minimum required amount, equity generated by the sale of low-income housing tax credits (LIHTCs), a second loan from another lender, or a grant from a state or local public agency or other source.

SECTION 2: Section 514/516 Program

2.6 TYPES OF PROJECTS

The Section 514/516 Farm Labor Housing program provides funds to support the development of housing for farm labor. Section 514/516 assistance differs from the Section 515 loans in the following ways:

- The objective of the program is to provide housing for farmworkers;
- There are no rural restrictions; and
- Agency grants are available to support the development of these projects.

Section 514/516 assistance may be used for Off-Farm Labor Housing projects. On-Farm Labor Housing projects may receive only 514 assistance. They are not eligible for grants (Section 516). Section 514 assistance may be used in conjunction with Federal LIHTCs.

A. Off-Farm Labor Housing

The Agency is authorized to make loans and grants for financing off-farm labor housing to broad-based nonprofit organizations; nonprofit organizations of farmworkers; Federally-recognized Indian tribes, agencies or political subdivisions of state or local government; and public agencies (such as local housing authorities). Section 514 loans can be made to limited partnerships in which the general partner is a nonprofit entity.

B. On-Farm Labor Housing

On-farm labor housing is designed to provide adequate housing for farmworkers involved in a specific farming operation. Individual farmers, family farm corporations or partnerships, or associations of farmers may develop these projects but must operate them on a nonprofit basis. To qualify for occupancy, an individual or a household must simply be employed as part of the farming operation. There is no income restriction governing occupancy. However, immediate family members of individuals with an ownership interest in the farm are prohibited from living in this housing on the property.

2.7 LOANS AND GRANTS

A. Farm Labor Housing Loans

Section 514 loans for Farm Labor Housing projects are very similar to Section 515 loans. However, they differ in two important ways:

- These loans carry a 1 percent effective interest rate (i.e., there is no interest credit); and
- The maximum term for these loans is 33 years.

These loans can be used to finance either Off-Farm or On-Farm Labor Housing projects.

At one time, loans for both types of projects were processed on a first-come, first-served basis. Today, lending decisions regarding loans for Off-Farm Labor Housing projects are handled through a competitive NOFA process, while loans for On-Farm Labor Housing projects are still processed in the order that they are received. Chapter 12 of HB-1-3560 provides more detailed information about the origination process for Farm Labor Housing loans.

B. Farm Labor Housing Grants

Section 516 grants may only be used to support the development of Off-Farm Labor Housing projects. These grants may be used for the same purposes as Section 514 loans when there is reasonable doubt that the housing would not be provided without the grant. Chapter 12 of HB-1-3560 provides more information about the origination process for these grants.

2.8 PREFERENCE FOR PROJECTS THAT LEVERAGE OTHER FUNDS

Like the Section 515 program, the Agency gives preference to applications for Off-Farm Labor Housing projects that leverage other sources of funds. There is no leveraging preference for On-Farm Labor Housing applications.

2.9 OVERVIEW

The Section 521 Rental Assistance program provides assistance to individual residents of Agency financed multi-family projects. Rent subsidies under the Rental Assistance Program ensure that elderly, disabled, and low-income residents of multi-family housing projects financed by RHS are able to afford rent payments. With the help of the Rental Assistance Program, a qualified applicant/tenant pays no more than 30 percent of his or her income for housing.

Residents of multi-family housing projects built under both the Rural Rental Housing Program (Section 515) and the Farm Labor Housing Program (Section 514) are eligible to apply for the Rental Assistance Program. Not all residents of RHS-financed housing developments receive rental assistance.

The Agency and the project owner execute a contract in which the Agency commits payments on behalf of tenants in a designated number of the units. Both the Agency and the project owner agree to be bound by all applicable Agency regulations. The contract becomes effective on the first day of the month in which it is executed (additional units may be covered if funds are available and an additional contract is executed). The agreement may be renewed as many times as funds are made available. State Directors may transfer unused and unneeded contracts or portions of contracts to other projects.

2.10 SECTION 515 & 514/516 PROGRAM

A. Section 515

Owners of Section 515 projects located in areas where prospective applicants are likely to be overburdened by rent or where existing tenants are already overburdened can apply for rental assistance administered by the Agency.

B. Section 514/516

Off-Farm Labor Housing projects may also apply for rental assistance administered by the Agency. The requirements for obtaining rental assistance are the same as for Section 515 projects. Operating assistance may be used in lieu of tenant-specific rental assistance in off-farm labor housing projects financed under Section 514 or Section 516 that serve migrant farm workers. On-Farm Labor Housing projects are not eligible for rental assistance.

SECTION 4: ASSET MANAGEMENT FRAMEWORK

2.11 ASSET MANAGEMENT

The goal of the Agency's asset management procedures is to ensure that projects receiving Agency financing operate in a manner consistent with the program's objectives and comply with applicable requirements. Accordingly, this handbook covers the following aspects of project operation and oversight:

- Project Management;
- Financial Management;
- Physical Condition of the Project;
- Project Occupancy;
- Project Rents; and
- Rental Subsidies.

It presents the program requirements in each of these areas and describes the Agency's procedures for monitoring properties to ensure that borrowers, their agents, and tenants are fulfilling their responsibilities.

In addressing each topic area, the handbook first presents the requirements and procedures for Section 515 rental projects and then discusses differences or additional requirements for other types of projects (e.g., congregate housing, Farm Labor housing, cooperatives).

2.12 KEY ASSET MANAGEMENT ACTIVITIES AND DOCUMENTS

A. Key Agency Activities

The Agency uses the same basic procedures to oversee the performance of all types of multi-family housing projects that it directly finances. While the Agency's oversight activities are essentially the same for all types of projects, the aspects of borrower performance examined during these activities will vary by type of project due to differences in requirements.

Asset Management

Asset management refers to Agency oversight of project performance to ensure that operation of the property furthers the program's objectives and complies with applicable Agency requirements.

Agency oversight activities fall into three major categories:

- Oversight of new projects or borrowers;
- Annual oversight activities; and
- Periodic oversight activities.

The specific activities in each category are summarized in Exhibit 2-1.

Exhibit 2-1
Key Asset Management Activities
Agency Actions for New Projects: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Conduct pre-occupancy meeting; • Conduct post occupancy review; • Review project worksheets; and • Review of quarterly/monthly reports. Annual Agency Actions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Review project worksheets; • Review of project annual financial report; • Annual review of project reserve account (new); • Annual physical review; • Review and approval of project budget for the coming year; • Respond to evidence of potential compliance concerns (e.g., substantiated tenant complaints, reports by other Agency staff or offices, information provided by public or other agency); and • Respond to servicing requests from borrowers. Periodic Agency Actions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Perform physical inspection of project; • Perform occupancy review of project; • Perform supervisory visit; and • Conduct compliance reviews. All of the above require follow-up to address deficiencies.

B. Key Documents

Borrowers' responsibilities under the program and evidence that they are complying with program requirements are established through program loan and grant documents. The key program documents used in Agency asset management activities are listed in Exhibit 2-2.

Exhibit 2-2 Key Program Documents <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mortgage or deed of trust; • Promissory Note; • Loan agreement/resolution; • Grant agreement; • Interest credit and rental assistance agreement; • Rental assistance agreement; • Management plan; • Management certification; • Management agreement; • Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan; • Project worksheet; • Utility allowance documentation; • Tenant certification; • Dwelling lease; • Project budget; • Annual financial report for project; and • Agency Monitoring Forms.

2.13 ASSET MANAGEMENT PROCEDURES FOR MULTI-FAMILY HOUSING PROJECTS

Chapters 3 through 9 describe the program requirements for Section 515 and 514/516 projects.

A. Property Management (Chapter 3)

Borrowers must comply with a number of program requirements regarding general project management functions. The borrower’s plans for project management are documented in management documents (the management plan and management entity profile). The Agency must also approve the project’s management agent and review management fees for reasonableness.

B. Financial Management (Chapter 4)

Borrowers must establish project financial management systems and procedures that reflect the complexity of project operations and provide adequate supervision to ensure that program objectives are met. The Agency has specific requirements regarding project accounting, budgeting, financial reporting, and project annual financial reports. The borrower’s accounting system identified in the management plan must comply with the Agency’s chart of accounts. The Agency will monitor project accounts through project reports and monitoring visits to the site. The Agency approves the budget on an annual basis and reviews financial reports on an ongoing basis.

C. Project Physical Conditions (Chapter 5)

Borrowers are responsible for maintaining their projects' physical conditions to meet program standards for decent, safe, and sanitary housing. Loan Servicers will monitor the quality of the housing through regular physical inspections of the property as well as through the budget process. The Agency will review the borrower's capital budget planning and approve reserve withdrawals for capital improvements. In the event that a borrower fails to meet program standards, Loan Servicers are responsible for ensuring that the borrower takes appropriate actions to correct physical deficiencies.

D. Project Occupancy (Chapter 6)

Loan Servicers will monitor borrowers' compliance with program occupancy rules, ensuring that tenant eligibility requirements are observed and occupancy policies are consistently followed. The borrower must market the project to all eligible applicants and process applications, select tenants, and assign units in a fair and consistent manner. Borrower must also observe Agency rules regarding dwelling leases, tenant recertification, termination of occupancy, and tenant grievance procedures. Loan Servicers will check compliance with these requirements through regular reports and monitoring visits to the site.

E. Rents, Shelter Cost, and Utility Allowances (Chapter 7)

Loan Servicers will review projects to ensure that the borrower establishes appropriate rents, occupancy charges, and utility allowances for individual units and, on an annual basis, review budgets to approve or deny requests for rent changes. Loan Servicers will also ensure that the borrower meets all requirements in handling the following:

- Tenant rent payments during evictions;
- Tenant security deposits; and
- Cases of tenant fraud.

F. Rental Subsidies (Chapter 8)

A multi-family housing project may have one or more types of rental subsidy including Agency rental assistance (RA), HUD Section 8, or other local forms of rental subsidy. Loan Servicers must ensure that borrowers comply with requirements to use RA appropriately. Only eligible projects, units, and tenants may receive rental subsidies. The borrower must enter into a rental subsidy agreement with the appropriate agency. Agency staff has administrative responsibilities for RA including suspending or transferring RA, replacing expiring RA agreements, and processing borrower requests for additional RA, modifying RA agreements and agency oversight of borrower performance.

G. Agency Monitoring (Chapter 9)

Loan Servicers must perform regular reviews of multi-family housing projects to monitor project performance and ensure compliance with program regulations and civil rights laws. Loan Servicers will make efforts to plan and prioritize monitoring activities to focus on the projects that need the most Agency attention. Borrowers will submit reports on an ongoing basis (either monthly or quarterly, as needed) to provide the Agency with much of the information needed to monitor project performance. However, Field Office Staff will also perform site visits as part of annual reviews, physical inspections, and supervisory visit.

CHAPTER 3: PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

3.1 INTRODUCTION

This chapter provides an overview of the essential responsibilities for property management. In general, the borrower is responsible for providing management acceptable to the Agency both in terms of staff qualifications and management practices. The borrower must ensure that property operations comply with the terms of all loan or grant documents; Agency requirements; and applicable local, state, and Federal laws and ordinances. For many project management responsibilities, the Agency must approve or concur in the management decisions and policies of the borrower. This chapter is designed to identify those actions that require Agency reaction to the borrower's decision.

Section 1 of this chapter deals specifically with property management, including Agency approval of the proposed management agent and management certification. It also describes the Agency's requirements regarding items that must be addressed in the borrower's management plan; and civil rights and accessibility requirements, self-evaluations, and transition plans.

Section 2 discusses the requirements for acceptable management entities and the Agency's procedures for reviewing and approving new management entities. It also outlines the Agency's procedures for removing unacceptable management entities.

Section 3 describes the program requirements regarding allowable management fees to be paid out of project income and Agency procedures for assessing the reasonableness of the fees.

Section 4 addresses the required insurance coverage and real estate taxes for projects.

Section 5 discusses the project management requirements and procedures that differ for Farm Labor Housing projects.

SECTION 1: PROJECT MANAGEMENT [7 CFR 3560.102]

3.2 OVERVIEW OF PROJECT MANAGEMENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Borrowers must provide management acceptable to the Agency as a condition of loan or grant approval. The borrower requirements listed in this chapter may be complied with by the borrower or a person designated in writing by the borrower. Acceptable management will be documented in the management plan and management certification.

3.3 THE MANAGEMENT PLAN [7 CFR 3560.102(b)]

For each multi-family housing project, borrowers must develop and maintain a management plan that establishes the systems and procedures that will be employed at the project to ensure that project operations comply with Agency requirements. This plan is used by the Agency to guide its oversight of project operations and its monitoring of project compliance. The management plan should provide the Agency with information regarding site operations only, not about management agent central office functions.

A management plan is initially submitted as part of the borrower's application for funding. It remains in effect until such time as the Agency requires modification of the plan, the plan needs to be updated to reflect changes occurring in project operations, or the project is transferred from one borrower to another.

A. New Projects

1. Requirements for Submitting a Management Plan

For new projects, borrowers must submit a management plan that addresses the required items identified in Attachment 3-A in sufficient detail to enable the Agency to effectively monitor project performance.

If the Agency determines that a proposed management plan does not adequately address the required items, Loan Processing Staff will provide written notice to the borrower indicating the deficiencies and specifying a time period for submission of an acceptable plan.

No Agency loan will be closed, construction started, or transfer approved before the Agency has an acceptable management plan from the borrower.

2. Contents of a Management Plan

At a minimum, management plans for multi-family housing projects must address the items presented in Attachment 3-A.

3. Agency Review of a Proposed Management Plan

In reviewing a proposed management plan, the Agency must ensure that it does not contain policies that violate Agency regulations and that it provides adequate details regarding the items in Attachment 3-A for the Agency to effectively monitor project compliance with program requirements.

B. Existing Projects

1. General Requirements for Maintaining and Modifying a Management Plan

In accordance with the requirements of this chapter, the borrower must develop and maintain a management plan acceptable to the Agency. A borrower's failure to maintain an acceptable plan is grounds for Agency termination of the management agent. This management plan will remain the guiding management document, as long as it accurately reflects project operations and the borrower remains in compliance with Agency rules and regulations.

Borrowers must submit an updated management plan to the Agency if project operations change and are no longer consistent with the current management plan on file with the Agency. The Agency should expect to see a modified management plan when:

- Project operations change to meet the needs of a changing tenant population;

- Program requirements change; or
- Changes in subsidy levels or types occur (e.g., HUD Section 8 is converted to Rental Assistance and/or units are reduced) or the property is converted to another allowable use (e.g., changed from a family property to an elderly property).

When a housing project is transferred from one borrower to another, the transferee must submit a new management plan that addresses the items listed in Attachment 3-A.

2. Agency Request for and Review of a Modified Management Plan

If the Agency determines that project operations are in compliance with Agency requirements; loan or grant agreements; or applicable local, state, and Federal laws but are not consistent with the management plan, the Agency will notify the borrower of the discrepancy in writing and indicate that the existing plan is no longer acceptable. Upon receiving notice that project operations are not consistent with the current management plan, borrowers must take one of the following actions within 60 days from the date of the Agency's letter:

- Revise the management plan to accurately reflect housing operations;
- Take actions to ensure that the management plan is followed; or
- Advise the Agency in writing of the action taken.

If the borrower submits a modified management plan, the Agency will review the plan for the necessary changes and ensure that the plan adequately addresses the requirements of the discrepancy. The Agency may visit the project or management agent's office to ensure that documented changes have occurred.

C. Three-Year Borrower Certification of Adequacy of Plan

When there have been no changes in a project's operations, borrowers must submit a certification to the Agency every 3 years stating that the project operations are consistent with the current management plan and that the plan is adequate to ensure project compliance with the loan documents and the applicable requirements of this part (see Attachment 3-B).

D. Projects with Compliance Violations

1. Agency Notification to the Borrower

If the Agency determines that there are compliance violations at a project, the borrower must respond to the Agency notification and update the management plan in accordance with the requirements below. If the borrower does not fulfill the requirements of this section, the Agency will deem the management plan for the project unacceptable, and the borrower/agent may be subject to termination of their management agreement.

2. Borrower Response to Agency Notification

Upon receiving notice of compliance violations at a project, borrowers must address the violations in accordance with 7 CFR 3560.102(d) and update the management plan as follows:

- Borrowers must submit to the Agency, within 60 days, revisions to the management plan that establish the changes in project operation that will restore project compliance; and
- If the borrower determines that changes to the management plan are not needed because the compliance violations were due to a failure to follow the current management plan, the borrower must certify to the Agency that the management plan is adequate to ensure project compliance with the applicable requirements of this part. Borrowers must submit a written description of the actions that will be taken, including timeframes for restoring compliance with the current management plan and Agency rules and regulations.

E. Continued Management Discrepancies

If the Agency discovers continued discrepancies between a project’s management plan and project operations, the Agency retains the authority to terminate the current management agreement and require the borrower to install a new management entity acceptable to the Agency.

3.4 THE MANAGEMENT CERTIFICATION

As a condition of Agency approval of the management agent and the management fee, the borrower and the management entity must execute a Form RD 3560-13, Management Certification, and submit this to the Agency each time the borrower proposes a management agent and a management agreement is executed. The borrower and the management agent must jointly submit the certification to the Agency to attest that:

- The borrower and management agent agree to operate the housing project in accordance with the management plan;
- The borrower and management entity will comply with Agency requirements and contract obligations, agree that no payments have been made to anyone in return for awarding the management contract to the management agent, and ensure that such payments will not be made in the future;
- The borrower and the management agent will comply with Agency handbooks, notices, and other policy directives that relate to the management of the housing project;
- The management agreement between the borrower and the management entity complies with the requirements described in this chapter;

- The borrower and the management agent will refrain from purchasing goods and services from entities that have identity-of-interest (IOI) relationships with the borrower or the management agent until the IOI relationship has been disclosed to the Agency and not denied by the Agency; and
- The borrower, management agent, and supplier of goods and services agree that all records relating to the housing project are the property of the project, the Agency, and the Agency's representatives.

The management certification also requires that the borrower and the management agent identify any and all IOI relationships that would involve project funds. Form RD 3560-13 must be submitted to the Agency.

For management agents proposing IOI firms to provide goods and services to Agency properties, a fee schedule of these goods and services must be attached to Form RD 3560-31, Identity of Interest Disclosure/Qualification Certificate. The Agency must approve the borrower's use of such firms prior to the borrower entering into any contractual relationships that involve Agency funds with such entities.

After the borrower or management agent discloses an IOI relationship in Form RD 3560-31, the Agency will:

- Require the borrower, management entity, and supplier of goods and services to provide documentation proving that use of IOI firms is in the best interest of the housing project;
- Require that all suppliers of goods and services agree to certify in writing to the Agency that the individual or organization proposed is qualified and licensed, if appropriate;
- Require the borrower, management entity, and supplier of goods and services to agree in writing to make available all records relating to the housing project to the Agency or the Agency's representative; and
- Deny the use of an IOI firm when the Agency determines that using the firm is not in the best interest of the Federal Government or the tenants.

A. The Role of the Management Agreement

While the management certification replaces the need for the Agency to approve the management agreement, it does not eliminate the need for the borrower and the agent to execute a management agreement. By executing the management certification, the borrower and the agent are assuring Agency staff that an acceptable agreement has been executed. Agency staff may review this agreement during the supervisory visit. Borrowers operating owner-managed projects are not required to execute a management agreement.

B. Agency Approval of the Management Certification

A certification must be submitted for Agency approval prior to the initial approval of the management agent. Subsequent certifications must be submitted for Agency approval when any of the following occurs:

- An increase in the management fee is requested;
- A new management agent is proposed; or
- A management agreement expires and a new agreement is executed or renewed.

The borrower must submit a new certification to the Agency for approval at least 45 days prior to the date of the proposed change. The Agency will return the approved or denied certification within 30 days of receipt.

3.5 SELF-EVALUATIONS AND TRANSITION PLANS

On June 11, 1982, USDA issued 7 CFR 15b, which required all borrowers to conduct self-evaluations of their facilities, policies and procedures for compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Uniform Federal Accessibility Standards (UFAS), within 1 year of the USDA regulation. Information related to these compliance issues as they affect Section 514, 515, 516, and 521 housing may be found in answers to frequently asked questions in Appendix 5. In the event that structural changes were necessary, recipients were required to develop transition plans that set forth the steps necessary to complete such changes.

Borrowers may become liable for fines and penalties imposed by enforcement agencies, loss of tax credits, or legal actions if found in noncompliance with civil rights laws. The Agency does not impose these fines and penalties, but will follow regulatory, supervisory, servicing procedures and loan eligibility requirements when noncompliance is found.

A. Borrowers Required to Conduct Self-Evaluations and Develop Transition Plans

The following borrowers must conduct self-evaluations and develop transition plans:

- Borrowers of projects ready for occupancy on or before June 10, 1982.
- Borrowers of projects ready for occupancy after June 10, 1982, who have been found in noncompliance with Civil Rights law (as a remedial action).
- Borrowers who have had complaints filed against them, when the Agency determines it necessary.
- Borrowers transferring ownership.
- Borrowers of projects receiving rehabilitation or equity loans, when the Agency determines it necessary.

- Borrowers receiving loans for new construction after August 20, 2002. The Agency will review the self-evaluation and any transition plan during the preoccupancy conference.
- All state and local government borrower entities. The Department of Justice issued a regulation on July 26, 1991, which requires all state and local governments to conduct self-evaluations, unless they had already done so to meet the requirements of Section 504.
- Borrowers receiving loans after January 1, 2001, if a self-evaluation has not been conducted within the last 3 years.

B. Standards Borrowers Must Meet

Regardless of when a project was ready for occupancy, all borrowers are required to have policies and practices that do not discriminate against persons with disabilities. The architectural accessibility standards borrowers must meet will depend on when the project was ready for occupancy and what modifications are planned. In addition, many state and local governments have their own accessibility standards that must be met. The Agency does not have the authority to waive any accessibility requirements.

C. Self-Evaluation and Transition Plan Requirements

1. Self-Evaluations

In accordance with 7 CFR 15b, self-evaluations must:

- With the assistance of interested persons, including persons with disabilities or organizations representing disabled persons, evaluate their current policies and practices and the effects thereof;
- After consultation with interested persons, including disabled persons or organizations representing disabled persons, modify any policies and practices that do not meet the requirements of this part;
- After consultation with interested persons, including disabled persons or organizations representing disabled persons, take appropriate remedial steps to eliminate the effects of any discrimination that resulted from adherence to these policies and practices that do not meet the requirements of this part; and
- Maintain a record of the self-evaluation for at least 3 years. The record must be made available for public inspection and be provided to the Agency upon request. The self-evaluation record must contain:
 - ◇ A list of the interested persons consulted;
 - ◇ A description of areas examined and any problems identified; and

- ◇ A description of any modifications made and any remedial steps taken.

2. Transition Plans

At a minimum, transition plans must:

- Identify physical obstacles in the borrower's facilities that limit the accessibility of their property to disabled persons;
- Describe in detail the methods that would be used to make the facilities accessible;
- Specify the schedule for taking the steps necessary to achieve full program accessibility and if the time period of the transition plan is longer than 1 year, identify steps that will be taken during each year of the transition period; and
- Identify the person responsible for implementation of the plan.

When structural changes are necessary, such changes must be made as expeditiously as possible within 3 years.

SECTION 2: APPROVING, REMOVING, AND REVIEWING THE MANAGEMENT AGENT [7 CFR 3560.102]

3.6 THE MANAGEMENT AGENT

A. Acceptable Types of Management Entities

Exhibit 3-1 shows the three types of management entities.

Exhibit 3-1

Three Types of Management Entities

A. Borrower/manager
B. IOI management agent
C. Independent fee management agent

In this Handbook, the term “management agent” applies to all three forms of management entities, unless a specific distinction is made because of policy or procedural differences.

1. Borrower/Manager

In the borrower/manager relationship, the borrower and the management agent are the same business entity. This is often referred to as “self-management or owner-managed.” A project is not self-managed if some or all of the same individuals are involved in both the borrower entity and the management agent but the organizations are legally different business entities.

For example, if the borrower is a limited partnership and the general partner of the borrower entity serves as the management agent, the management agent is not a borrower/manager because the management agent and the borrower are different business entities. Instead, the management agent is an identity-of-interest management agent.

2. Identity-of-Interest Management Agent

An IOI relationship exists when an individual or entity that provides goods, management, or other services to the project has a relationship with the project borrower that is such that selection of the management agent and determination of the management fee will not be determined through an arms-length transaction. Exhibit 3-2 further describes this relationship.

Failure to disclose such IOI relationships may subject the borrower, the management agent, and other firms or employees among whom the IOI relationship exists to suspension, debarment, or other remedies available to the Agency.

Exhibit 3-2

Identity-of-Interest Relationships

An IOI relationship exists when:

- The borrower entity, any principal of, or a general partner of the borrower entity; or
- Any officer or director of the borrower entity; or
- Any person who directly or indirectly controls 10 percent or more of the voting rights, or owns 10 percent or more of the borrower entity is also

- A borrower, general partner, officer, or director of the management agent company or its subcontractor; or
- A person who directly or indirectly controls 10 percent or more of the voting rights, or owns 10 percent or more of the management company or its subcontractor.

As used above, “person” refers to any individual, partnership, corporation, or other business entity. Any borrowship, control, or interest held or possessed by a person’s spouse, parent, child, grandchild, or sibling or other relation by blood or marriage is attributed to that person for this determination.

As used above, “subcontractor” refers to any individual or company that contracts with the management agent to provide management services to the project.

3. Independent Fee Management Agent

An independent fee management agent is a management company or individual that has no IOI relationship with the borrower and no financial interest or involvement in the project, other than earning a fee for providing management services.

B. Approval of the Proposed Management Entity

A management entity will be deemed acceptable by the Agency provided that the agent or staff member has a minimum of 2 years of experience and satisfactory performance in directing and overseeing the management of similar Federally assisted multi-family housing. Management services are a lower-tier transaction and subject to debarment and suspension check by the Agency in accordance with 7 CFR 3017 and RD Instruction 1940-M. Management entities found to have been disbarred are not eligible for approval by the Agency.

In addition, the Agency may issue approval to a management agent if the agent’s Form RD 1944-37 shows that a small percentage of the properties it has managed are either in default or have a mortgage delinquency and either one of the following can be documented:

- The default or delinquency was due to circumstances beyond its control; or

- The agent is making satisfactory progress toward improving the problem property's operations.

The Agency reserves the right to deny approval of any proposed management entity that does not meet such requirements. The Agency may issue a denial of a proposed management agent if:

- The agent and/or its staff does not have 2 years of experience successfully managing Section 514, 515, or 516 properties as relevant or other assisted housing;
- If the agent's Form RD 1944-37, shows that a substantial percentage of the properties it has managed are either in default or have a mortgage delinquency; or
- If the agent's Form RD 1944-37, shows that a small percentage of the properties it has managed are either in default or have a mortgage delinquency and the management agent is not addressing the property's or properties' deficiencies.

To request approval of the management entity, the borrower/agent must submit the following information to the project's Field Office at least 45 days before the date the borrower wishes the new agent to assume responsibility. In the case of emergency replacements of management agents, the borrower/agent must submit the information needed for the Agency to review and approve the new management agent as soon as the new agent is identified. Borrowers must submit the following documents when requesting Agency approval of an agent:

- Management plan. The management plan establishes the systems and procedures that will be employed onsite to ensure that project operations comply with Agency requirements. Form RD 1944-37, must be included as an attachment to the management plan.
- Management certification. Using Form RD-3560-13, the borrower and management agent together certify that they will comply with Agency requirements and contract obligations and will execute an acceptable management agent agreement, and that no payments have been made to the borrower in return for awarding the management contract to the agent nor will such payments be made in the future.
- RD Forms 3560-30 Certification of No Identity of Interest or 3560-31 Disclosure and Qualification of Identity of Interest, as applicable.
- Additional information required by the Field Office. Agency staff may require borrowers to submit additional information to clarify materials already submitted. Materials requested may address:
 - ◇ Determining the management agent's acceptability;
 - ◇ Monitoring the agent's compliance with Agency requirements;

- ◇ Resolving project operating problems; and
- ◇ Justification of contractual relationship with IOI or third-party contractors.

The Agency must review all items listed above within 30 days of receipt. The review will consist of the following:

- Review of Previous Participation Certification. If the management agent is new to the Agency and manages properties assisted by HUD, local public housing agencies, and State housing finance agencies, the servicing jurisdiction must obtain references from the appropriate jurisdiction on the management agent's past performance. For instance, if the management agent has managed HUD properties, then the Agency is required to contact the appropriate HUD Field Office and obtain a reference or request that HUD provide a copy of the most recent Form RD 1944-37.
- Review of the proposed management plan. This review ensures compliance with the Agency's submission requirements and determines if the proposed systems and procedures:
 - ◇ Are in compliance with Agency requirements;
 - ◇ Can reasonably be implemented at the project; and
 - ◇ Are reasonably tailored to the particulars of the project.

Within 30 days of receipt of information from the borrower/management agent, the Agency will inform the borrower of its decision in writing.

If the Agency grants approval, the borrower may enter into a contract with the management agent to begin no sooner than 45 days from the date of submission of the approval package.

If the Agency issues a denial, the borrower will be provided with appeal rights. The borrower may not enter into a formal agreement with the management agent being reviewed by the Agency. If a borrower enters into an agreement with a management agent or begins to self-manage prior to receiving Agency approval, the Agency will place the borrower in nonmonetary default status. The Agency will ask the borrower, if not in a self-management arrangement, to immediately terminate the contract with the management entity. Under emergency circumstances, with Agency consent, the borrower may enter into a temporary agreement with a different management entity for 30 days.

C. Use of Management Entities without Agency Approval

If a borrower enters into an agreement or contract with a management entity that has not been approved by the Agency, the Agency is authorized to immediately terminate the borrower's agreement or contract with that entity. This action is not appealable.

3.7 REMOVAL OF A MANAGEMENT AGENT

As permitted in the management certification, the Agency reserves the right to remove the management agent for lack of performance or deliberate fraud against the project or the Government. Some specific reasons for requiring removal of a management agent are listed in Exhibit 3-3. Other reasons also may apply.

Exhibit 3-3
Specific Reasons for Requiring Removal of a Management Agent
A. Lack of performance:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Failure to adhere to the provisions of the management certification; • Repeated failure to adhere to the management plan; and • Noncompliance with applicable state and local laws.
B. Fraud against the project and/or Government:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Misappropriation of project funds; • Paying kickbacks to contractors, subcontractors, or service providers; and • Deliberately requesting more Rental Assistance than that to which the project is entitled.

If the Agency determines that the management agent is in violation of the management certification, the Agency will:

- Send a servicing letter, Handbook Letter 301 (3560), Servicing Letter #1, notifying the borrower of the violation;
- State that the management agent must prove that there was no violation or that there were mitigating circumstances, and the borrower must respond to the Agency within 30 days of the receipt of the servicing letter;
- If the borrower does not respond satisfactory within the prescribed time period with either (1) documentation that the violation did not take place, or (2) a plan to address the violation within a certain period of time that is acceptable to the Agency, the Agency will send the borrower a second servicing letter, Handbook Letter 302 (3560), Servicing Letter #2; and
- If the borrower does not respond within the prescribed time period in the second servicing letter, the Agency will send a third servicing letter, Handbook Letter 303 (3560), Servicing Letter #3 indicating that the management certification will be terminated by a certain date. As of that date, no management fees may be paid to the agent from project funds. If the information reveals that management fees were paid to the agent subsequent to termination of the management certification, the borrower will be required to reimburse the funds to the project operating account.

If the borrower is required by the Agency to remove the management agent, they must do so under the timeframe required by the Agency or file an official appeal, as described in Chapter 1, stating why they believe the agent should not be removed. Failure on the part of the borrower to comply with Agency demands to remove the agent may result in acceleration of the loan and debarment from further participation in Agency programs.

SECTION 3: SETTING THE MANAGEMENT FEE [7 CFR 3560.102]

3.8 THE MANAGEMENT FEE

A. The Purpose of the Management Fee

The purpose of the management fee, which is an allowable expense paid from the housing project’s general operating account, is to compensate the management agent for services provided to the project. These services are described in Attachment 3-D.

B. Types of Management Fees

There are two major types of fees that, when added together, make up the overall management fee for a project:

- Occupied unit fee; and
- Add-on fees.

The occupied unit fee is the largest component of the management fee. It must be quoted and calculated as a per-unit, per-month (pupm) fee for units occupied during a given month. This requirement gives the agent an incentive to maximize occupancy.

Add-on fees are quoted as dollar-per-unit amounts because they relate to project conditions that are not a function of project occupancy.

1. Occupied Unit Fee

In order to establish the base fee, States survey and collect management fee data from other assisted housing sources such as local Housing and Urban Development field offices, State Housing Finance Agencies, Housing Authorities, local housing organizations, and nonprofits. To provide consistency, the States are divided into Regions. In order to accommodate the travel requirements for servicing properties within Alaska and Hawaii, a separate region has been created. Each Region identifies a Coordinating State. This State is responsible for the coordination between the States, the dissemination of information to the States and all submissions to the National Office. The Regions are identified as follows:

REGION I: CT, MA, ME, NH, RI, VT

REGION II: NJ, NY

REGION III: DE, MD, PA, VA, WV

REGION IV: AL, FL, GA, KY, MS, NC, PR, SC, TN, VI

REGION V: IL, IN, MI, MN, OH, WI

REGION VI: AR, LA, NM, OK, TX

REGION VII: IA, KS, MO, NE

REGION VIII: CO, MT, ND, SD, UT, WY

REGION IX: AZ, CA, NV

REGION X: ID, OR, WA

REGION XI: AK, HI

Each Region as defined above collaborates to derive a median pupm fee known as the Regional Median. A range of $5 higher or lower than the Regional Median is the Regional Range. Ex: Regional Median = $25 pupm; Regional Range = $20 pupm to $30 pupm.

Each State derives a single pupm fee within the established Median Range (of the region) to be used by all management companies within that State. Please note that the Regional Median fees are to assist States in determining a maximum pupm fee in their State. Borrowers and management agents may negotiate fees less than the State pupm fee.

For example: The Regional Median is $30 pupm. The Regional Range is $25 to $35 pupm. The State has derived a fee of $33 pupm. The borrower and the management agent have agreed on a fee of $29 pupm. The agreed upon fee is acceptable.

Each Region provides information about the organizations within its States, documents contacts and provides a description of the fee structure used by the source organizations. The description should include the amount of the management fee, how the management fee was established, and a 'bundle of services' comparability synopsis.

The State Directors within the Region review the State documentation and provide a signature of approval for the State pupm fee. The Coordinating State submits the completed worksheets and any additional information to the National Office.

If States within a Region are unable to negotiate a Regional Median, the National Office will determine the Regional Median. If a single state within a Region is unable to negotiate with the other states in the Region, the National Office will determine the state maximum fee for that state.

2. Add-On Fees

Add-on fees are a flat pupm fee paid to agents managing projects with long-term project characteristics and conditions that require additional management effort beyond the activities covered by the residential management fee. For example, scattered-site projects will often require greater management effort than single-site projects.

- The National Office has established a standard list of add-on fees that is applicable to all states.
- Exhibit 3-4 lists examples of project characteristics or conditions that may warrant the use of add-on fees.

Add-on fees should not cover project characteristics or conditions that are already covered in the base fee. Agents may not take add-on fees for management of properties with workout agreements except under limited circumstances, and solely at the Agency’s discretion. If it is demonstrated that conditions at the property are beyond the management agent’s control, the Agency may agree to allow the management agent to take add-ons fees for the circumstances listed in Exhibit 3-4.

Exhibit 3-4
Examples of Circumstances Under Which Add-On Fees May Be Used
Type of Add-on Fees	PUPM
Management of properties with 15 units or less	$2.00
One project that has buildings located on different noncontiguous parcels of land (i.e. across town or in another town).	$2.00
Management of properties in a *remote location	$2.00
Troubled properties with workout plans and new management only.	$2.00

* “Remote location” is defined as areas that are sparsely populated with no services and few contractors.

The established fees available on Attachment 3-G must be reflected in the proposed budgets for the fiscal year 2006 (for borrowers with operating budgets beginning January 1st). Borrowers are required to convert to the new fees upon expiration of the current Management Agreement or its renewal.

The Regions will review the regional median annually. The region may opt to update the current median by repeating the ‘bundle of services’ comparability synopsis or use the consumer price index (CPI) as the escalating factor for the fees in the region. Each region will be required to resubmit its ‘bundle of services’ comparability synopsis to the National Office every three years.

The Agency’s decision regarding the amount of management fees set by the region and the state is unappealable.

C. Management Fee Conversions

If management agents are charging a fee calculated as a percentage of the amount of income collected by the projects, the Agency will require them to convert to pupm fees.

For properties converting from a percentage fee to a pupm fee, the percentage fee should be translated to a per-unit level using the average vacancy rate over the last 12 months.

The examples show how management fees would be calculated under the new pupm system for the project described in the previous example. As stated above, a management fee may be collected for each unit that is occupied for all or part of a given month.

D. Services Paid from the Management Fee

The purpose of the management fee is to compensate the Agent for providing oversight to the project including:

- Overseeing compliance with National, state, and local laws and regulations;
- Establishing strong project management policies and procedures; and
- Overseeing the implementation laws, regulations, policies, and procedures through the supervision of onsite staff.

Examples- Management Fee Conversion

A 50-unit property has a gross rent potential of $20,000 per month, or $240,000 per year. The average vacancy rate for the last 12 months is 5%. The current management fee is 6%. The pupm fee would be calculated as follows:

$$20,000 \times .95$	=	$19,000
$$19,000 \times 6\%$	=	$1,140
$$1,140 \div 50 \text{ units}$	=	$22.80 pupm

A 50-unit property has basic rents of $400 per unit. In a particular month, one unit was vacant for the entire month and one was vacant from the sixteenth to the thirtieth day of the month. The management fee, at $22.80 per month, would be as follows:

$$22.80 \times 49$	=	$1,117.20

A breakdown of items that are to be paid from the management fee can be found in Attachment 3-D.

When the bundle of services for which a management fee is currently paid is different from the bundle of services defined by the Agency or when the basis for the fee is different than the per-occupied unit, per-month basis defined by the Agency, the Agency will allow for a transition period to minimize impact of the conversion to the new method. Borrowers may follow this process or may simply convert to the new method. To translate a bundle of services management fee to be consistent with the bundle of services defined by the agency, the borrower/management agent should use the following process:

- Determine the elements covered in the current bundle of services and to which budget line items from Form RD 3560-7, Multiple Family Housing Project Budget/Utility Allowance they correspond

- Use the bundle of services management fee from the most recent annual financial statements, and divide it into its various components or budget line items. For example, if the agent's current management fee includes the salary for the resident manager, photocopier lease payments, photocopier expenses, office expenses, and bank fees, these amounts must be separated from the current management fee into the appropriate line items to arrive at the new management fee. To the extent possible, the line item amounts should be supported by invoices or similar documentation. If an invoice represents expenses of more than one project, the proration between properties should be documented.
- Calculate the new management fee by using the lump sum amount after deductions have been made for the other line items.
- Determine the pupm management fee by dividing the lump sum amount by the number of units in the property. Divide the quotient by 12 to arrive at the new pupm management fee.

An example demonstrating implementation of this process is included in Attachment 3-F.

Regardless of what services are included in the bundle of services fee, the actual management fee amount—net of other expenses paid—should be the same. The management fee under the Agency defined bundle of services would only be smaller if the pupm amount exceeded the state cap.

E. Services Paid from Project Income

In general, project income is used to pay for project-related items. Examples include the salary, benefits, and office expenses of onsite office staff and maintenance expenses for the property and costs for processing project-specific transactions (e.g., tenant certifications). A specific breakdown of items that are to be paid from project income as opposed to the management fee can be found in Attachment 3-E.

The borrower and management agent must obtain materials, supplies, utilities, and services at a reasonable cost and seek the most advantageous terms for the project. The borrower or management agent must credit any rebates, fees, proceeds, or commissions generated by transactions using project funds to the project.

SECTION 4: INSURANCE, BONDING, AND TAXES [7 CFR 3560.105]

3.9 OVERVIEW

Insurance protects the asset against loss or damage. Borrowers without adequate insurance coverage are financially responsible for:

- Property damage;
- Losses due to employee dishonesty or error; and
- Personal injuries that occur on the property.

Borrowers are responsible for acquiring and maintaining insurance on all dwellings and buildings that are necessary for the operation of the project in accordance with their loan or grant documents. Insurance must be in place at loan closing and must remain in place until the loan is paid in full. Reevaluation of insurance coverage is necessary when new buildings are constructed or values increase or decrease materially. Any refund or rebate from the insurance company must be credited to the project’s account.

The Servicing Office is responsible for counseling the borrower regarding the Agency’s insurance requirements. Through MFIS, Loan Servicers will monitor insurance policy expiration and ensure borrower compliance. The Agency will obtain insurance for the secured property if the borrower is unable or unwilling to do so. If a borrower refuses to pay the insurance premium with their own funds or fails to arrange with the agent for subsequent payment by premium note or otherwise, the Agency will pay the amount of the insurance premium and charge the premium payment amount and all costs associated with procurement of the required insurance to the borrower’s Agency account. The Agency considers a borrower’s failure to maintain adequate insurance coverage or to pay taxes as nonmonetary default. Borrowers who fail to furnish property and hazard insurance coverage of any kind are responsible for the debt in the event of loss.

3.10 PROPERTY INSURANCE

Property or “all-risk” insurance protects the physical asset against loss due to damage. Types of property insurance are described below.

A. Hazard Insurance

1. Loss or Damage Covered

Hazard insurance protects the property against fire and weather-related damage, as well as damage from civil commotion, aircraft, or other vehicles. These policies may also be known as fire and extended coverage, homeowners, all physical loss, or broad form policies.

2. Coverage Requirements

The minimum property insurance coverage per building is 100 percent of the insurable value as reflected in the appraisal report, as referenced in Chapter 7 of HB-1-3560. If no appraisal report is required, the Agency will perform the necessary evaluations and determine and document the minimum insurance coverage requirements in the file.

3. Deductible

If a property's insurance policy has a deductible, the deductible must be accounted for in the reserve account, unless the deductible does not exceed:

- $1,000 on any project with an insurable value under $200,000; or
- One-half of 1 percent of the insurable value, up to $10,000 on a project with an insurable value over $200,000.

B. Flood Insurance

1. Loss or Damage Covered

Flood insurance protects the property against flooding caused by natural disasters such as hurricanes. This coverage is required only for those properties located in areas identified as flood hazard areas.

2. Coverage Requirements

Flood insurance is required for any property located in a Special Flood Hazard Area (SFHA), as identified by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). FEMA Form 81-93, Standard Flood Hazard Determination is used to determine if a property is in a SFHA and whether flood insurance is available under FEMA's National Flood Insurance Program. If the property is in a SFHA, the Agency will notify the borrower using Form RD 3550-6, Notice of Special Flood Hazards, Flood Insurance Purchase Requirements, and Availability of Federal Disaster Relief Assistance. The borrower must sign and return Form RD 3550-6 prior to loan closing. If the borrower cannot secure flood insurance through FEMA's National Flood Insurance Program in a SFHA, the property is not eligible for Federal financial assistance.

3. Deductible

The Agency allows a maximum deductible of $5,000 per building.

C. Earthquake Insurance

1. Loss or Damage Covered

Earthquake insurance covers property losses in the event of an earthquake. Earthquake coverage is recommended in areas where earthquakes are prevalent; however, it is very expensive and generally has a high deductible.

2. Coverage Requirements

Although the Agency does not specifically require a project to be covered by earthquake insurance, it recommends a Probable Maximum Loss (PML) seismic study for all projects located in certain regions of the country where earthquakes are prevalent. The coverage amount should be for 100 percent of the replacement cost of the project.

3. Deductible

In the event that the borrower obtains earthquake coverage, the Agency is to be named as a loss payee. The deductible should be no more than 10 percent of the coverage amount.

D. Windstorm Insurance

1. Required Coverage

The windstorm policy should include extended coverage for rental loss for at least 12 months, except for coverage provided by State insurance programs.

2. Deductible

When windstorm coverage is excluded from the “all risk” policy, the deductible must not exceed 5 percent of the total insured value.

E. Builder’s Risk Insurance

Builder’s risk insurance protects the property against loss or damage during construction or reconstruction after an insured loss.

F. Elevator, Boiler, and Machinery Insurance

1. Loss or Damage Covered

Elevator, boiler, and machinery coverage may be required for any property that operates elevators, steam boilers, turbines, engines, or other pressure vessels.

2. Coverage Requirements

The Agency requires boiler and machinery insurance in any property that has centralized Heating, Ventilating, and Air-Conditioning (HVAC) equipment in operation.

G. Sinkhole Insurance or Mine Subsidence Insurance

1. Loss or Damage Covered

Sinkhole insurance or mine subsidence insurance is recommended for projects located in areas prone to these geological phenomena.

2. Coverage Requirements

The amount of coverage that the Agency recommends for properties located in areas prone to these geological phenomena is 100 percent of the replacement cost of the structure affected.

3. Deductible

The deductible for sinkhole insurance or mine subsidence insurance should be similar to what would be required for earthquake insurance.

H. Business Income or Rent Loss Insurance

1. Loss or Damage Covered

Business income or rent loss coverage provides coverage for the loss of rental income incurred due to a property loss during a 12-month period.

2. Coverage Requirements

The Agency does not require but recommends that the project be insured against loss of business income or rent in the event of a property loss that causes one or more units to be uninhabitable for a period of time. Business income coverage may be obtained in one of two forms:

- Actual loss sustained; or
- A fixed amount equal to the annualized amount of monthly gross potential rents.

I. Acceptable Exclusions

Acceptable exclusions from “all risk” insurance policies include:

- War or military action;
- Nuclear hazard;
- Volcanic eruptions;
- Fraudulent or dishonest acts committed by the insured;

Dispersal, release, or escape of contaminants or pollution (biological or chemical agents); and

- Terrorism.

J. Property Insurance Exemptions

Property insurance is not required if:

- The building is in such a state of disrepair that the cost of insurance would be prohibitive;
- The building has a depreciated replacement value of $2,500 or less

K. Property Insurance Policy Requirements

The project’s property insurance policy must include the following:

- Name and location. The policy should contain the names of the borrowers who are owners of the property being insured. The exact location of the property should be described in the policy.
- Loss or damage covered. The policy must indicate that the buildings are insured against loss or damage by fire, smoke, lightning, windstorms, hail, earthquake, explosion, riot, civil commotion, aircraft, and vehicles.
- Effective date of insurance. If there are insurable buildings located on the property, the policy’s effective date will be on or before loan closing or assumption, or before the credit sale is closed, so that the policy will properly insure the borrower and the mortgagees. When new buildings are erected or major improvements made to existing buildings, such insurance will be made effective as of the date materials are delivered to the property. The Agency will not advance loan funds for labor or materials until the borrower has furnished adequate insurance to protect the interest of the Agency.
- Term. The borrower must furnish insurance for a term of at least 1 year, with evidence that a full year’s premium is paid. If the policy is the type that imposes an assessment only after a loss has occurred, the borrower must provide documentation from the insurance company that no assessment is owed. If the insurance policy is automatically renewable, the renewal clause must meet Agency requirements.
- Loss payee. The Agency must be named loss copayee on all properties where it holds first lien position, which means if there is a damage or loss, the insurance draft will be made payable to the Agency. Further, the Agency must be named as an additional insured if its lien position is other than first.

- Mortgage clause. The standard mortgage clause adopted by the State or the Agency Form RD 426-2, "Property Insurance Mortgage Clause (Without Contribution)" must be attached to or printed in the insurance policy. Whenever a new mortgage clause highlighting the Agency's interest is issued after the policy has been in force, the new mortgage clause must be signed by an authorized agent or officer of the company that issued the policy.

The mortgage clause is not required if:

- ◇ An authorized official of an insurance company provides a statement that all insurance policies the company issues in the state, and in which Rural Development has a mortgage interest, incorporate all of the provisions of Form RD 426-2. This statement may be accepted in lieu of attaching the form to each policy. If such a blanket letter is used, Rural Development must be named in the loss payable clause and a state instruction will be issued authorizing the use of this method after prior approval is obtained from the Agency.
- ◇ For all hazard and flood insurance policies the Agency will be named as copayee.
- ◇ For builder's risk policies the borrower must be named as the insured party, and the policy must convert to full coverage when the project is completed.

3.11 FIDELITY COVERAGE

A. Loss or Damage Covered

Fidelity insurance protects the property against loss due to employee dishonesty. The policy will provide coverage on all persons with access to project assets. Fidelity coverage may also be known as Blanket Crime Coverage or Fidelity Bond.

B. Coverage Requirements

The fidelity insurance policy, at a minimum, must include an insuring agreement that covers employee dishonesty. The minimum amount of fidelity coverage will be the amount calculated by multiplying an exposure index by a coverage factor. When the calculated amount is less than $10,000, minimum coverage of $10,000 must be provided. This calculation is made as follows:

- Determine exposure index: Exposure index = 25 percent of the SUM of annual cash receipts (rents, cash subsidy, security deposits and interest, etc.) and cash (cash carryover, reserves, CDs, tax and insurance escrows, etc.). Round to next higher $1,000.
- Determine coverage: Coverage = exposure index X coverage factor taken from the coverage chart shown in Exhibit 3-5. Round to next higher $1,000.

Exhibit 3-5
Fidelity Coverage
Exposure Index	Coverage Factor
$100,000 or less	0.30
$100,000 to $200,000	0.28
$200,000 to $300,000	0.26
$300,000 to $400,000	0.24
$400,000 to $500,000	0.22
$500,000 to $600,000	0.20
$600,000 to $700,000	0.18
$700,000 to $800,000	0.16
$800,000 to $900,000	0.14
$900,000 to $1,000,000	0.12
$1,000,000 or more	0.10

C. Deductible

A deductible is designed to allow flexibility in balancing what the project can prudently pay from its own assets, at a time of loss, against the economy of annual premiums in its annual budget. The deductible levels shown in Exhibit 3-6 will meet Agency requirements. Each year borrowers must review and adjust, if necessary, their fidelity coverage.

Exhibit 3-6
Fidelity Coverage Deductible Levels
Fidelity Coverage	Deductible Level
Under $50,000	$1,000
Up to and including $100,000	$2,500
Up to and including $250,000	$5,000
Up to and including $500,000	$10,000
Up to and including $1,000,000	$15,000

D. Exemptions

Fidelity insurance is not required under the following circumstances:

- When a loan is made to an individual or a general partnership, and that individual or general partner will be responsible for the project’s financial activities. Individuals cannot bond against their own actions. For land trusts where the beneficiary is responsible for project management, the beneficiary is treated as an individual.
- For the general partners of a limited partnership, unless one or more of its general partners perform financial acts coming within the scope of the usual duties.

E. Policy Requirements

Fidelity coverage must be documented on a bond form acceptable to the Agency. Fidelity coverage policies must state that the insurance company will provide protection to the insured against the loss of money, securities, and property through any criminal or dishonest acts by any employee acting alone or in collusion with others. The amount of indemnity will not exceed the amount stated in the declaration of coverage.

The portion of the insurance premium to cover project site employees and general partners is an eligible project expense. The premium paid by the management agent is part of the agent's management expense and cannot be claimed as a project expense. When a project site employee is covered under the management agent's fidelity policy, the pro rata portion of the premium covering the employee should be reflected in the management plan.

3.12 ERRORS AND OMISSIONS INSURANCE

Errors and omissions (E&O) coverage protects the borrower against loss resulting from negligence, errors, or omissions committed by those persons covered under the borrower's fidelity insurance policy. Obtaining E&O insurance does not diminish or limit the borrower's documentary obligations and responsibilities.

3.13 LIABILITY INSURANCE

A. Loss or Damage Covered

This coverage insures against any personal injury that might occur in or on the project's common areas, common elements, commercial space, and public areas.

B. Coverage Requirements

The coverage must meet the requirements established below.

1. Commercial General Liability

The insurer's limit of liability per occurrence for personal injury, bodily injury, or property damage under the terms of coverage must be at least $1,000,000. Coverage may also include borrower exposure to risks such as E&O and environmental damage, or protection against discrimination claims.

2. Umbrella Liability Insurance

The Agency recommends, but does not require, the borrower to obtain umbrella liability insurance to provide coverage over and above the $1,000,000 provided for in the commercial general liability policy. The Agency recommends that umbrella liability insurance policies provide coverage as follows:

- For projects with buildings of 1 to 3 stories, $1,000,000;
- For projects with buildings of 4 to 10 stories, $5,000,000; and
- For projects with buildings of 11 to 20 stories, $10,000,000.

3. Commercial Automobile Liability Insurance

The Agency recommends that the borrower purchase commercial automobile liability insurance to cover all automobiles used for business purposes related to the project. The recommended amount of coverage is $1,000,000 per occurrence.

C. Deductible

The Agency allows a deductible not to exceed $5,000 per occurrence.

3.14 WORKERS' COMPENSATION

This insurance coverage, which is also known as employer's liability coverage, is required by the Agency.

3.15 POLICY RENEWALS

When renewing insurance policies, if the best policy the borrower can obtain contains a deductible clause with amounts greater than those stated above, the borrower must submit to the Loan Servicer:

- The insurance policy; and
- An explanation and documentation that more adequate insurance coverage was not available.

3.16 BLANKET POLICIES

Blanket insurance policies for several buildings or properties located on noncontiguous sites are acceptable if the insurer provides proof that the secured property is as fully protected as if a separate policy were issued.

Blanket crime insurance coverage or fidelity bonds are acceptable types of fidelity coverage. At a minimum, a borrower must provide the Agency with an endorsement listing all Agency properties and their locations covered under the policy or bond as evidence of required fidelity insurance. The policy or bond may also include properties or operations other than Agency-financed properties on separate endorsement listings.

Individuals or organizational borrowers must have fidelity coverage when they have employees with access to Multi-Family Housing complex assets. A borrower who uses a management agent with exclusive access to housing assets must require the agent to have fidelity coverage on all principals and employees with access to the project. If project management reverts to the borrower, the borrower must immediately obtain fidelity coverage.

3.17 AUTHORIZED INSURANCE PROVIDERS

Borrowers are responsible for selecting an insurance provider that meets Agency requirements. The insurance provider must be licensed or authorized to do business in the state or jurisdiction where the project is located. In making the determination that an insurance company is reputable and financially sound, the Agency uses all relevant available information, including financial statements, Best's Insurance Reports, and information from state insurance authorities.

The borrower and management agent are required to disclose any IOI relationships with the insurance company.

3.18 BORROWER FAILURE TO MEET INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS

The Servicing Office is responsible for taking all actions in connection with insurance that are necessary to protect the security interest of the Agency. Any unusual situation that may arise with respect to borrower procuring or maintaining insurance should be referred to the State Director. The State Director may refer questions to the Office of General Counsel (OGC).

A. Unacceptable Insurance Policy

When the borrower submits a policy or binder that does not meet Agency requirements, the Field Office Staff will return the policy/binder to the borrower with a form letter that provides the reasons for the policy's unacceptability and requires an acceptable policy within 30 days of the date of the letter.

If acceptable coverage still is not obtained from an authorized provider and the determination has been made to continue with the borrower, the Loan Servicer will temporarily accept from the borrower the available insurance policy the Agency determines most nearly conforms to established requirements. Whenever adequate insurance becomes available, the State Director will require the borrower to deliver to the Servicing Office an acceptable insurance policy.

B. Expired Policies

When an expired insurance policy is not renewed, the Loan Servicer will require the borrower to provide a new policy. The Agency will be shown in the loss payable clause and in the mortgage clause in the proper order of priority. Insurance coverage on each building usually will be the same as shown on the expired policy if it meets or exceeds Agency requirements. If the coverage shown on the expired policy does not meet Agency requirements, the borrower will obtain the proper coverage. If the insurance agency or broker who issued the expired policy refuses to issue a new policy, the Loan Servicer will have the borrower designate in writing another insurance agency or broker from whom the insurance can be obtained.

C. Force-Placed Insurance

If the borrower does not furnish acceptable insurance within the required timeframe the Loan Servicer will begin the process of procuring the required insurance. The costs of procuring the insurance and the premium amount will be added to the borrower’s Agency account.

3.19 PROPERTY DAMAGE OR LOSS

Borrowers must notify the Agency and their insurance company agents of any loss or damage to the insured property.

A. When Loss or Damage is Discovered

Upon being notified of loss or damage, the Loan Servicer will:

- If the Agency is listed as mortgagee in the insurance policy, collect the amount of the loss and may also consent to the borrower using the funds to repair or replace damaged or destroyed property or to apply the loss proceeds to their loan account or to any prior liens that might exist in the order of their priority;
- If the Agency is not listed as mortgagee in the insurance policy, contact the borrower to determine whether they have received the loss proceeds. If the borrower has received the loss proceeds but has not yet paid for improvements to repair or replace the property, or has not received the loss proceeds, the Loan Servicer will:
 - ◊ Inform the borrower of their responsibility for repairing or replacing the damaged or destroyed property or for authorized disposition of the loss proceeds; and
 - ◊ Notify the insurance company in writing of the Agency’s interest in the security property and request that the loss proceeds be made payable jointly to the Agency and the borrower.

B. Loss Drafts

A loss draft is payment from the insurance provider for property loss or damage. Loss drafts for loans secured by a first mortgage, which in the opinion of the Agency represents a satisfactory adjustment of the loss will be endorsed immediately without recourse and deposited in a supervised bank account to be used in repairing or replacing the damaged building, except when:

- The amount of the loss is $5,000 or less and the borrower will use the funds for repairing or replacing an essential building. The loss draft may be endorsed without recourse and given to the borrower upon satisfactory proof that the repairs or replacements have been made.
- The essential buildings are not to be repaired or replaced and other suitable buildings are not to be erected.

- A balance remains after all repairs, replacements, and other authorized disbursements have been made, insurance funds can be applied as follows:
 - ◊ To prior liens;
 - ◊ As an extra payment to the borrower's loan account; or
 - ◊ To the borrower's reserve account.
 - ◊ Make other capital improvements to the property as approved by the Loan Servicer.
- The indebtedness secured by the insured property has been paid in full or the draft is in payment for loss of property on which the Agency has no claim. A loss draft that includes the Agency as a joint payee may be endorsed without recourse and delivered to the borrower.

Loss drafts for a loan that is not secured by an Agency first mortgage will be released by the Agency only if the primary mortgagee agrees to the provisions set forth in the previous part.

3.20 REAL ESTATE TAXES

Borrowers are responsible for paying real estate taxes each year. The annual financial statements must include a certification that the property's real estate taxes have been paid. Failure to pay taxes and assessments by the due date will be considered a nonmonetary default.

When the Agency discovers that a borrower has failed to pay property taxes or local assessments, the Loan Servicer will notify the borrower in writing to pay the property's taxes and that paying taxes are the borrower's responsibility. The notification letter will request proof of payment of taxes within 30 days. If the borrower fails to submit proof of payment, the Loan Servicer will:

- Determine if taxes have been paid;
- Pay delinquent taxes and any penalties;
- Charge the cost of bringing the taxes current to the borrower's Agency account; and
- Require the borrower to establish an account to ensure that funds are available for payment of taxes.

The Loan Servicer will begin servicing actions.

SECTION 5: PROJECT MANAGEMENT FOR LABOR HOUSING

3.21 PROJECT MANAGEMENT AND FEES

A. Off-Farm Labor Housing

Project management for off-farm labor housing will be in accordance with the procedures established in this chapter for the Section 515 program. Borrowers are required to submit a management plan and a management certification, and to receive Agency approval on the proposed management agent and the management fee prior to paying a management fee from project income. For off-farm labor housing operated on a seasonal basis, the management plan must establish specific opening and closing dates.

B. On-Farm Labor Housing

Project management for On-Farm Labor Housing projects should follow the same basic procedures as outlined in this chapter for the Section 515 program with the following exceptions:

- On-Farm Labor Housing borrowers are expected to manage their own properties and should not need to charge a fee for this service; and
- On-Farm Labor Housing borrowers are required to maintain a lease or employment contract with each tenant specifying employment with the borrower as a condition for continued occupancy.

3.22 INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS

A. Off-Farm Labor Housing

Off-farm labor housing must comply with the same insurance requirements as specified for the Section 515 program in this chapter.

B. On-Farm Labor Housing

On-Farm Labor Housing borrowers must ensure that they provide hazard insurance adequate to cover replacement of the property in case of loss. On-Farm Labor Housing borrowers must comply with the same flood insurance requirements as specified earlier in this chapter.

3.23 SPECIAL SERVICING REQUIREMENTS FOR SECTION 514 ON-FARM LABOR HOUSING

A. Background.

Prior to January 17, 1993, owners of on-farm type LH were not allowed to charge rent or utilities to eligible tenants residing in the housing if the requirement that the owner execute a loan agreement had been waived. If there had been no waiver of the loan agreement requirement, owners of on-farm type LH were allowed to charge rent and utilities for the unit.

Effective January 17, 1993, regulations required all owners of section 514 on-farm type LH to sign a loan agreement. By signing this agreement, the owners of on-farm LH reaffirmed their obligation not to charge rent or utilities to eligible tenants. Owners who sign the agreement must obtain the Government's prior approval for charging rent, utilities, refundable deposit charges or cleaning fees. Charges must be reasonable and approved in accordance with the procedure. Borrowers not meeting these requirements will be requested to comply with these requirements. Borrowers unwilling or unable to do so may be subject to the RHS initiating appropriate servicing action to seek compliance.

B. Policy.

Field office employees are to ensure that owners of on-farm type LH financed under section 514 are not charging for rent, utilities, refundable damage deposit charges, or cleaning fees to residents, unless the rent, charges, and fees are approved by authorized officials.

Where violations are evident, the owner will be asked, in writing, to come into compliance. Tenants must receive proper notification and an opportunity to comment on proposed rent changes. Borrowers should arrange to request rent changes during periods when migrant residents can be readily contacted. Making requests during the off farm season when tenants are not occupying the units does not excuse the borrower from the responsibility to make effective notification to tenants. Tenants must also receive notice of any approved charges authorized by the Agency prior to imposing charges. Borrowers imposing unauthorized charges must be notified, in writing by the Agency, that they must roll back rates retroactively to the last authorized level. The borrower must give tenants a rebate or credit for the unauthorized charges.

Borrowers with known violations must be brought into compliance or subjected to servicing actions which may include, but not be limited to, added Agency supervisory visits, inspections, and reviews; acceleration; suspension; debarment; and referral to local, state, or Federal officials for investigation and prosecution of violations of civil or criminal law.

C. Definition of Rent:

For administering the section 514 on-farm program, the term "rent" means any charge made by a landlord to an eligible tenant household for the use and occupancy of the housing and includes utilities (i.e., electricity, heat, water, waste disposal, etc.) or the requirement that the tenant pay the utilities directly to the utility provider.

The term "rent" is also clarified to include any deductions or off-sets made to a tenant's wages for the use of a LH dwelling. Rent does not include bona-fide wage changes or reductions unrelated to retaining rent-free housing benefits. Agency officials should seek to obtain and document the following:

- A meeting with the tenants residing in the labor housing should be convened, preferably without the borrower being in attendance in order to ensure objectivity. Solicit the information set out in the Supervisory Visit On-Farm form in MFIS. Letters to tenants in advance of the visit may also be used to solicit this information.
- If the borrower is unable to provide utility bills, contacting the utility company to determine in whose name the utilities are registered. Compare the information solicited by tenant interviews on utilities paid with the utility company data, where possible.
- A review of the borrower's farm and home plan and other financial records to determine whether the borrower is deriving any income from the farm labor housing units. Compare the information solicited by tenant interviews on rent and utility payments with that disclosed by the borrower.

D. Servicing Actions.

- Normal servicing letter and initial follow-up: If the borrower is not complying with Agency regulations (including improperly charging rent, permitting unlicensed occupancy or occupancy during a period for which the housing was not designed) the borrower should be sent the first servicing letter identifying the compliance deficiencies. The letter should normally be sent within 15 days of identification of the compliance deficiencies. Borrowers should normally be requested to issue a response within 15 days of the date of such a letter. When rent change violations are identified, the extent of the violations should be documented, including an estimate of the amount of the improper charges involved and the documentation relied upon to derive these estimates. Borrowers in violation should be requested to show evidence of any reimbursement or crediting of improper charges to those residents affected. This includes documentation of attempts to contact and reimburse former tenants for unauthorized charges. Where documentation shows former tenants cannot be reached for reimbursement of unauthorized charges, the borrower may remit the unauthorized charges to the Government for processing as a miscellaneous payment for crediting to the Rural Housing Insurance Fund.

Within 30 days of sending any letter to the borrower citing unapproved rent charges, officials should verify whether the borrower has stopped unapproved charging for the use and occupancy of the housing, and if the borrower has refunded tenants any improper charges previously collected. This may be accomplished by a follow-up visit, written communication to tenants, or other effective means. During any follow-up visit, RHS staff should attempt to meet with the tenants to determine if a borrower's improper practice of charging for the use of the housing has ceased. The meeting between RHS staff and the tenants should not be in the presence of the borrower.

- Workout plan to achieve compliance: When a workout plan is being considered to bring a borrower into compliance with Agency regulations. Borrowers that are not in compliance may be eligible for a supplementary payment agreement calling for less than a full loan installment for use in refunding improper charges to residents or former residents. Upon the end of such workout arrangements, including deferred or reduced debt service payments, reamortization of the account should be considered.

Upon compliance with the rent change approval by Agency servicing officials, the borrower may consider waiving the authorized collections and credit residents for payment of the approved charges until such time as the improperly assessed charges are fully offset. Such arrangements should normally not exceed 2 years. Borrowers may not reduce resident wages to finance any reductions in shelter cost charges.

If the housing is not suitable for year-round occupancy, a rent charge approved by RHS may only be assessed for the period of occupancy for which the housing is suitable. The housing may not be occupied and no rent may be charged for the period for which the housing is not suitable for occupancy. If the borrower wishes to make the housing suitable for year-round occupancy, RHS may approve any rent change request for the entire year only after the borrower makes the necessary modifications and obtains all necessary permits and licenses to operate the housing on a year-round basis.

- Secondary request letters: Borrowers failing to respond to letters requesting compliance with Agency regulations, or failing to arrange a meeting to resolve compliance concerns, or failing to arrange to develop an acceptable workout plan, must be notified of the Agency's continued concerns and requested to comply. Borrowers will be advised that the servicing options available to resolve compliance concerns.
- Last notice to avoid more serious servicing actions: Borrowers who continue to be in non-compliance will be requested to comply with Agency regulations and requirements or face the prospects of adverse servicing actions. The timeframe for reply to such a letter should normally be 15 days of the date of such letter. Field office servicing officials will forward a problem case report for borrowers in violation of Agency requirements to the State Director along with recommended servicing actions. The time frame for this action should normally be within 30 days of concluding that efforts to achieve compliance have been unsuccessful.
- Processing problem case reports: The State Director should take appropriate action on problem case reports and request any needed guidance or action from other Governmental officials when warranted. This may include seeking to initiate foreclosure, seeking appointment of a receiver, or to initiate other appropriate legal remedies to enforce compliance. This may also include initiating a request for an audit or investigation from the Office of Inspector General (OIG) in accordance with the provisions of 7 CFR 2012, subpart A or 2012, subpart B.

E. Documentation accompanying problem case reports and required action:

If the borrower has not complied with the requirements set-out in earlier servicing attempts, a complete report of the initial visit and follow-up action should accompany any problem case report forwarded to the State Director for further action.

If, after sending appropriate servicing notices and the borrower does not stop charging unauthorized rents and does not provide refunds or credits of any improperly charged rents to tenants, a problem case report is to be prepared and forwarded to the State Director. State Directors, with the assistance of the Office of the General Counsel, should take appropriate actions to enforce the owner's agreement not to charge rent and to refund or credit any improperly charged rent. Borrowers, who are not able or willing to comply, or enter into an acceptable workout plan to achieve compliance, should:

- Consider initiating acceleration of the account.

- Be considered for a suspension or debarment in accordance with the provisions of 7 CFR 3560, Subpart M.

F. Compliance concerns warranting attention and corrective action:

- Shelter cost changes: If shelter cost changes warrant correction, such as the reimbursement of inappropriate charges to residents through rebates or credits. Borrowers must make efforts to contact and rebate unauthorized charges to former residents. Should the borrower be unable to rebate or credit improper shelter cost charges to affected residents because they cannot be located, the improper charges should be forwarded for processing as a miscellaneous payment for crediting to the revolving fund. Borrowers should not receive indirect benefit from such improper actions such as having any improper collections “credited” to the Government for application as a voluntary additional payment on loans owed the Government. Alteration of Form 3560-8, to reflect that rents are being charged, does not constitute appropriate evidence of rent change approval.
- Tenant Notification: If tenant notifications are not supported, a rent change violation is apparent. Corrective action such as reimbursement or credits should be taken.
- Utility allowance documentation: Corrective action should include gathering the required information prior to any approval actions.
- Loan agreement: Corrective action should include a written demand to execute the agreement. Failure to comply with such request warrants forwarding a problem case report to the State Director. This type of non-compliance may require more aggressive servicing actions including additional supervisory visits. Failure to execute the loan agreement may be a sign that other compliance deficiencies exist. Scheduling a supervisory visit as soon as possible but usually not later than 3 months after the failure is warranted to verify whether other compliance deficiencies exist.
- Record keeping and reports: Borrowers are expected to keep appropriate records and reports. This includes the following:
 - ◇ Financial records. When residents are not charged for residing in the housing unit, Form 3560-7A should be provided for the annual reporting requirements. When residents are charged for residing in the housing unit, adequate financial disclosure is required. Budget reviews should be evaluated to ensure the labor housing is operated in a nonprofit manner (i.e., cash LH expenses for operations, loan installments, taxes, insurance, and upkeep are less than or equal to cash receipts from LH revenue from authorized rents, utilities, security deposits and fees).
 - ◇ Documents needed to verify eligibility to reside in labor housing dwelling units. Where rent is being charged, a copy of Form RD 3560-8, “Tenant Certification” is appropriate. This documentation should show that a substantial portion of income is derived from farm labor or is considered so earned if the housing was initially provided on a non-rental basis as part of employment compensation for farm labor.
 - ◇ Documents showing compliance that tenants are being charged for rent, utilities, refundable security deposits, or cleaning fees. This includes evidence of tenant notification and reporting disclosure requirements, and current utility allowance documentation if residents are being charged for utilities.

- ◇ Evidence that taxes and insurance are paid.
- ◇ Evidence that the property is decent, safe, sanitary, and free from health and safety hazards.
- ◇ Evidence of a management plan, when appropriate.

G. LH Compliance Concerns Detected After Promissory Notes are Paid in Full:

Compliance concerns uncovered after payment in full may warrant servicing letters to borrowers. This is especially appropriate under circumstances where unapproved shelter cost charges are detected. However, when such evidence is over 6 years from the date the borrower's account matured, no notification is required. Where a serious violation is discovered, the Agency may consider taking appropriate actions even though the account matured. The guidance of OGC may be sought in determining what corrective measures can be brought to bear under such circumstances. Such actions may include referral to OIG recommending initiation of an audit or investigation and suspension or debarment from participation in Federal programs under the provisions of 7 CFR 3560, Subpart M.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQ)

NONDISCRIMINATION POLICIES AND PRACTICES BORROWERS MUST ADDRESS

- How will applicants and tenants be made aware that the owner will provide reasonable accommodations?
- How will requests for reasonable accommodations be handled and who is authorized to approve or deny any such requests?
- Does the project have a Telecommunication Device for the Deaf (TDD) or an equally effective communication system? (Note: If the complex has Section 8 assistance from HUD, the complex is required to have a TDD)
- If the project has a TDD, is the public made aware that there is a TDD? For example, is the TDD telephone number given each time the project's telephone number is given?
- If the project relies on a relay service as an equally effective communication system (rather than having a TDD), who operates the relay service? Is the relay service available 24 hours a day and without any added cost to the disabled person?
- Have procedures been established to accommodate hearing- and sight-impaired applicants and tenants? Examples of methods the borrower might use include readers, sign language interpreters, Braille, etc.
- Does management give priority for fully accessible units to persons who are in need of the special design features of an accessible unit? Is priority given first to those living in the complex and then to persons on the waiting list?
- Before accessible units are temporarily rented to people who do not need the special design features, have there been diligent marketing efforts to market the units as accessible units? Have those efforts been documented? Are lease clauses used? Do marketing efforts continue after renting the unit to someone who does not need the special design features?
- Is management's policy for verifying a person's disability limited to only that which is needed to establish eligibility and is verification required only after a tenant or applicant has asked that their disability be considered by management?
- Does management provide their employees with civil rights training?
- When marketing an elderly project, has there been an effort to reach all eligible people? Persons with disabilities (of any age) are every bit as eligible as persons who are 62 or older. Marketing efforts should be designed to reach both population groups.

- Does the borrower/management agent notify the public that they do not discriminate on the basis of disability? Do materials published by the borrower contain such a notice? Use of the Equal Housing Opportunity logo is one means of doing so (the logo is the house with the equal sign and the words Equal Housing Opportunity underneath the house).
- Does management have a policy that permits persons with disabilities to have service and/or companion animals?
- Does management give persons with disabilities the same choices other applicants are given? For example, the choice to pick either first or second floor apartments.

ATTACHMENT 3-F

CONVERSION OF MANAGEMENT FEES TO BUNDLE OF SERVICES DEFINED BY THE AGENCY (for borrower and/or management agent)

EXAMPLE

ABC Management manages a 50-unit property. The new State cap for management fees is $28 per-unit, per-month (pupm) amount.

The property's current annual gross potential rents are $210,000. Included in its bundle of services fee are the following items:

- Actual fee for managing property;
- Resident manager's salary;
- Payroll taxes;
- Photocopier leases;
- Photocopier supplies;
- Postage, supplies for bookkeeping, computer, and basic office supplies; and
- Bank fees.

Step 1: Determine elements covered by current bundle of services fee.

ABC Management Company determined that the items covered under its bundle of services fee corresponded to the following line items:

- Management fee (corresponds to line item 20);
- Resident manager's salary (corresponds to line item 19);
- Payroll taxes (corresponds to line item 30);
- Workers' Compensation (corresponds to line item 31);
- Photocopier leases (corresponds to line item 27);
- Photocopier supplies (corresponds to line item 26);
- Postage and supplies for bookkeeping, computer, and office (corresponds to line item 26); and
- Bank fees (corresponds to line item 32).

Step 2: Using the budget line items from Form RD 3560-7, Multiple Family Housing Project Budget/Utility Allowance as a guide, divide the bundle of services fee into its various components. Use invoices to determine how much to deduct from the management fee for each item.

Management fee (from most recent annual financial statements)	$50,000
Resident manager's salary (line item 19)	$22,000
Photocopier leases (line item 27)	3,000
Postage, supplies for bookkeeping, computer, photocopier, and basic office supplies (line item 26)	5,800
Payroll taxes (line item 30)	1,760
Workers' Compensation (line item 31)	2,000
Bank fees (line item 32)	400

Subtotal: Deductions from Management Fee $34,960

MANAGEMENT FEE CONVERSION

Line Item	Administrative Expense Category from Form RD 3560-7	Existing Bundle of Services Fee	New Management Fee
19	Site Management Payroll		$22,000
20	Management Fee	$50,000	$15,040
21	Project Auditing Expense
22	Project Bookkeeping/Accounting
23	Legal Expenses
24	Advertising
25	Telephone and Answering Service
26	Office Supplies		$5,800
27	Office Furniture and Equipment		$3,000
28	Training Expense
29	Health Insurance and Other Employee Benefits
30	Payroll Taxes		$1,760
31	Workers' Compensation		$2,000
32	Miscellaneous		$400
	TOTAL	$50,000	$50,000

Step 3: Calculate the new management fee by using the lump sum amount after deductions have been made for the other line items.

Bundle of services management fee	$50,000
Less: deductions	- 34,960
New lump sum management fee	$15,040

Step 4: Determine the pupm management fee by dividing the lump sum amount by the number of units in the property. Divide the quotient by 12 to arrive at the pupm management fee.

$$$15,040 \div 50 = $300.80$$

$$$300.80 \div 12 = $25.07 \text{ pupm}$$

With the current bundle of services, the pupm fee would be as follows:

$$$50,000 \div 12 = $4,166.67$$

$$$4,166.67 \div 50 = $83.33$$

The net amount of fee going to the management agent after all of the corresponding expenses are paid, however, would be the same in both situations.

CHAPTER 4: FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

4.1 INTRODUCTION

Successful projects require sound financial management procedures to track funds, prepare realistic budgets, manage project funds effectively, and report financial progress. This chapter covers the borrower's financial management responsibilities and provides guidance to Loan Servicers on monitoring a borrower's financial management performance.

The chapter is divided into five sections. Section 1 describes program requirements and Agency monitoring responsibilities for the project accounting system. Section 2 discusses the contribution, use, and monitoring of Initial Operating Capital. Section 3 outlines the requirements for and monitoring of reserve accounts. Section 4 explains project budget requirements and the budget approval process. Section 5 describes project reporting and financial examinations and Agency review of these reports.

SECTION 1: PROJECT ACCOUNTING SYSTEM

4.2 OVERVIEW OF ACCOUNTING SYSTEM REQUIREMENTS [7 CFR 3560.302]

Borrowers must establish accounting systems that support safe and sound project financial management. The accounting system must allow borrowers to track the use of funds, report accurate operational results to the Agency, and otherwise comply with the terms of their loan agreement. The following requirements apply to the borrower's accounting system:

- Agency approval. The accounting system must be approved by the Agency as part of the management plan (as discussed in Chapter 3). The borrower must notify the Agency of any changes in the method or system of accounting through a revision to the project management plan.
- Method of accounting. The borrower may use a cash, accrual, or modified accrual method of accounting, as long as the method is consistent with the statements required by the engagement in accordance with this chapter.
- Recordkeeping. Borrowers must retain all financial records and supporting material for at least 3 years after the issuance of annual financial reports and financial statements. These records must be maintained in a manner that can be audited by the Agency or a third party. The Agency may request that these materials be made available if needed to examine the project's finances.
- Account requirements. The following general requirements apply to the borrower's accounts:
 - ◇ Accounts must be in domestic institutions;

- ◇ Accounts must be insured by an agency of the Federal Government, backed by collateral proved by the bank, or held in securities meeting the requirements of 7 CFR part 3560, subpart G; and
- ◇ Borrowers must maintain at least one demand deposit or checking account (so that funds are always readily available to pay necessary operating expenses).
- Use of funds. Funds must be held in trust by the borrower until used and serve as security for the Agency grant or loan (except for funds in the security deposit/membership fee or patron capital accounts).
 - ◇ In no case may project funds be pledged as collateral for nonproject debts; and
 - ◇ Funds must be used only for authorized purposes as described in 7 CFR part 3560, subpart G and the project loan agreement or resolution.
- Separate accountability. The accounting system must establish separate accountability for different projects. In other words, the borrower may combine funds from different projects owned by the same borrower with the same tax identification number or Social Security Number in the same bank account, as long as the accounting system segregates and tracks each project's funds separately. The management plan must document how revenue and expenses that are not clearly associated with a particular project are prorated across projects. (For example, the plan must document how costs for a computer system that serves several projects are allocated across the projects.) The accounting system must track these prorated costs.

4.3 OVERVIEW OF ACCOUNTS

The borrowers must establish and maintain the accounts required by their loan agreement or resolution. At a minimum, these include the following accounts:

- General operating account;
- Tax and insurance account (if the amounts escrowed are not part of the general operating account);
- Reserve account;
- Security deposit or membership fee account (if applicable); and
- For cooperative projects, a patron capital account.

Each account serves a different purpose, as described in the following paragraphs.

A. General Operating Account

The borrower must establish a general operating account to handle all revenues and expenses associated with project operations. Authorized expenses payable from this account include expenses that are directly attributable to project operations and are necessary to carry out successful project operations. For a full list of acceptable expenses, see Attachment 4-A.

In addition, the borrower is required to deposit in the general operating account a minimum of 2 percent of the total project development costs. These funds must be deposited at loan closing or start of construction (whichever occurs first). This Initial Operating Capital is to be used for initial operating expenses, such as advertising, insurance, fidelity coverage, and initial lease-up expenses. The funds may also be used to meet project obligations, such as debt payments and reserve deposits, until cash flow is sufficient to fund these accounts.

Between the project's second and seventh year, borrowers may request that these funds be returned if the project is showing sufficient cash flow to cover all obligations, including funding the reserves. Withdrawals may be made in a lump sum or in annual increments between the second and seventh year. More detail on Initial Operating Capital is provided in Section 2 of this chapter.

The general operating account will be deemed to contain surplus funds when the balance at the end of the housing project's fiscal year, after all payables, exceeds 20 percent of the operating and maintenance expenses. If the borrower is escrowing taxes and insurance premiums, the calculation should include the amount that should be escrowed by year end and should subtract taxes and insurance premiums from operating and maintenance expenses used to calculate 20 percent of the operating and maintenance expenses.

If the general operating account has surplus funds at the end of the housing project's fiscal year, the Agency will require the borrower to use the surplus funds to address capital needs, make a deposit into the in the housing project's reserve account, reduce the debt service on the borrower's loan, or reduce rents in the following year.

B. Tax and Insurance Account

The borrower must deposit money, on a monthly basis, to pay required taxes and insurance. Generally, these funds can be kept in the general operating account, as long as they are tracked separately from other general operating funds to ensure that funds are available to pay taxes and insurance. In some cases, however, the Agency may require a separate account for taxes and insurance to ensure the availability of these funds. See Chapter 3 for a discussion of insurance requirements and taxes.

C. Reserve Account

The reserve account is funded through contributions from project operating funds. It is used primarily to pay for large planned expenses for maintenance and improvements of capital items. The project's reserves must be held in a supervised account that requires the Agency's countersignature on all withdrawals. The administration of project reserves is covered in detail in Section 3 of this chapter.

D. Security Deposit or Membership Fee Account

The security deposit or membership fee account holds funds provided by residents as security deposits and membership fees. See Chapter 7 for a full discussion of security deposits and membership fees.

- Uses of funds. Funds deposited in the security deposit/membership fee account must be used for purposes outlined in the management plan:
 - ◊ The borrower may only use security deposits to cover costs of fixing damage to unit beyond ordinary wear and tear by the tenant who provided the deposit. The funds must be returned to the tenant if not used. If the borrower cannot locate tenant to return the deposit, these funds must be deposited in the general operating account or handled in accordance with applicable state laws. In cooperatives, the return of membership fees depends upon the legal instruments governing the project.
 - ◊ Funds retained by the borrower as a result of a lease or occupancy violation must be transferred to the general operating account and treated as project income.
- Interest. The interest on security deposit/membership fee accounts is handled in accordance with state law. If no state law governs the use of interest, it must be deposited in the general operating account, at least once annually, and used for general operating expenses. In no case may interest accrue to the benefit of the borrower or management agent.

E. Patron Capital Account

In cooperative projects, borrowers must establish a patron capital account to hold excess operating funds in trust for cooperative members.

- Any funds in excess of 3 months of average operating expenses remaining in the general operating account at the end of the fiscal year must be deposited in the patron capital account. This account must be interest bearing and must be administrated according to state laws governing patronage capital.
- Each member of the cooperative must be assigned an equal portion of the funds in this account. These funds are held in trust for the members of the cooperative until they terminate their membership in the cooperative. Members may receive their portion of the funds only if they have paid all membership charges and costs due the cooperative.

4.4 MONITORING THE ACCOUNTING SYSTEM

Loan Servicers must monitor project accounting systems to ensure that proper accounts are established and that these accounts are maintained in accordance with program requirements and the project's loan agreement/resolution.

The six specific circumstances when Loan Servicers must review a project's accounting system and project accounts are discussed below.

A. Review of the Management Plan

When examining a borrower's management plan for a project, Loan Servicers must review the description of the accounting system to ensure that it addresses the requirements listed in Paragraphs 4.2 and 4.3. In particular, Loan Servicers must ensure that:

- The system ensures separate accountability—it allows for separate tracking of funds for different projects owned by the same entity; and
- The system handles interest correctly and in a manner consistent with state law.

For a full discussion of the review of the management plan, refer to Chapter 3.

B. Pre-Occupancy Meeting

The pre-occupancy meeting is held before the project begins the lease-up process. It represents a chance for the Loan Servicer to explain program requirements, including accounting requirements, to the borrower. In particular, the Loan Servicer should describe the accounts that must be established, acceptable accounting methods and institutions, and the need for separate accountability. If the borrower has already established the accounts, the Loan Servicer should examine statements from the financial institution to ensure that all appropriate accounts were established. (For a full discussion of the pre-occupancy meeting, see Chapter 8 of HB-1-3560.)

C. Post-Occupancy Visit

As part of the post-occupancy visit, the Loan Servicer must confirm that the borrower has established the appropriate accounts and is making the required deposits. The Loan Servicer must examine the borrower's bank statements to ensure that accounts were established and that they were established in a proper institution with proper insurance. The procedures for this visit are described in Chapter 8 of HB-1-3560.

D. Quarterly and Monthly Reports

Quarterly and monthly reports provide an opportunity to check on the status of project accounts of new and troubled projects on a regular basis. The Agency does not expressly require submission of these reports except from projects during their first 12 months of operation or from troubled projects. When reviewing these reports, Loan Servicers must verify account information and take the following actions:

- Confirm that the account balances provided on the reports are appropriate. For example:
 - ◇ Are the reserves reported at the appropriate level as specified in the loan agreement/resolution?
 - ◇ Does the balance in the security deposit/membership account appear appropriate for the number of tenants and the amount required for deposits/fees?
 - ◇ Does the tax and insurance escrow reflect appropriate monthly deposits and appropriate withdrawals? (Taxes may be due monthly, quarterly, biannually, or annually.)
 - ◇ Have there been any dramatic, unexplained changes in the general operating account?
- Confirm that the funds are deposited in accounts that are backed by either of the following:
 - ◇ Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) insurance coverage;
 - ◇ Collateral pledges of amounts above FDIC limits; or
 - ◇ Other coverage against theft or dishonesty.

E. Budget Review

During the review of the budget, Loan Servicers must evaluate the borrower's plans for funding, maintaining, and using the accounts to determine if the budget is realistic and reasonable. See Paragraph 4.18 for more information.

F. Annual Financial Reports

The review of the annual financial reports provides the most detailed information on the status of project accounts. The annual financial report looks specifically at the accounting system to confirm that the required accounts are properly maintained and tracked separately. The annual financial report also looks at each account to make sure that deposits and withdrawals comply with programs rules—that funds were expended for proper purposes and all required payments and deposits were made. In reviewing the annual financial report, the Loan Servicer is able to obtain information about the financial stability of the project. If the report indicates that there is a negative trend in the project's finance, this alerts the Loan Servicer to review project operations more closely.

SECTION 2: INITIAL OPERATING CAPITAL AND BORROWER RETURN ON INVESTMENT [7 CFR 3560.304 and 7 CFR 3560.305]

4.5 INTRODUCTION

This section is about a fund, known as Initial Operating Capital, which the Agency requires to protect the security of the project during its initial years.

4.6 PURPOSE

The period between initial occupancy and full rent-up in a project can be risky because rental income may not be sufficient to cover all operating costs, make payments on the Agency loan, and make required contributions to the reserve fund. In addition to these regular operating expenses, there are some special expenses associated with this period, such as purchasing furniture or equipment for public spaces or advertising and marketing. To assist projects through this phase, the Agency requires the establishment of a fund for Initial Operating Capital.

4.7 CAPITALIZATION OF INITIAL OPERATING CAPITAL

All borrowers must provide Initial Operating Capital equal to at least 2 percent of the loan amount to support initial operation of the project. Limited-profit borrowers must put this amount down at the loan closing or construction start, whichever comes first. The Agency may loan the required 2 percent to not-for-profit borrowers. (For details on this process, see HB-1-3560.) Borrowers provide the Agency with a list of proposed uses for Initial Operating Capital during loan origination.

4.8 ACCOUNTING FOR INITIAL OPERATING CAPITAL AND OTHER ADVANCES

A. Initial Operating Capital

When the project accounts are established, Initial Operating Capital is blended with other revenue and used for operating expenses.

The borrower may leave an amount of money equal to the initial capitalization of the fund in the operating account. This money should not be treated as excess funds in the operating account nor should it be transferred to reserves. In addition, its presence in the operating account should not be used as justification to deny a rent increase.

B. Other Borrower Advances

Prior written approval by the Loan Servicer is required for any advances made by the borrower, borrower entity, or designee to cover ordinary project operating expenses. Such advances may be authorized when justified by unusual short-term conditions. When conditions are not short term in nature, a servicing plan may be developed and advances may be approved if justified by the following:

- A review of the documented circumstances and the project operating budget before any funds are advanced. The financial position of the project must not be jeopardized.
- Funds are not immediately available from any of the following sources:
 - ◊ Reserve funds;
 - ◊ Initial operating capital; or
 - ◊ An imminent rent increase.

Interest may be charged or paid on the loan from project income; however, interest must be reasonable. The proposal may be denied if Agency financing can be provided to resolve the problem in a more cost-effective manner.

No lien in connection with the loan will be filed against the property securing the Agency's loan or against project income. The advance may show as an unsecured project liability on financial statements prepared for year-end reports until such time as it is authorized to be repaid.

4.9 DURATION OF INITIAL OCCUPANCY

The initial occupancy phase lasts until the project has attained a stable occupancy rate and the operating budget can reliably be supported by rental income. Projects vary as to when they achieve this stability; the Agency anticipates its occurring sometime between the end of the second and seventh year of occupancy. At that point, a for-profit borrower whose cash contribution created the Initial Operating Capital may request that the contribution be repaid.

4.10 REPAYMENT

A. Agency Policy

The borrower may, with the consent of the Agency, withdraw its original contribution to the Initial Operating Capital in multiple annual installments or a single installment between the second and seventh full year of project operation, provided the borrower can satisfy Agency criteria for approving repayment. Repayment can only be made once the project has been operating for 2 years and the project's operations and finances have stabilized. Repayment must be made during the initial operating phase, which ends at the close of year seven. Repayments may be in one to five installments, until the borrower's contribution to Initial Operating Capital has been fully repaid. The financial condition of the project may preclude full repayment of Initial Operating Capital.

The borrower must be able to demonstrate that the project is financially stable, that repayment will not require a rent increase, and that the project is in compliance with Agency requirements.

B. Borrower Submissions

- The borrower may submit a request for repayment of Initial Operating Capital with the transmission of the annual financial report.
- The borrower's request is submitted in writing and addressed to the Servicing Office.
- The submission includes documentation demonstrating how the project meets Agency criteria for repayment:
 - ◇ The project's financial position is stable (e.g. no accounts payables);
 - ◇ The project has averaged 90 percent occupancy over the most recent 12 months;
 - ◇ Contributions to reserves are on schedule;
 - ◇ There are no outstanding compliance violations;
 - ◇ The project is not under a workout agreement; and
 - ◇ Repayment will not require a rent increase.
- The submission should specify the amount of the repayment the borrower is requesting in the current year, and, if applicable, the borrower's plan for completing repayments in ensuing years.

C. Agency Processing

Staff examine the submission for eligibility, completeness, and compliance with the criteria the Agency has established that a project must meet in order for a repayment to be made. If staff find that the project can support the repayment, an additional analysis is performed to compute the amount.

Staff may approve requests for the repayment of Initial Operating Capital only if the borrower's written request and the Agency's records demonstrate the following criteria:

- Occupancy. The occupancy rate for the project over the most recent 12 months has averaged 90 percent.
- Contributions to reserves. Contributions to reserves are on schedule, less any authorized withdrawals.
- Sufficient income. When the amount of the repayment is subtracted from the general operating account the ending cash balance still includes an amount equal to 10 percent of projected annual operating costs, and all required payments for taxes and insurance.

Impact on rents:

- ◇ Repayment is denied if it creates a shortfall in operating income that must be made up by a rent increase.
- ◇ There is no issue if no rent increases are projected in the year the repayment is made.
- ◇ A rent increase will not affect repayment if rents are increasing to cover increases in costs, such as wages, taxes, or insurance.

1. Amount of Repayment

The borrower may receive an amount equal to the original contribution of Initial Operating Capital or a smaller installment if the operating budget cannot support repayment in a single installment (see examples).

Example
	Case One	Case Two	Case Three
Year-end cash balance	$57,000	$40,000	$27,000
10% O&M requirement plus taxes and insurance	27,000	27,000	27,000
Initial Operating Capital	30,000	30,000	20,000
Repayment Amount	30,000	13,000	30,000
Initial Operating Capital unpaid balance	0	17,000	30,000
The borrower in Case One can be repaid in a single installment. The borrower in Case Two would require three installments, assuming little change in the project’s financial condition. The borrower in Case Three could not receive any repayment this year.

2. The Decision Process

- The Servicing Office has 60 calendar days to review the annual financial statement, including the request for repayment of Initial Operating Capital.
- The Servicing Office may decide to:
 - ◇ Permit repayment in the amount requested by the borrower;
 - ◇ Permit repayment, but in an amount less than that requested by the borrower; or
 - ◇ Refuse repayment because the project does not meet the criteria for repayment.
- The decision of the Servicing Office is transmitted in a letter to the borrower. In addition to the amount, if any, of the authorized repayment, and/or the reasons for denying repayment, the letter states the amount of any remaining unpaid balance of the original contribution to Initial Operating Capital.

- Multi-Family Information System (MFIS) is updated to show the amount of the authorized repayment and the unpaid balance of Initial Operating Capital.

D. Repayment of Advanced Loan Funds

The payback of the advance may be permitted by the Loan Servicer, provided the terms and conditions were mutually agreed to by the borrower and the Agency at the time of the advance and the financial position of the project will not be jeopardized. Payback should only be permitted on the advance when the Agency debt is current and the reserve requirements are being maintained in accordance with Section 3.

4.11 RETURN ON INVESTMENT

The borrower may take the return on investment (ROI) before withdrawing the original contribution to Initial Operating Capital. Borrowers may receive a ROI in accordance with the terms of their loan agreement and the following:

- The borrower may take the ROI after the project's fiscal year ends if there is a positive net cash flow (see line 30 on Form RD 3560-7) and the balance of the reserve account is equal to or greater than required deposits minus authorized withdrawals. If the annual financial reports indicate that the borrower should not have taken an ROI, the Agency will require the borrower to return the unauthorized ROI to the project.
 - ◇ The Agency considers excess cash to be the portion of the ending cash balance on Form RD 3560-7, Multiple Family Housing Project Budget/Utility Allowance that exceeds 20 percent of annual operating and maintenance expenses, the taxes and insurance escrow, and 2 percent money, if applicable.
 - ◇ When determining positive net cash flow, the Agency will consider such items as accounts payable and reserve withdrawals to cover operating expenses. For example, the borrower may not circumvent the order for funding accounts by using reserve funds or creating an accounts payable for budgeted operating expenses to make it appear as though the budget has a positive cash flow at year-end.
- Since the Agency permits the current year's ROI to be taken from excess project funds at the end of the following fiscal year, the Agency will, in turn, permit the current year's ROI to be taken from excess project funds at the end of the current fiscal year. Under these conditions, the borrower must receive specific authorization from the Agency. Under all conditions, the borrower may not take an ROI from project funds until after the end of the project's current fiscal year.
- If the project's operations show a negative cash flow (see line 30 on Form RD 3560-7), the Agency may authorize the borrower to take the ROI only after the Agency has reviewed the project's annual financial report and determines:

- ◇ There is excess cash in either the general operating account or the reserve account; and
- ◇ The housing project has sufficient funds to address identified capital or operational needs.
- The borrower may take the ROI from the reserve account if the conditions set out in the loan agreement are met.

Example

Case One: Consider a project that has been operational for eight years, has a $1,000 ROI specified in the loan agreement, and needs $10,000 excess cash to cover 20 percent of annual operating and maintenance expenses and taxes and insurance escrow.

If the project had a negative cash flow after payment of operating and maintenance expenses, reserves, and debt service expenses during the calendar year (CY) 2003 but had $20,000 available in the general operating account, the Agency would approve an ROI from funds available at the end of CY 2003.

If the project had a negative cash flow during CY 2003 but had only $5,000 available in the general operating account, the Agency would not approve an ROI from funds available at the end of CY 2003

Case Two: Consider the same project as described in Case One. During CY 2003, the borrower believed that there would not be adequate cash to pay taxes at year end, so the borrower requested $2,000 from the reserve account for operating purposes; however, the project ended the year with $3,000. In this case, the borrower can take the $1,000 without Agency permission. However, if the net cash amount was less than $2,000, the borrower can only take ROI from excess cash.

SECTION 3: REPLACEMENT RESERVES [7 CFR 3560.306]

4.12 PURPOSE OF RESERVES

The Agency has a financial interest in a project over the life of its loan. During this period, which can be as long as 50 years, major replacements and capital expenditures will have to be made to the building, such as replacing the roof, rewiring, replacing windows, doing major exterior work, and adding new kitchen and bathroom fixtures. The reserve account is primarily used to meet the major capital expense needs of a project. If these expenditures are not made, the property loses value, becomes less attractive to tenants, and begins to deteriorate, and the Agency's financial interest is at risk.

In most cases, such expenditures cannot be met out of annual operating income. Therefore, the Agency requires that a certain amount of rental income each month be deposited in a special, interest-bearing savings account—a reserve account—with rates greater than or equal to passbook savings or checking accounts. The Agency's expectation is that over time, the accumulation of funds in this account will be sufficient to meet these major capital costs. Adequate replacement reserves are a critical component of a successful project.

4.13 RESERVE ACCOUNT REQUIREMENTS

The reserve account is a required account subject to the requirements set out in this paragraph. The borrower will initiate monthly deposits in this project account, starting the same month the first loan payment is due the Agency. As projects age, the required reserve account level may be adjusted to meet anticipated life-cycle needs, including equipment and facility replacement costs, by amending the loan agreement/resolution.

- All Rural Rental Housing, Rural Cooperative Housing, and Farm Labor Housing borrowers are required to establish and maintain a reserve account. This requirement excludes On-Farm Labor Housing borrowers with less than 12 units.
- Effective July 26, 1994, reserve funds were required to be placed in a supervised account. The provisions of 7 CFR part 1902, subpart A, apply. Reserve funds on deposit prior to this date in instruments that are subject to monetary penalties for early withdrawal may be temporarily held for the time needed to avoid such penalties.

4.14 RESERVE INSTALLMENTS

Immediately after paying each installment for the orderly retirement of the Agency loan as provided in the borrower's Form RD 3560-52, Promissory Note required reserve installments will be transferred to the Reserve Account at least at the required rate stipulated by the borrower's loan agreement or resolution starting with the date the first payment is due to the Agency. Transfers will continue until the account reaches the total amount specified in the loan agreement or resolution. Transfers will be resumed the period following withdrawals that decrease the reserve account balance below its required level until it is restored to the specified total minimum sum.

As projects age, the required reserve account level may be adjusted to meet anticipated "life-cycle" needs, including equipment and facility replacement costs, by amending the loan agreement/resolution.

The Agency may approve a change in the reserve account funding level based on the findings of an approved capital needs assessment. The approval to increase reserve account funding levels will take into consideration the housing project's approved budget and the housing project's ability to support increased reserve account deposits without causing basic rents to exceed conventional rents for comparable units in the area.

The Agency may approve a borrower's request to increase the required level of the reserve account to ensure sufficient funds are available to address capital requirements of a transition plan. Loan funds may also be used for this purpose.

4.15 RESERVE ACCOUNT PRINCIPLES

Reserve account funds are governed by the following principles:

A. Investment Vehicles and Institutions

Reserve account funds not immediately needed to pay for expenses or authorized purposes may be held as set out in this paragraph. Reserve account funds may be held in the form of a checking, savings, negotiable order of withdrawal, or similar account at a federally insured domestic institution, such as a bank, savings and loan, or credit union.

- Reserve account funds may be held in the form of readily marketable obligations of the U.S. Treasury Department (e.g., U.S. Treasury bonds, U.S. Savings bonds, zero coupon bonds, etc.) at a federally insured domestic institution or at an insured domestic institution authorized to sell securities.
- Reserve account funds may also be held in the form of an account (the account may be a tax exempt account or a taxable account) established at an insured domestic institution authorized to sell securities (the institution may or may not charge brokerage fees), provided the accounts meet the remaining conditions set out in this paragraph and are not used in a speculative manner.

B. Limitations on Investments in Securities

Any securities must be backed by the U.S. Government or an Agency of the U.S. Government, or be triple A-rated Government National Mortgage Association collateralized tax-exempt bonds or be triple A-rated pre-refunded bonds. Pre-refunded bonds are bonds that originally may have been issued as general obligation or revenue bonds but are now secured, until the call date or maturity, by an escrow fund consisting entirely of direct Government obligations that are sufficient for paying the bondholders.

C. Reporting Actual Costs of Securities

To assure that required amounts have been paid into the reserve account, the actual costs of securities (which in many cases may not be the face value) must be shown on the project books. In addition, details of these transactions should be disclosed in footnotes to financial information provided to the Agency.

1. Security Sales

When the Agency approves withdrawals from the reserve account and the funds are invested in securities, borrowers must, to the extent that securities are available, assure that securities are sold in an amount that results in proceeds sufficient to cover the disbursement.

2. Forecasting Security Sales

Since the sale or redemption of any securities may result in cash proceeds of less than the amount invested, borrowers should take steps to minimize the risk of loss from converting securities to cash. Needed reserve account withdrawals should be forecasted well in advance to permit Agency approval of anticipated needs, such that security sales can be arranged to be sold in favorable market conditions. When sales of securities take place, the proceeds will normally be held in a reserve fund at a domestic bank, savings and loan, credit union, or similar institution insured by an Agency of the Federal Government until such time as withdrawals are actually needed for the purposes authorized. Should unusual circumstances require the sale of securities in unfavorable market conditions, the borrower will not be required to reimburse the project for any losses incurred.

3. Knowledge Required of Securities Investors

Those investing in securities must be knowledgeable of common industry practices prior to investing in securities. Knowledge of the various fees that may be associated with the purchase and sale of securities and the maintenance of security accounts must be considered when making security investments (e.g., front-end loads or fees, back-end loads or fees, maintenance fees, etc.). Such fees may be paid by the general operating account or by the reserve account. However, the Agency must give its prior consent before reserve account funds may be used.

4. Financial Advisor Limitations

Project proceeds may not be permitted to be used to pay for the services of a financial advisor to assist in the selecting of securities for investments, since the securities permitted are relatively limited and must meet the requirements set out herein. However, normal brokerage fees may be paid to secure and sell securities. It is recognized that financial advice may also be provided as part of the normal brokerage fee.

4.16 ELIGIBLE USES OF THE RESERVE ACCOUNT

A. Planned Use of Reserves

The borrower will request withdrawal from the reserve funds using RD Form 3560-12, Request for Authorization to Withdraw Reserve Funds, before they are needed. Annual budgets are to include realistic routine income and expense levels to avoid the need to use the reserve for routine expenses (operating shortfalls), not caused by emergencies or very unusual servicing situations. The Agency expects borrowers to anticipate and plan for major capital expenditures at least annually.

The borrower is required to submit an annual capital expenditure budget as part of the annual budget submission. The Loan Servicer reviews these documents, as well as the annual report of actual expenditures to ensure that the borrower includes expenditures adequate to maintain the property to Agency standards. This should include plans to catch up with any maintenance expenses deferred from previous years, or to correct any deficiencies identified during Agency site visits. Marshal and Swift “Residential Cost Handbook” provides data on projected useful life of materials with graphic representations of common replacement and repair schedules for reference.

The borrower must submit a written request to the Agency to use reserve funds, even if the Agency has reviewed and approved the capital expenditures in its review of the annual capital budget.

B. Unanticipated Uses of Reserves

The Agency recognizes that not all capital expenditures can be predicted a year in advance. Sometimes a major piece of equipment will break down unexpectedly or a severe storm will create damage. Borrowers must seek Agency approval for the unforeseen use of reserves. In emergency situations when the borrower can demonstrate an imminent and serious threat to the health, safety, or physical security of the project, the borrower may request the Agency to post-approve the use of reserves. The Agency will only approve emergency withdrawals if the reserves are used for eligible expenses.

C. Authorized Uses/Eligible Expenditures

The Loan Servicer will take prompt action on a request for reserve withdrawal (normally within 5 working days of the request) and provide written authorization to the borrower for any authorized withdrawal of funds by the use of Form RD 3560-12 before the borrower actually withdraws any funds. Authorized purposes include:

- To make improvements to the housing project without creating new living units or to retrofit units to make them accessible to the physically handicapped.
- The use of reserve funds to address the capital requirements identified by the borrower’s transition plan may be considered an authorized use of reserve account funds. Loan funds may also be used for this purpose.

- Make permanent improvements to the housing project, such as installing an energy-conserving heat pump or making a unit accessible to persons with disabilities.
- For other purposes desired by the borrower, which in the judgment of the Government will promote the loan purposes; strengthen the security; or facilitate, improve, or maintain the project and the orderly collection of the loan without jeopardizing the loan or impairing the adequacy of the security. Reserve funds may also be used to facilitate payment of fees associated with the buying or selling of securities or maintaining a securities account.
- To meet payments due on the loan obligations in the event the amount for debt service is not sufficient for that purpose.
- Meet an emergency shortfall in operating expenses when the emergency is beyond the control of the borrower and threatens life, safety, or the physical security of the project. Examples might include an extreme weather disaster or reductions in rental income caused by changes in the rental market that affect other housing projects as well. In cases of weather disasters, the project insurance coverage will be reviewed to determine if funding from insurance will be available for repairs.
- With Agency approval, borrowers operating on a for-profit or a limited profit basis may make an annual withdrawal from the reserve account, equal to no more than 25 percent of the interest earned on a reserve account during the prior year. The borrower uses Form RD 3560-12, requesting the withdrawal and must provide documentation of the prior year interest earned.
- To pay a ROI at the end of the borrower's project operating year, provided that after these disbursements the amount in the reserve account will not be less than that required by the loan agreement or resolution to be accumulated by that time (taking into consideration the provisions of any approved servicing plan which may be authorizing a temporary adjustment to these provisions), minus any authorized withdrawals, and provided that the amount in the reserve account will likely not fall below that required to be accumulated during the next 12 months.
 - ◇ In the case of borrowers' operating on a limited-profit basis, paying a return on the borrower's initial investment as identified in the loan agreement or resolution; and
 - ◇ In the case of borrowers' operating on a full-profit basis, paying an annual return as specified in the borrowers' loan agreement or resolution.

4.17 THE WITHDRAWAL PROCESS

A. Common Procedure

The procedures that the borrower and the Agency use vary with the complexity and cost of the project for which reserve funds are sought. However, some steps are used in all cases:

- The borrower writes to the Field Office using Form RD 3560-12 to request the use of reserve funds for a capital expenditure. The request will include:
 - ◇ A statement of the purpose and a description of the project for which reserves will be used;
 - ◇ The current balance in the account and other activity, such as deposits and withdrawals;
 - ◇ The estimated cost of the project;
 - ◇ Copies of bids, if appropriate;
 - ◇ A copy of the approved capital budget that included the project or an explanation of why the project was not included in the annual capital budget; and
 - ◇ A statement of the current balance in the reserve account.
- The Servicing Office reviews the request:
 - ◇ If the request is for a project that was included in the annual capital budget and approved during the Agency review of the engagement report, and is not a substantial construction activity, the Servicing Office must complete its review within 5 business days.
 - ◇ If the request is for a capital expenditure that is not an emergency and was not part of the annual capital budget, the Servicing Office has 10 business days to complete its review.
- The Servicing Office notifies the borrower in writing of the decision to:
 - ◇ Approve the request;
 - ◇ Approve the request with conditions; or
 - ◇ Reject the request (this must include the reasons for rejection and an explanation of the borrower's appeal rights).

- The borrower submits a request for payment, supported by an invoice and accompanied by a two-party check made out to the vendor or contractor.

B. Bid Requirements

The expenditure of reserve funds for a project (all work included in one contract) estimated to cost more than $3500 will require a minimum of two bids. Where there is an identity of interest (IOI) between the borrower or property manager and a bidder, the entity with the IOI must submit its bid directly to the Servicing Office, prior to requesting bids from other firms. The Agency requires at least two bids from other firms or an explanation of why the borrower was unable to obtain two bids.

C. Projects Involving Moderate Levels of Construction

These are projects that do not involve any substantial changes to the structure or replacement of major systems (electrical, plumbing, heating, or cooling) and cost less than $100,000. Examples could include exterior repainting, roof repair, parking lot repaving, and repairs to plumbing or electrical systems. When the borrower requests access to reserves for a moderate construction activity, the Agency first reviews the project documents and then reviews a payment request.

In addition to the items specified above, the borrower must provide:

- Project planning documents that describe the work to be performed;
- Copies of written bids; and
- A copy of the contract/proposal.

After the project has been completed, the borrower submits a request for payment, supported by an invoice and accompanied by a two-party check made out to the vendor or contractor.

D. Larger Construction Items

These activities involve substantial changes to the structure, replacement of major systems, or expenditures in excess of $100,000. Such activities are subject to the design requirements of RD Instruction 1924-A and RD Instruction 1924-C. In addition to the items specified above, the borrower must provide:

- Project planning documents, including specifications and drawings as necessary to fully describe the work;
- Copies of written bids;
- A rationale for awarding the contract; and
- A copy of the construction contract.

The required planning documents may be prepared by any individual or firm meeting the qualifications requirements of the local building jurisdiction. After the planning documents and construction contract have been accepted by the Agency, the borrower may request an initial draw to pay for materials or make a down payment to the contractor. The request for an initial draw should be accompanied by an invoice and a check made out to the contractor or vendor, to be cosigned by the Agency. The Agency may approve such a request provided the amount of the initial draw does not exceed a reasonable percentage of the value of the construction contract.

The Agency will inspect the project before approving the work and again at construction completion before approving the final payment. The purpose of the initial inspection is to establish that the proposed work is needed and an appropriate response to existing conditions. The purpose of the final inspection is to establish that the work was performed as described in the Agency-accepted documents. The Agency may conduct additional inspections as necessary. The borrower should be required to hire an independent third-party inspector to verify that the work complies with all applicable requirements.

4.18 EXCESS RESERVES

Any amount in the reserve account that exceeds the total sum specified in the loan agreement or resolution may be transferred to the general operating account for the authorized purposes only when it is agreed between the borrower and the Agency to be in excess of the requirement and there is a specific need for the excess funds. However, the Loan Servicer may direct the excess sum to be retained in the reserve account or applied as an extra payment on the loan.

SECTION 4: PROJECT BUDGETS

4.19 BUDGET REQUIREMENTS [7 CFR 3560.303]

Project budgets are planning documents that provide a picture of project financial operations. They reflect the project's expected revenues and expenses, including plans for maintenance, capital improvements, reserve account activity, and the owner's return for the coming year. Within twelve months of the date of publication of the interim final regulation, for projects with eight units or more, all borrowers will be required to submit project budgets through the Management Agent Interactive Network or MINC. The Agency may make an exception to this requirement if the borrower submits documentation that the costs associated with electronic submission of tenant certifications would pose a financial hardship to the project.

Borrowers must submit annual project budgets to the Agency for approval. Budgets must meet the following requirements:

- Budgets must be reasonable and realistic. Revenues and expenses must be consistent with past project budgets and comparable projects. Any differences must be due to legitimate operating needs of the project.
- Project expenses can include only expenses necessary to maintain successful projects. (An example of an unnecessary expense is owner or manager entertainment expenses.) Project expenses cannot be used for unearned personal benefit or gain, or for reimbursement of false or inaccurate expenses.
- The borrower must not include expenses for purposes unrelated to the housing project or for fines, penalties, and legal fees where the borrower has been found guilty of violating laws such as civil rights, evictions, and building codes.
- The borrower is responsible to submit project budgets that address the project's physical accessibility needs. The Loan Servicer may approve the cost of providing accessible rental housing as an authorized use of project funds.
- The borrower must not include organizational expenses among project expenses. These items are covered by the management fee. (For a list of items covered in the management fee, see Chapter 3.)
- With prior Agency approval, nonprofits and cooperatives may request a Nonprofit Asset Management Fee. This fee may reimburse the borrower for the cost of errors and omissions insurance and actual expenses prorated by the number Rural Development projects not to exceed $7500. The oversight functions include:
 - ◇ Board of Director's review and approval of proposed budgets, including proposed repairs, outlays, and accruals;
 - ◇ Review of capital expenditures over $500;

- ◇ Approval of annual financial reports and considerations of any management comments noted; and
- ◇ Long-term asset management reviews.
- The priority order of project expenditures must be:
 - ◇ Prior lien holder, if any;
 - ◇ Operating and maintenance expenses, including taxes and insurance;
 - ◇ Debt service to the Agency;
 - ◇ Reserve account deposits;
 - ◇ Other authorized expenses; and
 - ◇ Return on the owner’s investment or Nonprofit Asset Management Fee.

4.20 ANNUAL CAPITAL EXPENDITURE BUDGET

A. The Role of the Borrower

The borrower identifies major maintenance and replacement needs during the annual budget cycle and develops a schedule for making withdrawals from the reserve account to pay for their cost. These plans are incorporated by the borrower into the annual capital expenditure budget, and may also be reflected in the operating budget if the work is to be paid for out of operating income.

B. Agency Review

The Loan Servicer uses the budget cycle to assess the borrower’s annual capital expenditure budget compared with available information about the types of capital improvements needed to maintain the project’s physical condition. Independent sources of information such as RS Means “Repair and Remodeling Cost Data” and Marshall and Swift “Residential Cost Handbook” should be consulted for common costs and repair/replacements schedules.

The Loan Servicer reviews the operating and annual capital budgets, and compares them with previous budgets, site visit reports, physical inspections, capital needs assessments, and audit reports. When doing so, the Loan Servicer should consider the following questions:

- Are expenditures sufficient to maintain the project according to the Agency’s performance standards and the requirements of the project management plan?
- Were any essential items of maintenance deferred during the past year, which should be financed from the upcoming operating or capital budget?

- Are there any uncorrected defects noted in site visit reports that should be financed from the upcoming operating or capital budget?
- Has a capital needs assessment of the property been prepared?
- Is the amount budgeted for maintenance and replacement reserve expenditures sufficient to address immediate capital needs?
- If capital needs information is available, are replacement reserve contributions and funding levels sufficient to address anticipated capital needs over the next 5 years?

If the Loan Servicer finds the operating and capital budgets inadequate to keep the project in compliance with Agency standards for physical conditions [7 CFR 3560.103], the Loan Servicer must request the borrower to modify the annual capital plan. The Loan Servicer may also request modifications if it is found that the borrower has proposed expenditures to be paid from reserves that should be charged to the operating account.

4.21 SCHEDULE FOR BUDGET REVIEW AND APPROVAL

The schedule for submitting budgets depends on whether the proposed budget includes a rent change. Budgets with rent increases require extra time for approval. Exhibit 4-1 outlines the schedule for budgets with and without rent increases.

A. Agency Review Time

The total Agency review time for a budget from submission to initial approval or rejection is:

- Thirty days for budgets without rent increases; and
- Sixty days for budgets with rent increases.

If the initial budget is rejected, this schedule allows for a second review of the budget and approval (if appropriate) before the start of the fiscal year. However, the Agency must take action on all budgets within 60 days of receipt of the borrower's budget.

B. Late Budget Submissions

The schedule provided for budget reviews relies on timely submission of budget documents by the borrower. If the borrower is tardy in submitting required documents, the Agency cannot ensure that all deadlines will be met. Therefore, if a borrower submits the budget late, Agency deadlines no longer apply, and the borrower is not eligible for "automatic approval" of the budget (as discussed in Paragraph 4.30 B.). If no budget is approved by the end of the project's fiscal year, the borrower must operate under the previously approved budget until the Agency reviews and approves the new budget.

Exhibit 4-1
Schedule for Budget Submission and Review
Budgets without Rent Increases
60 calendar days prior to end of the project's fiscal year November 1*	Borrower submits budget documents to Agency. Agency has 30 days total to review the complete budget
30 calendar days prior to end of fiscal year December 1	Agency approves or denies the budget. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If the budget was denied, the borrower may submit additional information to address deficiencies within 10 days. • Agency makes final approval or rejection of budget within 20 days of receipt of this information.
End of fiscal year December 31	Final approval or rejection of the budget. If budget is rejected, the current year's budget remains in effect.
Budgets with Rent Increases
90 calendar days prior to end of fiscal year October 1*	Borrower submits budget documents to Agency and notifies tenants of requested rent increase. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tenants have 20-day comment period to get back to the borrower. • Within 30 days of receipt, the Agency must reject the budget or contact the Borrower requesting additional information or clarification. • Agency has approximately 60 days total to review the budget.

30 days prior to end of fiscal year December 1	Agency gives final approval or denial of the budget. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If the budget is approved, tenants must have at least 30 days' notice or notification required by local law before the rent increase takes effect. (If the notices given to tenants at the outset stated the amount of the effective increase, then notice has been given). • If the rent increase is denied, the borrower may submit a revised budget at previously approved rents with expenditures acceptable to the Agency. In the absence of such a revised budget, the current year's budget remains effect.
Beginning of project's fiscal year January 1	New budget and rent increase take effect.
* The dates provided are for a sample project with a fiscal year that begins January 1. For projects with different fiscal years, adjust accordingly.  If the borrower submitted the budget on time, and has not been notified by the Agency of any deficiencies by this time, the budget is considered approved unless it is not eligible for automatic approval.

C. Steps in Budget Review and Approval Process

When reviewing and approving budgets, Loan Servicers must take the steps shown in Exhibit 4-2.

Exhibit 4-2Steps in the Budget Review and Approval Process

- Follow procedure for receipt of budgets;
- Prioritize budgets for review;
- Review outstanding monitoring findings;
- Review the budget for reasonableness;
- Review the reserve account,
- Review the rent change, if requested; and
- Approve or deny the budget.

Budgets for projects that receive HUD Section 8 assistance need to be reviewed with the same rigor as other projects. However, there are certain procedures that differ. These procedures are discussed later in the chapter.

4.22 RECEIVING THE BUDGET

Standard procedures for budget receipt will help Loan Servicers to track the progress of budgets through the approval process and meet approval deadlines. Further, intake procedures should help prioritize the review of budgets so that those with the highest priority (e.g., those with rent changes) receive the attention they need in a timely manner. The borrower must submit a budget narrative, budget form (Form RD 3560-7 or other form as approved by the Agency as part of the budget submission.

1. Budget Narrative

The budget narrative provides a description of the budget and highlights important elements to aid Loan Servicers in their review of the budget. Items to be covered in the budget narrative are listed in Exhibit 4-3.

Exhibit 4-3

Items to Be Covered in a Budget Narrative

- A brief description of the project and its status. The description should address key indicators of project status. For example, it should highlight any issues concerning vacancies, unexpected maintenance, or other items that affect the budget.
- A statement of project compliance. This statement should indicate any outstanding monitoring findings and the borrower’s progress in addressing these compliance problems.
- A description of the project’s financial status, highlighting the project’s overall financial status, important changes during the last year, and factors contributing to financial difficulties.
- An explanation of any changes in project expenses or cash sources that exceed the tolerance threshold.
- An explanation of projected capital expenditures and reserve withdrawals for the upcoming year and capital needs for the next three years beyond the budget year.
- If applicable, a statement that the proposed budget includes a rent increase and reasons for the increase.
- Any additional documentation necessary for the Agency to establish that applicable Agency requirements have been met.

2. Form RD 3560-7, Multiple Family Housing Project Budget/Utility Allowance

This Agency form outlines the budget by line item and provides information on cash sources and uses, including rents and reserves.

3. Capital Budget

The capital budget form, Part V of Form RD 3560-7 provides information on plans for capital improvements. It lists all the capital items in the project and provides space for the borrower to indicate their condition and any needed improvements.

Procedure for Receiving Budgets

The following steps are taken upon receipt of budget submissions:

- When hard copies of the budget are submitted, the Loan Servicer should date stamp them, enter them into MFIS, and forward them to the appropriate Servicing Official.
- When the borrower’s notification of intention to request a rent increase is received, the Loan Servicer should establish a rent change folder for tenant comments.
- When tenant comments are received, the Loan Servicer should review, record, and file them.

4.23 BUDGET REVIEW

A. Procedure for the Budget Review

The following items must be checked in the review:

- Verify that all required items in the budget narrative have been addressed (see Exhibit 4-3 for a listing).
- Review Form RD 3560-7 to verify that all appropriate line items are completed. Perform a quick assessment to ensure that they appear to be completed properly.
- Verify that the capital budget is complete. Capital improvements needed to implement a borrower's transition plan should be included as part of the capital budget portion of Form RD 3560-7, when applicable. Compliance-related costs include reasonable fees and costs for preparing self-evaluations and transition plans.

If the budget is complete, the budget review should continue as described in the following sections. If the budget is incomplete, the Loan Servicer must take the steps described below.

B. Incomplete Budgets

If any items are missing or are of such poor quality that there is insufficient information to begin an assessment of the budget, the budget is considered incomplete.

If the budget submission is incomplete, the Loan Servicer must contact the borrower, stating that the budget is incomplete, and discuss the deficiencies.

- If the borrower does not submit the requested information within a 10-day time period from the Agency's contact, the Agency cannot guarantee approval of the budget before the beginning of the new fiscal year. In these cases, the borrower must continue operations under the previous year's budget until a budget is approved. The borrower is not eligible for automatic approval as described in Paragraph 4.28 B, and the budget will be returned unapproved.
- If the borrower does submit the information within 10 days, the budget is considered to be on time, and the review can still be completed prior to the end of the fiscal year. The budget is eligible for automatic approval, as described later in this chapter.

4.24 PRIORITIZING BUDGETS FOR REVIEW

After budgets have been received and determined to be complete, the Loan Servicer should prioritize budgets for review. Prioritizing the budgets helps to ensure that the budgets that require the most thorough review receive the attention they need. Budgets with the highest priority for review include budgets for projects with:

- Requests for rent increases above $25;

- Vacancy rates above the allowable threshold; and
- Past monitoring findings.

While Loan Servicers should place the highest priority on reviewing these budgets, they should plan their time to allow for sufficient review of all budgets.

4.25 REVIEWING OUTSTANDING COMPLIANCE ISSUES

Having determined that the budget submission is complete, the Loan Servicer must check the project for outstanding compliance findings and assess whether the borrower's budget narrative reflects adequate efforts to address these findings.

Specifically, the budget narrative must discuss the following issues and explain how they are addressed in the proposed budget.

- Any outstanding findings from last year's annual financial report;
- Outstanding findings from recent physical inspections or supervisory visits (to be renamed occupancy and management/administration reviews); and
- Workout agreement (if applicable).

If the outstanding monitoring issues have been adequately addressed in the budget narrative, the Loan Servicer should proceed with the review for reasonableness. If project compliance issues have not been addressed, the budget documents should be returned to the borrower for revision.

4.26 REASONABLENESS REVIEW

If all outstanding compliance issues have been addressed, the Loan Servicer must review the budget for reasonableness. The Loan Servicer must use the steps outlined in Exhibit 4-4 to make a determination of reasonableness.

A. Tolerance Threshold

In reviewing the proposed budget, Loan Servicers must apply a tolerance threshold of 10 percent. This means that when Loan Servicers perform the reasonableness analysis, if specific budget items (as identified in Exhibit 4-4) differ from the appropriate benchmark by more than 10 percent, they are considered to exceed the tolerance threshold and require additional analysis, as described in subparagraph D below.

B. Reasonable Vacancy Allowance

A vacancy allowance is considered reasonable if it does not exceed the previous 3 years' historical vacancy and contingency allowance in the property. However, the vacancy rate is capped at the following levels:

- For projects with 15 or fewer units, the historical vacancy rate is capped at 15 percent.
- For projects with more than 15 units, the historical vacancy rate is capped at 10 percent.
- In unusual circumstances when vacancy rates exceed caps, a workout plan must be submitted prior to receiving budget approval.

C. Utility Allowance Analysis

Depending upon the rate of change in costs, the borrower must provide the following documentation describing the utility allowances:

- If utility costs have changed significantly (over 15 percent):
 - ◇ Documentation of the extent of the utility rate changes. This may include billing information or documentation from utility companies; and
 - ◇ A significant sampling of tenant utility usage from the utility company. If tenant utility information is unavailable from the utility company or only provided at cost, utility billings received by tenants are acceptable.
- If utility costs have changed moderately (15 percent or less):
 - ◇ Information regarding rate changes; and
 - ◇ A sampling of individual tenant utility usage.
- If there are no changes in utility rates:
 - ◇ Documentation in the annual budget indicating that no change in rates has occurred during the period being reviewed; or
 - ◇ A public release from the utility provider indicating no change in rates has occurred during the period reviewed.
- If there has been no documentation provided on utility usage during the most recent period:
 - ◇ Documents as if utility costs have changed significantly; or
 - ◇ Letter from utility company saying there has been no increases in rates.

D. Procedure for Reviewing Cost Increase Justifications

If the reasonableness analysis reveals that the subtotal for any operating expense category—maintenance and operating costs, utilities, administration, or taxes and insurance—exceeds the tolerance threshold, the Loan Servicer should review the budget narrative to determine whether the borrower provided adequate documentation that the expenses for this category are reasonable and necessary. For example, the borrower might provide documentation of the following:

- Costs are comparable to the costs for similar properties in the conventional market. For example, the borrower might show that insurance costs for the same coverage at a conventional project are comparable to the costs for the project shown in the budget.
- The factors contributing to the cost increases are beyond the borrower's control and the borrower is actively implementing cost-containment measures. For example, the project is subject to utility rate or tax increases.
- The cost increase is needed to cover actions to address identified physical deficiencies that are not due to negligence by the borrower or the management agent. Physical deficiencies that are due to negligence by the borrower or the management agent are not acceptable reasons for a rent increase.

If the explanation for the rent increase is not acceptable, the budget should be rejected.

Exhibit 4-4Review for Reasonableness

The reasonableness review involves three steps as described below:

Step 1: Review the operating expenses, income sources, and vacancy allowance.

- Operating expenses: Check operating subtotals (O&M, Utilities, Administrative, Taxes and Insurance (T&I):
 - ◇ Are operating subtotals more than 10 percent different from last year?
 - ◇ Are operating subtotals more than 10 percent different from comparable properties?
- Income sources: Check income sources (rental and subsidy, nonrental)
 - ◇ Are income sources more than 10 percent different from last year?
 - ◇ Are income sources more than 10 percent different from comparable properties?
- Vacancy allowance: Is the vacancy allowance reasonable? (15 percent for projects with 15 or fewer units, 10 percent for projects with more than 15 units.)
- Utility allowance:
 - ◇ Has appropriate documentation been provided to justify the utility allowance?
 - ◇ Does the documentation provided demonstrate that the utility allowance is reasonable and comparable to other projects in this market area?

If the answer to any of these questions is no, determine whether the budget narrative provides an adequate explanation for the unusual item.

Step 2: Check cash uses. Does the budget reflect the:

- Correct debt payment?
- Reasonable non-operational cash use?
- Correct reserve payment?
- Owner's return on investment?

If the answer to any of these questions is no, the borrower must submit a corrected budget.

Step 3: Look at the cash flow and ending cash balance.

- Cash flow: Is cash flow positive? A negative cash flow is permissible as long as it does not appear to represent a trend that cannot be corrected.
- Cash balance:
 - ◇ If cash flow is negative, what is the ending cash? Does it cover the negative cash flow?
 - ◇ Does the ending cash balance exceed the permissible limit? If so, the excess must be contributed to reserves.

If the analysis of cash flow and cash balance reveals a problem, appropriate servicing actions should be considered prior to budget approval.

4.27 REVIEWING THE RESERVE ACCOUNT

The Loan Servicer must review the reserve account levels and contributions to ensure that they are consistent with the loan agreement. The Loan Servicer will review the borrower's project account bank statements to validate the actual reserve account balances during this analysis. This review focuses on four items:

- Beginning balance. The Loan Servicer should review the beginning balance of the reserve account and both the total and the per-unit amount to ensure accuracy.
- Transfers to reserves. The Loan Servicer should check the budget to ensure that the appropriate dollar amount, as specified in the loan agreement/loan resolution, is budgeted for deposit in the reserve account.
- Transfers from reserves. Any transfers from the reserve account that are included in the budget should be described in the budget narrative and justified by the capital plan.
- Ending balance. The ending reserve account balance is calculated by taking the beginning balance, adding the transfers to the reserve account, and subtracting the transfers from the reserve account.

If the Loan Servicer finds that the reserve account level is not where it is supposed to be, that the budget does not show correct contributions to reserves, or that transfers from reserves are not adequately documented, the borrower must submit corrected budget documents.

4.28 REVIEWING THE RENT INCREASE (IF REQUESTED)

Even if the Loan Servicer has determined that the budget is reasonable based on the tests outlined in Exhibit 4-4, the rent increase must still be reviewed to confirm that the rent/utility allowance change will not adversely affect the marketability of the units and create a vacancy problem.

A. Reviewing the Rent Increase

If a review of the rent increase shows that the rent increase will adversely affect the marketability of units, the full rent increase cannot be approved. The borrower should seek a reduced rent increase and, if appropriate, request a servicing action that will enable the project to achieve a positive cash flow at lower rents. The Agency will not consider rent increases based solely on guaranteeing that the borrower will receive an ROI at the end of the project's fiscal year.

B. Standard for Allowable Rents for New Projects and Allowable Rent Increases for Special Servicing Actions

In establishing rents for new projects and for special loan servicing actions such as transfers, reamortizations, and prepayment, the Agency has introduced a market-based measure that serves as a standard for evaluating proposed rent increases. This measure, Conventional Rents for Comparable Units (CRCU), is an objective measure, specific to the quality of the unit that reflects the local market and serves as an indicator of the project's long-term feasibility.

The CRCU standard is a benchmark meant to maintain the affordability of program units and avoid a situation where basic rents are increased above local conventional rents, leading to noncompetitive rents, excessive need for rental assistance, and/or vacancy problems. Sources for determining CRCU include recent appraisals; current rental data from the Census Bureau, HUD, State housing agencies, or other reliable sources; market data provided in applications for new projects in the market area; and the Agency's review of the market. If it appears that an exception under the CRCU standard may be needed, Loan Origination or Loan Servicing staff should contact the National Office for further guidance about making such determinations.

The existence of the CRCU standard does not change the method for increasing rents. Rents remain cost based, which means that they are determined based on the project budget and must be justified by actual operating costs. The CRCU standard does not apply to annual budget submissions that request rent increases.

C. Exceptions to the CRCU Standard for New Construction and Special Loan Servicing Actions

As discussed in HB-1-3560, the Agency can make an exception to the CRCU standard when approving new projects or special servicing actions, and approve basic rents for a property that are higher than the CRCUs for the market area where the property is located, in limited circumstances when it is in the best interest of the Government and the program. The Agency may approve an exception to this standard when it is necessary to allow for decent, safe, and sanitary housing to be provided in market areas where conventional rents are not sufficient to cover necessary operating, maintenance, and reserve costs.

However, in no case may basic rents exceed CRCUs for a market area by more than 50 percent [7 CFR 3560.60(c)(2)]. This upper limit means that basic rents may never be more than 150 percent of the CRCU for the market area where the property is located. For example, if the CRCU for the market area was determined to be $300 per month, the Agency could approve an exception to allow basic rents for this unit size up to $450 per month, if there was adequate evidence that a month rent of $300 was insufficient to cover necessary operating, maintenance, and reserve costs for the proposed property in this area. In no case, however, could the Agency approve rents greater than $450 per month for a two-bedroom unit.

4.29 RENT CHANGES FOR UNITS RECEIVING HUD SECTION 8 ASSISTANCE
[7 CFR 3560.207]

The Agency has the responsibility to review and approve project budgets annually based on need to meet cash flow and expense requirements. Therefore, the Loan Servicer cannot take into account HUD’s adjustment for HUD Section 8 contract rents. The Loan Servicer must approve only the rents needed to provide sufficient income to meet approved project expenses.

A. Reviewing Budgets with HUD Subsidies

Since HUD- and Agency-approved rental rates frequently differ, it may be necessary to have additional information for properties with HUD Section 8 contracts. Exhibit 4-5 lists the additional information needed in the budget, depending upon the project type.

Exhibit 4-5
Reviewing Budgets with HUD Subsidies
Project Type	Needed In Budget
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 100 percent Section 8/515 without interest credit: HUD contract rent rate is equal to basic rent. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • HUD contract rent.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 100 percent Section 8/515 with interest credit: HUD contract rent is greater than basic rent and less than note rate rent. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Basic rent, HUD contract rent, and Agency note rate rent.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Less than 100 percent Section 8/515 without interest credit: HUD contract rent is greater than note rate rent. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • HUD contract rent and note rate rent; difference is excess funds and deposited into reserves.

B. Excess Rents

When reviewing the budget, if the Loan Servicer concludes that the HUD-authorized rent is more than what is needed to meet project expenses, a lesser amount than the HUD rent must be approved. When this occurs, in accordance with Exhibit 4-5 the borrower may be told to deposit the difference between the Agency-approved note rate rent and the higher HUD-authorized rate into the general operating account. At the end of the year, this excess rent must be deposited into the reserve account. The manager or borrower must use Form RD 3560-29, Notice of Payment Due Report, to document the required deposit in the reserve account.

4.30 APPROVAL OR REJECTION OF BUDGETS

Once the budget analysis is complete, Loan Servicers must notify the borrower if the budget has been approved or rejected.

A. Budget Approval

If the Loan Servicer has determined that the budget represents reasonable costs and adequately addresses all outstanding compliance issues in the budget narrative, the reserve account is current, and the rent change (if requested) is acceptable, the budget may be approved. To approve the budget, Loan Servicers must sign the budget (Form RD 3560-7) and send a copy to the borrower. The Loan Servicer must also enter the approval date in MFIS.

B. Automatic Budget Approval

Budgets that are not reviewed within the 60-day period are automatically approved unless:

- The budget proposes a monthly rent increase above $25 per unit; or
- Budgets are submitted late or miss other deadlines set by the Agency.

Addressing Rent Increases

Loan Servicers must make every effort to review budgets with significant rent increases within the time limits. Postponing approval is not an acceptable way to address rent increases.

If a budget is not eligible for automatic approval and no decision is made prior to the beginning of the project’s new fiscal year, the borrower must continue operations under the previous year’s budget. In these cases, the Agency must continue to work with the borrower to address the requested increase. When agreement is reached, a new budget may take effect.

- Timeframe for automatic approval. Automatic approval occurs within the following timeframes:
 - ◇ Budgets with no rent increase for automatic approval may be considered approved 30 days after the receipt of a complete budget. Borrowers who submit budgets (with no rent increases) on time and respond to all requests for additional information within the specified time periods can consider their budgets approved 30 days after submission, if they have not received notification from the Agency.
 - ◇ Budgets with rent increases eligible for automatic approval may be considered approved 60 days after the receipt of the original budget. Borrowers who submit budgets (with rent increases) on time and respond to all requests for additional information within the specified time periods can consider their budget approved 45 days after submission, if they have not received notification from the Agency.

- Procedure for automatic approval. In the case of automatic approval, the Loan Servicer must still sign Form RD 3560-7 and return a copy to the borrower no later than the end of the first month of the project's fiscal year.

C. Budget Rejection

If the Loan Servicer rejects the proposed budget because it is found to be unacceptable (for reasons related to outstanding monitoring findings, cost reasonableness, reserves, or the rent increase), the borrower has an opportunity to address the deficiencies.

- The Loan Servicer must return the proposed budget to the borrower with a letter listing deficiencies.
- The Loan Servicer must enter the appropriate tracking steps in MFIS
- The borrower has 10 days to submit new information to the Agency. The borrower may adjust the size of the rent increase requested or provide new documentation to justify budget items.
- The Loan Servicer must review the new submissions within 20 days of receipt and either approve or reject the budget.
- If the budget is approved based on the new submissions, the Loan Servicer must sign the budget and send a copy to the borrower.
- If the budget is rejected, the Loan Servicer must send the borrower a letter stating the deficiencies and informing the borrower that the previous year's budget remains in effect. The borrower must be given the option to submit a new budget using the previous year's rent levels but adjusted for projected capital expenditures and other known changes for the coming year. The borrower may appeal the budget rejection in accordance with Agency appeal procedures.

SECTION 5: REPORTING AND FINANCIAL EXAMINATIONS

4.31 MONTHLY AND QUARTERLY REPORTS [7 CFR 3560.307]

A. Overview of Reports

Financial reporting provides the Agency and the borrower a means to monitor the project's financial progress.

- Quarterly reports. Quarterly reports are required in the following situations:
 - ◇ At completion of new construction or substantial rehabilitation;
 - ◇ When the project is subject to a workout agreement; and
 - ◇ In the case of reamortization and transfer of an existing project loan.
- Monthly reports. Loan Servicers may require borrowers to prepare and submit these reports on a monthly basis when additional tracking and supervision are needed. (For example, when a project is subject to a workout agreement, when there has been a violation of program rules or reporting requirements, or when the project shows signs of financial distress.)

Loan Servicers may discontinue the reporting requirement for projects that have demonstrated consistent compliance with program requirements over a sufficient time period. Generally 12 months of consistent compliance is considered sufficient to discontinue the reporting requirements.

B. Review of Monthly and Quarterly Reports

The borrower must submit the required reports to the Agency within 30 days following the close of the reporting period (quarter or month, as appropriate). Upon receipt, the Loan Servicer must review these reports for the following:

- Look for red flags such as dramatic changes in income, expenses, the general operating account, or the reserve account.
- Check balances on accounts as discussed in Paragraph 4.3, to make sure that they are consistent with the management plan, loan agreement/resolution, and the budget.
- Check project expenditures against the budget. Make sure that the project is being operated in accordance with the approved budget.
- Check progress against workout agreements. Make sure that the borrower is taking any actions indicated in a workout agreement and is abiding by the established schedule for these actions.

4.32 ENGAGEMENTS AND PREPARATION OF ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS [7 CFR 3560.308]

A. Overview of Requirements for Annual Financial Statements

To ensure that the project is in sound financial condition and is complying with the program financial management requirements, the Agency requires annual financial statements to be submitted by each borrower. The borrower must submit Form RD 3560-7 with actual expenditures and Form RD 3560-10, Borrower Balance Sheet within 90 days of the end of the project’s fiscal year. These requirements differ by the type of project. Within twelve months of the date of publication of the interim final regulation, for projects with eight units or more, all borrowers will be required to submit Form RD 3560-10 through MINC. The Agency may make an exception to this requirement if the borrower submits documentation that the costs associated with electronic submission of tenant certifications would pose a financial hardship to the project.

1. Requirements for Large Projects

Large projects—defined as projects with 16 or more units—must base their annual financial reports on an engagement report completed according to agreed-upon procedures established by the Agency. Borrowers must include the engagement report with their annual financial reports submitted to the Agency. This report must follow specific requirements as set forth in the RHS Multi-Family Housing Audit Program (Attachment 4-B). The annual financial statements may be completed by a certified public accountant (CPA) or another individual with the training and experience to prepare the report. The borrower must initiate the engagement report using the Agency’s Engagement Letter, which will specify the engagement program and establish the reporting requirements for the engagement. Borrowers will be required to use the model engagement letter prepared by OIG.

- The annual financial statements must be completed using agreed-upon procedures that help meet the performance standards described in the RHS Multi-Family Housing Audit Program (Attachment 4-B). It must be initiated by the borrower using an engagement letter, which will either:
 - ◊ Reference the RHS Multi-Family Housing Audit Program (Attachment 4-B), which will specify the program compliance issues that the Agency wants the CPA or other qualified individual to address, and guidelines for testing compliance; or
 - ◊ State the compliance issues that the Agency wants the CPA or other qualified individual to address.
- The annual financial statements must be prepared by the CPA or other qualified individual, in accordance with American Institute of Certified Public Accountant (AICPA) Standards and Agency requirements, based on the results of the engagement.

- All submissions must be prepared for ultimate use by the Agency.

2. Requirements for Small Projects

Small projects—defined as projects with fewer than 16 units—must submit annual financial statements in accordance with the required limited-scope engagement.

- The annual financial statements may be prepared by a CPA or other qualified individual; and
- Note: Borrowers may be required to obtain and submit audits for these properties, and the costs would be an allowable project expense; borrowers must self-certify that the project meets the performance standards described in Exhibit 4-6.

Exhibit 4-6

Performance Standards

The CPA or other qualified individual must ensure that:

- Required accounts are properly maintained and tracked separately;
- Payments from operating accounts are disclosed and accurately represented;
- Reserve amount is current (i.e., contributions are on schedule and balance accounts for contributions less authorized withdrawals), and there are no encumbrances;
- Tenant security deposit accounts are fully funded and are maintained in separate accounts;
- Payment of owner return was consistent with the terms of the applicable loan agreement or loan resolution;
- Borrower/grantee has maintained proper insurance in accordance with the requirements of 7 CFR 3560.105; and
- All financial records are adequate and suitable for examination.

3. Other Requirements

- Requirements for nonprofit and public bodies. Nonprofit and public borrower entities must submit annual financial statements in accordance with the requirements established by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and must also include the requirements set forth in the limited scope engagement.
- Additional opinions. The Agency may require additional opinions of financial condition and compliance, such as annual financial statements, to assure the security of the asset; to determine whether the project is being operated at a reasonable cost; or to detect fraud, waste, or abuse.
- Annual financial reports. Any project annual financial statements independently obtained by the borrower must be submitted to the Agency for review.

B. Agency Review of Annual Financial Reports

Loan Servicers must review financial statements—in accordance with guidelines provided in Exhibit 4-7—to ensure that they meet Agency requirements. In particular, Loan Servicers must:

- Confirm that the engagement was conducted by a qualified person as described in the requirements above;
- Confirm that nonprofit and public bodies have submitted the OMB-required annual financial statements; and
- Note any problems identified in the examination, and determine appropriate corrective actions.

Loan Servicers should use the Annual Agency Review of the Engagement results to guide their review of the examination results. Once the review has been completed, the Loan Servicer must input the appropriate tracking steps in MFIS.

Exhibit 4-7

Agency Review of Annual Financial Statements

- A. Analysis of actual income and expenses. Using the actual budget submitted, record the actual income and expenses in MFIS and note any unexpected variance. In doing so, address the following questions:
- Did the expenses in any of the main categories—maintenance and operating costs, utilities, administration, and taxes and insurance—differ by more than 10 percent from their proposed levels?
 - Did the actual sources of income (rental, subsidy, and nonrental) differ by more than 10 percent from their proposed levels?
 - Was the vacancy allowance in the permissible range?
 - Were debt payments and reserve payments correct?
 - Was nonoperational cash use reasonable (as compared to last year)?
 - Was the cash flow positive?
- B. Account maintenance, tracking, and disclosure. Record in MFIS the account balances from the report and confirm that the financial report states that:
- Required accounts are maintained and tracked separately; and
 - Payments from operating accounts are disclosed and accurately represented.
- C. Reserve account status. From the financial report, record the amounts listed for the reserve balance, deposits, and withdrawals, and confirm that the financial report states that the reserve account is current and that there are no encumbrances on the reserve account funds.
- D. Tenant security deposit account status. Record in MFIS the tenant security account balance from the financial report and confirm that the report shows that the tenant security deposit balance meets liabilities and that the funds are maintained in a separate account and in accordance with state law.
- E. Payment of return to owner. Confirm that the financial report states that the payment of the owner's return was consistent with the terms of the loan agreement or resolution. Record in MFIS the actual return paid and its effect on cash flow, using the actual project budget.
- F. Insurance status. Confirm that the financial report states that all relevant insurance requirements were met.
- G. Taxes and other assessments. Confirm that the financial report states that taxes and other assessments are current. List any taxes or assessments that are not current.
- H. Issues of financial compliance and conditions. Confirm in the financial report that any funds used for unauthorized purposes have been repaid.
- I. Payment of management fees. Using the actuals in the financial report, confirm that the management fee was paid in accordance with the management certification and that the management agent is not charging the project for agent expenses.

PROCEDURES REPORT (FORM RD 1924-13 OR FORM RD 3560-7)

I. GENERAL

A. PURPOSE

This guide is designed to assist independent public accountants (“practitioners”) in conducting agreed-upon procedures engagements of Rural Rental Housing (RRH) properties financed by Rural Development. The RRH Program has a history of abuse involving the construction and ongoing operation of properties. This guide includes procedures to assist the practitioner in determining borrower and management company compliance with certain statutory, regulatory, and contractual requirements of the RRH Program. Thus, practitioners need to be familiar with laws, regulations, and procedures related to the RRH Program.

B. BACKGROUND

Rural Development uses cost certifications to verify that borrowers spent loan funds for eligible and actual costs when constructing apartment complexes as part of the RRH Program. Rural Development requires borrowers to annually report the financial operations of RRH properties on Form RD 3560-7, Multiple Family Housing Project Budget.

RRH borrowers typically use identity-of-interest companies in both the construction of apartment complexes and in managing the day-to-day operations of RRH properties. RRH borrowers that have an identity-of-interest with the borrower (general contractor) are required by Rural Development to report the actual costs of construction on Form RD 1924-13, Estimate and Certificate of Actual Cost. In addition, Form RD 1924-13 must be submitted whenever there is an identity-of-interest relationship between a borrower and a subcontractor, material supplier, or equipment lessor.

The USDA Office of Inspector General has performed audits and investigations that identified significant fraud and abuse in the RRH Program. Some of the fraud and abuse related to construction includes: Ineligible, unsupported, and duplicate costs; misrepresentation by borrowers of their roles as general contractors; shifting costs (e.g., overhead expenses) that exceeded budgeted amounts to different cost categories on Form RD 1924-13; and using identity-of-interest companies which are merely “shell” companies to either inflate legitimate charges or bill properties for costs that were never incurred.

Similar abuse using identity-of-interest companies has been identified in the ongoing management of RRH properties. Borrowers and management companies also charge ineligible, unsupported, and duplicate expenses (generally for management related costs) to properties. Also, management companies frequently do not maintain suitable records when using employees to perform maintenance of properties, and overcharge for these services. Rural Development regulations refer to any scheme that improperly withdraws funds from RRH project accounts as “equity skimming.”

USDA Office of Inspector General audits have also identified instances of conflicts of interest and a lack of independence on the part of certified and licensed public accountants when performing audits of RRH properties. Thus, practitioners should strictly adhere to the standards and principles of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants' Code of Conduct and Bylaws and applicable State Boards of Accountancy.

C. PERTINENT REGULATIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

Construction Cost:

The instructions for Form RD 1924-13 provide guidance on eligible construction costs, as well as the required format for the presentation of costs. Rural Development has also established regulations that restrict the amount of builder's profit for each project, the use of identity-of-interest companies, and the business relationships of practitioners performing engagements of RRH construction costs. The following regulations and Rural Development instructions should be used as guidance:

- Rural Development Instruction 1924-A, and
- Rural Development Instruction 1944-E.

Management of Ongoing Operations:

Rural Development regulation RD 3560 provides details on allowable and unallowable operating costs, and places restrictions on the use of identity-of-interest companies and other activities related to managing RRH properties. The instructions for Form RD 3560-7 also provides direction on eligible costs.

D. STANDARDS FOR CONDUCTING THE AGREED-UPON PROCEDURES ENGAGEMENTS

Practitioners are to perform attestation engagements using agreed-upon procedures of construction costs and ongoing operations in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountant's (AICPA) and the standards applicable to attestation engagements contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States." The practitioner's report on agreed-upon procedures should be in the form of procedures and findings. (See exhibit A for an illustrative example.)

If practitioners become suspicious of fraud or illegal acts during the course of performing the agreed-upon procedures engagement, they are to promptly report these matters (regardless of materiality) to:

U.S. Department of Agriculture
Rural Development
Rural Housing Service
Director, Multi-Family Housing Processing Division
14th and Independence Avenue SW
Washington, D.C. 20250
(202) 720-3773

The report and workpapers prepared in the course of these engagements are subject to a quality control review by the USDA Office of Inspector General.

E. OBJECTIVES

The objective of the construction cost engagement is to verify the propriety of costs reported on Form RD 1924-13. The practitioner should be alert for kickbacks on the purchase of services and materials, billings in excess of agreed-upon prices, billings for nonexistent materials or services, “sweetheart contracts,” and the diversion of materials to other construction sites.

The objective of the ongoing operations engagement is to verify the propriety of operating and maintenance expenses reported to Rural Development on Form RD 3560-7, Part II, and reserve account activity reported on Form RD 3560-7, Part III. The practitioner should be especially alert for equity skimming schemes involving maintenance costs, and unauthorized withdrawals from reserve and tenant security deposit accounts.

Of primary concern is compliance with general contractor and management company requirements and the role of identity-of-interest companies in the construction and management of RRH properties.

II. CONSTRUCTION COST ENGAGEMENTS

A. AGREED-UPON PROCEDURES FOR THE CONSTRUCTION COST ATTESTATION ENGAGEMENT

The procedures in this section are designed to identify ineligible expenses and fictitious charges to Forms RD 1924-13. RD Regulations 1924-A and the instructions for preparing Form RD 1924-13 provide guidance on eligible construction costs.

Borrowers and contractors involved in the construction of Rural Development financed RRH properties are required to maintain recordkeeping systems which establish accounts that categorize costs in conformity with sections 1924.13 (e) (1) (v) (A) and 1924.13 (e) (2) (i) (H) of Rural Development Instruction 1924-A. Form RD 1924-13 includes a certification that the cost of labor, materials, and other necessary services incurred during construction are accurate and fairly presented.

Borrowers are required to comply with laws, regulations, and Rural Development procedures related to the construction of RRH properties. USDA Office of Inspector General audits have identified borrowers that received builder's profit for being the general contractor when, in fact, general contractor responsibilities were being performed by other contractors. The audits also disclosed that some identity-of-interest companies were merely "shell" companies with no employees, inventory, or other business activities. Other identity-of-interest companies have charged rental fees for equipment use for the entire construction period when the equipment was actually used for short or intermittent periods during construction.

These actions have resulted in significant amounts of overcharges to RRH properties. Sections 1924.13 (e) (1) (v) (H) and 1924.13 (e) (2) (viii) of Rural Development Instruction 1924-A prohibit borrowers from receiving builder's profit for acting as the general contractor if more than 50 percent of the property is subcontracted to one subcontractor or 75 percent to three or fewer subcontractors. Sections 1924.13 (e) (1) (I) and 1924.13 (2) (viii) of Rural Development Instruction 1924-A require that before a borrower can claim expenses paid to an identity-of-interest company, it must also provide services and/or materials to the general public and not just to RRH properties.

Agreed-Upon Procedures

1. Compare the total amount paid through the construction checking account (by adding the total amount from monthly statements) to the total amount of costs reported on Form RD 1924-13. Report any differences.
2. Examine selected checks, invoices, job cost ledgers, receiving documentation, etc., that support costs presented on Form RD 1924-13 to ensure they were actually incurred to construct the project. (Note: Verify that checks have been cancelled and ensure that indirect costs are not included with the cost of labor and materials on Form RD 1924-13.)

3. Inspect selected checks held as retainage from subcontractors for evidence that they were actually paid by the bank. Confirmation with subcontractors may be necessary if cancelled checks are not available or not cancelled by the bank. (Note: Office of Inspector General audits have disclosed instances where checks were made to subcontractors, but never cashed.)
4. Compare the address on selected delivery documents and invoices (using the sample from audit step II.A.2.) to the project's address to ascertain whether materials and services were provided to the project under review. (Note: Office of Inspector General audits have disclosed instances where delivery was not made to the RRH project site.)
5. Examine selected cancelled checks related to accounts included in the "to be paid" column of Form RD 1924-13 to determine the propriety of the costs reported. (Note: Office of Inspector General audits have disclosed instances where these costs were invoiced by identity-of-interest companies, but were never actually paid by the borrower.)
6. Confirm payments with selected subcontractors and material suppliers and investigate any discrepancies. (Note: Be alert for any discounts, rebates, or refunds that were provided to the contractor but not included on Form RD 1924-13.)
7. Inspect selected bid documentation to verify that the lowest bid submitted was accepted. If the lowest bid was not accepted, evaluate the justification for the higher bid. If documentation does not exist, report this and the reason why as a finding. (Note: Be alert for "sweetheart contracts" and contracts to disclosed or undisclosed identity-of-interest companies.)
8. Compare selected subcontractor billings (invoices) to contract amounts. If billings were in excess of contractual terms, ascertain the reason for the higher expense.
9. Obtain the number of subcontractors used during construction and calculate the percentages of subcontractors to ensure compliance with Rural Development requirements.¹

¹ Sections 1924.13 (e) (1) (v) (h) and 1924.13 (2) (2) (viii).

10. Examine selected accounting records for undisclosed identity-of-interest companies. The practitioner should focus on transactions involving the use of one or two contractors/subcontractors, or if one contractor/subcontractor provided a significant percentage of materials or services.
11. Determine if identity-of-interest companies meet Rural Development requirements² of providing services to the general public.
 - a. Question the general contractor/borrower about the business activities of any identity-of-interest company used and request evidence that the company provides services or materials to the general public.
 - b. Review identity-of-interest records (e.g., sales records, invoices, receiving documents, etc.).
 - c. Confirm by independent verification that identity-of-interest companies exist and provide services to the general public. (Note: This evidence could include listings in a telephone directory, advertisement to the public, etc. Also, be alert for “shell” companies that exist solely for processing invoices and adding markups to the original supplier’s invoices. Markups made by identity-of-interest companies that do not provide services/supplies to entities other than the RRH property are not allowable.)
12. Compare equipment rental and supervision charges by identity-of-interest companies to independent rental companies to determine reasonableness³ of charges. Report any significant variances.
 - a. Question the borrower about the use of equipment during construction and how rental rates were established and time of use determined.
 - b. Contact an independent rental company to determine commercial rental rates and compare them to the identity-of-interest charges.
 - c. Examine borrower documentation (e.g., commercial rate lists, time sheets, construction schedules, etc.) to support the rates that were used and time that was charged for equipment rental fees. (Note: Office of Inspector General audits have disclosed that borrowers are charging rental fees when equipment is not in use.)

² Sections 1924.13 (e) (1) (I) and 1924.13 (2) (viii).

³ A charge would be considered reasonable if it is approximately the same amount of cost that a non identity-of-interest company would charge.

- d. Question the borrower about supervision charges.
- e. Verify that the borrower has documentation (e.g., timesheets or timecards, travel reports, payroll records, etc.) to support supervision charges.

III. ANNUAL AGREED-UPON PROCEDURES ENGAGEMENTS

A. AGREED-UPON PROCEDURES FOR THE ANNUAL ATTESTATION ENGAGEMENT

The Office of Inspector General has identified significant fraud and abuse of operating and maintenance expenses in the RRH Program. The procedures in this section are designed to assist practitioners in identifying ineligible charges and misused funds reported on Form RD 3560-7, Part II, Operating and Maintenance Expense Schedule and Part III Account Budgeting/Status. RD Regulation 3560 provides requirements for owners and management companies participating in the RRH Program, particularly those involving identity-of-interest companies. The procedures in this section are designed to identify noncompliance with these requirements.

The most common occurrence involves identity-of-interest companies that are merely “shell” companies with no employees, inventory, or other business activities. In these instances, owners and management companies use identity-of-interest companies to inflate costs from legitimate vendors or bill the properties directly for work that was never performed. While Rural Development requires the disclosure of identity-of-interest companies, many owners and management companies fail to comply with this requirement.

Agreed-Upon Procedures

1. Compare the total amount paid from the operating and maintenance bank account (by adding the total amount from monthly statements) to the total amount of costs reported on the general ledger and Form RD 3560-7, Part II.
2. Examine selected receipts, invoices, cancelled checks, etc., that support operating and maintenance expenses presented on Form RD 3560-7, Part II, to ensure they were actually incurred during the ongoing operations of the project. The practitioner should focus on line items 1-10, and 19-32. (Note: Do not accept photocopies of receipts or invoices and be alert for invoices that appear to be altered, have duplicate invoice numbers, or that are not pre-printed.)
3. Compare selected operating and maintenance records pertaining to expenses on Form RD 3560-7, Part II, to RD regulations for eligibility and reasonableness. Practitioners should use professional judgment in determining the reasonableness of charges.
4. Confirm payments with selected vendors for maintenance and operating expense items (or any questionable charges) from Form RD 3560-7, Part II. (Note: Discounts, rebates, or refunds should be credited to the property’s account.)

5. Confirm with the financial institution year-end reserve account balances on Form RD 3560-7, Part III, and that there are no encumbrances of reserve account funds.
6. Calculate the number of reserve account withdrawals from bank statements. This number is to be included in the engagement report. (Note: Original bank statements should be used for this analysis and be alert for transfers and automatic withdrawals from the reserve account.)
7. Examine the caretaker agreement for compliance with Rural Development requirements⁴. (Note: Office of Inspector General audits have disclosed instances where caretaker duties included services paid for in the management fee.)
8. Examine documents to confirm that owners/management companies solicited bids from independent companies for services/materials that were provided by identity-of-interest companies.
9. Determine who owns selected contractor companies from the applicable State agency (for example Secretary of State records) and compare to RRH project owner and management company ownership names to uncover undisclosed identity-of-interest companies.
10. Compare the address on selected work orders, delivery documents, invoices, remittance notices, etc., to the RRH project address to ensure that services/supplies were provided to the appropriate property.
11. Confirm by independent verification that identity-of-interest companies exist and provide services to the general public. (Note: The evidence could include listing in a telephone directory, advertisement to the public, etc. Also, be alert for “shell” companies that exist solely for processing invoices and adding markups to the original supplier’s invoices. Markups made by identity-of-interest companies that do not provide services/supplies to entities other than RRH property are not allowable.)

CHAPTER 5: PROJECT PHYSICAL CONDITIONS

5.1 INTRODUCTION

The existing portfolio of multi-family housing projects constitutes a major asset of the Government and the Agency, but the value of this asset depends upon the quality of its upkeep. This chapter describes the responsibilities of borrowers to maintain the physical condition of the project and of the Agency to exercise appropriate oversight of these responsibilities. The chapter describes the components of adequate physical maintenance, the role of the management plan, and the performance of a physical inspection of the project.

SECTION 1: PROJECT MAINTENANCE [7 CFR 3560. 103]

5.2 PURPOSE

The Agency has issued performance standards that describe the physical condition of a properly managed project. The Agency's interest in protecting the physical condition of projects that it has financed includes:

- Providing decent, safe, and sanitary affordable housing to the occupants;
- Protecting and enhancing the security of its investment; and
- Assuring compliance with all applicable State and local laws.

5.3 MAINTENANCE REQUIREMENTS AND STANDARDS OF PHYSICAL CONDITIONS

A. Standards of Physical Conditions

Borrowers are responsible for the long-term, cost-effective preservation of the housing project. The Agency has specified two types of requirements borrowers must meet:

- Performance standards for the project; and
- Procedures and systems that property managers must design and follow.

B. Performance Standards

The regulations in 7 CFR 3560.103(a)(3) specify the performance standards for meeting acceptable physical conditions. The performance standards describe the characteristics the Agency expects to see in a particular component or system, for example:

“The housing project must have a foundation that is free of evidence of structural failure, such as uneven settlement indicated by horizontal cracks or severe bowing of the foundation wall. Structural members must not have evidence of rot or insect or rodent infestation.

The housing project must have a roof that is free of leaks, defective covering, curled or missing shingles and which is not sagging or buckling.”

The performance standards have been incorporated into a physical inspection form to be completed by Agency staff during a site visit. They also have been incorporated into the certifications that accompany the management agreement for the project.

The standards include the following major categories:

- Standards that apply to the site on which the project is located;
- Standards that apply to the exterior maintenance of the building and of the common areas;
- Standards that apply to the interior of the building or buildings; and
- Standards that apply to common areas, such as hallways or elevators.

C. Maintenance Systems and Procedures

Effective maintenance is partly the result of regular routines and partly the result of promptly fixing small problems before they become major ones. Proper maintenance has a direct effect on the tenants’ perception of the quality of the housing project. Therefore, the Agency requires borrowers to institute a number of systems and procedures that the borrower must describe in the project’s management plan. The requirements for a management plan are described in Chapter 3.

Several systems are part of a sound management program:

- Preventive maintenance. Most maintenance work can be predicted and scheduled—this is typically described as preventive maintenance. The Agency requires managers to spell out procedures for scheduling routine tasks, such as garbage and trash removal, snow and ice removal, grounds upkeep, routine painting, and minor repairs. Procedures are also required for the routine maintenance of equipment consistent with service information provided by the manufacturer—biweekly or monthly routine oiling, adjusting, replacement of filters, safety checks of alarms, and outside lighting, etc.
- Response to calls. Good upkeep requires a speedy response to complaints or unforeseen problems. The Agency requires managers to establish a system for responding to tenant complaints or to unexpected malfunctions or damage, such as leaks, broken windows, etc.

- Work orders. Managers must know what has happened from the time a complaint has been received or a problem has been noted, to an inspection confirming the condition has been corrected. The Agency requires the project to have a work-order system that tracks the date a complaint is received, the inspection to verify the complaint, a report describing the required repair or corrective action, the assignment of the repair, the completion report, and final inspection noting satisfactory completion of the work.
- Inspections. Frequent, regular inspections are a major component of an effective maintenance system. The Agency requires management, at a minimum, to perform an annual inspection of each occupied unit and to inspect each unit at move-in and move-out. Inspecting a unit with the tenant at move-in and move-out establishes the condition of the unit at the time the tenant takes possession, and may help clarify responsibility for any damages that have occurred in the unit during the occupancy period.
- Energy conservation. Energy conservation efforts are an ongoing responsibility of project management. The Agency requires managers to establish effective systems to reduce energy consumption. These may include energy audits to determine cost-effective techniques of energy conservation, energy-efficient lighting, water-saving fixtures, low-flow toilets, energy-efficient appliances, insulation, caulking and weather-stripping, storm doors and windows, and regular cleaning and replacement of filters and other equipment.
- Tenant damages. The Agency requires management to establish a policy and implement a system to obtain reimbursement for damage caused by the tenant to the property beyond normal wear and tear. The policy is to be stated in the tenant's lease as described in Chapter 6 of this Handbook.
- Accessibility issues. The Agency requires the borrower and/or management to establish a policy regarding project and unit accessibility for applicants, tenants, and employees in accordance with applicable civil rights legislation.
 - ◇ In projects that were ready for occupancy on or before January 26, 1993, when public areas are altered, they must be altered to Americans with Disabilities Act Accessibility Guidelines (ADA/AG) standards. (Public areas are those areas used by individuals other than tenants and their guests. This includes offices used to pay bills or to inquire about service or employment, public restrooms, and buildings used for voting or public meetings.)
 - ◇ In projects that were ready for occupancy after January 26, 1993, public areas must be designed and constructed to ADA/AG standards.
 - ◇ In accordance with the Fair Housing Act, in Multi-Family Housing projects that were ready for occupancy on or before March 31, 1991, FHA/AG architectural requirements do not apply, even during project rehabilitation.

- ◇ In Accordance with the Fair Housing Act, in multi-family housing projects that were ready for occupancy after March 11, 1991:
 - ◆ All ground floor units in buildings with four or more dwelling units must be designed and constructed in a manner that is adaptable to individuals with disabilities.
 - ◆ All units must be adaptable if there is an elevator.
 - ◆ Covered Multi-Family Housing projects must have:
 - ✓ An accessible entrance on an accessible route;
 - ✓ Accessible public and common-use areas;
 - ✓ Usable doors;
 - ✓ Accessible routes into and through the dwelling unit;
 - ✓ Accessible light switches, electrical outlets, and environmental controls;
 - ✓ Reinforced bathroom walls; and
 - ✓ Usable kitchens and bathrooms.

Projects that were constructed (or which had substantial alterations) after June 11, 1982 must be constructed in accordance with the UFAS standards.

- 5 percent of the units or one unit whichever is greater must be fully accessible
- The mix of units are to be comparable to the variety of other project (i.e., 1,2,3 bedrooms)
- All common area must be accessible per UFAS

The electronic Multi-Family Housing Project Management and Occupancy Review Form available in Multi-Family Information System (MFIS) includes space for the Loan Servicer to comment on the adequacy of the maintenance systems adopted by project management.

D. Requirements for Labor Housing

There are no separate performance standards for year-round labor housing and rental or cooperative housing. Seasonal labor housing must meet conventional performance standards and must have insulation as necessary to protect the facility during the off-season period.

5.4 CORRECTING DEFICIENCIES

There are a number of ways in which the need for maintenance is identified:

- Management staff may uncover, anticipate, or expect such maintenance;
- Tenants may make complaints; and
- Agency staff may identify defects in the course of a site visit.

No matter how the problem was identified, the borrower is responsible for correcting it.

The borrower is responsible for adequate maintenance and upkeep of the project that complies with Agency performance standards. The Agency understands, however, that property maintenance is an ongoing process and that there may be instances when diligent borrowers are temporarily unable to achieve 100 percent compliance with Agency standards. In such instances, the Agency will not penalize borrowers—as long as it is evident that the borrower is actively striving to return to full compliance, as soon as possible (see the standards listed in 7 CFR 3560.103).

This flexibility is not extended to projects where the deficiencies are so extensive that the property would be declared in substantial noncompliance. In these instances, the projects' viability is called into question, as well as the effectiveness of the management's maintenance program.

The borrower shall immediately inform the Agency of any deficiency for which correction requires repairs that cannot be paid out of project operating funds and immediately initiate procedures to access project reserves (see Chapter 4 of this Handbook). The Agency will in turn provide the borrower with a timeframe for completing the repairs. If the borrower cannot meet the Agency required timeframe, then they must provide documentation and justification why they cannot meet such a timeframe.

5.5 PAYING FOR MAINTENANCE EXPENSES

MAINTENANCE IS PAID FOR IN TWO WAYS:

- Routine physical maintenance, such as repainting an empty unit, replacing a broken window, snow removal or grounds upkeep, is part of the operating budget and paid for out of annual operating income.
- Major capital expenditures are paid for by withdrawals from the reserve account. Capital expenditures are addressed as long-term improvements on the front of the operating budget.

Rule-of-Thumb

A capital expenditure is typically defined as an expenditure on an item for which the useful life is greater than one year. For example:

- Repaving the parking lot is a capital cost; fixing a pothole is an operating cost.
- Repainting the exterior of the entire project is a capital expenditure; repainting units on a routine basis is considered routine maintenance.

Chapter 4 of this Handbook describes the process for accessing the reserve account to pay for major capital improvements.

SECTION 2: CAPITAL PLANNING

5.6 OVERVIEW

This section describes how borrowers, with assistance from Agency staff, can plan for major capital expenses and how to pay for them. This type of planning can take many forms. The two most common forms used by the Agency are an annual capital expenditure budget and a capital needs assessment. Refer to Chapter 4 of this Handbook for preparation of an annual capital expenditure budget.

5.7 CAPITAL NEEDS ASSESSMENT

A. Overview

A capital needs assessment (CNA) identifies the immediate and future capital needs of a project. It is based on a physical inspection and a life-cycle analysis of a project's major building components systems, equipment, and exterior amenities, such as the site lighting and parking lots. The CNA includes a replacement schedule that anticipates the useful life of each item, and estimates when they will need to be replaced and the cost. Preparation of a CNA is an eligible project expense.

B. General Criteria:

- A capital needs assessment should be prepared at a reasonable cost by an individual or firm with professional experience in multi-family housing design, construction, cost estimating or similar qualification.
- The CNA should be prepared in accordance with generally accepted industry practices.
- The assessment should include the detailed items listed on the Form RD 3560-11 Multi-family Housing Physical Inspection Report. The assessment time period should be between 10 and 20 years.
- The estimated repair and replacement costs and estimated useful life spans for the components should be based on data from a nationally recognized source, such as RS Means "Repair and Remodeling Cost Data" and Marshall and Swift "Residential Cost Handbook".

C. Determining a Project's Capital Needs

The amount required for deposit into the replacement reserve account is established for new projects during the loan origination phase, based in part on a life-cycle cost analysis of selected materials going into the project (see 7 CFR 3560.65). For information on conducting life-cycle analyses, refer to Chapter 3 of HB-1-3560.

For existing projects, the Agency may require the development of a capital needs assessment in the following circumstances:

- When ownership of the project is transferred;
- When the loan is reamortized;
- When there is a writedown of the project loan; or
- At the borrower's request.

D. Agency Review

Capital needs assessments and a proposed, updated annual operating budget, including a revised capital plan and any proposed increase in contributions to replacement reserves and project rents, are submitted to the Field Office for Agency review. Loan Servicing Staff should review the requests based on Agency guidance and the budget review procedures in Chapter 4.

SECTION 3: AGENCY OVERSIGHT OF BORROWER PERFORMANCE

5.8 OVERSIGHT DURING DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION

Agency oversight of the borrower's capacity to maintain the physical project in compliance with its standards and requirements begins during the loan origination phase. As part of its design review, the Agency examines plans and working drawings to see whether the project has been designed for easy maintenance and long-term durability.

Borrowers must describe the systems and procedures that will be used to maintain the project during the occupancy period in the management plan. Agency staff reviews the proposed management plan for compliance in accordance with procedures described in Chapter 3. Agency staff should analyze the description of the maintenance systems in the management plan, noting any points that appear unrealistic, incomplete, or incorrect.

CHAPTER 6: PROJECT OCCUPANCY

6.1 INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this chapter is to present the occupancy rules for multi-family housing projects and the Agency's procedures for determining borrower compliance. Agency procedures for ensuring borrower compliance are summarized at the end of the chapter.

SECTION 1: TENANT ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS [7 CFR 3560.152]

6.2 GENERAL ELIGIBILITY—INCOME ELIGIBILITY

To be admitted to multi-family housing, applicants must meet basic requirements.

- Have income that does not exceed the limits defined by the Agency;
- Meet the program definition of an eligible household.

A borrower may determine an applicant ineligible for occupancy based on screening criteria other than those required by the Agency only if such criteria are included in the project's management plan. The screening criteria may not contain arbitrary or discriminatory rejection criteria, but may consider an applicant's past rental and credit history and relations with other tenants.

6.3 INCOME REQUIREMENTS

Three different income limits are used to establish eligibility for Multi-Family Housing programs. The National Office determines the income limits and updates the limits whenever they are revised. Adjusted income should be compared with the below-listed income limits to determine the category in which each household falls:

- The very low-income limit is established at approximately 50 percent of the median income for the area, adjusted for household size;
- The low-income limit is established at approximately 80 percent of the median income for the area, adjusted for household size; and
- The moderate-income limit is established by adding $5,500 to the low-income limit for each household size.

The borrower has the right to determine a minimum income level for households of various sizes for applicants who will not be receiving rental assistance. These guidelines must be administered consistently for all potential applicants.

6.4 RESERVED

6.5 DETERMINING AN ELIGIBLE HOUSEHOLD

Although it may seem obvious, deciding who is a part of an applicant's household is an important, but not always simple, task. The word "household" applies to individuals and family members who intend to live in a unit.

A. Defining a Household

Deciding who can be considered a household member affects many decisions the borrower must make, including:

- The number of bedrooms the family needs;
- The members' income that must be counted and the income limits that should be used;
- The extent to which the family qualifies for certain income deductions and certain preferences; and
- The household member who can sign legal documents.

B. Who Can Be Counted as a Household Member?

A household may be made up of a variety of members and may have a specific definition. The following are examples of members and types:

- Elderly families: A household where the tenant, co-tenant, member, or co-member is at least 62 years old, or disabled, as defined below. An elderly family may include a person younger than 62 years of age. (To receive an elderly family deduction, the person who is elderly, disabled must be the tenant, cotenant, member, or co-member.)
- Individual with Disabilities: The term disability is considered equivalent to the term handicap. Eligibility requirements for fully accessible units are contained in 7 CFR 3560.154(g)(1)(i) and 3560.155(b). A person is considered to have a disability if either of the following two situations occur:

(1) As defined in section 501(b) of the Housing Act of 1949. The person is the head of household (or his or her spouse) and is determined to have an impairment which:

- (i) Is expected to be of long-continued and indefinite duration;
- (ii) Substantially impedes his or her ability to live independently; and
- (iii) Is of such a nature that such ability could be improved by more suitable housing conditions, or if such person has a developmental disability as defined in section 102(7) of the Developmental Disability and Bill of Rights Act (42 U.S.C. 6001(7)).

(2) As defined in the Fair Housing Act; the Americans with Disabilities Act; and section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The person has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more of such person's major life activities; a record of such impairment; or being regarded as having such an impairment. The term does not include current, illegal use of or addiction to a controlled substance. As used in this definition, physical or mental impairment includes:

(i) Any physiological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the following body systems: neurological; musculoskeletal; special sense organs; respiratory, including speech organs; cardiovascular; reproductive; digestive; genito-urinary; hemic and lymphatic; skin; and endocrine;

(ii) Any mental or psychological disorder, such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities. The term "physical or mental impairment" includes, but is not limited to, such diseases and conditions as orthopedic, visual, speech and hearing impairments, cerebral palsy, autism, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, cancer, heart disease, diabetes, Human Immunodeficiency Virus infection, mental retardation, emotional illness, drug addiction (other than addiction caused by current, illegal use of a controlled substance), and alcoholism;

(iii) Major life activities means functions such as caring for one's self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, and working;

(iv) Has a record of such an impairment means has a history of, or has been misclassified as having, a mental or physical impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities;

(v) Is regarded as having an impairment means:

(A) Has a physical or mental impairment that does not substantially limit one or more major life activities but that is treated by the borrower or management agent as constituting such a limitation;

(B) Has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities only as a result of the attitudes of others toward such impairment; or

(C) Has none of the impairments described in this definition but is treated by another person as having such an impairment.

- Household. One or more persons who maintain or will maintain residency in one rental or cooperative unit, but not including a resident assistant or chore service worker.
- Resident assistant. A person residing in a tenant's housing unit who is essential to the well-being and care of the persons who are elderly or have handicaps or disabilities residing in the unit, but is not obligated for the person's financial support and would not be living in the unit except to provide the needed support services. While the resident assistant may be a family member, the resident assistant may not be a dependent of the household for tax purposes and is not subject to the eligibility requirements of a tenant or member. A resident assistant is not a chore service worker. A resident assistant may function in any type of housing affected by this section.

- Foster children. Eligible families may include foster children, as long as the children do not cause overcrowding. However, foster children are not considered family members for the purposes of determining income or deductions from income, or to determine household size to compare with income limits.
- Remaining family members. Remaining members of resident families are family members who stay in a unit after other members of the household leave. These members will be reevaluated for eligibility in accordance with Section 7 of this chapter. Agency regulations may require remaining tenants to move to a unit of appropriate size or exit the project.
- Students. A student or other seemingly temporary resident of the community who may be considered an eligible tenant when all of the following conditions are met:
 - ◇ The student is of legal age in accordance with the applicable state law or is otherwise legally able to enter into a binding contract under state law;
 - ◇ The person seeking occupancy has established a household separate and distinct from the person's parents or legal guardians;
 - ◇ The person seeking occupancy is no longer claimed as a dependent by the person's parents or legal guardians pursuant to Internal Revenue Service regulations, and evidence is provided to this effect; and
 - ◇ The person seeking occupancy signs a written statement indicating whether or not the person's parents, legal guardians, or others provide any financial assistance and this financial assistance is considered as part of current annual income and is verified in writing by the borrower.

6.6 ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ELDERLY UNITS, CONGREGATE HOUSING, AND GROUP HOMES

In addition to the requirements listed in Paragraph 6.2, applicants for elderly units, congregate housing, or group homes must meet the additional requirements described below.

A. Elderly Units and Congregate Housing

To be admitted to elderly units or congregate housing:

- Applicants and tenants must qualify as an elderly or disabled.

- Nonelderly persons are eligible for occupancy as long as they are members of an elderly household and live in the same unit.
- Priority can be given to tenants who agree to participate in the services provided by the facility.

B. Group Homes

To be admitted to a group home:

- Applicants/tenants must be in need of the special services provided by the group home.
- Applicants must demonstrate a need for such housing and cannot be required to be a part of an ongoing training or rehabilitation program.
- Applicants must be selected from the market area prior to considering applicants from other areas.

A group home may limit occupancy to a specific group of tenants (e.g., eligible elderly tenants, developmentally disabled or mentally impaired tenants) if it is outlined in the borrower's management plan.

6.7 INELIGIBLE TENANT WAIVERS

The Agency may authorize the borrower in writing, upon receiving the borrower's written request with the necessary documentation, to rent vacant units to ineligible persons for temporary periods to protect the financial interest of the Government. Likewise, this provision may extend to a cooperative. This authority will be for the entire project for periods not to exceed one year. Within the period of the lease, the tenant may not be required to move to allow an eligible applicant to obtain occupancy, should one become available. The Agency must make the following determinations. Age restrictions may not be waived.

- There are no eligible persons on a waiting list.
- The borrower provided documentation that a diligent but unsuccessful effort to rent any vacant units to an eligible tenant household has been made. Such documentation may consist of advertisements in appropriate publications, in several public places, and in other places where persons seeking rental housing would likely make contact; holding open houses; and making appropriate contacts with public housing agencies and organizations, Chambers of Commerce, and real estate agencies.
- The borrower agrees to publish a notice in the local newspaper to inform the public of the borrower's intent to temporarily rent apartments to all persons without regard to income restrictions.

- The borrower is temporarily unable to achieve or maintain a level of occupancy sufficient to prevent financial default and foreclosure and the Agency's approval of the waiver will be for a limited duration.
- That the lease agreement will not be more than 12 months and at its expiration will convert to a month-to-month lease. The monthly lease will require that the unit be vacated upon 30 days' notice when an eligible applicant is available.
- Tenants residing in Rural Rental Housing (RRH) units who are ineligible because their adjusted annual income exceeds the maximum for the RRH projects will be charged the RHS approved note rate rental rate for the size of unit occupied in a Plan II RRH project. In projects operated under Plan I, ineligible tenants will be charged rental surcharge of 25 percent of the approved note rate rental rate. Plan I and Plan II projects are defined in 7 CFR 3560.11.

SECTION 2: CALCULATING INCOME AND INITIAL CERTIFICATION

6.8 BORROWER AND APPLICANT/TENANT RESPONSIBILITY

Borrowers of all Rural Rental Housing properties must verify and document in the tenant's file all income, assets, expenses, deductions, family characteristics, and any other factors that affect family eligibility or level of assistance. This requirement excludes those residents of On Farm Labor Housing who are living in housing provided on a non-rental basis. With USDA guidance the borrower should develop verification and documentation procedures for the properties they manage and ensure that on-site property staff responsible for these functions are trained to understand and properly implement these procedures. Effective and efficient borrower, agent, and property staff performance in this area is fundamental to obtaining the correct information needed for accurate rent determinations and assistance payments. The following are essential procedures to reduce the incidence of improper reporting.

- Applicants/tenants and their adult family members must sign consent forms to authorize the borrower to collect information to verify eligibility, income, assets, expenses, and deductions. Applicants and tenants who do not sign required consent forms will not receive assistance.
- Family members 6 years of age and older must provide the borrower with a complete and accurate social security number. For any members of the family who do not have a social security number, the applicant or family member must certify that the individual has never received a social security number.
- Information received via third party verification should be reviewed and interpreted, and allowable deductions applied to determine the income used to calculate rent and rental assistance.
- The borrower must develop tracking and monitoring procedures to ensure that the required re-certifications are initiated and completed on time.
- The borrower must handle any information obtained to verify eligibility or income in accordance with the Privacy Act.

6.9 CALCULATION OF TENANT INCOME

Borrowers use tenant income information to: (1) help determine whether an applicant is eligible to reside in multi-family housing; (2) calculate the applicant's ability to pay rent; and (3) determine the amount of rental assistance the household is eligible to receive. This section provides guidance for calculating and verifying income for each of these purposes.

A. Key Concepts for Income Determinations

1. Income Definitions

Two income definitions are used: annual income and adjusted income. Whenever income determinations are made, it is essential that borrowers use the correct income definition and consider income from the appropriate household members.

- Annual income. Annual income is used as the base for computing adjusted income. Income of all household members should be considered when computing annual income. Attachment 6-A, Annual Income Inclusions and Exclusions can be used to determine which sources of income to count and which to exclude. Form RD 3560-8, Tenant Certification illustrates the calculation of annual income. Paragraph 6.8 B in this section provides additional information on calculating annual income.
- Adjusted income. Adjusted income is used to determine whether an applicant is income eligible to reside in multi-family rental housing or to receive rental subsidies. For guidance on calculating adjusted income, see Paragraph 6.8 C in this section.

2. Projecting Income for a 12-Month Period

Current income and family circumstances may be used to estimate the household's income over the next 12 months, unless there is verifiable evidence of a likely change in circumstances. Historical information may be used to estimate income that is anticipated to be received for less than 12 months. For example, if one of the household members is a seasonal worker, the income attributable to that worker should be based upon past history, rather than annualizing current income.

Example—Annualizing Short-Term Income

Assume a family member who currently has no income historically has seasonal income during the summer months and earns on an average of $4,000 during that time. Confirm with the applicant that the same seasonal pattern is expected and use historical data to project income for the coming 12 months.

3. Income of Temporarily Absent Household Members

Members may be temporarily absent from the household for a variety of reasons, such as temporary military duty activation, temporary employment, or students who live away from home during the school year. The income of these household members is considered when computing annual income. Households with a member permanently confined to a hospital or nursing home may choose to either include annual income attributable to such person, less deductions for which the person would qualify, or exclude the annual income attributable to such person and not take any deductions for which the person would qualify.

Example—Temporarily Absent Member

James Brown and his wife have applied for a unit. At the moment, James is working on a construction job on the other side of the state and comes home every other weekend. He earns $600 per week and uses approximately one-third of that amount for temporary living expenses. The full amount of the income earned would be counted for both repayment and annual income.

4. Zero Income.

It is the policy of Rural Development not to accept a tenant certification for an applicant or tenant with zero income unless all income is specifically exempted. If the tenant or applicant experiences regular lay-off, as part of his or her employment, the tenant or applicant will not be certified as a zero income tenant. The tenant will be certified based on their annual income. Third party verifications must be obtained from the employer. If the tenant or applicant typically receives unemployment during periods of layoff, the unemployment income is included in the income calculation. The tenant will not be re-certified when laid off unless the layoff is inconsistent the employment or income history of the tenant.

In cases where an applicant or tenant is claiming they have no household income, nor can the tenant or applicant anticipate a source of income, it will be necessary for the applicant or tenant to demonstrate financial capability to meet other basic living expenses and the rental charge. This amount must include income for essential living expenses such as, food, clothing, diapers, transportation and any nonessentials items being paid such as telephone, cable television, internet service etc. The basis for this income must be documented in the file. Guidance for the verification of zero income is found in Attachment 6-B.

The borrower must review the circumstances of the tenant quarterly to ascertain if circumstances have changed. The borrower must remind the tenant that the lease specifically states that it is the tenant’s responsibility to immediately report changes in income to management.

B. Calculating Annual Income

Attachment 6-A, Annul Income Inclusions and Exclusions provides a list of possible income and indicates whether the source is counted or excluded from annual income.

C. Calculating Adjusted Income

Adjusted income is used to determine eligibility for Multi-Family Housing programs, as well as eligibility for and the amount of payment subsidies under rental assistance.

Adjusted income is calculated by subtracting from annual income any of five deductions that apply to the household. Not all households are eligible for all deductions. Exhibit 6-1 summarizes these deductions. Attachment 6-C, Allowable Deductions, provides detail concerning allowable deductions. The remainder of this paragraph provides guidance on determining whether a family is eligible for each deduction and verifying and calculating these amounts.

Exhibit 6-1
Allowable Deductions from Annual Income Elderly
	Nonelderly

Deduction	Households	Households
Dependent deduction	Yes	Yes
Child care expenses	Yes	Yes
Elderly household	Yes	No
Disability assistance	Yes	Yes
Medical expenses	Yes	No

1. Dependent Deduction

A deduction from annual income of $480 is made for each household member who qualifies as a dependent. Dependents are household members who are not the head or spouse and who are age 17 or younger, an individual with a disability, or a full-time student. If an applicant requests a deduction for dependents attending school full time, the applicant must provide documentation from the school that the dependent is enrolled as a full-time student.

2. Child Care Expenses

Reasonable unreimbursed child care expenses for the care of children under the age of 13 are deducted from annual income if: (1) the care enables a household member to work or go to school; (2) no other adult household member is available to care for the children; and (3) in the case of child care that enables a household member to work, the expenses deducted do not exceed the income generated by that household member. If the child care provider is a household member, the cost of the children’s care cannot be deducted.

To qualify for the deduction, the applicant must:

- Identify the children who are receiving the child care and the household member who can work or go to school as a result of the care;

Verification of Child Care Expenses

Child care hours must parallel the hours the household member works or goes to school. An acceptable format for verifying child care expenses is a letter on the child care provider’s letterhead or a copy of a signed child care contract.

- Demonstrate that there is no adult household member available or able to care for the children;
- Identify the child care provider, the hours of child care provided, and the costs; and
- If the expenses enable a household member to go to school, identify the educational institution. The household member need not be a full-time student.

3. Elderly Household Deduction

A single $400 deduction is made from annual income for any elderly household. To be considered an elderly household, the head of household, spouse, or sole member of a household who is party to the lease must be 62 years of age or older, or an individual with a disability.

In the case of a family where the deceased tenant or spouse was at least 62 years old or an individual with disabilities, the surviving household members may continue to reside in a housing project after the departure or death of the tenant or co-tenant, provided that:

- They are eligible with respect to adjusted income;
- The surviving household members occupied the dwelling with the deceased member at the time of death;
- They execute a tenant certification form establishing their own tenancy; and
- They have the legal ability to sign a lease for the rental unit, except where a legal guardian may sign when the tenant or member is otherwise eligible.

Nonelderly or nondisabled surviving members of an elderly or disabled household are not entitled to the elderly family adjustment to income.

4. Deductions for Disability Expenses

Reasonable expenses for the care of an individual with disabilities in excess of three percent of annual income may be deducted from annual income if the expenses:

- Enable the individual with disabilities or another household member to work;
- Are not reimbursable from insurance or any other source; and
- Do not exceed the amount of income earned by the person who is able to work as a result of the expenses.

Typical Disability Assistance Expenses
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Care attendant to assist an individual with disabilities with activities of daily living directly related to permitting the individual or another household member to work. • Special apparatus, such as wheelchairs, ramps, and adaptations to vehicles or workplace equipment, if directly related to permitting the individual with disabilities or another household member to work.

Along with other forms of documentation, to qualify for this deduction applicants must identify the individual with a disability on the application.

5. Deduction for Medical Expenses (for elderly households only)

Medical expenses may be deducted from annual income for elderly households if the expenses (1) will not be reimbursed by insurance or another source; and (2) when combined with any disability assistance expenses are in excess of three percent of annual income. See Attachment 6-C for eligible deductions

If the household qualifies for the medical expenses deduction, expenses of all members are considered. For example, if a household included the head (grandmother, age 64), her son (age 37), and her granddaughter (age 6), the medical expenses of all three household members would be considered.

One of the most challenging aspects of determining allowable medical expenses is estimating a household’s medical expenses for the coming year. While some anticipated expenses can be documented easily (for example, Medicare or other health insurance premiums and ongoing prescriptions), others need to be estimated. The borrower should use historical information about medical bills to estimate future expenses. However, the estimates should be realistic. For example, if the household has a significant medical bill, the borrower would count only that portion of the bill that is likely to be paid during the coming year.

Typical Medical Expenses
•	Services of physicians other healthcare providers;
•	Services of hospitals other healthcare facilities;
•	Medical premiums;
•	Prescription and nonprescription medicine;
•	Dental expenses;
•	Eyeglasses and eye examinations;
•	Medical or health products or apparatus (hearing aids, wheel chairs, etc.);
•	Live-in or periodic medical care (e.g., visiting nurses or care attendants);
•	Bandages, syringes, continence shields, and other nonprescription items recommended by a physician; and
•	Periodic payments on accumulated medical bills.

Example – Calculating the Medical Expense Deduction
The Jensons are an elderly household with annual income of $25,000 and anticipated medical expenses of $3,000 that are not covered by insurance or another source. The allowable medical expenses would be:
Total medical expenses	$3,000
(less) 3% annual income ($25,000 x 0.03)	-$ 750
Allowable medical expenses	$2,250

6.10 EVALUATING APPLICANTS’ ASSETS

Assets can affect an applicant’s ability to be qualified as an eligible tenant. Many types of assets generate income that must be included in the calculations of annual income.

Attachment 6-D, Net Family Assets presents a list of assets that must be considered when making these determinations and also identifies certain types of assets that are not considered.

A. Reporting Assets

Applicants must provide information about household assets at the time of application and whenever an income is reverified. Applicants must provide sufficient information to enable the borrower to verify the asset information and compute the market and cash value of the asset.

B. Calculating Market and Cash Value

The market value of an asset is simply its dollar value on the open market. For example, the market value of $2,000 in a savings account is $2,000 and the market value of real estate is its appraised value. The cash value of an asset is the market value, less reasonable expenses to convert the asset to cash. For example, the cash value of stock worth $5,000 would be $5,000 less any broker’s fee.

Example—Calculating Cash Value of an Asset

Mr. Smith has $10,000 in an IRA account. The account’s market value is $10,000. To withdraw funds from the account, Mr. Smith must both pay a withdrawal penalty and taxes on the amount withdrawn.

The cash value of the IRA account is:

Market value	$10,000
Withdrawal penalty	less 200
Tax	less 2,000
Cash Value	$7,800

C. Retirement Assets

Retirement assets are savings and investments that have been specifically designated as retirement funds. Not all retirement assets are considered. If the applicant can receive the retirement funds only by borrowing them, or upon retirement or termination of employment, the funds are not counted as assets for determining income. If the applicant can withdraw retirement funds without retiring or terminating employment, the funds are counted as assets, even though penalties may apply.

D. Calculating Income from Assets

For the purpose of computing annual income, the assets of all household members are considered. In addition, if any household member has disposed of assets for less than fair market value during the two years preceding the effective date of certification or recertification, the asset must be considered when calculating income from assets for annual income.

1. Two Methods for Calculating Income from Assets

Two different methods of calculating income from assets are used, depending upon the total cash value of household assets:

If the cash value of total assets is $5,000 or less, the amount of asset income included in annual income is the actual income to be derived from these assets.

If the cash value of total assets is more than $5,000, the amount of asset income included in annual income is the greater of (1) the actual income to be derived from the assets; or (2) an imputed income from assets that is calculated by multiplying the total cash value of assets by the current HUD passbook rate, which can be found in the HUD 4350.3 Occupancy Handbook, Chapter 5, available at <http://www.hudclips.org>. Generally, the imputed income from assets is larger than the actual income to be derived from the assets when an applicant owns non-income-producing assets of significant value.

Example—Income from Assets for Annual Income Calculation

Charles and Patty Brown, both age 40, have applied for a Section 515 unit. The Brown family has the following assets.

A certificate of deposit of $6,500 they have been saving for a down payment. It earned 6.8 percent or $442 of interest last year.

A savings account of $4,000 earning four percent interest annually.

The six-month average balance in the checking account is $300 (non interest-bearing account).

The cash value of the Browns' assets is $10,800 ($6,500 + $4,000 + $300). The assets are more than $5,000. To compute income from assets, use the greater of actual income or imputed income.

	Cash Value	Actual Income Earned	Imputed Income
Checking Account 6 mo average balance	$300	$0	$216 ($10,800 x 0.02)
Certificate of Deposit	$6,500	$442 ($6,500 x 0.068)
Savings	$4,000	$160 ($4,000x 0.04)
Total	$10,800	$602

2. Assets Disposed of for Less than Fair Market Value

Applicants who dispose of assets for less than fair market value have, in essence, voluntarily reduced their ability to afford housing. Therefore, assets disposed of for less than fair market value during the two years preceding a determination of annual income must be used in the annual income calculation. Assets disposed of for less than fair market value as a result of foreclosure, bankruptcy, divorce, or separation are not included in this calculation.

The amount of income to be included in annual income is the difference between the market value of the asset and the amount that was actually received (if any) in the disposition of the asset.

Example—Valuing a Disposed Asset

An applicant sold a property to a relative for $15,000 on July 1, 1996. The property was valued at $30,000 and had no loans against it.

Market value	$30,000
(Less) Settlement costs	$2,000
(Less) Sales price	$15,000
Cash value	$13,000

The $13,000 would be counted as an asset for any annual income determination conducted until July 1, 1998. Even though there would be no actual income from this asset, the $13,000 would be used to establish total assets to determine the amount to be counted as annual income.

6.11 VERIFICATION PROCEDURES

Each applicant must provide the income, expense, and household information needed to enable the borrower to make income determinations. Most of this information should be provided on the application, but some additional follow-up with the applicant may be required. The borrower must verify information provided by the applicant prior to admission.

A. Verification Requirements

Verification of employment income, as well as any household income from sources other than employment, must be verified by the borrower prior to submission of Form RD 3560-8 to the Agency. Each applicant must sign a request for verification of employment at the time of application. Copies of this form must accompany any request for verification from third-party sources. Written verifications provided by third-party sources or documents prepared by third-party sources are generally preferred. Oral verifications, if accepted, must be documented carefully.

Written income-related verifications are valid for 90 days and may be valid for an additional 90 days with oral reverification at the end of the 90-day period. In no case may information that is older than 180 days be used.

When it is not immediately possible to obtain the written verification from the income source, the income may be temporarily verified by actually examining the income checks, check stubs, or other reliable data the person possesses which indicates gross income. Income verification is required for tenants of Off-Farm Labor Housing—domestic laborers including migrant farmworkers. Income verification is not required for tenants of On-Farm Labor Housing.

Farm labor employment verification is required for all domestic farm laborers, whether they are year-round, seasonal, or migrant farmworkers, or farmworkers living in On-Farm Labor Housing.

Third-party verification of income and employment, as applicable, is required whenever it is possible or available.

When third-party verification of income and employment is not possible or available, the applicant or tenant may provide the borrower with an award and benefit letter, cost of living adjustment notice, benefit statement, bank statement, or actual benefit check. Using this documentation, the borrower may “self-certify” the farmworker’s application using any available documents or records the applicant may have or information the applicant can provide. In the absence of available income and employment records, the borrower may forecast income expected to be received by the tenant during occupancy for determining eligibility and rental assistance.

B. Verification Procedure

The borrower must establish a verification procedure to review applicant information. The procedure must ensure accurate determinations of eligibility and respect the confidentiality of all information on applicants and residents.

1. Information to Verify

The borrower must verify the following information:

- Disability: Disabilities are verified only if necessary to qualify the household as an elderly family, or if a disability affects the household's eligibility for deductions from income. Verification may be provided by a physician, a clinic, welfare agency, the Social Security Administration, or other knowledgeable service.
- Household composition: Verification of household composition can be accomplished through a variety of sources and documents. For example, a birth certificate or custody agreement verifies that a minor child is part of the household. Also, divorce or separation agreements can verify that an individual is no longer a member of the household.
- Income: Acceptable Income Verification Sources for verifying income are described below in Exhibit 6-3.

Exhibit 6-3

Acceptable Income Verification Sources

- Verification of Employment: After the applicant/tenant submits a form authorizing the borrower to verify employment, the borrower must send this form to each employer for verification of employment of each household member.

- Zero Income Persons: For Verification Guidance, see Attachment 6-B.
- Self-Employed Persons: Self-employed applicants/ tenants must provide current documentation of income and expenses, which cannot be older than the previous fiscal year. The borrower must compare the income and expenses information provided by the applicant with the latest income tax return and clarify any discrepancies.
- Unemployment and Unemployment Benefits: Unemployed applicants/tenant must complete a form, which provides their current employment status and requires them to agree to inform the Borrower immediately, in writing, if their employment status changes. Applicants/tenants receiving unemployment benefits must provide the most recent award or benefit letter prepared and signed by the authorizing agency to verify the unemployment income.
- Regular, Unearned Income (e.g., Social Security, pensions, workers compensation): Applicants/tenants must provide a copy of the most recent award or benefit letter prepared and signed by the authorizing agency. Information must be updated every 12 months to account for cost-of-living increases or changes in benefits.
- Public Assistance: Applicants/tenants must provide a copy of the most recent award or benefits letter prepared and signed by the authorizing agency to verify the amount of public assistance received.
- Alimony or Child Support Payments: The applicant/tenant must provide a copy of the divorce decree, separation agreement, or other document indicating the amount of the required support payments. The applicant/tenant must also report the amount received during the past twelve months. If the applicant/tenant reports that the amount required by the agreement is not being received, the applicant/tenant must document that assistance has been requested from the state or local entity responsible for enforcing payment.
- Support for Foster Children or Adults: Payments received for the care of foster children or foster adults may be considered when calculating repayment income. Documentation must be provided indicating the amount of money received for the care of foster children or adults, and the anticipated period of time the support will be provided.
- Income Tax Return: For self employment, a complete, legible copy of the most recently filed Federal income tax form may be submitted for each applicant/tenant, unless the person was exempted from filing a return.
- Verification of Assets and Income from Assets: The borrower requests that financial institutions verify account balances. For some assets such as mutual funds or 401(k) accounts, copies of year-end statements can provide information about annual income. Applicants/tenants must certify whether any asset has been disposed of for less than fair market value.

2. Release and Consent Form

A form verifying employment (developed by the borrower) gives applicant or resident permission for the borrower to ask questions about and verify information related to the household income and other circumstances that affect eligibility and the amount the household must pay. Applicants must sign the form as a condition of admission and continued occupancy.

The form must be signed by the household head and all other household members whose income, assets, or other circumstances require verification. As long as the borrower retains the form with original signatures in its file, a photocopy of the authorization may be provided to verification sources.

The borrower must ask applicants/residents to execute the form even in cases where the person has not reported any income.

3. Social Security Numbers

Prospective tenants must provide the borrower with Social Security Numbers for every tenant or co-tenant in the household. The borrower may use Social Security Numbers to verify income information that is provided. Social Security Numbers must be verified only once for each resident.

Documentation of the Social Security Number will be provided with a valid Social Security card or other evidence of the Social Security Number, such as a driver's license. If the documentation is sent by mail, the applicant may submit a photocopy.

If the applicant does not have the documentation, the applicant should submit a signed certification stating his/her Social Security Number. The applicant then has 60 days to submit acceptable documentation of the Social Security Number. This 60-day period can be extended for another 60 days for elderly applicants.

4. Wage Matching Requirement

If permitted by State law, states are required to fully implement and utilize income matching of tenants. See Chapter 9 of the HB-2-3560 for more information..

6.12 THE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS' RELIEF CIVIL ACT

Rural Housing Service is required to provide tenants the benefits of the Soldiers and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended

The Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Act of 1940 was established to protect those who serve the United States in the Armed Forces. The Act applies to all persons on active duty including reserve component service members called to active duty.

A tenant, co-tenant or spouse may terminate a lease covering premises occupied as a dwelling at any time following the date of the beginning of the period of the military service. The termination will be in writing and delivered to the property manager or the management firm in person or by mail; following the date of the beginning of the military service (a set of appropriate military orders should accompany the termination letter). However, the lease termination will not be effective until 30 days after the first date on which the next rental payment is due. Example: next rent payment date is March 1; termination will be effective March 30.

Guardians who were not originally listed as tenants, but are so designated by the tenant or co-tenant, will be permitted to reside in the unit to care for minors while the tenant or co-tenant is absent due to military service. The term "guardian" means immediate family member, relative or friend.

The Act does not relieve the recently activated military person or that persons' household from meeting financial obligations. However, the Act does protect the soldier's dependent(s) left behind (occupying family dwellings) from undue eviction or distress.

A. Should eviction be necessary for violation of lease requirements, the Act provides opportunity for a stay of eviction for up to three consecutive months. Under no circumstance are borrowers entitled to take eviction matters into their own hands or to inform tenants that they must move because they no longer can afford the rent. The borrower may give the tenant notice of lease violation and termination for repeated late payment or nonpayment of rent in normal fashion, but evictions require court action. Evictions, three-month stays and relief actions are within the discretion of the court. Borrowers may not evict affected tenants without prior court approval.

B. All tenants affected by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief act are to be recertified (upon receipt of their military orders) in accordance with RD Instruction 1930-C, in order to reflect their true rent contribution. Recertification should include all income such as severance pay, salary, reservist pay, housing allowance, etc. Hazard duty pay is not counted. Upon completion of tenant recertification, rents will be increased or decreased. Tenant recertification may be processed by the co-tenant, spouse or guardian during the period of military service.

Example: If a tenant was contributing $275.00 (basic rent) per month towards rent, and their salary has decreased or increased due to leaving a previous position for military service, the new contribution towards rent may be significantly decreased or increased. If a tenant's salary decreased so low that their rent contribution falls below basic rent, the Rental Assistance (RA) allowance will increase. If no RA is available for the unit, the tenant, like other tenants without RA, will pay the basic rent.

C. Single soldiers should be encouraged to place their personal belongings and furnishings in storage for safekeeping. Monthly rents would be due as scheduled. However, if a single tenant elects to leave their belongings in the apartment, they should be encouraged to grant a power of attorney to a competent person, and provide the manager with pertinent information concerning this person. If a single person does leave their furniture on the premises and rent is delinquent, the borrower should make application to the court for authorization to act.

SECTION 3: OCCUPANCY POLICIES AND OCCUPANCY RULES [7 CFR 3560.157]

6.13 OCCUPANCY POLICIES

The purpose of the occupancy policy in a multi-family property is to establish:

- Unit density standards; and
- Procedures for assigning units.

A. Unit Density Standards

Occupancy policies set standards regarding the number of people that can be adequately housed in a unit of a particular size. In developing the occupancy policy for each unit, the borrower must take into account the following:

- State and local codes regarding the number of persons permitted to dwell in a unit of a particular size;
- The size of the rooms in the particular unit;
- Procedures for sizing households for different unit types (how to consider temporarily absent household members); and
- The order in which the property will house eligible applicants and rehouse existing tenants.
- A tenant who is disabled will not be considered over housed if the tenant requests an additional room for a live-in aide or an apparatus related to the tenant’s disability.

For some properties, state and local codes regarding occupancy standards may not exist. In these cases, the borrower should make a judgment as to how many people may be adequately housed, basing it on the square foot size and layout of the unit. For example, some properties may have several types of two-bedroom units. If one is 600 square feet and the second type is 900 square feet, the borrower may have different occupancy policies for the different unit types. An example of what an occupancy policy might look like for the above example is detailed below:

Unit Type	Minimum Density	Maximum Density
2 Bedroom (600 sq. feet)	1 person	3 persons
2 Bedroom (900 sq. feet)	2 persons	4 persons

The following is an ideal range of persons per housing unit:

Number of Bedrooms	Occupancy Density Range
	Minimum	Maximum
5	5	10

B. Procedures for Assigning Units

Occupancy policies also establish the order in which eligible applicants and existing tenants will be housed or rehoused.

Borrowers are required to comply with Section 5 of this chapter in selecting and assigning applicants to new units or relocating over- or under housed existing tenants. However, it is important that these requirements are detailed in the borrower’s occupancy policies, so that it is clear to new applicants and existing tenants how a vacant unit will be assigned.

6.14 AGENCY REVIEW AND MONITORING OF OCCUPANCY POLICIES

The Agency must concur with the borrower’s occupancy policies prior to initial occupancy of the project and in all future modifications. In reviewing the policies, the Agency must assure that the standards are in compliance with state and local laws and that they appear reasonable based on the unit size and type. The Agency should review compliance with the policies during the compliance review. If a household is residing in the property and is out of compliance with the occupancy policy, the borrower must follow procedures outlined in Paragraph 6.29 for tenants in violation of occupancy rules.

6.15 OCCUPANCY RULES

The purpose of the occupancy rules is to establish the basis for the tenant and management relationship.

A. Basic Rules

Exhibit 6-4 lists the basic items that borrowers must address in the occupancy rules for their projects.

Occupancy rules for each project will be in writing, attached to each tenant’s lease upon initial occupancy, and posted in a central location (such as a central mail location) so that tenants may easily access the information. Modifications to these rules will be provided to the tenant at least 30 days prior to implementation and in accordance with the requirements of Section 8 of this chapter.

B. Pets

For each elderly designated multi-family housing project the borrower must have established project rules permitting elderly or disabled tenants to keep commonly accepted household pets.

Borrowers must not prohibit elderly households from keeping domestic animals in their unit; however the borrower may require the household to pay a pet deposit.

Pet rules must not:

- Prohibit, prevent, restrict, or discriminate against any tenant who owns or keeps a pet in their apartment unit, with respect to continued occupancy in the project unless the approved project pet rules are violated;
- Prohibit, prevent, restrict, or discriminate against any applicant who owns a pet with respect to obtaining occupancy in the project; and
- Charge an extra monthly rental charge for pets.

Borrowers with existing projects must consult with the tenants of the project when revising pet rules and retain documentation on how the consultation process was conducted.

Borrowers with new projects will establish pet rules prior to occupancy, but may revise those rules based on tenant comments and suggestions received after rent-up begins.

Pet rules will be reasonable and will be written to consider at least the following factors:

- Density of project units;
- Pet size;
- Type of pet;
- Potential financial obligations of tenants who own or keep pets;
- Standards of pet care;
- Pet exercise areas;
- State and local animal laws or ordinances; and
- Liability insurance.

Pet rules must allow the borrower or project manager authorization to remove from the project any pet whose conduct or condition is duly determined to constitute a nuisance or threat to the health or safety of other tenants or members in the project or persons in the surrounding community.

Exhibit 6-4

Required Items for Multi-Family Housing Occupancy Rules

At minimum, the occupancy rules should include:

- An explanation of the tenant’s rights and responsibilities under the lease or occupancy agreement;
- The rent payment or occupancy charge policies;
- The policies regarding periodic inspection of units;
- The system for responding to tenant complaints;
- The maintenance request and work-order procedures;
- The project services and facilities available to tenants or members;
- The office locations, hours, and emergency telephone numbers;
- The restrictions on storage and prohibitions on abandoning vehicles in the project area;
- The way to obtain community and public transportation schedules;
- The policies regarding guests that become household members;
- Other requirements related to the subsidy provided to the tenant from non–Agency sources; and
- The procedures tenants must follow to request reasonable accommodations.

Regardless of the occupancy rules established for the project, the borrower must adhere to the following:

- Borrowers must not prohibit animals that provide assistance to the handicapped or disabled from residing in the unit with the person to whom the animal is providing assistance.
- Borrower may not require the household to pay a pet deposit for a service/assistance/companion animal.

C. Tenant Organizations

In developing and implementing the occupancy rules, borrowers must not infringe on the rights of tenants to organize an association of tenants. The project manager (or designated management representative) should be available and willing to work with a tenant organization.

Borrowers may not unreasonably withhold the use of community rooms or other available space within the project when requested by:

- A resident organization in connection with the representational functions of the organization; or
- Residents seeking to organize or to collectively consider any matter pertaining to the operation of the project.

D. Community Rooms

In developing the occupancy rules, borrowers must not place unreasonable restrictions on tenants that desire to use Federally financed community rooms for their enjoyment. While a schedule of fees may be developed for the use of the community space, fees should be reasonable and meant only to cover the costs of cleaning and maintenance of the facility being used.

6.16 AGENCY REVIEW AND MONITORING OF OCCUPANCY RULES

Borrowers must obtain concurrence from the Agency prior to the implementation of the occupancy rules, and must obtain Agency concurrence before making any modifications to the rules.

If tenants believe the borrower is in violation of occupancy rules, they must be directed to follow the tenant grievance process outlined in Section 8 of this chapter.

The Loan Servicer will review adherence to the occupancy rules during the compliance review. In a situation where the Loan Servicer believes management is in violation of the occupancy rules, the Agency must state the violation as a finding and require the borrower to resolve the problem in a specified time frame.

In situations where the tenant is in violation of the occupancy rules and the tenant fails to correct the problem, the borrower should proceed to evict the tenant for material noncompliance with the lease. In the event that an eviction action is filed with the court, the tenant should set up an escrow account for the rent.

SECTION 4: MARKETING AND APPLICATION PROCESSING [7 CFR 3560.104 and 7 CFR 3560.154]

6.17 REQUIREMENTS FOR AFFIRMATIVE FAIR HOUSING MARKETING PLANS

Borrowers with four or more units are required to prepare and maintain an Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan (AFHMP) using Form HUD 935.2, Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan. The purpose of this plan is to set forth how the borrower will meet their Fair Housing responsibilities. This plan will be submitted to the Agency for approval prior to loan closing. The Agency may also require periodic modifications to the plan if implementation is not reaching the population groups targeted by the plan. At a minimum, the AFHMP will address the following:

- Outreach efforts of the property;
- Marketing strategies; and
- Education and training of all staff on Civil Rights laws (e.g., Title VI, Fair Housing, Section 504, Title IX).

The approved plan must be posted by the borrower in a prominent location for public inspection. This could include the project site, the rental office, or other location where applications are received for the property.

The borrower must develop and maintain a system for conducting self-assessments of the property staff's performance in implementing an approved AFHMP.

6.18 APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCESSING

The purpose of the tenant application process is to collect enough information regarding the household status to determine applicant eligibility for the specific property. This information should also be comprehensive enough for the borrower to make a determination about waiting list placement.

A. Application Forms

Borrowers may develop their own application form in accordance with the requirements of Exhibit 6-5. The borrower must retain application forms for at least three years or until the next compliance review is conducted by the Agency.

Exhibit 6-5

Minimum Requirements for a Tenant Application

- Name and present address;
- Household income information, including all information from sources that would be counted in calculating annual income, adjusted income, and net assets; and consent to release wage matching data to RHS and the borrower
- Number of household members, including all members who would live in the dwelling unit, even those who would only live there on a part-time basis, and their birthdates;
- Indication of a need for a handicap accessible unit and/or handicap or disability adjustments to income;
- Applicant certification that the unit will serve as the household's primary residence;
- Social Security Number for all member of the household;
- Adjustments to income for which the household may qualify, which should be verified;
- Signature and date;
- Race, ethnicity, and gender designation; and
- Disclosure notice.

Borrowers using application forms must establish a section at the end of the form, below the signature and date block, to collect race/national origin/gender information. To meet the requirements of Federal Register Vol. 62 No. 210, Revision to the Standards for the Classification of Federal Data on Race and Ethnicity, the data collection needs to appear as follows:

“The information regarding race, ethnicity, and sex designation solicited on this application is requested in order to assure the Federal Government, acting through the Rural Housing Service that the Federal laws prohibiting discrimination against tenant applications on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, age, and disability are complied with. You are not required to furnish this information, but are encouraged to do so. This information will not be used in evaluating your application or to discriminate against you in any way. However, if you choose not to furnish it, the owner is required to note the race, ethnicity, and sex of individual applicants on the basis of visual observation or surname.

Ethnicity:

Hispanic or Latino_____

Not Hispanic or Latino_____

Race: (Mark one or more)

- 1 American Indian/Alaska Native_____
- 2 Asian_____
- 3 Black or African American_____
- 4 Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander_____
- 5 White_____

Gender: Male_____ Female_____”

The race and the ethnicity of each applicant shall be recorded on the waiting list. This information shall be collected for statistical purposes only and must not be used when making eligibility determinations or in any other discriminatory manner. The information shall be recorded using the race and ethnicity codes that are utilized on the Agency tenant certification form available in the Servicing Office.

Borrowers must establish and maintain a specific place and time where applications will be accepted. This information should be posted in a central location on the property. It must also be documented in the Management Plan and the AFHMP and to the greatest extent possible communicated through outreach and marketing efforts.

Applicants are to be provided a list of any additional information that must be submitted with the application for the application to be considered complete (an application will be considered complete without verification of the applicant information). The list of information must be restricted to the same items for all Agency-assisted properties of a particular type, such as a family or elderly complex.

B. Application Fees

Application fees are discouraged, but when used, any fee charged to an applicant must be limited to the cost of actual services incurred for obtaining necessary information associated with completing a tenant certification.

C. Maintaining Waiting Lists

When an applicant has submitted an application form the borrower must place the applicant on the waiting list. All applications, whether complete, eligible, or ineligible, will be placed on the list. The waiting list will document the final disposition of all applications (rejected, withdrawn, or placed in a unit).

The date and time a complete application was submitted will be recorded on the waiting list and will establish priority for selection from the list. If an applicant submits an incomplete application they must be notified in writing within 10 days of the items that are needed for the application to be considered complete and that priority will not be established until the additional items are received.

The race and the ethnicity of each applicant shall be recorded on the waiting list. This information shall be collected for statistical purposes only and must not be used when making eligibility determinations or in any other discriminatory manner. The information shall be recorded using the race and ethnicity codes that are utilized on the Agency tenant certification form.

1. Electronic Waiting Lists

Electronic waiting lists must have a mechanism for maintaining the date and time of each applicant's placement on or selection from the waiting list and a way to document changes made to the list. The following are examples of methods that borrowers might use to track inputs to the electronic waiting list and changes to it:

- Use a data backup function to record the time and date of entry of new applications and changes to existing records in the electronic waiting list.
- Print a record of the appearance of the waiting list as often as necessary (at least monthly) to show each applicant's placement on and selection from the list. The time and the date of the printout should appear on the report. The owner can file this information in the tenant file and in a central waiting list file.
- Whenever status changes occur, such as changes in family composition and unit size, record the change with an explanation, and print the re-sorted list.

To the extent possible, the borrower should use electronic safeguards, such as assigning waiting list password access only to individuals responsible for maintaining the system. Ideally, a system should record the user name and the time, date, and action entered whenever a record is changed or entered in the electronic waiting list.

2. Selecting Applications from the Waiting List

Once an applicant has submitted a complete application and signed a form authorizing the borrower to verify employment, the date and time must be recorded on the waiting list to establish priority for selection. Selection from the waiting list will be made according to date and time in the following order:

- Very low-income applicants;
- Low-income applicants; and
- Moderate-income applicants.

See Paragraph 6.3 for information regarding how to determine the specific income level of an applicant.

Within 10 calendar days of receipt of a complete application, the borrower must notify the applicant in writing that he has been selected for immediate occupancy, placed on a waiting list, or rejected.

The procedures used by the borrower to purge the project's waiting list must be described in the project's management plan. These procedures must be based on the length of the waiting list or the extent of time the applicant will be expected to wait for housing.

6.19 REJECTION OF APPLICATIONS

Borrowers may deny admission for criminal activity or alcohol abuse by household members.

Borrowers are required to notify all applicants in writing of their ineligibility. If applicants are determined to be ineligible, the rejection letter must outline the reason for rejection of the application and their right to appeal such a decision in accordance with 7 CFR 3560.154 and 7 CFR 3560.160. The rejection letter must advise the applicants of their right to appeal the decision within 10 calendar days, as well as the right to a hearing. If the project is located in an area with a high concentration of non-English-speaking individuals, the letter must be in English and the non-English language that is prevalent in the area. When an applicant is rejected due to credit bureau reporting information, the source of the credit bureau must be revealed to the applicant in accordance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

6.20 AGENCY REVIEW AND MONITORING OF APPLICATION PROCESSING

In reviewing the application process employed by the borrower, the Agency should review the following:

- Is adequate documentation available to determine compliance with applicant processing requirements?
- Are applicants properly informed of where and when applications may be obtained and submitted?
- Does the application provide the borrower with adequate information to determine the applicant's place on the waiting list?
- Is there an element in the application process that discourages targeted populations from submitting an application? If so, will modifying the application process encourage targeted, but underserved populations to apply?
- Are applications processed in a timely manner?
- Are ineligible applicants adequately notified of their appeal rights under Section 8 of this chapter?

Loan Servicers should review the application during the compliance review to ensure that adequate information is being obtained and that the above-listed questions are answered to the satisfaction of the Agency.

SECTION 5: TENANT SELECTION AND UNIT ASSIGNMENT

[7 CFR 3560.154 AND 7 CFR 3560.155]

6.21 ASSIGNING AN AVAILABLE UNIT

Once a unit becomes available, the borrower must decide who is entitled to that unit based on a variety of factors.

Eligible tenants residing in the property who are either under- or over-housed receive priority over new applicants if relocating them into the newly vacant unit would bring the household into compliance with the occupancy policy for the property. If there are no such over- or under-housed existing tenants, the borrower must select a new applicant from the waiting list to fill the newly vacant unit. The borrower must use the project's occupancy policy to look at applicants on the waiting list who are eligible based on the unit size. From that universe, the borrower must then determine, based on income levels and priorities, which applicant is entitled to the unit. The order in which applicant households are entitled to housing depends on two factors:

- The income level of the household; and
- The priorities for which the household may qualify.

When an applicant first submitted an application, the borrower made an initial determination as to whether the household was very low-, low-, or moderate-income. Based on this assessment, the applicant was assigned to the very low-, low-, or moderate-income waiting list. When looking for the next eligible tenant for the vacant unit, the borrower must first go to the very-low income waiting list. If there are no applicants on the very low-income waiting list who qualify for the vacant unit based on the property's occupancy policy, then the borrower may go to the low-income waiting list. Only if there are no eligible applicants for the unit on the low-income waiting list may the borrower select an eligible applicant from the moderate-income waiting list.

6.22 PRIORITIES FOR UNITS

A. Exceptions to Income Standard Assignment Policies

While the basic standard is to house all very low-income applicants prior to low- and then moderate-income applicants, there are situations where this process may be bypassed. However, an individual in one of the situations identified below would not be eligible for housing before applicants on the waiting list for a lower income category.

- If the unit is a handicapped accessible unit, then an eligible household that needs the features of that unit will receive priority over all other applicants, regardless of income. If more than one applicant needs the features of the handicapped accessible unit, then applicants who are very low-income would have priority, followed by low- and then moderate-income households.

- In congregate housing facilities, applicants who qualify for and agree to utilize the services provided by the facility will be housed over all other applicants on the waiting list. Where there is more than one applicant that meets this criterion, the applicants meeting this condition will be ranked by very low-, low-, and moderate-income and housed in accordance with the occupancy policies established at the property.
- Borrowers with projects receiving low-income housing tax credits (LIHTCs), may leave a housing unit vacant if they are required to rent the available unit to an LIHTC-eligible applicant, and none of the applicants on the waiting list meet the applicable LIHTC eligibility requirements.

Example— Exceptions

Project B has two handicap-accessible units. There are three handicapped individuals who need the features of the handicap-accessible units on the waiting list: one moderate income and two low-income. The property has a waiting list of 20 very low-income applicants. The borrower must rent the two handicap-accessible units to the two low-income applicants.

Project Z is a congregate housing facility and has a vacant one-bedroom unit. There are three individuals eligible for a one-bedroom unit on the waiting list: two very low-income applicants and one low-income applicant. All qualify for congregate care services. Only one of the very low-income applicants, however, would agree to use the congregate care facilities. The borrower would have to offer one of the vacant units to the very low-income applicant who agrees to use the services and the other unit to the low-income applicant who agrees to use the services.

- Letter of Priority Entitlement (LOPE), Handbook Letter 201. A letter issued by the Agency providing a tenant with priority entitlement to rental units in other Agency-financed housing projects for 120 days from the date of the LOPE. Persons displaced by Agency action, or displaced persons in a Federally declared disaster area have priority over all other applicants of the individual applicant's income group Project C has a vacant three-bedroom apartment. There are no applicants eligible for a three-bedroom unit on the very low-income waiting list. There are 20 applicants eligible for a three-bedroom unit on the low-income waiting list. A holder of a LOPE applies for occupancy at the project. The applicant is low-income and qualifies for a two-bedroom unit. Despite the number of applicants on the waiting list, the borrower must offer the available unit to the LOPE holder, and the LOPE holder agrees to move to the appropriate-size unit when one becomes available.

Example

B. Assignment of Rental Units Accessible to Individuals with Disabilities

If a rental unit accessible to individuals with disabilities is available and there are no applicants that require the features of the unit, the borrower may rent the unit to a non-disabled tenant under the following conditions:

- The borrower must include a provision in the lease requiring the tenant to vacate the unit within 30 days of notification to an appropriate sized vacant unit within the project, if one is available from management that an eligible individual with disabilities requires the unit;
- The unit has been marketed as an accessible unit;
- Outreach has been made to organizations representing the disabled; and
- Marketing of the unit as an accessible unit continues after it is rented to a tenant who is not in need of the special design features.

Borrowers receiving HUD Section 8 project-based assistance may establish preferences in accordance with HUD regulations. The use of such preferences must be documented in the project's management plan.

6.23 AGENCY MONITORING AND REVIEW OF UNIT ASSIGNMENT

The selection and assignment of units is one of the most important aspects to managing a property. Borrowers and management agents must assure onsite management staff are well versed in Agency policy and guidance regarding this subject or require the borrower to modify the management plan to reflect increased training in this area. The Loan Servicers will review the waiting lists and completed applications to ensure that:

- Units which are not needed to relocate existing tenants are first offered to eligible very low-income families; and
- Units are offered to households in accordance with the borrower's occupancy policy.

If Loan Servicers find that the borrower or the agent is failing to follow Agency policy in assigning available units, Loan Servicers may require the borrower modify the management plan to clearly reflect Agency policy and/or enhance the training of management staff responsible for assigning units.

SECTION 6: DWELLING LEASES [7 CFR 3560.156]

6.24 OVERVIEW OF DWELLING LEASES

A lease between the borrower and the tenant is required to be executed before any tenant occupies a unit in a multi-family housing project. This section will provide information regarding how the borrower will develop that lease and what action is needed by the Agency before the lease may be used. The Agency must approve the lease before the borrower enters into a lease agreement with any tenant.

6.25 DEVELOPMENT OF A LEASE

The borrower is responsible for the development of the tenant lease that will be used at the property. This lease must contain the required items, provisions and clauses outlined in Attachment 6-E and must be free of prohibited clauses listed in Attachment 6-F. It must also be in compliance with state and local laws. If there are conflicting requirements between Federal, state, and local laws, the borrower must notify the Agency of the conflict and request guidance. Once a lease is developed by the borrower, the borrower's attorney must certify that the lease is in compliance with the requirements of 7 CFR 3560.156 and Attachments 6-E and 6-F prior to submission of the lease to the Agency for approval. The Agency must approve with all leases proposed for use at an Agency-related property, prior to the use of that lease.

6.26 EXECUTION OF THE LEASE WITH THE TENANT

Prior to the occupancy of any unit by an applicant, the applicant and the borrower must execute a lease that has been approved by the Agency. Once a lease has been executed with the applicant, they are entitled to occupy the unit so long as they remain eligible and comply with lease renewal requirements. Expiration of the lease is not of itself grounds for a termination of tenancy.

6.27 AGENCY REVIEW AND MONITORING OF LEASE REQUIREMENTS

The management agent must review and monitor the implementation of the lease with the applicant/tenant to ensure that they are properly informed of their rights and responsibilities under the lease. During the compliance review process, the Agency should look to assure:

- The occupancy rules are attached to the initial lease;
- The applicant understands their rights to the tenant grievance process under HUD Section 8 and 7 CFR 3560.160; and
- The applicant understands the process for relaying information such as maintenance requests and income information to management and the responsibility to do so in a timely manner.

If the Loan Servicer finds the borrower is failing to provide adequate information regarding the rights and responsibilities of the tenant and the management agent, the Loan Servicers should require the borrower to improve the management plan and training of onsite staff.

SECTION 7: TENANT RECERTIFICATION AND CHANGES IN ELIGIBILITY [7 CFR 3560.152 and 7 CFR 3560.158]

The recertification process developed in this section is designed to ensure a tenant remains eligible to reside in multi-family housing. As household status changes, the size of the unit needed by the household or the amount of rent that they are obligated to pay may change. This section discusses when a recertification is required and what action the borrower will be required to take if a household is determined ineligible to continue residing at the property.

6.28 REQUIREMENTS TO RECERTIFY TENANTS

A. The Annual Recertification Process

Each time a resident is recertified, the certification is good for one year, unless subpart 2 of this paragraph requires a recertification to be completed more frequently. At the end of the year the certification will expire and the borrower is required to recertify the household. The effective date of the tenant's recertification is the first day of the month following the expiration of the current certification. Using the procedures outlined in Section 1 of this chapter, the borrower will complete a new certification. The key steps to this process include:

1. Notifying the Tenant of the Recertification Requirement

At least 75 to 90 days prior to the date that the certification expires, the borrower must notify the tenant in writing that they must be recertified to remain eligible to continue residence at the property. This letter will also include what information the borrower needs from the household in order to complete the certification.

If the household still fails to respond to the letter, the borrower should issue a second letter 30 days prior to the date which the certification expires informing the tenant of the:

- Information needed to recertify;
- The time frame in which the new certification must be submitted to the Agency; and
- The consequences for failure to comply with the recertification process.

2. Execution of the New Certification

Upon receiving the information regarding household size and income from the tenant, the borrower will verify the information and the borrower and the tenant will complete a new Form RD 3560-8. This form will document the calculation of annual income and adjusted income (in accordance with Section 1 of this chapter) and the calculation of the tenant payment (in accordance with Chapters 7 and 8).

B. Interim Recertification Process

Tenants and borrowers must execute an Agency-approved tenant certification form establishing the tenant’s eligibility prior to occupancy. In addition, tenant households must be recertified and must execute a tenant certification form at least annually or whenever a change in household income of $100 or more per month occurs. Borrowers must recertify for changes of $50 per month, if the tenant requests that such a change be made.

1. Tenant Requirements

- Tenants must provide borrowers with the necessary income and other household information required by the Agency to determine eligibility.
- Tenants must authorize borrowers to verify information provided to establish their eligibility or determination of tenant contribution.
- Tenants must report all changes in household status that may affect their eligibility to borrowers.
- Tenants who fail to comply with tenant certification and recertification requirements will be considered ineligible for occupancy and will be subject to unauthorized assistance claims, if applicable, as specified in 7 CFR part 3560, subpart O.

2. Borrower Requirements

- Borrowers must verify household income and other information necessary to establish tenant eligibility for the requested rental unit type, in a format approved by the Agency, prior to a tenant’s initial occupancy and prior to annual or other recertifications.
- Borrowers must review all reported changes in household status and assess the impact of these changes on the tenant’s eligibility or net tenant contribution.
- Borrowers must submit initial or updated tenant certification forms to the Agency within 10 days of the effective date of an initial certification or any changes in a tenant’s status. The effective date of an initial or updated tenant certification form will always be a first day of the month.
- Since tenant certifications are used to document interest credit and rental assistance eligibility and are a basic responsibility of the borrower under the loan documents, borrowers who fail to submit annual or updated tenant certification forms within the time period specified in Paragraph 6.27 B of this section will be charged overage, as specified in 7 CFR 3560 203(c). Unauthorized assistance, if any, will be handled in accordance with 7 CFR part 3560, subpart O.

- Borrowers must submit tenant certification forms to the Agency using a format approved by the Agency.
- Borrowers must retain executed tenant certification forms and any supporting documentation in the tenant file for at least 3 years or until the next Agency supervisory visit, whichever is longer.
- The Agency maintains the right to independently verify tenant eligibility information.

C. Submission of the Certification to the Agency

Once the borrower and the tenant execute a certification, it must be submitted to the Agency within 10 days of the effective date of the certification. In order for a certification to be valid, it must be signed and dated by all parties on or before the effective date and maintained in the tenant file. If a borrower fails to submit a certification by the effective date, it will result in monetary penalties to the borrower as established in Chapter 7.

6.29 AGENCY REVIEW AND MONITORING OF THE RECERTIFICATION PROCESS

A. Agency Review

The recertification process is designed to ensure that Agency programs are serving income-eligible households on an ongoing basis. Loan Servicers review of the recertification process should be designed to ensure that recertifications are executed in a timely manner. The Loan Servicers should make the following assessments:

- Are tenants receiving the proper notice—at least 90 days in advance of the expiration of the current certification?
- Does the notice provide the tenant with a list of the information needed for the completion of the recertification process?
- Are borrowers accurately determining when an interim recertification is needed?
- Are interim recertifications being executed on a timely basis (i.e., no later than 30 days from the time the information is provided to the borrower)?
- Does the certification form provide the information needed by the Agency to determine that the tenant payment and rental subsidy have been calculated correctly?
- Is the borrower completing the verification of information on a timely basis?

If the Loan Servicer concludes that the borrower is deficient in recertifying existing tenants, the Agency must require the borrower and the management agent to modify existing practices and procedures to ensure a more timely delivery of recertifications to the Agency. This could include:

- Modification of the management plan to incorporate stronger or more specific procedures with regard to recertifications;
- Enhanced training for onsite staff in processing Agency certifications; and
- Stronger enforcement of the penalties for tenants who fail to comply with the recertification process.

B. Management Agent Interactive Network Connection (MINC)

MINC is the mechanism by which borrowers submit tenant certifications to the Agency electronically on a monthly basis.

Within twelve months of the date of publication of the interim final regulation, for projects with eight units or more, all borrowers will be required to submit tenant certifications through MINC. The Agency may make an exception to this requirement if the borrower submits documentation that the costs associated with electronic submission of tenant certifications would pose a financial hardship to the project.

If the borrower is using MINC, certifications must be submitted by the tenth of the month for which they are due. For instance, if the borrower is submitting certification due in May with an effective date of May 1, the certifications must be electronically transmitted to the Agency by May 10. If for any reason the borrower is unable to transmit the certifications electronically during a given month, the borrower must submit the hard copies of the certifications to the Agency for receipt by the tenth of the month.

Borrowers who are not using MINC must either submit certifications by diskette or hard copies to the Agency for receipt by the tenth of the month.

Regardless of the transmission method used—MINC or hard copies—if the Agency does not receive certifications by the tenth of the month in which they are due and the borrower has not notified the Agency that the transmission will be late; the borrower will be subject to overage penalty.

Attachment 6-G provides guidance on the allowable sources of funds for obtaining automation capabilities.

6.30 INELIGIBLE TENANTS

Ineligible tenants are those who, upon recertification, fail to meet either the income or the occupancy requirements for the unit and property that they currently occupy. Regulations require that tenants who are no longer eligible to reside at the property be given notice that they must vacate the property within 30 days or at the end of their lease, whichever is longer.

A. Continuation of Tenancy—Tenants Who Fail to Comply with the Occupancy Policy

In some situations, a tenant may be ineligible based on the size of the unit currently occupied, but could become eligible if shifted to a unit of a different size (either larger or smaller) within the property. In this situation, a tenant may continue tenancy as an ineligible tenant, but the borrower should relocate the household to the proper unit size as soon as a unit of that size becomes available.

In some cases, a household may require a unit size that is unavailable at the property. In this situation the tenant would be considered ineligible and required to vacate the property within 30 days or at the end of their lease, whichever is longer.

B. Continuation of Tenancy—Tenants Who Fail to Comply with the Income Requirements for the Property

In most cases, if tenant certifications indicate that they no longer comply with the income limits set for the property, tenants must be notified about vacating the property in 30 days or at the end of their lease, whichever is longer.

In two specific situations, borrowers may permit ineligible households to reside at the project with prior Agency approval:

- The waiting list for the specific unit type has no eligible tenants; or
- The required time period for vacating the unit would create a hardship on the household.

Elderly households with incomes above the moderate-income level may occupy projects with an Agency loan approved prior to 1968 with a loan agreement that does not restrict occupancy by income.

C. Cooperative Members

Any persons who are eligible members of a cooperative will not be considered ineligible or subsequently deprived of their membership by reason of no longer meeting the income-eligibility requirements as defined in 7 CFR 3560.152.

D. Remaining Household Members

Members of a household residing in a multi-family housing project may continue to occupy the unit after the departure of the original tenant, regardless of age, provided that:

- They are eligible with respect to income;
- They were either a cotenant or member of the household, have the legal capacity to sign the lease, and are U.S. citizens or qualified aliens;

- They occupied the unit with the original tenant at the time the original tenant died or departed;
- They sign a new tenant certification establishing their own tenancy; and
- They have the legal ability to sign a lease for the rental unit, except where a legal guardian may sign when the tenant or member is otherwise eligible.

Remaining household members that are over housed must move to a suitably sized rental unit within 30 days of its availability. If a suitably sized unit does not exist at the property, the tenant will be required to vacate the property in accordance with Paragraph 6.32 A.

E. Surviving Household Members

Members of an elderly household residing in an elderly project may continue to occupy the unit after the death of the original tenant, regardless of age, provided that:

- They are eligible with respect to income;
- They were either a co-tenant or member of the household and have the legal capacity to sign the lease;
- They occupied the unit with the original tenant at the time the original tenant died or departed;
- They sign a new tenant certification establishing their own tenancy; and
- They have the legal ability to sign a lease for the rental unit, except where a legal guardian may sign when the tenant or member is otherwise eligible.

Surviving household members who are over housed may remain in the unit, but must move to a suitably sized rental unit within 30 days of its availability. If a suitably sized unit is not available, surviving household members may remain in the rental unit according to the housing project's occupancy rules as follows:

- Continued occupancy of the rental unit will not be allowed when:
 - ◇ The rental unit has accessibility features for individuals with disabilities;
 - ◇ The household no longer has a need for such accessibility features; and
 - ◇ The housing project has a tenant application from an individual with a need for the accessibility features.
- If the housing project does not have a tenant application from an individual with a need for the accessibility features, the household may remain in the rental unit until the housing project receives an application from an individual in need of the accessibility features, at which point, the household will be required to move within 30 days; and

- If a suitably sized unit is not available in the project within 30 days, the tenant may remain in the unit with accessibility features until a unit becomes available, and must then move within 30 days.

F. Agency Review and Monitoring of Ineligible Tenants

For an ineligible tenant to remain at the property beyond the allowable time frame of 30 days or the end of the lease, whichever is longer, the borrower must obtain written permission from the Agency. In granting such permission, the Agency should assure that one of two criteria exist:

- The waiting list for the specific unit type has no eligible tenants; or
- The required time period for vacating the unit would create a hardship for the household.

In reviewing whether the borrower is in compliance with the requirements to remove ineligible tenants the Agency should check to ensure:

- The borrower is requesting approval for ineligible tenants to remain on the property in a timely manner.
- The borrower is properly documenting any reason for which an ineligible tenant is being allowed to continue to reside in the property. Some of these reasons may include:
 - ◇ Permission has been granted by the Agency for the tenant to remain temporarily;
 - ◇ The tenant is a surviving member of an elderly household; or
 - ◇ The household is still income eligible and will be moved to an appropriate-size unit when one becomes available at the property.
- The borrower is providing proper notice to tenants regarding the time frames for vacating the property.

6.31 LEASE VIOLATIONS

Borrowers may require tenants in violation of occupancy rules or the terms of their lease to vacate the property in accordance with the terms of their lease agreement. However, borrowers must provide notice to such tenant in a format that is in compliance with state and local laws and is approved by the Agency.

6.32 TERMINATION OF OCCUPANCY

A. Tenants in Violation of the Lease

In accordance with the lease, a borrower may terminate or refuse to renew a tenant's lease for material noncompliance with the lease or occupancy rules or for other good cause. Material noncompliance with lease provisions or occupancy rules includes actions such as:

- Violations of lease provisions or occupancy rules that are substantial and repeated;
- Nonpayment or repeated late payment of rent or other financial obligations due to the borrower; and
- Admission to or conviction for use, attempted use, possession, manufacture, sale or distribution of an illegal controlled substance. Such activity must have occurred on the project's premises by the tenant, a member of the tenant household, or any other person under the tenant's control at the time of the activity.

For purposes of terminating a tenant's occupancy, good cause includes actions by the tenant or member of the tenant's household that:

- Threaten the health and safety of other persons or the right of other persons to peaceful enjoyment of their dwelling;
- Result in substantial physical damage causing an adverse financial effect on the housing or other persons' property; and
- Are actions prohibited by state or local law.

If the borrower terminates the tenant's lease, the borrower must document in writing in the tenant's file:

- The incidences related to the lease; and
- That the tenant was given notice prior to the termination that the tenant's activities would result in occupancy termination.

Prior to terminating a lease, the borrower must give the tenant written notice of the violation and give the tenant an opportunity to correct the violation. Subsequently, termination may only occur when the incidences related to the termination are documented and there is documentation that the tenant was given notice prior to the initiation of the termination action that their activities would result in occupancy termination.

B. Other Lease Terminations

A landlord may terminate occupancy for conditions beyond the tenant's control, such as:

- Required repair or rehabilitation of the building; or
- Natural disaster.

Under these circumstances, the affected tenants may request a LOPE from the Agency. The LOPE will provide the tenant with priority entitlement to rental units in other Agency-financed projects for 120 days from the date of the LOPE. If tenants need additional time to secure replacement housing, the Agency may, at the tenant's request, extend the LOPE entitlement period. Tenants that are displaced due to circumstances beyond their control are entitled to benefits under the Uniform Relocation Act.

SECTION 8: TENANT GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES [7 CFR 3560.160]

This section presents the process for resolving tenant grievances. Every step of the process will be explained with the responsibilities of each party involved. Topics covered in this section include when to file a complaint, the hearing process, requirements governing the hearing, and the hearing decision. It is important to note that a resolution that is in the best interest of everyone should have gone through the entire grievance process before a final decision was made.

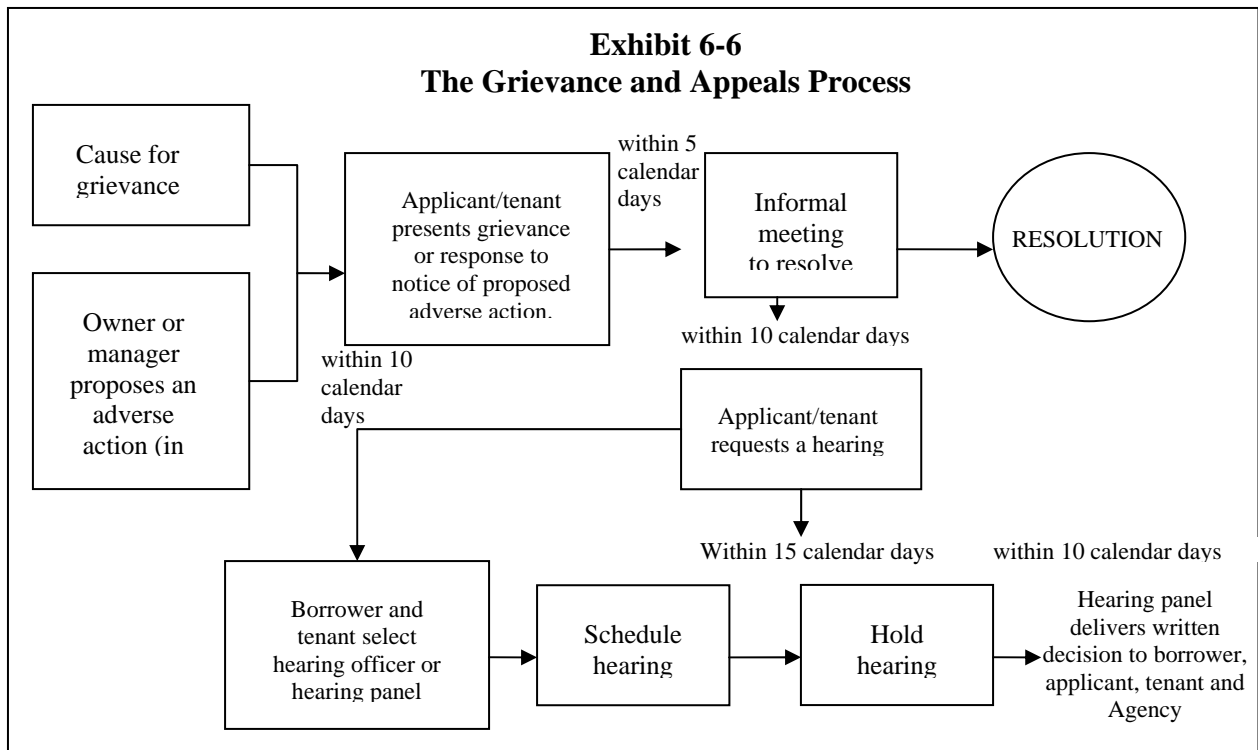

Tenants or prospective tenants may file a grievance in writing with the borrower in response to a borrower action, or failure to act, in accordance with the lease or Agency regulations that results in a denial, significant reduction, or termination of benefits or when a tenant or prospective tenant contests a borrower's notice of proposed adverse action as provided in Paragraphs 6.31 and 6.32.

6.33 NOTICE OF ADVERSE ACTION

In the case of a proposed action that may have adverse consequences for tenants or prospective tenants such as denial of admission to occupancy and changes in the occupancy rules or lease, the borrower must notify the tenant or prospective tenant in writing. The notice must give specific reasons for the proposed action. The notice must also advise the tenant or prospective tenant of "the right to respond to the notice within 10 calendar days after date of the notice" and of "the right to a hearing in accordance with 7 CFR 3560.160 (f), which is available upon request." The notice must contain the information specified in 7 CFR 3560.160 (a)(2). For housing projects in areas with a concentration of non-English-speaking individuals, the notice must be in English and the non-English language.

6.34 OVERVIEW OF THE PROCESS

The grievance process should always begin with an informal meeting between the grieved party and the borrower/management agent. It is the Agency’s belief that the best way to resolve grievances is through an informal meeting between the two parties. Borrowers must offer to meet with tenants to discuss the grievance within 5 calendar days of receiving the grievance. If an informal meeting is held, the borrower must provide a summary of the meeting to the tenant within 10 calendar days of the meeting date. The Agency encourages borrowers and tenants or prospective tenants to make an effort to reach a mutually satisfactory resolution to the grievance at the meeting.

The parties will select a hearing panel or hearing officer to govern the hearing. Within 10 calendar days after the hearing, all parties are informed of the decision. Exhibit 6-6 provides an example of the grievance process.

6.35 WHEN IS A TENANT GRIEVANCE LEGITIMATE?

It is important for the management agent to determine if a tenant or prospective tenant’s grievance is within the requirements established for the program. For example, “I want to file a complaint because the manager does not speak to me,” is not a legitimate complaint. On the other hand, a complaint that the building manager fails to maintain the property according to the Agency guidelines is a legitimate complaint. Exhibit 6-7 lists the circumstances in which a tenant may or may not be able to file a complaint.

Exhibit 6-7
Tenant Complaints—Allowable Circumstances
A complaint may NOT be filed if:	A complaint MAY be filed if:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There is a proposed rent change that is authorized by the Agency. • A tenant or prospective tenant believes that they have been discriminated against. If a person believes that discrimination has occurred, they should file a complaint with the USDA’s Office of Civil Rights or the Secretary of HUD. • A project has formed a tenant’s association and all parties involved have agreed to use this association as a method of settling grievances. • There are changes in the rules that are required by the Agency and proper notice has been given. • The tenant is in violation of the lease and those violations result in termination of tenancy. • Disputes between tenants that do not involve the borrower/management agent. • Displacement or other effects as a result of prepayment. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There is a modification of the lease, change in the rules, or changes in the rent that are not authorized by the Agency. • The borrower/management agent fails to maintain the property in a manner that is decent, safe, and sanitary. • The borrower violates a lease provision or occupancy rule. • Denial of admission to the project by a prospective tenant.

6.36 BORROWER/MANAGEMENT AGENT RESPONSIBILITIES

The borrower/management agent is responsible for providing all tenants and prospective tenants with decent, safe, and sanitary housing. The following is a list of all of the responsibilities of the borrower/agent:

- Post all regulations, summary of regulations, or tenant information, including the equal housing opportunity poster, “and justice for all” poster, tenant grievance and appeals procedures, the AFHMP, occupancy rules, and office and emergency hours and phone numbers in a conspicuous place.
- Provide all tenants with a summary of their rights at the time the lease is signed and at each lease renewal. For tenants that are currently living in the project, a summary must be submitted once the summary is created.
- If the project has a large population of non-English-speaking tenants, the borrower/agent must provide the summary and any other documents that pertain to the tenant’s rights, in the non-English language.

6.37 THE HEARING PROCESS

A. Request for a Hearing

- Each hearing process must begin with the request for a hearing. The tenant or prospective tenant must present their request within 10 days after the receipt of the summary of the informal meeting. The request must contain the following information:
 - ◇ The reason for the grievance or contest of the borrower/management agent's proposed action;
 - ◇ The action relief sought; and
 - ◇ Additional information.
- If the tenant or prospective tenant's request for a hearing is not received within the given time, the borrower or management agent's decision will become final.

B. Scheduling the Hearing

The hearing must be scheduled within 15 days after the receipt of the tenant's request for a hearing. If a hearing officer or hearing panel must be selected, the hearing will be scheduled within 15 days after the selection or appointment of a hearing officer or hearing panel. It is the responsibility of the two parties to agree upon a place and time that is mutually convenient to hold the hearing. If the two parties cannot agree on a place and time, it will become the responsibility of the hearing officer or hearing panel to make the decision.

C. Selection of the Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel

The two parties must select a hearing officer. If the hearing officer cannot be agreed upon, the two parties will choose members to serve on the hearing panel. The hearing panel should consist of three members. The tenant and the borrower/management agent will each elect one person to the panel. It is then the responsibility of the two chosen members to elect a third member to the panel. If within 30 days from the time the request for the hearing was submitted a hearing panel has not been formed, the borrower/management agent must inform the Agency. Within 10 days of reviewing the facts, the Agency must appoint a hearing officer. Once a hearing officer or panel is selected the Agency must inform them in writing of their responsibilities for conducting the hearing.

Some helpful information that should be remembered by all parties involved in the process when selecting a hearing officer or hearing panel includes:

- Hearing panel members should be impartial, disinterested persons;
- The hearing officer cannot be a person previously considered by the tenant or borrower/management agent; and
- The hearing officer cannot be an Agency staff member.

Potential Hearing Panel Members

1. Legal aid counsel;
2. Someone with knowledge of the program; or
3. A Minister.

- The hearing officer may not receive any payment unless that payment is made by the Agency.

To minimize time and the level of effort, a management agent may elect to have a standing hearing panel for each project that they manage. If a standing panel is chosen, the above-listed process will have to be forfeited in lieu of the following process.

- A hearing panel consists of three members: one tenant panelist, one borrower/management agent panelist, and a chair.
- Tenants will get to nominate and vote for their panel members. A meeting must be held to allow the tenants the opportunity to choose two members to serve on the standing panel; one member will serve as the alternate. All residents should be notified of the time, date, and place where the election is going to take place. The borrower is responsible for ensuring that the notice is placed in a conspicuous place, within 2 weeks of the time the person is expected to start serving as a panel member. The meeting must also be held in a place that is convenient and accessible to the tenants.
- The borrower/management agent is responsible for selecting one or two members to serve on the standing panel. If two members are chosen, one will serve as the alternate.
- The third and “mutual” member of the panel will serve as the chair for the panel. The other two interested parties will elect the chairperson. Each party will only have the opportunity to give one vote, even if two people were elected to serve on the panel.
- Each member will serve on the panel for one year, with the opportunity for reelection. All members of the standing panel must be willing to render their services without compensation.

D. Examination of Records

At a reasonable time before the hearing, the borrower/agent must allow the tenant the opportunity to examine all files that are going to be used during the hearing. Documents can be examined and copied if:

- The tenant is willing to cover any expenses that may be incurred;
- The document, record, or policy is one that will be used during the hearing process; and
- The document, record, or policy is not subject to any laws or confidentiality agreements that prohibit reproductions.

Documents That May Not Be Copied

1. Credit reports;
2. Project budgets; and
3. Supervisory findings.

E. Escrow Deposits

Tenants may establish escrow accounts if a grievance involves a rent increase not authorized by the Agency or if the borrower/agent is not maintaining the property in a decent and sanitary manner. The escrow account will allow the tenant the opportunity to make timely rent payments without having the borrower/agent receive the payment until the grievance has been settled. To maintain an escrow account, tenants must adhere to the following rules:

- All deposits must continue until the grievance is resolved;
- The institution that the escrow account is established in must be a Federally insured institution;
- All deposits must be made on time—failure to do so will terminate the entire process and all sums will be due immediately; and
- Tenants must make all receipts of deposit available for examination by the borrower/agent.

6.38 REQUIREMENTS GOVERNING THE HEARING

The hearing is an informal proceeding at which evidence is presented to a hearing officer or hearing panel. The hearing must be designed to ensure that the rights of all parties involved are protected. The hearing must protect:

- The right of both parties to be represented by counsel or another person(s) chosen as their representative;
- The right of the tenant or prospective tenant to a private hearing unless a public one is requested;

- The right of the tenant or prospective tenant to present oral and written evidence and arguments in support of their grievance or appeal, and to refute the evidence and cross-examine all witnesses on whose testimony or information the borrower or management agent relies; and
- The right of the borrower or management agent to present oral and written evidence and arguments in support of the decision, to refute evidence relied upon by the tenant or prospective tenant, and to confront and cross-examine all witnesses on whose testimony or information the tenant or prospective tenant relies.

During the hearing, each party must present evidence to support their position. All participants at the hearing must conduct themselves in an orderly manner. Participants that cannot conduct themselves in an orderly manner will be excluded from the proceedings or will cause the hearing panel or hearing officer to make a decision that is not in favor of the disorderly party.

Remember

The Agency approval is only to make sure that the decision is in compliance with other Agency programs.

If the tenant or prospective tenant or management agent fails to appear at a scheduled hearing, the hearing officer or hearing panel may choose to postpone the hearing for no more than 5 days or may determine that the party has waived their right to a hearing under this subpart. If the determination is made that the absent party has waived their rights, the hearing officer or hearing panel will make a decision on the grievance. All parties involved in the hearing must be informed of the hearing panel's decision.

6.39 THE HEARING DECISION

It is the responsibility of the hearing officer or hearing panel to prepare and submit a written decision to both parties within 10 calendar days of the hearing. The hearing officer or hearing panel must inform the Agency of the decision and the reasons for making that decision. The decision should be based on the facts that were presented during the hearing. The decision is not final until it has been approved by the Agency for compliance. This contingent form of approval should be noted in the decision letter. Upon receipt of the letter, the borrower and the tenant must comply with the directives specified in the decision.

SECTION 9: SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR LABOR HOUSING [7 CFR 3560.575 AND 7 CFR 3560.624]

While the Agency-sponsored Labor Housing programs have similar requirements in many respects to the Rural Rental Housing programs, because the target populations that these programs serve vary, there are some differences in program rules.

This section is designed to highlight these differences with regard to the occupancy rules. Unless otherwise noted below, the requirements throughout this chapter also apply to Labor Housing projects.

6.40 OFF-FARM LABOR HOUSING

A. Eligible Tenants

Labor Housing tenants must meet all of the following criteria in order to be defined as an eligible tenant for the purposes of residing in labor housing:

- Occupational. An eligible household must include a tenant or co-tenant who is a domestic farm laborer, a retired or disabled domestic farm laborer, or must be a surviving household of a deceased domestic farm laborer.
- Income. The household must meet the definition of income eligibility as defined in Section 1 of this chapter. The current income limits for off-farm labor housing may be found in Attachment 6-H.
- Occupancy. The household must remain in compliance with the borrower's occupancy policy as established in Section 3 of this chapter.

If a household, upon recertification, is not in compliance with any of the above criteria, then it will be defined as an ineligible tenant and will be covered by Section 6.

B. Occupancy Priorities

When a borrower of a labor housing project is selecting the appropriate applicant for a vacant unit from the waiting list, the selection will be regulated by the following priorities:

- First priority must be given to eligible active farm laborer households, with first priority going to very low-income households, next to low-income households, and last to moderate-income households.
- Second priority must be given to retired or disabled domestic farm laborer households who were active in the local farm labor market area at the time of retirement or becoming disabled, with first priority going to very low-income households, next to low-income households, and last to moderate-income households.
- Third priority must be given to other retired or disabled domestic farm laborer households who were not active in the local farm labor market at the time of retiring or becoming disabled. Occupancy priority will be given first to very low-income households, next to low-income households, and last to moderate-income households.

Within each of the above priorities, occupancy priority within each ranking category is according to the household's income: very low, low, and then moderate.

Example

Project D has a vacant two-bedroom unit. On the waiting list, there are seven applicants eligible for a two-bedroom unit.

1. One applicant is a very low-income disabled farm laborer household from the local farm market area;
2. One applicant is a low-income active farm labor household;
3. One applicant is a low-income retired farm laborer household from another state;
4. One applicant is a very low-income retired farm laborer household from the local farm market area;
5. One applicant is a very low-income disabled farm laborer household from another county; and
6. One applicant is a very low-income active farm labor household.

The borrower must offer the vacant unit to these applicants in the following order.

1. First to the very low-income active farm labor applicant;
2. Second to the low-income active farm labor applicant;
3. Third to the very low-income disabled farm laborer household from the local farm market area;
4. Fourth to the low-income retired farm laborer household from the local farm market area; and
5. Fifth to the very low-income disabled farm laborer household from outside the local farm market area.
6. Sixth to the low-income retired farm laborer household from another state.

C. Projects with Diminished Need

When there is a diminished need for housing by persons or families who are eligible to reside in labor housing, units may be made available to persons or families eligible for occupancy under Section 1 of this chapter. Tenants admitted under this exception may occupy the labor housing until such time the units are again needed by persons or families eligible under Paragraph 6.38 A of this section. As the basis for Agency approval or disapproval of the borrower's determination of diminished need, the borrower must submit a current analysis of need and demand to the Agency, identical to the market analysis that is required of loan applicants in the loan origination process. The borrower's determination and the State Director's recommendation should be forwarded to the National Office for concurrence.

6.41 ON-FARM LABOR HOUSING

A. Eligible Tenants

The income restrictions and occupancy priorities listed throughout this chapter do not affect the occupancy of on-farm labor housing. This housing is owned by farm borrowers and is for the purpose of providing decent, safe, and sanitary housing to the specific farmer's employees. Occupancy of on-farm labor housing owned by farm borrowers is restricted to employees of the farmer or is governed by an employment contract with the farmer.

B. Ineligible Tenants

For on-farm labor housing, ineligible occupants will include:

- The immediate relatives of the borrower(s); and
- Anyone who is not employed in domestic farm labor.

Ineligible tenants may occupy housing owned by farm borrowers with the permission of the Agency.

ATTACHMENT 6-A

ANNUAL INCOME INCLUSIONS AND EXCLUSIONS

Annual income is defined in 7 CFR 3560.153, calculating income in accordance with 24 CFR 5.609 as amended. Public Housing Authority denotes the certifying entity for Rural Development it is usually the Borrower or the Management Agent.

(a) Annual Income Means All Amounts, Monetary or Not, Which:

- (1) Go to, or on behalf of, the family head or spouse (even if temporarily absent) or to any other family member; or
- (2) Are anticipated to be received from a source outside the family during the 12-month period following admission or annual reexamination effective date; and is not considered annual income for persons over the age of 23 with dependent children. For purposes of this paragraph, “financial assistance” does not include loan proceeds for the purpose of determining income.

(c) Annual Income Does Not Include The Following:

- (1) Income from employment of children (including foster children) under the age of 18 years;
- (2) Payments received for the care of foster children or foster adults (usually persons with disabilities, unrelated to the tenant family, who are unable to live alone);

A resident service stipend is a modest amount (not to exceed $200 per month) received by a resident for performing a service for the PHA or owner, on a part-time basis, that enhances the quality of life in the development. Such services may include, but are not limited to, fire patrol, hall monitoring, lawn maintenance,

(d) Annualization Of Income. If it is not feasible to anticipate a level of income over a 12-month period (e.g., seasonal or cyclic income), or the PHA believes that past income is the best available indicator of expected future income, the PHA may annualize the income anticipated for a shorter period, subject to a redetermination at the end of the shorter period.

The student must carry a subject load considered full-time by the educational institution attended. This deduction does not apply to an unborn child in the household.

- Total medical expense includes medical expenses not covered by insurance that the tenant or member anticipates incurring over the 12 months following the effective date of the certification, using past experience as a guide.

Examples of medical expenses are dental expenses, prescription and non-prescription medicines, medical insurance premiums including Medicare, eyeglasses, hearing aids and batteries, medical related travel cost, the cost of attendant care including a live-in-resident assistant, monthly payments required on accumulated major medical bills including that portion of a household member's nursing home care paid from household income(s).

Note: Premiums paid for nursing home insurance are not an allowable deduction unless a household member is housed at a nursing home and that person's income is included in the household income.)

- Handicap assistance includes reasonable attendant care and auxiliary apparatus expense described as follows for each member with handicaps of the family to the extent needed to enable any family member (including such member with handicaps) to be employed. That portion of attendant care attributable to specialized medical reasons (the portion attributable to companionship is not counted).
 - Auxiliary apparatus including but not limited to wheelchairs, oxygen equipment, reading devices for the visually impaired, and the cost of equipment added to cars and vans to permit their use by the handicapped or disabled family member proportionate to the amount of use by such persons.
- In the case of any non-elderly family, total handicap assistance expense in excess of 3 percent of annual family income may be deducted:
 - For any handicap assistance expense above that is anticipated to occur over the 12 months following the effective date of the certification, using past experience as a guide, to the extent needed to enable any family member (including the handicapped or disabled family member) to be employed.

- The amount of deduction may not exceed the LESSER of the amount by which total expenses for handicap assistance exceed 3 percent of annual family income, or the amount of income received by adult members from such employment.

- The amounts paid by the family for the care of minors under 13 years of age may be deducted only to the extent such expenses are not reimbursed. In the case of families assisted by American Indian housing authorities, the amount will be the greater of child care expenses; or excessive travel expenses, the to exceed $25 per family per week. Deductions for these expenses are permitted only when such care is necessary to enable a family member to further his or her education or to be gainfully employed, including the gainful employment of the disabled or handicapped family member. When the deduction is to enable gainful employment the amount may not exceed the amount of income received from such employment. When the deduction is to facilitate further education, the amount must not exceed a sum reasonably expected to cover class time and travel time to and from classes. The tenant file must contain justifying documentation. (Child support payments made on behalf of a minor child who does not reside in the unit may not be deducted as a child care expense).

ATTACHMENT 6-E LEASE REQUIREMENTS

A. Lease Structure

- All leases must be in writing.
- Initial leases must cover a one-year period.
- If the tenant is not subject to occupancy termination according to 7 CFR 3560.158 and 7 CFR 3560.159, a renewal lease or lease extension addendum must cover a one-year period.
- In areas with a concentration of non-English speaking tenants, leases must be available to tenants in both English and the appropriate additional language.
- Leases must give address (es) to which to direct complaints.
- Leases must include statement terms and conditions for modifying the lease.

B. Required Lease Clauses

Leases for all multi-family housing must include a number of specific clauses as listed below:

- The requirement to move or pay an increased rent if household income increases above moderate income. (This clause does not apply to leases for persons who are elderly, disabled, or handicapped and living in a full-profit plan development.)
- The requirement that tenants move out of the project within 30 days of being notified by the borrower that they are no longer eligible for occupancy unless the conditions cited in 7 CFR 3560.158(c) exist.
- The requirement that tenants notify borrowers regarding changes in income, citizenship, or number of persons living in the unit.
- The requirement for tenants to notify borrowers in a situation of extended tenant absences.
- The requirements for making restitution when a household receives benefits to which it is not entitled and a statement advising tenants that the submission of false information could result in the initiation of legal action by the Agency.
- The requirement that tenants agree to income certification.
- The requirement that the household's tenancy is subject to compliance with the terms of all applicable assistance programs covering the unit and/or project.
- The requirement that during acceleration and foreclosure proceedings:
 - ◊ The tenant contribution must remain as if interest credit and/or rental subsidy were still in place and available had acceleration not occurred; and
 - ◊ The terms of the lease will remain in effect until the date acceleration and/or foreclosure is resolved.

Leases for tenants who have a Handbook Letter 201, Letter of Priority Entitlement (LOPE) and are temporarily occupying a unit for which they are not eligible must include a clause establishing the tenant's responsibility to move when a suitable unit becomes available.

Leases must contain an escalation clause permitting changes in basic/note rate rents before the lease expires. Changes must be approved by the Agency.

Leases must specify no escalation in tenant contribution due to loan prepayment or when rental assistance or interest credit is terminated due to the fault of management or the owner, or due to liquidation and acceleration of the note.

Leases must include statement that tenant's payment will not change if Federal subsidies paid to borrower on behalf of tenants are suspended or canceled, for the term of the lease.

Leases must include statement that the project is financed by the Agency and that the Agency has the right to further verify information provided by the applicant.

Leases must say that project is subject to:

- Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964
- Title VIII of the Fair Housing Act
- Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973
- The Age Discrimination Act of 1975
- The Americans with Disabilities Act

Leases must specify requirements (and exceptions) to move to the next available appropriately sized unit, if the unit becomes overcrowded, underused, or should the tenant no longer meet eligibility requirements.

Leases must include a provision that establishes when a guest will be considered a member of the household and be required to be added to the tenant certification.

Leases must include a provision that tenancy remains in place as long as the tenant's possessions remain in the apartment, even after tenant has left. This is the case until possessions are removed voluntarily or by legal means, subject to state and local law.

Leases for rental assistance units must include specific clauses. These clauses must be signed by the lessor and lessee, and specify:

- The tenant's gross monthly contribution, and under what circumstances it may change; and that
- The tenant contribution will not increase if rental assistance is terminated due to actions by borrowers.

For tenants living in Plan II interest credit units, leases must include a provision on gross monthly contribution.

All leases, including renewals, must include the following language:

“It is understood that the use, or possession, manufacture, sale, or distribution of an illegal controlled substance (as defined by local, state, or Federal law) while in or on any part of this apartment complex or cooperative is an illegal act. It is further understood that such action is a material lease violation. Such violations (hereinafter called ‘drug violation[s]’) may be evidenced upon the admission to or conviction of a drug violation. It is further understood that domestic violence will not be tolerated on Rural Housing properties, and that such action is a material lease violation. All perpetrators will be evicted, while the victim and other household occupants may remain in the unit in accordance with eligibility requirements.

The landlord may require any lessee or other adult member of the tenant household occupying the unit (or other adult or non-adult person outside the tenant household who is using the unit) who commits a drug violation or domestic violence to vacate the leased unit permanently, within time frames set by the landlord, and not thereafter enter upon the landlord’s premises or the lessee’s unit without the landlord’s prior consent as a condition for continued occupancy by members of the tenant household. The landlord may deny consent for entry unless the person agrees not to commit a drug violation or domestic violence in the future and is either actively participating in a counseling or recovery program, complying with court orders related to a drug violation or domestic violence, or has completed a counseling or recovery program.

The landlord may require any lessee to show evidence that any non-adult member of the tenant household occupying the unit, who committed a drug violation or domestic violence, agrees to not commit a drug violation or domestic violence in the future, and to show evidence that the person is either actively seeking or receiving assistance through a counseling or recovery program, complying with court orders related to a drug violation or domestic violence, completed a counseling or recovery program within time frames specified by the landlord as a condition for continued occupancy in the unit. Should a further drug violation or domestic violence be committed by any non-adult person occupying the unit, the landlord may require the person to be severed from tenancy as a condition for continued occupancy by the lessee.

If a person vacating the unit, as a result of the above policies, is one of the lessees, the person shall be severed from the tenancy and the lease shall continue among any other remaining lessees and the landlord. The landlord may also, at the option of the landlord, permit another adult member of the household to be a lessee.

Should any of the above provisions governing a drug violation be found to violate any of the laws of the land, the remaining enforceable provisions shall remain in effect. The provisions set out above do not supplant any rights of tenants afforded by law.”

For handicapped-accessible units occupied by those not needing its special features, a lease must discuss situations where management has made a temporary unit assignment, and specify who bears the cost of moving the tenant to another unit. Additionally, the lease clause must require the management to provide the tenant written notification when they must move within 30 days of notification from management that an eligible applicant with disabilities requires the unit.

The household in the unit with accessibility features will be required to move within 30 days of the housing project’s receipt of a tenant application requiring accessibility features if another suitably sized unit without accessibility features is available in the project. If a suitably sized unit is not available in the project within 30 days, the tenant may remain in the unit with accessibility features until the first available unit in the project becomes available and then must move within 30 days.

Prepayment is subject to restrictive-use covenants. If prepayment occurs, leases and renewals must be amended to include a clause specifying tenant protections.

C. Required Information

All leases must contain the following information and provisions:

- The name of the tenant, any co-tenants, and all members of the household residing in the unit.
- The identification of the unit.
- The amount and due date of monthly tenant contributions and late payment penalties.

- The responsibility of management at move-in and move-out to provide tenants with a written statement of the unit's condition, and provisions for tenant participation in inspection.

- The procedures that must be followed by management and the tenant in giving notice required under terms of the lease.

- The good-cause circumstances under which management may terminate the lease and length of notice required.
- The disposition of the lease if the housing becomes uninhabitable due to fire or other disaster, including the borrower's rights to repair the building or terminate the lease.
- The procedures for resolution of tenant grievances consistent with the requirements of 7 CFR 3560.160.
- The terms under which a tenant may, for good cause, terminate a lease with 30 days' notice prior to lease expiration.
- The signature clause indicating that the lease has been executed by the borrower and the tenant.

D. Projects and Units Receiving HUD Assistance

In multi-family projects receiving project-based assistance under Section 8 of the Housing Act of 1937, borrowers may use the HUD model lease. The provisions of the HUD model lease will prevail, unless they conflict with Agency lease requirements in accordance with this section. If there is conflict between HUD requirements and Agency requirements, the provision that will be enforced will be the one that is most favorable to the tenant.

A clause must be inserted into the lease requiring that tenants ineligible at recertification must leave the property unless allowed to stay under their HUD lease.

For HUD Section 8 certificate and voucher holders, borrowers may use:

- A standard HUD-approved lease;
- A HUD-approved lease that includes a number of modifications; or
- An Agency-approved lease if acceptable to HUD or the local housing authority.

E. State and Local Requirements

Borrowers must use a lease that is consistent with state and local requirements.

- If any lease provision is in violation of state or local law, the lease may be modified to the extent needed to comply with the law, but any changes must be consistent, to the greatest extent possible, with the required provisions established in 7 CFR 3560.156(c).
- Leases must include procedure for handling tenant's abandoned property, as provided by state law.

ATTACHMENT 6-G

ACQUIRING AUTOMATION SUPPORT FOR MINC OR OTHER AUTOMATION NEEDS

The Agency will approve the use of project funds to acquire automated support to participate in MINC. While operating costs will be reduced in the long term, there may be some short-term increases to accommodate the initial acquisition of automated support.

Guidelines for obtaining automated support for MINC are as follows:

- With prior Agency approval, borrowers may use project operating or reserve funds to purchase or lease hardware or software needed to participate in MINC.
- Once borrowers have acquired automation capabilities, they may allow their management agent to use them to participate in MINC. This cost may be prorated over several projects owned by different borrower entities with a common management agent.
- When the cost of acquiring management software or hardware is not cost effective for a project (or multiple projects with common management), the Agency may allow the cost of contracting with a service bureau to provide automation support as a project operating expense.
- To request Agency approval, borrowers must submit a brief proposal that documents the anticipated costs and benefits of adopting the automation strategy being proposed.

1. Acquiring Additional Automation Capabilities

It is important to note that the approval for the use of project funds discussed above extends only to the portion of the computer software and hardware needed to participate in MINC. If additional software or hardware capacity is desired by the borrower, the following applies:

MFH borrowers are encouraged to use automated systems to manage MFH projects and to prepare and process paperwork associated with project management. Where economically feasible, computer applications can improve management efficiency and reduce errors and omissions. However, the purchase of computer hardware and software out of project funds should be carefully analyzed.

If a borrower entity's purchase of computer hardware or software to be used solely at a project can be expected to show a reduction in project operating and maintenance expenses, the purchase cost may be approved by the Agency as a line item project expense. The expense may be approved at project inception out of the project's two percent initial operating account or subsequent to project start-up out of annual operating revenues. The cost may be prorated over several projects owned by the same borrower entity. Any computer hardware or software purchased with project funds must remain with the project if there is any subsequent change in management or ownership of the project.

The purchase or use of computer hardware or software by a management company, versus a borrower entity with or without an identity of interest with a borrower, may not be considered an allowable line item expense on an Agency approved project budget.

2. Choosing to Use a Service Bureau

If acquiring automation is not a sound decision, borrowers may consider using a service bureau to provide automation services at a fee. The fee can be a project expense and should be reasonable. The Agency must approve a borrower's determination that it is in the best interest of the project to contract with a service bureau.

The cost of a service bureau is essentially an "add-on expense" to an operating budget, since the function is not currently performed by any project. Borrowers who find that their project budget will not support the cost of acquiring automation support or a service bureau fee should contact their servicing office to be exempted from mandatory participation in MINC.

The Agency will not allow an add-on fee for the cost of a service bureau if the borrower's analysis demonstrates that it is less expensive to acquire an automation capacity, unless extenuating circumstances exist.

The Agency will not approve the use of an add-on service bureau fee as a project expense for a contract with a firm that has an Identify-of-Interest (IOI) with the project borrower or management agent, without detailed documentation indicating that the IOI service bureau is clearly more cost effective than a non-IOI service bureau. While this policy does not restrict the formation of IOI firms to process tenant certifications, service bureau companies or the payment for their services from a management fee, it is intended to address concerns expressed by the Office of the Inspector General (OIG) that IOI firms may unnecessarily inflate project operating expenses.

The following individuals and companies have expressed an interest in developing or marketing software to provide an industry interface with Rural Development's housing programs Multiple Family Housing tenant files, or providing automated support through a service bureau to transmit tenant certifications to the Agency. Rural Development expresses no preference or opinion on the products or services of any of the individuals and companies listed below.

CHAPTER 7: RENTS, SHELTER COST, AND UTILITY ALLOWANCES

7.1 INTRODUCTION

The purpose of the low interest rate loans that the Agency makes is to enable borrowers to set rents at rates that are affordable to low- and moderate-income tenants, the target occupants for Agency-financed multi-family housing. Rents provide the necessary income stream to maintain and operate the housing. Thus, the Agency has a twofold interest in maintaining the rent streams in multi-family housing to protect the value of the property at affordable rates.

This chapter presents the program rules regarding rents, occupancy charges, and utility allowances for multi-family housing projects and the Agency's procedures for determining borrower compliance, including those for Farm Labor Housing projects. After reading this chapter, the Loan Servicer will understand the various types of project rents and how they are set, how rents are to be paid by tenants and collected and reported on by the borrower, and the procedure for changing rents in a project. They will also learn how security deposits are set and when they may be collected.

The Agency defines "rent" as the amount established as a charge for occupancy in a rental unit of Agency-financed multi-family housing. Rents must be established at the same rate for all similar units in the housing project: basic or note rent plus the utility allowance (when used) or the occupancy charge plus the utility allowance. If the utility costs are included in the rent, the rent will equal shelter costs.

Unless otherwise noted, for purposes of this discussion the term "rents" refers to both rents and occupancy charge, and "tenants" refers to both tenant and members of a cooperative.

SECTION 1: RENT REQUIREMENTS

7.2 RENT REQUIREMENTS BY PROJECT TYPE [7 CFR 3560.202]

A. Major Rent Levels

Subject to Agency approval, borrowers set project rents and utility allowances based on debt service and reasonable operating and maintenance expenses. Projects will have one or more of the following four rents:

- Note rent is the rental charge established to cover expenses in the housing project's approved budget and the required loan payment set at the interest rate shown in Form RD 3560-52, Promissory Note.
- Basic rent is the rental charge established to cover expenses in the housing project's approved budget and the required loan payment contained in Form RD 3560-52 reduced by the interest credit agreement.

- U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) contract rent is the rental charge established for housing receiving project-based HUD Section 8 rental subsidies in accordance with 24 CFR Part 880 or Part 884, as applicable.
- Low-income housing tax credit (LIHTC) rent is the rental charge established in accordance with LIHTC requirements.

B. Rent Levels by Project Type

These rent levels will apply depending upon the project type as follows:

- Plan I projects, direct and full-profit projects with loans made prior to 1968, and unrestricted Farm Labor Housing projects all have rents that are note rate only. Tenants all pay the same rent depending upon the size of their unit.
- Plan II projects have a minimum rent that is the basic rent and a ceiling rent that is the note rate rent. Tenants without rental subsidies (see Chapter 8, Rental Subsidies, for details) pay a rent within that range, based on their incomes. Tenants with rental assistance pay the basic rent, although the rental subsidy may pay all or a portion of the rent on behalf of the tenant.
- HUD Section 8 projects with interest credit have a minimum basic rent, a maximum note rate rent, and a HUD rent.
- HUD Section 8 projects without interest credit have a note rate rent and a HUD rent.

Exhibit 7-1 summarizes the rents that appear in each project type.

Exhibit 7-1
Rents by Project Type
Project Type	Rents
Plan I projects	Note rent
Plan II projects	Note, basic
Section 8/515 projects without interest credit	Note rent, HUD contract rent
Section 8/515 projects with interest credit	Note rent, basic rent, HUD contract rent
Early projects (pre-1968, direct loan and full profit projects)	Note rent
Labor housing—On Farm	No rent or note rent
Labor housing—Off Farm	Note
Congregate housing/group homes	Note rent, basic rent
Cooperatives	Note rent, basic rent

C. Setting Rent Levels

Rents are set by unit size and established by the borrower through a project budget at levels adequate to cover debt service, reasonable project operating expenses, and a return to owner if appropriate. Initial rents and any changes must be approved by the Field Office as part of the project budget approval process. Chapter 4 addresses procedures for determining whether project budgets are reasonable.

7.3 UTILITY ALLOWANCES [7 CFR 3560.202]

When tenants pay some or all of their utility costs themselves, borrowers must establish a utility allowance to determine the amount tenants pay toward rent. The utility allowance is deducted from the total shelter cost calculated for the tenant, and the difference is paid by the tenant as rent. If the tenant is entitled to a utility reimbursement, management companies may issue a joint check payable to the tenant and utility company, if they choose to do so.

A. Setting Utility Allowances

The utility allowance is based on expected costs for utilities. Once established, the borrower must review the utility allowance annually. This is done in conjunction with the annual budget process. The borrower must submit Form RD 3560-7, Multiple Family Housing Project Budget/Utility Allowance to the Field Office and follow the procedures described in Section 4 of this chapter.

B. Approving Utility Allowances

Field Office Staff must review the utility allowance documents submitted with the budget to make sure that the numbers being used are reasonable and comparable to other projects in the same market area. The Loan Servicer should check current rate schedules and known rate increases from such sources as suppliers of electric utility, natural gas utility, water and sewer service, fuel oil and bottle gas; public service commissions; real estate and property management firms; and state and local agencies, including public housing authorities. In addition, the Loan Servicer should check project budgets of any other Agency-funded projects in the area to see if utility allowances are similar. Chapter 4 provides further guidance on revising cost increase justifications.

C. Monitoring Utility Allowances

To make sure that borrowers are correctly applying utility allowances, servicing staff must check tenant leases during supervisory visits of projects where tenants pay their own utilities. These leases should reflect the current utility allowances as shown on the current approved budget for the project.

7.4 DETERMINING TENANT RENT PAYMENT [7 CFR 3560.203]

Tenants pay rents in an amount that depends on the project type, whether utilities are included in the rent, the tenant's income, and the availability of rental subsidy.

Form RD 3560-8, Tenant Certificate is used to determine individual rents. Borrowers must adjust net tenant contribution and unit rents, if applicable, whenever there is a change in tenant household status sufficient to generate a new certification in accordance with 7 CFR 3560.152.

A. Net Tenant Contribution

Form RD 3560-8 is used to calculate a tenant's rent based on their income. The net tenant contribution to rent must not exceed the highest of:

- Thirty percent of monthly adjusted income, with an adjustment for any utility allowances, or
- Ten percent of gross monthly income, with an adjustment for any utility allowances, or
- If the household is receiving payment for public assistance from a public agency, the portion of such payment which is specifically designated by that agency to meet the household's shelter costs, or
- The basic rent, unless Rural Housing Service (RHS) rental assistance is provided to the household.

For an example of how to calculate the net tenant contribution, refer to Exhibit 7-2.

Exhibit 7-2

Examples—Net Tenant Contribution

(Where Rental Assistance (RA) is Available)

Example 1: The basic rent for a one-bedroom unit at Beautiful Acres Apartments is $350 and the note rate rent is $450. Tenants at Beautiful Acres pay their utilities directly, so there is a utility allowance of $60. Form RD 3560-8 for Joe Smith shows that he has an annual income of $12,000. Since he is elderly, he receives a $400 adjustment for elderly status, giving him an adjusted annual income of $11,600. In completing Form RD 3560-8, the site manager calculates that 30 percent of Mr. Smith’s adjusted monthly income is $290 and 10 percent of his gross monthly income is $100. Since he is receiving no payment for public assistance, the site manager enters $290 on line 30 (which is the highest of 30 percent of adjusted income, or 10 percent of monthly gross income, or the public assistance payment) of Form RD 3560-8 as the Gross Tenant Contribution. The utility allowance must then be deducted, leaving a unit rent payment by Mr. Smith of $230.

Basic Rent	$350
Note Rate Rent	$450
Utility Allowance	$60
Mr. Smith’s Annual Income	$12,000
Adjustment for Elderly Status	$400
Adjusted Annual Income	$11,600
30 Percent Adjusted Monthly Income	$290
10 Percent Gross Annual Income	$100
Payment for Public Assistance	$0
Highest of Above	$290
Deduction for Utility Allowance	$60
Unit Rent Payment for Mr. Smith	$230

Example 2: Joe Smith has decided to move to Cozy Home Apartments. The rents there include utilities. The basic rent for a one-bedroom unit for which he qualifies is $360 and the note rate rent is $460. His income information is the same, which means $290 is again entered onto line 30, Gross Tenant Contribution, of Form RD 3560-8. Since there is no utility allowance, Mr. Smith will make a unit rent payment of $290.

Basic Rent	$360
Note Rate Rent	$460
Utility Allowance	$0
Mr. Smith’s Annual Income	$12,000
Adjustment for Elderly Status	$400
Adjusted Annual Income	$11,600
30 Percent Adjusted Monthly Income	$290
10 Percent Gross Monthly Income	$100
Payment for Public Assistance	$0
Highest of Above	$290
Deduction for Utility Allowance	$0
Unit Rent payment for Mr. Smith	$290

B. Unit Rents

1. Note Rents

In projects with note rents only, tenants will pay the note rent, regardless of income, unless they are income ineligible, in which case they will pay a surcharge.

When a Plan II project is experiencing severe vacancies due to market conditions, the Agency may allow the borrower to charge a Special Note Rent (SNR) to attract or retain tenants whose income level would require them to pay note rent. An SNR is less than the note rent but is higher than the basic rent. The requirements for requesting and receiving an SNR are established under 7 CFR 3560.454.

2. Basic Rents

In projects with basic and note rents, tenants will pay their net tenant contribution, but no less than the basic rent and no more than the note rent.

3. Rental Assistance Rents

Tenants who are eligible to receive available rental assistance in a project pay the net tenant contribution. Rental assistance makes up the difference between the net tenant contribution and approved shelter costs (basic rent). Chapter 8 provides further details on charging and collecting rents from tenants with rental assistance.

4. HUD Section 8/USDA Section 515 Rents

In projects with HUD Section 8 housing assistance contracts, HUD sets the rents and utility allowances and tenants pay the borrower rent the total tenant payment (TTP), which is the greater of: 30 percent of monthly adjusted income or 10 percent of gross income; welfare rent or; $25. The HUD rent should never be less than the basic rent. If it is, the borrower must make up the difference, since it cannot be collected from the tenant.

5. Tenant-Based Subsidies

Tenants with tenant-based subsidies such as HUD vouchers pay the rents established at the project. If the voucher is less than the project rent, the tenant is responsible for the difference.

C. Overage

Overage is that portion of a tenant's net tenant contribution that exceeds basic rent up to note rent. Full overage is an amount equal to the difference between the note rent for a unit and the basic rent.

Example

Jimmy Smits pays $180 a month in rent, which is 30 percent of his adjusted monthly income. The basic rent is $150. The $30 difference between the basic rent and Mr. Smits's rent payment is called overage.

D. Unit Rents for Ineligible Tenants

There will be times when ineligible tenants occupy multi-family housing units. Such tenants must pay rent based on the type of project they occupy.

1. Surcharge for Ineligible Tenants in Plan I Projects

Ineligible tenants occupying a Plan I project must pay the established note rate rent plus a rent surcharge of 25 percent of the established rent. A Plan I project is defined in 7 CFR 3560.11.

2. Income-Ineligible Tenants in Plan II Projects

Income-ineligible tenants occupying Plan II projects must pay the note rate rent. A Plan II project is defined in 7 CFR 3560.11.

E. Unit Rents for Site Managers, Caretakers, and Owner-Occupied Units

When used as a revenue producing unit at approved rental rates, the salary paid to the site manager and/or caretaker will be included in the project operation and maintenance expenses. The same amount will be included in the annual income of the site manager and/or caretaker. The site manager and/or caretaker may be an eligible or ineligible tenant and their rent contribution will be based on their total income from all sources as shown on the tenant certification form.

When the unit is used as a non-revenue producing unit, the project cost of providing the unit will be treated the same as those of other non-revenue producing portions of the project. Project rental rates will be established as if the unit did not exist as living quarters. Debt payment will be as if the units were rented at basic rent. A tenant certification form will not be prepared for this situation.

With prior approval of the State Director, an owner may occupy a unit in the project when the owner will manage the project rather than hiring a management agent or site manager. If the unit is a revenue-producing unit, rental rates will apply to the borrower as they would to any other caretaker or manager.

F. Unit Rents for Low Income Housing Tax Credit Units

1. Setting and Collecting Rents

Unit rents in projects with LIHTCs will be set in accordance with regular Agency program rules. Two examples of setting such rents are provided in Exhibit 7-3. The Field Office must be aware that the LIHTC program prohibits owners from charging tenants more than a certain amount of rent in LIHTC units. Borrowers who do this risk recapture of their tax credits and stiff penalties. While the law does not allow the borrower to collect basic rent from the tenant if it exceeds the LIHTC limitation, overage may be collected from the tenant in only those projects with 1991 and later tax credit allocations, if necessary, according to Form RD 3560-8 even if that rent exceeds the LIHTC limitations.

Exhibit 7-3Setting Unit Rents for Section 515 Projects with LIHTCs

Example 1: Assume the units receive only interest credit and no rental assistance or HUD Section 8 assistance. One-bedroom apartment: basic rent = $275, LIHTC rent = $250. The expense level required to meet financial requirements of the project exceeds the rent allowed to be charged by the low-income housing LIHTC program by $25.

Example 2: Assume a project where LIHTC rent is equal to or greater than the basic rent, and a previously eligible tenant's household income increases beyond the LIHTC rent. In this case, the tenant may or may not have previously received rental assistance or HUD Section 8. Example: One-bedroom apartment: basic rent = $250, LIHTC rent = $300. Only one co-tenant works. Household pays $200 per month and rental assistance is $50. Household is Agency and LIHTC eligible. Second co-tenant goes to work, causing the household rent to go up to $350. The new rent level exceeds both basic and LIHTC rents. Overage of $100 is due. LIHTC rent limitations require that the owner charge tenants no more than $300, which causes a shortage of $50 per month in overage due the Agency. Therefore, the owner is accountable for this shortage if the project was allocated LIHTCs prior to 1991. For projects allocated LIHTCs after 1990, the owner is allowed to collect the overage due from the tenants because gross rent that tenants pay in the LIHTC unit does not include any rental payment to the owner of the unit to the extent such owner pays an equivalent amount to the Agency under Section 515. The tenant cannot be required to move based on LIHTC ineligibility.

2. Agency Review and Monitoring of LIHTC Rents

The law does not excuse the borrower from paying the basic rents required to the Agency; these rents must be deposited into the operating account in full. Borrowers must be informed by Loan Servicers that the borrowers are responsible for funding any gap between basic rents and tax credit rents collected from tenants when basic rent exceeds LIHTC rents. This fact should be noted when the Loan Servicer reviews the project operating budget.

Borrowers must not use project funds to make up any difference between rents required under Agency program rules and the maximum allowed rents under the LIHTC program, and they must collect the required rents. During the annual review process, Loan Servicers should review the previous year's budget with a focus on any cash shortfalls. If the Loan Servicer determines that a shortfall exists due to differences between tax credit limitations and basic rents, they must ensure that a provision is made in the coming year's budget and future years on line 11, "Cash-non project" of Form RD 3560-7 for the owner to contribute necessary funds to meet the required rents.

G. Adjustments to Unit Rents

Borrowers must adjust net tenant contribution and unit rents, if applicable, whenever there is a change in tenant household status sufficient to generate a new certification in accordance with 7 CFR 3560.152. Borrowers are not required to recertify a household prior to the annual recertification unless a change in household income of $100 or more per month occurs. If a tenant requests it, the borrower must recertify the tenant for a change in household income of $50 or more per month (see Chapter 6 for further details on interim recertifications).

A change in household status could take place in any one of the following circumstances:

- The tenant has had a change in income (increase or decrease);
- The tenant has had a change in the size of the household (increase or decrease in number of people residing in the unit); or
- The tenant has had a change in the type of household (the household may become handicapped or elderly, or a 17-year-old child may turn 18).

If Form RD 3560-8 shows that a change in rents is in order as a result of the change in household status, the effective date of a tenant's changed rent is the first day of the month following third-party verification of the tenant's reported changes. However, the management agent must complete the verification process no later than 30 days following the tenant's notice of the change.

7.5 RENTS DURING EVICTION OR FAILURE TO RECERTIFY [7 CFR 3560.208]

Tenants must continue to pay rents during termination through eviction and if they are not recertified for occupancy.

A. Rents for Tenants Being Evicted

Tenants must continue to pay rents as per Form RD 3560-8 while the eviction process is underway.

B. Rents for Tenants without a Current Certification

A tenant who is not recertified is technically an ineligible tenant, and note rate rent must be collected and deposited to the general operating account for that tenant. Whether the tenant or the borrower/management agent pays the note rate depends upon who is to blame for the failure to recertify.

1. Tenant Failure to Recertify

If a borrower can document that a tenant received a notice specifying a tenant recertification date, and the tenant fails to comply by the specified date or fails to cooperate with verification or other procedures related to the tenant's recertification so that the tenant recertification cannot be completed by the recertification date, the borrower, within 10 days of the recertification date, will give the tenant and the Agency written notification that:

- Termination proceedings are being initiated, in accordance with 7 CFR 3560.159; and
- The tenant will be charged note rent until the tenant's lease is terminated.

2. Borrower Failure to Recertify

If a borrower cannot document that a tenant received a recertification notice, and a tenant is not recertified within 12 months of the most recently executed tenant certification, tenants will continue to make net tenant contributions to rent based on their most recent Form RD 3560-8. The borrower must remit to the Agency from non-project funds, full overage as if the tenant was paying the note rent until the tenant is re-certified.

7.6 IMPROPERLY ADVANCED RENTS [7 CFR 3560.209]

Improperly advanced interest credit or rental assistance, whether it was the fault of the borrower or the tenant, will be recaptured in accordance with the requirements established by 7 CFR part 3560, subpart O.

A. Borrower Error

When rents have been improperly collected from a tenant due to borrower error, such as a miscalculated Form RD 3560-8 the borrower must make up the difference to the Agency for any additional rents that should have been collected or reimburse the tenant for any excess rents collected.

B. Tenant Fraud

When the borrower has collected an incorrect rent amount from the tenant due to tenant fraud, the borrower must make every attempt to recapture the rent due from the tenant. Once the borrower has delivered documentation to the Loan Servicer of failed attempts to collect, the Loan Servicer must comply with the requirements of 7 CFR part 3560, subpart O to pursue collection.

7.7 MONITORING TENANT CONTRIBUTION AND UNIT RENTS

A. Borrower Monthly Submissions

The Loan Servicer monitors unit rents and tenant contributions on a monthly basis via Forms RD 3560-29 and RD 3560-8.

B. Site Visits

The Loan Servicer will verify information on Forms RD 3560-29 and RD 3560-8 during site visits through random tenant interviews. If the Loan Servicer is told by any tenant that they pay a different amount of rent than is shown on Form RD 3560-29, Interest Credit and Rental Assistance Agreement, for that tenant, the Loan Servicer must ask the borrower or management agent to explain the discrepancy.

SECTION 2: SECURITY DEPOSITS

7.8 SECURITY DEPOSITS [7 CFR 3560.204]

Borrowers should collect security deposits as assurance of rental payment or charges for damages when it is reasonable and customary for the area in which the project is located. Security deposits are largely governed by state and local laws; Loan Servicers must familiarize themselves with those laws.

A. Allowable Amounts

The borrower must specify the amount of the security deposit that will be charged in a project by unit size in the management plan and in the dwelling lease. This amount may not be changed without prior consent of the Agency. The following requirements must be met:

- Borrowers may charge security deposits in an amount that is typical for the area, but the security deposit charged to a tenant may not exceed that tenant's contribution for one month's rent or the basic rent, whichever is greater;
- Households receiving a HUD rental subsidy must pay security deposits according to HUD requirements;
- Members in a cooperative must pay a membership fee equal to one month's occupancy charge; and
- Security deposits for tenants may not be increased in later years, even if the tenant has been residing in the project for a long time and the initial amount charged is not representative of current basic rents or security deposits.

B. Payment Plans

If tenants cannot pay the full amount of the security deposit initially, they may be placed on a payment plan. Should installments not be met, the total charge may become due and payable in full.

C. Authorized Uses

Funds in the security or membership fund account must only be used for authorized purposes as specified by the borrower's management plan.

Borrowers may charge tenants for damage or loss caused or allowed by the tenant equal to the cost of the damage or loss.

Borrowers must consider expenses due for addressing normal wear and tear as normal operating expenses and must not charge tenants a fee or withhold security deposits to pay for such costs.

Borrowers may withhold security deposits and may charge tenants for damage or loss costs above security deposit amounts. An itemized accounting for any charges against the security deposit must be presented to the tenant after the move-out inspection, unless the tenant has abandoned the project and their whereabouts are unknown and cannot be ascertained after reasonable inquiry. Resolution of any security deposit disputes must be handled in accordance with state and local laws.

Any amount which is kept by the borrower as a result of lease or occupancy agreement violation must be transferred to the general operating account and treated as project income.

D. Accounting and Interest

Security deposits must be held in a separate bank account in a Federally insured institution in accordance with 7 CFR 3560.302 (see Chapter 3). These funds are held in trust for the tenant until used or returned to the tenant.

Any interest earned on security deposits will accrue in accordance with state law, but in no case will it accrue to the project management or the borrower. If a state requires the borrower to pay the interest earned on security deposits and the borrower collects more interest than is required by the state, the additional interest must be deposited into the general operating account for use by the project.

Any interest on security deposits unclaimed by a tenant must accrue to the project and must be deposited by the borrower into the general operating account.

E. Additional Deposits

Borrowers may charge additional deposits for pets; however, these must not exceed basic rent for the animal owner's unit. Where a service animal is necessary for the normal function of a household member, an additional security deposit must not be charged.

Borrowers must not charge additional security deposits based on disabilities of tenants or other personal characteristics.

7.9 MONITORING SECURITY DEPOSITS

Loan Servicing staff will monitor security deposits charged to and collected from tenants during supervisory visits by:

- Reviewing project annual financial statements;
- Reviewing dwelling leases and comparing the amount charged with what has been specified in the current management plan;
- Reviewing bank statements to see what the deposits of security deposits total; and

- Asking tenants to confirm what they have paid as security deposits.

Any discrepancies must be explained by the borrower or management agent. Monitoring of security deposit accounts is further addressed in Chapter 3.

SECTION 3: RENT COLLECTION

7.10 RENT COLLECTION [7 CFR 3560.209]

Borrowers must collect rent on a monthly basis. Rents should be due on the first day of the month. The time and place of onsite collection and/or the address for payment by mail should be well publicized and consideration should be given to an after-hours depository, if needed. Borrowers must maintain an accounting system to collect and track receipts that can be audited.

A. Tracking Rents

Any collection system employed by the borrower must include the following:

- A serially numbered receipt book or similar device to track collections;
- A ledger that shows which tenants have paid their rents and which have not; and
- If collections are held onsite, they must be secure. A safe may be used to ensure security.

The borrower must explain how the above requirements are to be met in the management plan. The Loan Servicer will verify that these requirements are being met during onsite supervisory visits by asking to see the receipt book or similar tracking device, the ledger, and the onsite collection device, if any.

B. Fees for Late Payments

Borrowers may adopt a late fee schedule for overdue rental payments. Late fee schedules must be submitted to the agency for approval as part of the housing project's management plan, be in accordance with state and local law, and consistent with the following requirements:

- (1) A grace period of 10 days from the rental payment due date must be allowed for all tenants.
- (2) The late fee must not exceed the higher of $10 or an amount equal to 5 percent of the tenant's gross tenant contribution.
- (3) Tenants receiving housing benefits from sources other than the Agency may be subject to the late rent fee requirements of the other funding sources.

Any other type of schedule must be submitted by the borrower to the Agency for approval. All schedules must be in accordance with state and local laws and must be justifiable. To approve the schedule, the Loan Servicer needs to make sure that the fees are not excessive, are customary for the area, and allow for a reasonable grace period.

The borrower must describe any late fee schedule in the management plan. During the onsite supervisory visit, the Loan Servicer must ask tenants about the late fees schedule to make sure it is as the borrower has described it. The Loan Servicer must also check leases to confirm that the late fee schedule is stated and matches its description in the most current management plan. Any discrepancies must be explained by the borrower.

7.11 BORROWER REPORTING OF RENTS

Borrowers must report to the Agency on Form RD 3560-29, Notice of Payment Due Report all rents, overages, and surcharges collected. This form shows the occupancy status of each unit, rents collected from each tenant, and borrower payment and agency tracking of overage. Overage is the amount by which total rental payments paid or to be paid by the tenants of a project exceed the total basic monthly charge (see paragraph 7.4). Borrowers identify any overage collected on Form RD 3560-29. Overage is returned by the borrower to the Agency. Overage for an account with an interest credit agreement is charged to the account as additional interest on the initial loan. Tenant contributions must be applied first to rental charges rather than to miscellaneous charges and fees, such as late fees.

A. Agency Tracking of Overage

The Loan Servicer must process overage that is reported and returned by the borrower with Form RD 3560-29 through the use of MFIS. Overage is coded for Agency accounting purposes depending upon the type of project it is collected from as follows:

Overage Type 1: Occupancy surcharge paid by ineligible tenants in Plan I projects. Occupancy surcharge is equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of note rate rent.

Overage Type 2: Rents paid by tenants in a Section 8/515 Project with an Interest Credit Plan Code of 7 or 8 that are greater than the basic rent, up to the note rent.

Overage Type 3: Rents paid by tenants in a Plan II project that are in excess of the basic rent up to the note rate rent. This includes HUD contract rents in a Section 8/515 project with an Interest Credit Plan Code of 2 that are greater than the basic rent, up to the note rate rent.

Overage collected that is in excess of the note rate rent in Section 8/515 projects with interest credit, where the HUD contract rent exceeds note rate rent, is reported on Form RD 3560-29 as excess Section 8 funds and is deposited into the project reserve account.

For additional information on how the Agency handles overage, please refer to the Automated Multi-Family Housing Accounting System (AMAS) manual.

B. Payment of Overage for Multi-Family Housing Projects with Interest Credit and No Rental Assistance

When 30 percent of a tenant's adjusted income exceeds the basic rent, the difference they pay in rent between the basic rent and the note rate rent is referred to as overage. This is returned by the borrower to the Agency as extra interest payment on the loan. Exhibit 7-4 provides an example of how overage is paid.

Exhibit 7-4
Example—Overage Payments at Sunny Brook
Basic Rent: $350		Note Rate Rent: $400	Utility Allowance: $0
Tenant	30% of Adjusted Monthly Income	Rent Payment	Overage Payment
Smith	$200	$250	$0
Miller	$350	$350	$0
Jones	$375	$375	$25
Young	$400	$400	$50
Brown	$400	$400	$50

C. Payment of Overage for Section 8/515 Projects

It is Agency policy that any funds paid by HUD are paid on behalf of a tenant. Therefore, the Agency does not consider any HUD Section 8 payments as excess funds until any benefits provided by the interest credit agreement are recovered. Borrowers must collect overage for their tenants as follows:

1. For Section 8/515 Projects with a One Percent or Two Percent Reduced Interest Rate

In 100 percent Section 8/515 projects when the HUD contract rental rate is more than the one or two percent reduced interest rate and is either equal to or less than the note rate rent, overage will be paid to the Agency in an amount equal to the difference between the HUD contract rental rate and the 1 or 2 percent reduced interest rate. The overage is reported as Overage Type 2.

In 100 percent Section 8/515 projects when the HUD contract rental rate is greater than the note rate rent, the difference between the one or two percent reduced interest rate and the HUD contract rate will be paid to the Agency and reported as overage Type 2. The amount equal to the difference between the HUD contract rental rate and the Agency note rate rent will be deposited in the reserve account as excess income.

In 100 percent Section 8/515 projects when the HUD contract rental rate exceeds the note rate rent, the borrower must use Form RD 3560-29 to document the required deposit in the reserve account.

Exhibits 7-5 and 7-6 provide examples of how overage is determined in Section 8/515 projects.

Exhibit 7-5
Determining Overage in Section 8/515 Projects With 1 or 2 Percent Reduced Interest Rate—Examples
Example 1
1 or 2 Percent Reduced Interest Rate	HUD Contract Rent	Note Rate Rent
$250	$300	$375
$50 difference paid to Agency as overage type 2		$75 interest credit
Example 2
1 or 2 Percent Reduced Interest Rate	Note Rate Rent	HUD Contract Rent
$250	$375	$400
$125 difference paid to Agency as overage type 2		$25 required to be placed into reserve
Note: If the HUD contract rent and the Agency 1 or 2 percent reduced interest rent are the same, then the first column would not apply.

2. For Section 8/515 Projects with Full Interest Credit

In Section 8/515 projects the overage is the difference between basic rental rate and the note rate rent including the income from HUD. The overage will be reported as Type 3.

In the cases where the HUD contract rental rate exceeds the note rate rent the difference is excess income and will be deposited in the reserve fund. The borrower should use Form RD 3560-29, Part I, items 23 through 29, to document the required deposit in the reserve account.

Exhibit 7-6
Determining Overage in Section 8/515 Projects With Interest Credit—Examples
Example 1
Basic Rent	HUD Contract Rent	Note Rate Rent
$175	$300	$375
$125 difference paid to Agency as overage type 3 by Section 8 tenants and subject to overage type 2 by non-Section 8 tenants		$75 interest credit and subject to overage Type 1 from non-Section 8 tenants
Example 2
Basic Rent	Note Rate Rent	HUD Contract Rent
$175	$375	$400
$200 difference paid to Agency as overage by Section 8 tenants and subject to type 2 overage by non-Section 8 tenants		$25 required to be placed in reserve account as excess income

SECTION 4: RENT CHANGES

7.12 OVERVIEW

All borrowers, including those using HUD Section 8 contract assistance, must obtain prior Agency approval for a rent increase. Changes in rental rates will apply to all units in a project. Rent change requests for multi-family housing projects with no HUD subsidy are typically submitted and reviewed at the same time the borrower submits their annual budget for approval. Rent changes in Section 8/515 projects resulting from rent increases by HUD must also be reviewed and must not automatically be approved. For any project, only the amount of rent necessary to cover project expenses must be approved. This section covers rent changes in projects without HUD subsidies, then changes in projects with HUD subsidies.

7.13 CHANGES IN RENTS AND UTILITY ALLOWANCES [7 CFR 3560.205]

It may be necessary as operating costs and/or revenues in a project fluctuate for the borrower to request Agency approval to effect a rent change. Exhibit 4-1 shows the timeline for borrower submission and Agency review of rent change requests. This process is also described in Chapter 4.

A. Rent Change Requests under Special Circumstances

The Loan Servicer may accept borrower requests for rent or utility allowance changes at times other than with the annual budget submission under special circumstances where a change is necessary to preserve the financial integrity of a project and the financial distress is due to circumstances beyond a borrower's control. Such circumstances might be in the event of a natural disaster or when work-out procedures are necessary.

When a Plan II housing project is experiencing severe vacancies due to market conditions, the Agency may allow the borrower to charge a special note rent (SNR), which is less than note rent but higher than basic rent, to attract or retain tenants whose income level would require them to pay special note rent. The requirements for receiving an SNR are established under 7 CFR 3560.454.

B. Annual Utility Allowance Reviews

The borrower should review utility allowances on an annual basis to determine whether any changes have to be made. The borrower should indicate no changes to utility rates in the comment section of the budget narrative.

C. Tenant Notification and Comments

At the same time the borrower submits the initial notice to the Agency that they intend to submit a rent change request, the borrower will send or deliver notices to each tenant in the project notifying them of the rent change request that will be submitted to the Agency with their annual budget. Appendix 4 provides an example of such a notice.

The borrower must also post this notice in a common area frequented by the tenants, such as the laundry room or near the mailboxes.

The notice must notify tenants that they have 20 days to provide their comments to the Agency. If during this time the Agency receives any tenant comments, these must be immediately forwarded to the borrower, with the identity of the tenant protected. This can be done by either paraphrasing the comments for the borrower or by removing any identifying information from the correspondence received from the tenant and forwarding it on to the borrower.

After the 20-day comment period, the Agency must notify the borrower of approval or rejection within 10 days.

D. Documentation

The borrower must fully document any rent change request. Requests for a rental charge change must be based on a realistic projected budget for the interim year or the ensuing full year. The borrower must provide to the Agency the information identified in Exhibit 7-8 with the rent or utility allowance change request.

Exhibit 7-8Information Required to Document Rent or Utility Allowance Change Request

1. Form RD 3560-7 must be used to reflect the project's financial needs for the year and thereby rental charge requirements. A narrative cover letter must be included explaining why the rent change is necessary. A new operating budget for the fiscal year must show:
 - Currently approved budget at old rents;
 - Proposed budget at proposed new basic rents; and
 - Proposed budget at proposed new note rate rents (if applicable).
2. Actual utility costs. Refer to Chapter 4 for a description of the information required to document utility allowance change requests.
3. Additional documentation. Additional documentation must be attached to Form RD 3560-7 in accordance with the instructions to these forms as evidence of the need for the rent or utility allowance change.
4. Other information. Any other information the borrower believes is necessary to justify the proposed shelter cost change.

The narrative attached to the budget form must clearly explain the necessity for the change request and the Loan Servicer must analyze the supporting documentation to the budget and Form RD 3560-7 to see if it supports the request. For example, if the rent increase is due to increased taxes, then the Field Officer should look for copies of tax increase notices in the budget documentation. If the rent increase is due to an increase in general operating expenses, the Field Officer must review those expenses for reasonableness. Chapter 4 discusses reasonableness and how a budget should be reviewed for acceptability.

E. Agency Responsibility1. Reviewing the Rent Change Request

When the borrower submits a budget with a rent or utility allowance change request, the Agency must respond to the borrower within 60 days. If the Agency does not contact the borrower, the borrower may assume that any rent change request of $25 or less has been automatically approved.

2. Circumstances in which the Agency Will Not Approve a Rent Increase

The Loan Servicer must not approve a rent increase under the following circumstances:

- The borrower is able but unwilling to comply with program requirements. Such a borrower has ignored repeated requests from the Loan Servicer to take servicing actions by a specified deadline.
- If the borrower is in default of the Agency loan agreement and does not have an Agency-approved work-out plan, or is not in compliance with an Agency-approved workout plan.
- There are sufficient project funds under the existing rents to meet project operating expenses, and the borrower is not able to justify the higher rents. Such a condition is established when the project budget shows that income meets expenses at current rent levels.
- The project is operated on a profit basis, and the rent change would result in rents higher than what tenants can afford. This condition is established by comparing rents with 30 percent of tenant adjusted incomes. If it is shown that tenants would be paying in excess of 30 percent of their adjusted incomes as new rents and the increase is not necessary to meet projected costs, then the increase must not be approved.

3. Rejection of Rent Change Request

If the Loan Servicer rejects the change request, the borrower must be notified and be provided with appeal rights.

4. Effective Dates of Change

The effective dates of any approved changes will coincide with the start of the project's fiscal year or the start of the season for labor housing projects. For an allowance increase request on which comments were solicited, the borrower must deliver a notice to tenants announcing the rent or utility allowance increase to be effective 30 calendar days from the date of the notification, unless the rent increase will be the same as what was stated in the initial notice to the tenants.

If the figure is revised downward, the borrower must notify the tenants of their new rents prior to the first day of the month in which the new rent amounts are due. However, the borrower does not have to give 30 days' notice of the new rents in this case.

For notices to tenants, see Appendix 4.

7.14 RENT CHANGES FOR UNITS RECEIVING HUD SECTION 8 ASSISTANCE [7 CFR 3560.207]

The Agency has the responsibility to review and approve project budgets on an annual basis based on need to meet cash flow and expense requirements. Therefore, the Loan Servicer will not take into account HUD's automatic annual adjustment for Section 8 contract rents. The Loan Servicer must approve only the rents needed to provide sufficient income to meet approved project expenses.

A. Reviewing Budgets with HUD Subsidies

Since HUD- and Agency-approved rental rates frequently differ, it may be necessary to have a three-column budget in properties with HUD Section 8 contracts. Exhibit 7-9 depicts how many columns are required in the budget, depending upon the project type.

Exhibit 7-9
Reviewing Budgets with HUD Subsidies
Project Type	Columns Needed in Budget
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 100 percent Section 8/515 with no interest credit; HUD contract rent rate is equal to basic rent • 100 percent Section 8/515 with interest credit; HUD contract rent is greater than basic rent and less than note rate rent • 100 percent Section 8/515 without interest credit; HUD contract rent is greater than note rate rent • Less than 100 percent Section 8/515 with interest credit; HUD contract rent is greater than basic and less than or greater than note rate rent 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • One column only showing HUD contract rent • Three columns showing basic rent, HUD contract rent and Agency note rate rent • Two columns showing HUD contract rent and note rate rent; difference is excess funds and deposited into reserves • Three columns showing basic rent, HUD contract rent and Agency note rate rent

B. Excess Rents

When reviewing the budget, if the Loan Servicer concludes that the HUD-authorized rent is more than what is needed to meet project expenses, a lesser amount than the HUD rent must be approved. When this occurs, in accordance with Exhibit 7-9, the borrower must deposit the difference between the Agency approved note rate rent and the higher HUD-authorized rate into the reserve account. The manager or borrower must use Form RD 3560-29 to document the required deposit in the reserve account.

If excess HUD rents accumulate in the reserve account beyond the sum shown in the borrower’s loan agreement or resolution, the Loan Servicer may reduce or cancel the interest credit on the project. The Agency may reinstate interest credit whenever HUD rent should become lower than the Agency note rate rent.

Before depositing excess funds in the reserve account, the borrower may have to collect overage. Whether overage is collected and a project is subject to cancellation of interest credit depend upon the issuance date and execution date of the project’s interest credit agreement.

Certain early versions of the interest credit agreement do not have a legal basis to support the Agency’s policy to cancel interest credit or collect overage to offset interest credit. Each Section 8/515 project needs to be categorized according to the issuance date and execution date of the project's interest credit agreement on Form FHA 444-7 or its successor Forms FmHA 444-7 and RD 3560-9. Exhibit 7-10 provides a description of the rules that apply to each interest agreement form.

However, there is legal basis to collect overage and deposit excess funds to reserves and/or apply it on the loan. SECTION 5: RENTS FOR LABOR HOUSING PROJECTS

7.15 OFF-FARM LABOR HOUSING

A. Rent Structure

Tenants in Off-Farm Labor Housing are required to make a monthly rent payment in the amount equal to:

- In units with rental assistance, 30 percent of their income for rent in accordance with the amount calculated annually on Form RD 3560-8; or
- The approved rent, when rental assistance is not available.

B. Establishing a Basic Rent at the Property

For each Off-Farm Labor Housing project, the Agency will establish a basic rent in accordance with the project's annual operating budget. This basic rent will be equal to the project's operating expenses, plus the debt service payment based on the project's one percent interest rate, as approved by the Agency.

7.16 ON-FARM LABOR HOUSING

Rents for On-Farm Labor Housing should be in accordance with the employment agreement between the tenant and the borrower. In general, rents should not be required for projects assisted through the On-Farm Labor Housing program. Borrowers who choose to charge rents at On-Farm Labor Housing properties must comply with the rent setting and adjustment procedures established for Section 515 projects in this chapter.

On-farm labor housing borrowers are not required to charge security deposits, but if they do so, they must follow the terms described in Section 2 of this chapter.

CHAPTER 8: RENTAL SUBSIDIES

8.1 INTRODUCTION

Rental subsidies are deep subsidies that enhance the affordability of rents in a project. Each year, the Agency has available a limited number of Agency-funded rental assistance units that can be allocated to new or existing Agency-financed multi-family housing projects. The Agency also encourages the use of non-Agency rental subsidies in multi-family housing projects as a way to reduce tenants' rents.

Because rental subsidies are limited, it is important that they be allocated to borrowers and distributed to tenants in a fair and equitable manner. Consequently, the Agency has developed rules that must be followed in the distribution and administration of rental subsidies. This chapter presents the program rules and procedures for allocating and administering rental subsidies in multi-family housing projects, including Farm Labor Housing projects. It covers not only Agency-funded rental assistance, but U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and other types of subsidies as well.

For purposes of this chapter, the term "tenant" also means "member," and "rental assistance" is reserved for use in describing Agency-financed rental subsidy.

8.2 AUTHORIZED RENTAL SUBSIDIES [7 CFR 3560.252]

A. Project-Based Rental Subsidy

The Agency may authorize the use of project-based rental subsidies in addition to interest credit for multi-family housing projects. These rental subsidies may take the form of:

- Agency-funded rental assistance. This is a project-based subsidy program available to very low- and low-income tenants in Agency-financed multi-family housing.
- HUD Section 8 assistance. This project-based subsidy is administered by HUD and was used extensively with Agency-financed housing from the mid-1970s to the early 1980s.
- Private rental subsidy. This is a subsidy program whereby the project owner(s) or others enter into an agreement with the Agency to provide and fund subsidy to tenants of the project on approximately the same basis as the Agency-funded rental assistance program. In some instances, the agreement may include a limit on the number of units and a per-unit ceiling on the amount of assistance.
- State or local rental subsidy. Such subsidy is provided and funded by some states and available to borrowers to assist tenants on approximately the same basis as the Agency rental assistance program. The assistance is in the form of a contract between the borrower and the state and has the Agency's concurrence.

- Operating subsidy for off-farm migrant farmworker projects. Section 521 Agency rental assistance funds may be used as operating assistance in migrant farmworker projects financed under 514 or 516 to reduce operating costs so that rents may be set at rates affordable to low-income migrant farmworkers.

B. Tenant-Based Rental Subsidies

HUD Section 8 Rental Certificates or Rental Vouchers may be accepted by borrowers in Agency-funded multi-family housing. These subsidies are administered by HUD or others authorized to administer the program such as a State Housing Finance Agency or the local public housing agency. Projects accepting tenants who use such vouchers assigned by a local public housing agency will also comply with any requirements imposed by that agency.

C. Multiple Subsidies

More than one type of subsidy may be used in a project. The rental subsidy that the tenant is receiving must be less than the full amount of Agency rental assistance for which the tenant would qualify. In such cases, the Agency may provide the difference between the subsidy received by the tenant and the amount of Agency rental assistance for which the tenant qualifies.

There are special tenant codes under Part II, item 6 of the electronic MFIS Tenant Certification to denote what types of subsidy, if any, a tenant is receiving, and whether the tenant is receiving full or partial subsidy from a source other than the Agency.

SECTION 1: ALLOCATION OF AGENCY RENTAL ASSISTANCE

8.3 AGENCY-FUNDED RENTAL ASSISTANCE

The objective of the Agency rental assistance (RA) program is to reduce rents paid by low-income households. RA is the portion of approved shelter cost (rent and utilities) paid by the Agency to the borrower on behalf of a tenant to compensate for the difference between the approved shelter cost and the monthly tenant contribution as calculated on Form RD 3560-8, Tenant Certification. When the household's monthly gross tenant contribution is less than the approved utility allowance that is billed directly to and paid by the tenant, the owner will pay the household that difference.

If a prospective tenant with a HUD voucher or other subsidy applies for occupancy and the project has RA or project-based subsidy, the RA or project-based subsidy takes precedence. RA may only be provided to tenants who are income eligible and residing in eligible units. There are four types of RA:

- Renewal RA is RA that replaces RA agreements contracts expiring because the obligated funds under the agreement have been fully disbursed. Because the Agency wishes to protect tenants currently benefiting from RA, replacement of RA contracts receive first priority for funding from the Agency.
- Servicing RA is RA that increases the number of RA units in a project resulting in an initial RA agreement or an amendment to an existing agreement with a borrower.
- New construction RA is RA to accompany new units of multi-family housing.
- Incentive RA is RA that is used to help preserve multi-family housing projects as part of the prepayment process. For information about the prepayment process, see HB-3-3560, Chapter 15.

8.4 ALLOCATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF AGENCY RA [7 CFR 3560.257]

A. Allocation of RA to the States by the National Office

RA is allocated to the states on an annual basis by the National Office and in an amount based on Congressional appropriations. The National Office uses RD Instruction 1940-L to allocate the RA and to provide guidance to the states on how to distribute the RA among projects.

Before the beginning of the fiscal year, the National Office sends out a survey to each state requesting summary data on the need for RA in each state. These data are used to allocate replacement and servicing RA. New construction RA is allocated to each state based on a formula.

B. Prioritization of RA

In the absence of other guidance from the National Office, states will use the following priorities to allocate RA within the state:

- Replacements units. First priority will be for replacing RA units that are expiring.
- New construction. Second priority will be for RA to accompany new construction.
 - ◇ RA units will be allocated to those projects that are selected for funding under the Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) system and in accordance with the scoring and ranking system described in Chapter 4 of HB-1-3560.
 - ◇ For farm labor housing projects, RA units will be allocated by the National Office from the National Office reserve on a case-by-case basis at the time the projects are considered for funding at the National Office level.
- Servicing assistance. Third priority is for RA for existing multi-family housing projects that have requested servicing RA by checking the appropriate box on the budget Form RD 3560-7, Multiple Family Housing Project Budget/Utility Allowance.

Incentive RA is not allocated by priority. The National Office allocates incentive RA from a special set-aside of funds.

8.5 PROJECT ELIGIBILITY FOR AGENCY RA [7 CFR 3560.254]

To be eligible for RA, a project must be designated as one of the following types according to the loan agreement:

- A Plan II interest credit project. If a project is not currently a Plan II project, it may be possible to change to Plan II and thereby become eligible. Exhibit 8-1 lists which types of projects may switch to Plan II and which may not.
- An off-farm labor housing project. Off-farm labor housing projects that are financed with grants only are not eligible.
- A project financed with a direct or insured Rural Rental Housing Loan approved prior to August 1, 1968. To be eligible, the project must be operated under an interest credit agreement that identifies the housing project as a Plan RA project.
- A project funded by multiple sources, including Agency financing, for which the loan must be a Plan II interest credit loan.

8.6 PROCESSING RA OBLIGATIONS [7 CFR 3560.255]

The State Director or a delegated member of the staff approves or disapproves RA requests. Form RD 3560-51, Obligation Fund Analysis, is the form that obligates the RA.

When reviewing RA requests, the Loan Servicer must consider the following questions:

- Is the project/unit eligible for RA? The project must meet the requirements specified in Section 8.5.
- Does the project need the RA? The supporting documentation from the borrower must show that there are tenants or applicants who are eligible for the RA.
- Is the RA available for distribution? The state must have the RA units available.

How an RA request gets processed depends upon whether the assistance is for replacement RA, servicing RA, or new construction RA.

A. Renewal and Servicing Rental Assistance

1. Tracking Usage of Agency-Funded RA

The Loan Servicer inputs the information provided by the borrower on Form RD 3560-29, Notice of Payment Due Report into the Multi-Family Housing Information System (MFIS). Quarterly and annually, a report is issued by the Office of the Deputy Chief Financial Office (ODCFO) that provides the Loan Servicer with an RA payment and obligation status report for each project. The Loan Servicers should use these reports, in conjunction with the Automated Multi-Family Housing Accounting System (AMAS) to closely monitor their borrower’s accounts to ensure maximum utilization of existing RA obligations. If it is determined that RA units are not being used, the procedures in Section 8.8 should be followed to transfer the units.

The Field Office must monitor statewide RA usage so that it can be reported as expiring and needing replacement when the annual survey is sent out from the National Office ascertaining the need for replacement RA.

2. Processing Renewal RA

Renewal RA must not be awarded in an amount that is more than necessary to cover existing expiring contracts. For example, if a 24-unit project has only 18 units of RA that are expiring, the State Director may not award the project more than 18 units of RA.

To the extent that sufficient Federal funds are available, the Agency will automatically renew expiring RA agreements at the existing number of units.

If there is no renewal RA available to give to the borrower due to a lack of Congressional appropriations, the Loan Servicer will inform the borrowers that they must notify the affected tenants of their increased rents and give them the option of terminating their leases with no penalties.

3. HUD Section 8 Housing Assistance Payments

For properties that receive project-based HUD Section 8 assistance, borrowers must provide copies of their Housing Assistance Payments (HAP) contracts to the Loan Servicer. The Loan Servicer must monitor these contracts, particularly their expiration dates.

4. Servicing RA

Borrowers apply for servicing RA by checking a box on the project budget Form RD 3560-7, indicating a need for servicing units and certifying that they have looked elsewhere for other rental subsidies. To allocate servicing units to a project, the Loan Servicer must verify that the project is eligible and:

- Existing tenants are paying more than 30 percent of their incomes in rent; or
- There are vacancies in the project and evidence that shows that there are very low-income tenants who would occupy the housing if there were RA units available. Such evidence must be in the form of market data and/or waiting lists.

B. New Construction Rental Assistance

New construction RA is requested with the initial application. The following requirements must be met for the Agency to consider awarding new construction RA:

- The number of RA units requested must be based on the market data for the area, the proposed rental rates as reflected in a budget for the project, and the income levels of the prospective tenants; and
- If the RA is going to be part of a project funded by a participation loan, the Agency participation rate needs to be at least 25 percent of the total development cost.

Chapter 4 of HB-1-3560 provides further details on processing new construction RA.

C. Approval and Processing Actions for FY 04 and FY 05 RA Obligations

The Fiscal Year 2004 and FY 05 appropriation language has established a set term of 4 years for FY 04 RA obligations, only. Therefore, the following instruction should be used for completing Form RD 3560-27, Rental Assistance Agreement, regarding all FY 04 and FY 05 RA obligations.

- All FY 04 and FY 05 obligations will always need to have a separate Form RD 3560-27.
- Changes to the form include:
 - ◊ Above title: “Rental Assistance Agreement” add “Four Year.”
 - ◊ Section 8 (a): cross out “...individually and automatically upon total disbursement or credit to the borrower’s account” and insert “...four (4) years from * , unless the funds are fully expended prior to that time.”
- If agreement is for the original obligation, enter the date the agreement is prepared. If the agreement is for units transferred, enter the date of the agreement from the original Form RD 3560-27.

For example, renewal obligation for Borrower A is obligated on April 6, 2004, and the Form RD 3560-27 is signed on April 10, 2004. The expiration of the obligation will be April 10, 2008. If one unit of RA (from the FY 04 obligation) is transferred to Borrower B on August 15, 2005, then the Form RD 3560-27 for Borrower B will have an expiration date of April 10, 2008, even though the borrower received the unit on August 15, 2005.

A servicing effort tracking item “FY 04 RA Obligations” and “FY 05 RA Obligations” has been established in MFIS to assist in the monitoring of FY 04 and FY 05 RA obligations. The National Office will be monitoring this tracking item to assure that funds are properly managed.

D. General Approval and Processing Actions

When it has been determined that RA can be obligated, the Loan Servicer will prepare and distribute part III of Form RD 3560-51 according to the instructions. The State Office will verify the obligation or transfer via the computer terminal on the day following the request. Upon verification that the obligation or transfer has processed in AMAS, the State Office will complete the RA Review process in MFIS. Refer to the MFIS Phase 4 Training Manual for guidance for the RA Review process.

When the State Office verifies that RA units have been obligated, it will forward a copy of Form RD 3560-51 to the Loan Servicer. The Loan Servicer will complete Form RD 3560-27 and attach the copy of Form RD 3560-51 according to the instructions on the form. The Form RD 3560-27 is then filed in the borrower's active case file, and a copy is sent to the borrower.

If RA funds are available but cannot be provided due to a determination of ineligibility, the State Director will inform the borrower in writing of the reasons and provide the borrower information on appeal rights in accordance with 7 CFR Part 11. See paragraph 1.8 of Chapter 1 for an overview of the appeals process.

Loan applicants or borrowers determined to be eligible for RA as a result of an appeal or funding review will receive RA, if RA funding is available. If the funding is available, the applicant or borrower will receive it beginning with the month following the date of the appeal or funding review decision. If the funding is not available, the applicant or borrower will receive it beginning in the first month that RA funding becomes available.

When an RA request is denied because funds are not available from the state's allocation or the National Office reserve, the decision is not appealable.

E. RA Obligation Numbers

AMAS uses obligation numbers to track RA obligations and undisbursed balances. See the AMAS manual for information on tracking RA obligations.

1. Current Obligations

When RA is approved, each RA obligation is assigned a six-digit RA obligation number as follows:

- First two digits represent the fiscal year in which the funds are obligated (e.g., 04, 05, 06, etc.);
- Second two digits represent the number of the RA obligation for each project in sequential order for each fiscal year starting with 01 (e.g., 04-01, 04-02, 04-03, etc.); and
- Third two digits are coded 00 for all obligations.

For example, the fifth RA obligation made in fiscal year 2005 would be coded 05-05-00.

2. Pre-1985 Obligations

RA obligations obligated before 1985 were coded as follows:

- First two digits represent the fiscal year in which the initial obligation was made on the project (i.e., 78, 79, 80, etc.);
- Second two digits relate to the pre-Automated Multi-housing Accounting System conversion loan number to which the RA obligation was processed; and

- Third two digits indicate the number of modifications plus 1. (Form RD 3560-27, with two modifications on September 30, 1984, would be designated “03”).

8.7 TERMS OF AGREEMENT [7 CFR 3560.258]

Form RD 3560-27 is the document that sets out the terms of RA agreement between the Agency and the borrower.

A. Terms of Agreement

Each Form RD 3560-27 will be effective the first day of the month in which it is executed. If assistance is granted to a project under an appeal, the amount of the assistance will cover what is needed for an effective date retroactive to the first day of the month in which the assistance was denied, provided the borrower agrees to make any appropriate refunds to tenants who would have been entitled to RA during the retroactive term.

Starting in 2004, RA is obligated for 4-year terms. Previously, the Agency issued 5-year RA agreements. The agreement for RA obligations prior to FY 04, expires when the funds obligated for the RA units described in Section 10 of Form RD 3560-27 are fully disbursed. This can be any time before or after the end of the agreement period. The Agency has in the past issued 20-year and 5-year RA agreements. If and when these are renewed, they are done so for 5-year or 4-year terms.

B. When Agreements May Be Amended

Loan Servicers may amend RA agreements to:

- Add replacement units for the project to the agreement;
- Add or subtract servicing units assigned to the project through obligation, through transfer from another RA obligation, or as an incentive to avert prepayment;
- Reinstate a suspended RA obligation(s) to a new borrower in the same project after a voluntary conveyance or a foreclosure and a credit sale within the Multi-Family Housing program; or
- Transfer a suspended RA obligation(s) to a new borrower and a different project after liquidation of the project assets or after the loan is paid in full.

C. Procedures for Amending Agreements

The following steps are taken to amend agreements.

- Any existing RA obligation executed prior to February 15, 1983, which will have a remaining obligation balance at the end of the expiration date stated in section 9 of the RA agreement, “Term of the Agreement,” may be amended. The amended agreement will expire when the obligated funds are fully disbursed.

- For every replacement or modification of an RA agreement that occurs on or after May 1, 1985, the original and all copies of the affected RA agreement will be noted, assembled, and distributed by the Loan Servicer according to the form's instructions. When a Form RD 444-27A, Amendment to RA Agreement initiated prior to May 1, 1985, is replaced or modified, a new Form RD 3560-27 will be prepared and distributed according to the form's instructions.
- The Loan Servicer must use the new form so that eventually all borrowers will be using the new form.

D. Consolidating Agreements

Consolidation of RA agreements is allowed, if the fiscal year and the type of RA are the same.

E. Replacing Expiring Obligations

The Agency will renew all expiring obligations with obligations to the extent funds are appropriated. Expiring 20-year obligations will be replaced with current funding levels.

Expiring RA obligations and replacement RA obligations may run concurrently for a period of 30 to 60 days so any undisbursed obligation balance on the expiring RA agreement can be liquidated.

8.8 TRANSFERRING RA [7 CFR 3560.259]

A. Cases in which RA May Be Transferred

The State Director may transfer RA in the following instances:

1. At Project Transfer

When a project is transferred to an eligible borrower, the transferee may assume the transferor's unliquidated RA obligation(s).

2. Following Voluntary Conveyance or Foreclosure Sale

When a project with RA is voluntarily conveyed to the Agency or acquired by foreclosure sale, the RA obligation will be automatically suspended under the borrower's name when the St. Louis Office processes Form RD 3560-19, Status of REO Property. The RA for these units will be held in suspension until the final disposition of the acquired property has been determined, at which time the RA will be transferred to a different Agency-financed project in accordance with paragraph C of this section. During the inventory period, tenants will pay 30 percent of their incomes for rent. Tenants entitled to reimbursement for utilities will be paid from project income.

3. Following Liquidation or Prepayment

When a project with RA is liquidated through sale outside of the program or the loan is paid in full, the RA will be transferred to a different Agency-financed project in accordance with paragraph C of this section.

4. When Not Being Used After Initial Rent-Up

RA that is not being used may be transferred with or without the borrower's consent or request. When RA is unused after initial rent-up and not needed because of a lack of eligible potential tenants in the area, all or a portion of it may be transferred by the State Director under the following conditions:

- The Loan Servicer recommends the RA transfer after reviewing documentation submitted by the borrower; and
- Available RA units remain unused after a one-year period since initial availability.

5. When Not Being Used 6 Months or Later After the Initial Year of the Agreement

If, after the end of the initial year of an RA agreement, the borrower has not used a portion of the RA units for any ensuing consecutive 6-month period, the State Director may transfer the number of unused units, minus at least one, to another project without the borrower's request. If the remaining unit(s) remains unused after an additional 6-month period, the State Director may authorize its transfer to another project. This would apply only if the current agreement is on Form RD 3560-27, and when:

- The Loan Servicer has reviewed the project occupancy list, waiting list, past RA usage, and any other data available and verified that there is no apparent RA need in the project;
- The State Director has notified the borrower at least 30 days in advance of the Agency's intent to transfer the RA units and has given the borrower appropriate appeal rights;
- If the borrower appeals the decision, the appeal is resolved in accordance with 7 CFR Part 11 before any transfer action is taken; and
- The transfer will take place in accordance with transfer procedures described in subparagraph C below.

6. Due to an Unclosable Loan

When RA will be unused because the loan to which it was obligated will not be closed or the RA agreement is not signed, the RA obligation may not be transferred except when the circumstances allow for the funds to finance the project to be transferred as well. However, if this situation occurs during the same fiscal year of obligation, the obligation must be canceled and reallocated immediately using current authorities.

Obligations from prior fiscal years must be canceled and will be lost unless the conditions allow the financing for the project to be transferred, in which case the RA may be transferred as well.

7. In Response to a Disaster

If a disaster renders a project temporarily or permanently uninhabitable, the RA may be transferred.

8. Due to a Servicing Action

The State Director will suspend RA in a project where the loan has been accelerated to the extent that no payments will be credited to the project’s account. Interest credit will be credited to the project’s account until the appeal period for the acceleration has expired. After the expiration of the appeal period, if it is determined that foreclosure will proceed, the interest credit will be canceled as of the last day of the month in which the appeal period expired. RA will be automatically suspended by the interest credit cancellation.

That portion of the monthly RA not needed to pay the project monthly installment and other charges, including any delinquencies, overage, and late fees may be processed and returned to the project operating account to maintain project operation. RA agreements expiring during the acceleration and appeal process may be renewed in order to continue payment of RA for this purpose, but only if a third party is managing the project to ensure the proper use of project funds.

After final disposition of the acceleration, expiration of the appeal and redemption period of the defaulting borrower, the RA will be either transferred with a credit sale, transferred to a different project when the defaulting project is sold outside the program, or reinstated to the same project as follows:

- Transferred with a credit sale. If the project is sold through a credit sale to an eligible borrower within the program, the suspended RA should be transferred from the previous borrower’s case number and project number to the new case number and project number. Form RD 3560-55, Multi-Family Housing Transfer of RA, will be attached to Form RD 3560-19.
- Transferred to a different project. If a defaulting project is sold outside the program, the RA must be transferred to a different project.
- Reinstated to the same project. When defaults are corrected, the State Director may reinstate the RA to the borrower’s account.

The State Director will apprise the borrowers of their appeal rights under 7 CFR Part 11 upon notification of the pending suspension. The suspension will not be effective until these appeal rights have been exhausted.

B. Eligible Units

In order to be eligible for RA, units must be eligible for interest credit in terms of habitability. Should a fire, natural cause, or other damage render a unit uninhabitable, the RA may be suspended during rehabilitation or it may move with a tenant to a temporary location in another project financed by the Agency.

C. Transferring RA for Displaced Tenants

The State Director may transfer RA from one project to another eligible multi-family housing project to which a tenant is moving due to displacement as a result of prepayment, liquidation, or a natural disaster for that tenant's initial use.

The displaced tenant will be given first priority for an RA unit, regardless of other priorities for the RA, if all of the following conditions are met:

- The borrower is eligible to receive and administer RA.
- The tenant is eligible to occupy the project and to receive RA.
- The tenant has taken all of the following steps to ensure eligibility to receive priority for the unit of RA:
 - ◇ Placed on at least one waiting list for an Agency-financed project with a Handbook Letter 201 (3560), Letter of Priority Entitlement (LOPE).
 - ◇ Moved to the project as soon as the name was reached on a waiting list, even if it meant temporarily occupying an ineligible unit. The ineligible unit may not differ from the one for which the tenant is eligible by more than one bedroom.
 - ◇ Moved to an eligible unit as soon as one was available.
- The RA has not previously been transferred for the tenant's current displacement.

D. Process for Transferring

Only the State Director may approve an RA transfer. RA may be transferred to any borrower with an RA eligible project according to the priorities established in this handbook or by the National Office. All or any portion of the units in an RA agreement with an undisbursed balance may be transferred from one project to another.

When the State Director approves an RA transfer, the Loan Servicer uses Form RD 3560-55, completed according to the instructions, to notify the St. Louis Office.

AMAS determines the per-unit value of the RA obligation being transferred by dividing the undisbursed balance of the RA obligation on the date the transfer is processed by the number of RA units in the agreement. The number of units being transferred times the per-unit value equals the total amount transferred. After the transfer processes, the Loan Servicer must enter the dollar amount of the transfer in the remarks area of Form RD 3560-55.

RA units identified by different RA obligation numbers may be transferred. New RA obligation numbers should be assigned according to the instructions for Form RD 3560-55 and as described in paragraph 8.6 E.

The Loan Servicer will complete Form RD 3560-27 with Form RD 3560-55 attached. These will be completed according to the instructions for each transferee. The transferee may use the transferred units effective the first day of the month in which the transfer is approved. Borrowers must assign the rental assistance units, in accordance with the established priorities identified in Exhibit 8-2, as soon as they become available.

The Loan Servicer will amend the transferor's Form RD 3560-27 by attaching a copy of Form RD 3560-55 according to the instructions to indicate that a portion of the agreement has been transferred. When all RA units on a RA agreement have been transferred, the transferor's present agreement will be so documented.

SECTION 2: ADMINISTRATION OF RENTAL ASSISTANCE

8.9 CORRECTIONS TO RENTAL ASSISTANCE PAYMENTS

A. Administrative Errors

The borrower is responsible for correcting any errors made in the administration of the RA program that are made by the borrower or the borrower's authorized management agent. Errors in computation or other unauthorized use of RA will require, at a minimum, the repayment of incorrectly advanced RA funds. Agency requirements regarding unauthorized assistance as established under 7 CFR part 3560, subpart O, apply whenever any RA has been incorrectly advanced.

If the error or unauthorized use of RA appears to be deliberate or intentional, the State Director will refer the case to the OGC. For more information on unauthorized assistance, see HB-3-3560, Chapter 9.

B. Canceling an RA Check

When an RA check needs to be canceled, such as when it is returned, or if the borrower must return an RA payment, an MS2 transaction must be entered directly into the AMAS. Specific instructions for completing this transaction can be found in the AMAS On-Line Manual. This transaction will not be processed until the funds have been received by the Agency through one of the following methods:

- The original U.S. Treasury check covering the RA is returned.
- The borrower submits a check made payable to the Agency to the Field Office for all or a portion of the monthly RA payment that needs to be returned.

8.10 ASSIGNING RENTAL ASSISTANCE TO TENANTS AND APPLICANTS [7 CFR 3560.257]

Because RA is limited, the Agency has established procedures to ensure that it is distributed consistently and to the most needy households.

A. Eligible Households

Households which are eligible for RA are those:

- With very low or low incomes who are eligible to live in multi-family housing projects;
- With net tenant contribution determined in accordance with 7 CFR 3560.203(a)(2) that is less than the current basic rent for the unit; and

- Who have a signed an unexpired Form RD 3560-8 on file with the borrower.

To determine priority for assigning an available RA unit in an operational project, the borrower must update the latest Form RD 3560-29 for the project as of the date the unit is available.

B. Priorities in Existing Projects

When assigning available RA, borrowers must use the priorities identified in Exhibit 8-2.

Exhibit 8-2 Five Priorities for Assigning Rental Assistance <ul style="list-style-type: none">• First priority is always to eligible very low-income tenants paying the highest percentage of their adjusted annual income in shelter costs.• Second priority is to very low-income applicants on the waiting list, considering the applicant's unit size and type needed.• Third priority is to eligible low-income tenants paying the highest percentage of their adjusted annual income in shelter costs.• Fourth priority is to eligible low-income applicants on the waiting list.• Final priority is to households that are residing in a rental unit for which they do not qualify on the basis of an occupancy waiver or other special approval situations

In order to provide RA to the third, fourth, and final priority categories, a borrower must fully document that either there are no very low-income households on the waiting list or fully document that occupancy by low-income households is limited as follows:

- For projects occupied on or after November 30, 1983, no more than 5 percent of the units in the project are occupied by low-income households; or
- For projects occupied before November 30, 1983, no more than 25 percent of the units in the project are occupied by low-income households.

Borrower documentation of these circumstances must be kept in the borrower's files and made available to the Loan Servicer upon request.

C. Assigning RA in Newly Constructed Units

A borrower with RA units for a newly constructed project should accept applications for occupancy during the construction phase of the project, after the preconstruction conference has been held. The names of the applicants should be placed on a waiting list. During the initial rent-up period, the following priorities will apply:

- Until all the RA units have been assigned, a number of apartment units in the project equal to the number of RA units will be initially reserved for eligible tenants who qualify for RA, even if there are applications on other lists that applied earlier. Applications qualifying for RA will be considered according to the priority established for existing projects, by passing those applicants on the waiting list whose income is above the low-income limits for the area. The remaining units equal to the number of units that will not be subsidized with RA can be rented simultaneously to other applicants.
- If a substantial number of apartment units reserved to be used with RA units remain vacant after initial rent-up and the borrower could rent those units to applicants ineligible for RA, the borrower may request a transfer of unused RA units. However, applicants ineligible for RA cannot be selected to occupy units initially reserved to be used with RA until the unused RA units are transferred.
- If there are still vacant units, those applicants bypassed because they did not qualify for RA will be considered for occupancy on a first-come, first-served basis.

D. Continued Eligibility

Eligible tenants receiving the benefits of RA may continue receiving such benefits as long as they remain eligible for occupancy, are eligible for RA under 7 CFR 3560.254(c)(2), and RA units are available.

E. Timing of RA Assignment

Rental assistance is paid to the borrower on the first of the month based on the prior month's occupancy.

When a tenant who has been receiving RA vacates the project, the borrower must immediately assign that unit of RA to the next existing eligible tenant or applicant on the waiting list.

When a tenant receiving RA vacates before the end of the month and the borrower reassigns the RA, the Agency will provide RA for the newly designated tenant starting on the first day of the following month.

When an RA unit is assigned to an eligible existing tenant on a day other than the first day of a month, the Agency will not provide rental assistance for the newly assigned existing tenant and the tenant will not pay reduced rental charges until the first day of the month following the assignment of the rental assistance.

F. Incorrectly Assigned RA

Incorrectly assigned RA is viewed as unauthorized assistance and handled in accordance with the requirements established under 7 CFR part 3560, subpart O.

When the tenant has correctly reported income and household size but RA was assigned to a household in error, that tenant’s RA benefit should be canceled and reassigned. Incidents involving incorrect reporting are handled in accordance with the unauthorized assistance requirements established under 7 CFR part 3560, subpart O.

Before the borrower notifies the tenant, the borrower or management agent shall review the case with the Loan Servicer. If the Loan Servicer verifies that an error has been made based on information available at the time the unit was assigned, the tenant will be given 30 days’ written notice that the unit was assigned in error and that the RA benefit will be canceled effective on the next monthly rental payment due date after the end of the 30-day notice period. It should be noted that some states require a 60-day notice of rent increases, in which case the written notice must be extended to 60 days. The borrower will also notify the tenant in writing that:

- The tenant has the right to cancel the lease based on the error made by the borrower and the loss of benefit to the tenant;
- The RA granted in error will not be recaptured from the tenant; and
- The tenant may meet with management to discuss the cancellation and the facts on which the decision was based. If the facts are accurate and the tenant cannot produce further evidence proving eligibility for RA, there will be no appeal for the decision. If the tenant feels there is justification for further review, the borrower must give the tenant appeal rights under 7 CFR 3560.160.

The RA unit will be reassigned to the next eligible household, based on Form RD 3560-29 from which the original priority was established, when the unit was erroneously assigned. The RA will not be retroactive unless the reassignment was based on an appeal by the tenant. Retroactive RA may not exceed the project’s remaining RA obligation balance.

Tenants may appeal determination of ineligibility for available RA under 7 CFR 3560.160. See paragraph 1.8 of Chapter 1 for information on the appeals process.

G. Dealing with Tenants Who Attempt to Receive RA Simultaneously in Two Different Projects

A tenant may not receive RA in two different multi-family housing projects at the same time. If part of the household is occupying a unit and the tenant attempts to occupy a seasonal unit in another project, MFIS will identify the duplicate tenancy through the tenant’s Social Security Number.

8.11 TENANT PAYMENTS [7 CFR 3560.256(d)]

A. Rents

Tenants receiving RA must pay the net tenant contribution toward rent, which will not exceed the higher of:

- 30 percent of monthly adjusted income, with an adjustment for any utility allowance; or
- 10 percent of gross monthly income, with an adjustment for any utility allowance.

B. Utilities

The utility allowance for a project with RA is determined as it is for any other project. As for non-RA projects, the utility allowance is reviewed annually for accuracy and changes are made when necessary.

When the tenant is billed directly for utilities, rent paid by the tenant receiving RA will be the difference between the established utility allowance and the net tenant contribution as determined by 7 CFR 3560.203.

- Example: Assume a basic rent of $250 and a utility allowance of $50. Patty Duke's adjusted monthly income is $400. Thirty percent of her adjusted income is $120. Fifty dollars is deducted from the $120 to allow her to pay her utilities, leaving her a net tenant contribution of $70 for rent to the borrower. The Agency pays RA to the borrower on behalf of Patty Duke in an amount of $180 to total the $250 basic rent.

When utilities are paid by the household receiving RA and the net tenant contribution is less than the allowance for utilities, the borrower will pay the household the difference between the utility allowance and net tenant contribution.

- Example: Assume a basic rent of $250 and a utility allowance of $50. Jane Ronda's adjusted monthly income is $160. Thirty percent of her adjusted monthly income is $48, which is less than the utility allowance. The Agency will pay $252 in RA to the borrower to cover the $250 basic rent and the extra $2 that the borrower must provide to the tenant to allow her to meet the $50 utility allowance.

In a project where the borrower pays all utilities, the tenant rent will be the net tenant contribution as per 7 CFR 3560.203 up to the approved rent for the rental unit being occupied.

- Example: In a project where the basic rent is $300 and there is no utility allowance, RHS would pay the borrower $180 for Patty Duke, who would pay the whole $120 in rent, totaling the required rent payment of $300. For Jane Ronda, the Agency would pay $252 to the borrower in RA and Ms. Ronda would contribute her $48 to make the total $300 rent payment.

SECTION 3: OTHER RENTAL SUBSIDIES

8.12 HUD RENTAL SUBSIDY [7 CFR 3560.260]

The Agency encourages the use of HUD Section 8 vouchers.

A. Project-Based Assistance

Tenants in Section 8/515 units must pay rents and utility allowances in accordance with HUD requirements.

B. Tenant-Based Assistance

Families using vouchers must be initially eligible as per program rules [7 CFR 3560.152]. The public housing authority issuing the vouchers will be responsible for an annual examination of household income and family composition. The public housing authority will adjust the housing assistance payments made on behalf of the family to reflect any changes in the family's monthly adjusted income, size, or composition.

For tenants with HUD vouchers, the borrower must set the rent for each unit occupied by a voucher holder at the basic rent or the rent standard set by the public housing agency, whichever is higher. The borrower must remit the value of the voucher exceeding the basic rent up to the note rate rent to the Agency. The public housing agency distributing the HUD Section 8 subsidy may set the utility allowance.

Once a HUD assistance contract expires, recertification responsibility reverts to the borrower, and Agency form and income verification and certification requirements apply.

8.13 OTHER SOURCES OF RENTAL SUBSIDY [7 CFR 3560.260]

The Agency may authorize other types of rental subsidies to be used in new or existing projects but will make no commitment to providing RA at the expiration of the project-based rental subsidy agreement from other sources.

A. Agency Requirements for New Construction Projects Proposed with Non-Agency Rental Subsidy

For the Agency to consider a new project with non-Agency rental subsidy, the applicants must demonstrate that:

- A market exists for the assistance and at income levels that would benefit from the subsidy being provided;
- Once the rental subsidy is no longer available, an adequate rental market exists for the project without assistance; and
- Tenants will not be displaced at the end of the subsidy agreement.

Applicants will specify how they intend to meet the above requirements through two documents: the memorandum of understanding with the provider of the RA and the Project-Based Rental Subsidy Agreement.

B. Formalizing the Project-Based Rental Subsidy

Rental subsidy for new and existing projects is formalized through two main documents: the memorandum of understanding, which is between the Agency and the provider of the rental subsidy, and the Project-Based Rental Subsidy Agreement, which is the instrument agreement involving the tenant, borrower, and provider of assistance.

1. Memorandum of Understanding

The Agency must enter into a memorandum of understanding with the provider of the rental subsidy to make sure that the Government's interests are secure. This memorandum of understanding must include the following provisions:

- The reason for providing the project-based rental subsidy and its intended purpose;
- The length of time the project-based rental subsidy will be provided;
- Actions to be taken at the end of the project-based rental subsidy agreement to minimize the effect on tenants losing the rental subsidy and to avoid displacement; and
- A copy of the proposed project-based rental subsidy agreement.

2. The Project-Based Rental Subsidy Agreement

The Project-Based Rental Subsidy Agreement is the instrument of agreement involving the tenant, borrower, and provider of assistance.

The Agency will not be a party to the Project-Based Rental Subsidy Agreement nor have any responsibilities under the agreement. However, the Loan Servicer must ensure that the Project-Based Rental Subsidy Agreement provides that:

- The rental subsidy payments will be paid directly to the tenants or deposited to a separate project operating account established for this purpose. The tenants must be advised of the amount and source of the subsidy through the lease or supplement to the lease.
- The life of the Project-Based Rental Subsidy Agreement must be similar to existing or current Agency RA funding levels, and sufficient funds must be set aside in a way that ensures availability of project-based rental subsidy for this term. The method of supplying the funds must be clearly set forth and acceptable to the Agency.
- During the term of the Project-Based Rental Subsidy Agreement, the provider must make available the subsidy amounts required at least annually.

C. Low-Income Housing Tax Credit Projects

For projects with low-income housing tax credits (LIHTCs), if the project-based rental subsidy term is less than the LIHTC compliance period, the borrower must demonstrate the marketability of the project-based rental subsidy units by either:

- Demonstrating that there are sufficient households within the LIHTC income limits to support the units without rent overburden; or
- Certifying that the targeted percentage of LIHTC units (not the minimum set-aside option) does not include the project-based rental subsidy units, so that the units will be marketable to households in all Agency program eligible income ranges.

SECTION 4: LABOR HOUSING REQUIREMENTS FOR RENTAL ASSISTANCE

8.14 USING RENTAL ASSISTANCE AS OPERATING ASSISTANCE [7 CFR 3560.574]

The Agency's rental assistance program, which provides assistance based on each household's income, can be difficult to administer in housing for migrant workers because of frequent tenant turnover and short periods of occupancy.

Borrowers of section 514 or 516 funds for Off-Farm Labor Housing projects may use Agency rental assistance funds for operating assistance rather than for providing rental assistance to individual households. By using operating assistance to reduce operating costs, rental rates can remain lower so that they are affordable to tenants based on the average wages of migrant farmworkers in the area. Tenants in Off-Farm Labor Housing projects that are receiving operating subsidy are still required to provide income verification and household income must be within the very-low or low-income limits to qualify for reduced operating assistance rents. Borrowers must provide documentation of tenant incomes to the Agency.

8.15 PROJECT ELIGIBILITY FOR OPERATING ASSISTANCE

Only Off-Farm Labor Housing project units that are designated for migrant farmworkers are eligible to receive operating subsidy. The property must be eligible to receive rental assistance.

8.16 OPERATING SUBSIDY LIMITS

The amount of operating assistance requested by the owner must be based on the project's actual income and expenses and must be approved by the Agency. For projects with both migrant and year round farmworkers, the amount of operating assistance is based on the portion of actual income and expenses attributable to the units that are for migrant farmworkers. In no instance may the annual amount of operating assistance exceed 90 percent of the annual operating costs that are attributable to the migrant units.

8.17 OWNER RESPONSIBILITIES.

A. Requesting for operating assistance program

Owners of Off-Farm Labor Housing projects with units for migrant farmworkers may request operating assistance by submitting a request to the Agency, which must include a budget. The budget must include:

- Estimated operating costs for the migrant units, including authorized expenditures such as reserve deposits;
- Proposed rental rates for the migrant units to generate sufficient funds for operating costs of those units, taking into consideration all other sources of project income; and

- Estimated rental income from tenants, based on a tenant contribution of 30 percent of the average adjusted monthly income of migrant farmworker households in the area.

B. Requesting operating assistance payments

Each month, the owner will submit a request for operating assistance to the Agency.

C. Verifying tenant income eligibility

Owners are responsible for verifying tenant income eligibility. Only very low or low-income households are eligible for the operating assistance rents. Households with incomes above the low-income limits must pay the full rent.

D. Reporting requirements

Owners will complete and submit to the Agency tenant certifications to document tenant income and eligibility.

Owners will complete and submit monthly to the Agency a project worksheet for operating assistance.

Owners must submit an annual planning budget to the Agency prior to the project's fiscal year.

CHAPTER 9: AGENCY MONITORING [7 CFR part 3560, subpart H]

9.1 INTRODUCTION

When borrowers accept Agency loan and grant funds, they agree to operate the property in accordance with program objectives and comply with program requirements established by the Agency. To ensure that borrowers meet these responsibilities, the Agency monitors borrower performance and takes action as needed to see that borrowers fulfill their responsibilities. The previous chapters have described the program requirements for multi-family housing projects and the Agency's procedures for implementing these requirements. This chapter describes the Agency's procedures for monitoring multi-family housing projects to ensure that these requirements are met.

Section 1 of this chapter provides an overview of Agency monitoring activities. Section 2 describes the procedures for Servicing Offices' monitoring activities. Section 3 discusses monitoring farm labor housing projects for compliance with program requirements. Section 4 provides an overview of State Office oversight of servicing activities. Section 5 provides for National Office initiatives and oversight.

9.2 AGENCY MONITORING OBJECTIVES AND PRIORITIES

A. Monitoring Objectives

The Agency will monitor project operations to:

- Ensure the project is managed in accordance with the goals and objectives of the Multi-Family Housing program;
- Preserve the value of the property;
- Ensure that the property is maintained in accordance with Agency requirements for providing housing that is decent, safe, sanitary, and affordable;
- Ensure that the project is operated at actual, necessary, and reasonable costs;
- Detect waste, fraud, and abuse;
- Verify compliance with occupancy requirements; and
- Ensure compliance with affirmative fair housing marketing requirements; Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973; the Age Discrimination Act of 1975; the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990; other applicable Federal, state, and local laws; and Agency requirements related to occupancy and tenant eligibility.

B. Monitoring Priorities

The Agency will monitor the performance of all borrowers. However, to make the best use of its available resources, the Agency will give priority in its monitoring efforts to borrowers with projects that have the greatest risk of poor performance or compliance violations. By focusing more attention on projects experiencing problems, the Agency can maximize the effect of its monitoring activities. Agency monitoring efforts involve three levels of activities:

- Routine monitoring. For projects with limited risk of performance or compliance problems, Loan Servicers will conduct routine monitoring. This level of monitoring involves regular checks of project compliance through reviews of regular borrower submissions and periodic on-site visits.
- Intensive monitoring. For projects with a higher risk of performance or compliance problems, Loan Servicers will conduct intensive monitoring. This level of monitoring involves not only regular checks of project compliance, but also more frequent borrower reporting and on-site visits by Agency staff.
- Quality control. While Loan Servicers conduct routine and intensive monitoring, State Offices are responsible for oversight of Field Office monitoring efforts. The National Office will establish a set of goals for Field Office performance. The State Office must use Multi-Family Housing Information System (MFIS), Automated Multi-Family Housing Accounting System (AMAS), and other monitoring reports to ensure that Field Offices are meeting these goals. Additional State Office oversight of Field Office performance is conducted through the State Internal Review (SIR) process.

9.3 BORROWER RESPONSIBILITIES

Borrowers are responsible for cooperating fully with the Agency staff performing monitoring activities. The Agency will notify borrowers in writing of any deficiencies or compliance violations identified during its review. Borrower must address these deficiencies within the correction period established by the Agency and described in the notice.

SECTION 1: OVERVIEW OF AGENCY MONITORING

9.4 AGENCY MONITORING REVIEWS

A. Key Parties in the Monitoring Process

Monitoring involves a range of staff from the Agency and throughout the department. Borrowers, their management agents, and tenants also need to be active participants in the monitoring process. Exhibit 9-1 lists the key parties in the monitoring process.

Exhibit 9-1
Key Participants in the Monitoring Process
USDA Staff	Other Parties
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Loan Servicer • Architectural/Engineering staff • Environmental staff • Civil Rights staff • Office of General Counsel (OGC) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Borrower • Management agent <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◊ Manager (On-site or Off-site) ◊ Supervisor ◊ Project staff (e.g., leasing, maintenance) • Tenants

1. USDA Staff

Effective monitoring of borrower performance requires a coordinated effort on the part of Agency staff from several areas. While Loan Servicers hold primary responsibility for monitoring borrowers and their projects, staff from other offices will often assist in performing monitoring reviews. For example, the State Architect/Engineer will often need to assist in performing physical inspections when Loan Servicers have specific concerns about a project. When performing reviews of the central office of a management agent with properties in several states, Loan Servicers will need to coordinate with their counterparts from the respective states. Finally, if monitoring activities identify significant deficiencies, Loan Servicers will often need to obtain the advice of staff from OGC.

2. Borrowers, Management Staff, and Tenants

While the Agency holds responsibility for performing monitoring activities, effective monitoring also requires the cooperation of borrowers and their agents. Their involvement during monitoring reviews is needed to provide access to records and to answer questions about project operations and procedures. Further, when deficiencies are discovered, borrowers, as well as the management agent, need to be informed so that prompt action can be taken to correct the problem. Borrowers notified of deficiencies are responsible for ensuring that the problems are corrected and for keeping the Agency informed about actions taken to address the problems.

Tenants are important participants in the monitoring process because they can provide valuable information about project operations.

B. Monitoring Methods and Activities

The Agency uses two basic types of monitoring methods:

- Desk reviews. These reviews involve examining project reports submitted by the borrower. Generally, Loan Servicers perform these reviews.
- On-site reviews. These reviews are conducted at the project and involve the inspection of both project conditions and records. Loan Servicers will often draw on the technical expertise of other staff to assist in performing these reviews.

The specific reviews that fall into each category are summarized in Exhibit 9-2. Each of these reviews is described in greater detail in subsequent sections of this chapter.

C. Key Documents and Sources of Information

The Agency relies on a range of sources to perform its monitoring activities. These sources are summarized in Exhibit 9-3.

1. Agency Records

The project case file and other Agency records provide information about the specific responsibilities of the borrower and also the operation of the project. As discussed in previous chapters, program requirements vary depending on the type of project and the type of financing the borrower received. The case file documents indicate the type of project and the specific terms of the Agency’s financing. For example, these documents specify the replacement reserve requirements and the owner’s return on investment. The case file also contains the management certification and management plan, which provide key information about project operations.

Agency records include the automated systems used to administer the program. AMAS and MFIS contain information that aid in monitoring projects.

Official records contain legal evidence of all transactions between the Agency and the persons with whom it conducts business. For information about the required contents and organization of the borrower case file, see RD Instruction 2033-A.

2. Project Records

Project records are documents that provide information about the on-going operation of the project. Notice of Payment Due Report (Form RD 3560-29), Multiple Family Housing Project Budget/Utility Allowance (Form RD 3560-7), and Tenant Certification (Form RD 3560-8) are examples. Loan Servicers examine these records during monitoring reviews to evaluate project performance and compliance.

3. Other Sources

In addition to site visits conducted by Loan Servicers or other staff to observe project operations, the Agency also draws on other sources to inform monitoring activities. Substantiated reports by tenants or community members noting inadequate conditions or improper practices are examples. Reports of performance problems in other states involving the same borrower or agent are also a source of concern. This type of information does not necessarily confirm that a problem is present, but indicates a need for further review of a project's operations.

9.5 PLANNING MONITORING ACTIVITIES

Planning monitoring activities involves scheduling routine reviews and determining the extent to which in-depth monitoring needs to be conducted. Loan Servicers and State Office staff should review annually their plan to monitor their portfolio. Exhibit 9-2 indicates the reviews that are performed routinely and those classified as in-depth reviews.

A. Routine Monitoring

Each year, Loan Servicers must schedule routine monitoring reviews and designate the staff that will perform these functions. These activities—together with the regular program administration activities performed by Loan Servicers—ensure that all projects receive a basic level of oversight each year to check for evidence of deficiencies or potential problems.

In scheduling these activities, Loan Servicers need to ensure that the appropriate staff is available to perform these reviews. Annual physical reviews should be planned to coincide wherever possible with other activities that take staff to the vicinity of the projects. In cases where access to individual units is required for inspection, the borrower will be required to provide adequate notice to the tenants.

B. In-Depth Monitoring

When planning monitoring activities for the year, Loan Servicers must determine which projects warrant in-depth reviews and the types of reviews needed. In-depth reviews are done periodically to check for continued project compliance. These reviews are also performed more frequently for projects experiencing distress or when there is clear evidence of compliance concerns.

Loan Servicers may schedule these reviews to take place at any time during the year. They may also need to be scheduled on short notice during the year in response to evidence of problems. When scheduling these reviews, Loan Servicers will need to coordinate with the other staff participating in the review (e.g., architectural staff).

9.6 PERFORMING MONITORING REVIEWS

A. Desk Reviews

Desk reviews are usually performed solely by the Loan Servicer and require little coordination with other staff. Performing these reviews generally involves three basic steps:

- Preparing and reviewing background material. Loan Servicers should gather the project case file and assemble past reports and other relevant records. In addition to reviewing these documents, Loan Servicers should review the relevant screens in AMAS and MFIS to gain an up-to-date understanding of the project's status and potential concerns.
- Examining the borrower's monthly and quarterly reports. Loan Servicers then review the borrower's monthly or quarterly reports following the specific instructions in Section 2 of this chapter or using the instructions that accompany the Agency's review form. Loan Servicers must make every effort to complete the review within the established time period. If additional information is needed to complete the review, Loan Servicers should promptly contact the borrower to request additional information.
- Notifying borrower of any findings. If the review reveals deficiencies or compliance violations, the borrower must be promptly notified. The notice must describe the deficiencies and a period for corrective action. If a third party is involved in financing or providing subsidy to the property and a formal arrangement exists with this third party, the Agency will provide a copy of the notice to the third party source to share information concerning the Agency's findings.

Refer to Chapter 4 of this Handbook for details concerning financial reports.

B. On-site Reviews

On-site reviews take more preparation and planning than desk reviews. Loan Servicers must follow the four steps below when performing on-site reviews. The actions at each step will vary depending on the type of review. The specific actions for individual reviews are discussed in Section 3 of this chapter.

1. Preparing for the Visit

Loan Servicers should notify the borrower at least 2 weeks prior to a visit. The notice should specify the types of preparations (if any) that the borrower must complete to assist with the review. The Agency retains the authority to visit the project without prior notice to observe conditions and operations and to conduct on-site reviews without the presence of the borrower or the borrower's agent.

The Loan Servicer should also coordinate with other staff who will participate in the review to clarify assignments and responsibilities. In cases where access to individual units is required for inspection, the borrower will be required to provide adequate notice to the tenants.

The Loan Servicer should also review the relevant Agency records and project reports to learn the project's current status and identify potential issues that should receive special attention during the review. Finally, the Loan Servicer should fill in the background information items on the monitoring instrument or reporting form.

2. Conducting the Visit

When conducting an on-site visit, Loan Servicers should conduct an entrance interview with the manager and borrower, if available. During this meeting, the Loan Servicers should explain the purpose of the review, describe the major activities, and indicate the type of cooperation that will be needed from project staff.

When conducting the review, Loan Servicers should follow the procedures described in Section 3 of this chapter and the instructions that accompany the monitoring tool. Loan Servicers must carefully record their observations to ensure that problems are not missed or incorrectly identified.

Upon completing the review, the Loan Servicers should briefly consolidate their results and meet with the manager or borrower to present the initial findings from the review. The Loan Servicer should highlight any findings and/or violations at this meeting.

3. Notifying the Borrower

The Loan Servicers must prepare a written description of the review results for the project case file. They must also issue a letter to the borrower summarizing the conclusions of the review and indicate any follow-up actions the borrower is required to take. In addition, the results of the review should be forwarded to other offices working with this borrower or agent.

This letter is sent to the borrower within 30 days of the site visit or inspection. This letter requests the borrower to respond with procedures and time frames for correcting the noted deficiencies within 30 days. The purpose of letter is to:

- Notify the borrower of review findings; and
- Provide time frames for resolving deficiencies.

As is the case with desk reviews, if a third party is involved in financing or providing subsidy to the property and a formal arrangement exists with this third party, the Agency will provide a copy of the notice to the third party source to share information concerning the Agency's findings.

4. Follow-Up Activities

If a review identifies deficiencies that require borrower action, the Agency needs to conduct follow-up actions as appropriate to ensure that the deficiencies are corrected. For information about findings and default situations, see HB-3-3560, Chapter 10. A copy of the letter is placed in the borrower's case file and must be entered on MFIS.

9.7 PROJECT CLASSIFICATION

The project classification system allows the Agency to focus on those projects that Loan Servicers consider truly at risk. The following paragraphs provide a brief description of how the Agency views the classification of the portfolio.

Loans may be reclassified in MFIS as findings and violations are determined or as project conditions improve.

CLASS D PROJECTS

Class D projects are in default and may be taken into inventory, be lost to the program, or cause the displacement of tenants. Defaults can be monetary or non-monetary. For information about monetary and non-monetary defaults, please refer to HB-3-3560, Chapter 10.

Projects in non-monetary default are those where a Loan Servicer has notified the borrower of a violation using the Agency's three processing letter process, as described in this chapter, and the borrower has not addressed the violation to the Loan Servicer's satisfaction within 60 days of the first servicing letter. The Loan Servicer, State Office, and National Office should be aware that the project is in jeopardy and should be available to provide further servicing assistance.

CLASS C PROJECTS

Class C projects are projects with identified findings or violations. They include projects with violations where Handbook Letter 301 (3560) has been issued but 60 days have not passed. It is important to note that while the presence of a finding or violation is a normal occurrence in portfolio management, Loan Servicers will be concerned when findings and violations are carried for an extended period of time with no indication of resolution efforts. Projects under this classification for an extended period of time will alert Loan Servicers to one or more of the following:

1. There may be workload or staffing issues related to resolving problems;
2. Findings may need to be elevated to violations to facilitate effective servicing; and
3. Assistance from the State Office or the National Office may be necessary to address the problem

CLASS B PROJECTS

A Class B designation indicates that the Agency has taken servicing steps and the borrower is cooperating to resolve identified findings or violations with the use of a work-out plan.

CLASS A PROJECTS

Class A projects have no unresolved findings or violations.

SECTION 2: SERVICE OFFICE MONITORING

9.8 POST-OCCUPANCY REVIEW (90-DAY VISIT)

A. Purpose of the Review

The post-occupancy review verifies borrower compliance with program requirements for project occupancy during initial lease-up and looks at whether the procedures described in the Management Plan and Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan are being followed. Specifically, the review examines how borrowers:

- Seek eligible tenants;
- Determine tenant eligibility;
- Determine the appropriate rent;
- Set up appropriate accounts; and
- Use initial operating capital

B. Key Areas Examined

The Loan Servicer examines the borrower's rent-up activities as detailed below.

- Project records. These include the actions that the borrower takes to attract qualified tenants, determine tenant eligibility, and determine correct rental rate. The project's management plan and Affirmative Fair Housing Market Plan contain the borrower's procedures for tenant selection and for determining the rental rate.
- Tenant files. The borrower must maintain files for each tenant. Tenant files must include such information as income verification, the lease, and documentation showing how tenant eligibility was established and how the rental rate was determined.

To complete the review, the Loan Servicer will also need the project's waiting list (if applicable) and budget. These documents will be used to determine if the borrower is in compliance with the occupancy requirements set forth in Chapter 6 and the approved unit rental rates established in the project budget.

C. Timing

The post-occupancy review is conducted within 90 days after project operations begin.

D. Key Staff

Loan Servicers perform the post-occupancy review.

E. Preparing for the Review

The Loan Servicer should complete the following steps before going to the project site to perform the review:

- Step 1. Determine if outstanding issues, areas of concern, or indicators of noncompliance exist by reviewing the borrower case file and MFIS.
- Step 2. Notify borrower, in writing, of upcoming review. The borrower should receive Handbook Letter 202 (3560), Notification Letter for Supervisory Visit at least 2 weeks prior to the review date to ensure that the necessary records and staff are available. Modify the letter as needed for the Post Occupancy Review. The borrower will, in turn, notify the tenants of the scheduled inspection.
- Step 3. Obtain the Multi-Family Housing Project Supervisory Visit form from MFIS

F. Completing the Review

The Loan Servicer should use the worksheet for the Multi-Family Housing Occupancy Review and the Worksheet for MFH Individual Tenant File Review portions of the Multi-Family Housing Project Supervisory Visit form for guidance. The borrower will have available the documentation requested by the staff member. The borrower may choose to be present during the review. The borrower's choice not to be present does not preclude the staff person from performing the review.

To complete the Post-Occupancy Review, the Loan Servicer must complete the following steps:

- Review the Management Plan and Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan. This documentation is evidence that the borrower was aware of the procedures that were to be followed during initial rent-up.
- Review tenant files, waiting lists (if applicable), and budget. The tenant files reviewed should include a sample of accepted and rejected applicants. The reviewer must determine the following:
 - ◊ If requested documentation is present and adequate to perform the review;
 - ◊ Borrower's compliance with established procedures for marketing the project, qualifying tenants, determining rents, using waiting lists, and rejecting applicants.
- Summarize the occupancy review by completing the Occupancy section on the first page of the Multi-Family Housing Project Supervisory Visit form.

G. Exit Conference

Conduct an exit interview with the borrower to discuss the results of the review, possible cause of deficiencies, and required solutions.

H. MFIS

Enter the results of the post-occupancy review in MFIS.

I. Follow-Up

If the review reveals deficiencies and/or compliance violations, prepare a letter to the borrower describing the deficiencies and a period for corrective action. If the borrower does not respond within the established timeframes, Handbook Letter 301 (3560), as described in Chapter 10 of HB-3-3560, is to be sent within 15 days from the deadline initially given.

9.9 ANNUAL PHYSICAL INSPECTION

A. Purpose

Maintaining the physical condition of the secured property is the borrower's responsibility. The Agency Loan Servicers monitor the physical condition of the project to ensure that the property maintains its value and that tenants have housing that is decent, safe, and sanitary.

B. Key Areas Examined

The Loan Servicer will inspect the project's grounds, exteriors, common areas, 5 percent of the occupied units (or at least two units), and all vacant units. A full physical inspection must be performed when the results of this review indicate that the project is not being maintained in accordance with the physical standards for the program.

C. Timing

Each project must receive an annual inspection unless a full physical inspection and supervisory visit are due.

D. Key Staff

Trained and experienced Loan Servicing staff, assisted by the State Architect as needed performs the annual physical inspection. An experienced Loan Servicer should accompany inexperienced staff during their first two visits to the property.

E. Preparing for the Review

The Loan Servicer should complete the following steps before going to the project site to perform the review:

- Step 1. Determine if outstanding issues, areas of concern, or indicators of noncompliance with Agency requirements exist by reviewing the borrower case file, previous physical reviews, most recent inspection report, tenant complaints (if applicable), and MFIS.

- Step 2. Notify borrower, in writing, of up-coming inspection. The borrower must receive Handbook Letter 202 (3560), Notification Letter for Supervisory Visit at least 2 weeks prior to the review date to ensure that the necessary records and staff are available. Modify the letter as needed for the annual physical inspection. The borrower will, in turn, notify the tenants of the scheduled inspection.
- Step 3. Obtain the Multi-Family Housing Project Supervisory Visit form from MFIS.

F. Completing the Review

The Loan Servicer should use the Worksheet for MFH Exterior Physical Standards and the Worksheet for MFH Interior Physical Standards. The Loan Servicer will complete the following steps:

- Examine the project's grounds, exteriors, common areas, 5 percent of the project units (or at least two units) plus all vacant units.
- Review the extent of borrower compliance with the physical accessibility requirements. Review the ability of the project's current budgeting and capital planning to implement any improvements identified by the borrower's transition plan. For information on transition plans, see Chapter 3.
- Complete all parts of Form RD 3560-11, Multi-Family Housing Physical Inspection Report.
- Photograph any deficiencies noted during the examination.

Findings and Violations: The reviewer reports a finding or violation on Form RD 3560-11 as those items that were previously identified as a deficiency or a weakness.

A "finding" is a failure to meet physical standards that should be corrected through routine procedures. A "violation" is a finding that is elevated either by its severity or the Agency's inability to obtain a resolution from routine servicing methods.

If a "finding" or "violation" is identified in any sub-item of one of Form RD 3560-11's 14 categories, the Loan Servicer will determine if the overall rating of that category should be coded a "finding" or "violation." A category-level violation should be recorded only if the Loan Servicer intends to pursue the problem through the three-servicing-letter process. Elevating a finding to a violation will have an effect on the classification.

- Conduct an exit conference with the borrower. The exit conference allows the borrower to ask questions and to prepare an appropriate response to the findings and/or violations noted in the report. In this meeting the Loan Servicer and the borrower can discuss the requirements and time frames for resolving each finding and/or violation. Identify any Health and Safety Issues, which must be resolved within 10 days.

G. MFIS

Enter the results of the annual physical inspection into MFIS.

H. Follow-Up

If the inspection reveals deficiencies or compliance violations, prepare a letter to the borrower describing the deficiencies and a period for corrective action. Issues of health and safety are to be resolved within 10 days. If the borrower does not respond within the established time frames, Handbook Letter 301 (3560) is to be sent within 15 days from the deadline initially given. The letter requires that health and safety issues be resolved within 10 days.

9.10 TRIENNIAL SUPERVISORY VISIT

A. Purpose

A Supervisory Visit consists of four components – a full physical inspection, an occupancy review, a management review and a compliance review.

Adequate maintenance is a crucial element in providing housing that is decent, safe, and sanitary, and ensuring that environmental and accessibility requirements are met. The Agency regularly conducts full physical inspections of its properties to ensure that they meet established program standards.

The purpose of the occupancy review component is to determine the borrower's continued compliance with the occupancy requirements for the project. This review also includes an examination of unit rents to ensure that they are being charged in accordance with the approved budget.

The management review is a detailed analysis of the project's fiscal operations. This review enables the Agency to determine the project's financial and operational viability.

The purpose of the compliance review is for Agency staff to review the borrower's compliance with the Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan and/or the Equal Opportunity requirements of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Civil Rights Act of 1968 as amended by the Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975.

B. Key Areas Examined

The Loan Servicer will inspect the project's grounds, exteriors, common areas, and a sample of dwelling units. The Agency will select 20 percent of the units in the project or at least two to inspect.

The Loan Servicer reviews the borrower's occupancy procedures, rent charge calculations, the project's financial systems and controls, along with its maintenance and preventive maintenance programs.

When conducting a compliance review at a project and at the office of the borrower or management agent office, the Loan Servicer will focus on the following areas:

- Marketing procedures;
- Rental policies;
- Waiting list;
- Project and unit accessibility;
- Eviction policy; and
- Other operating policies, as relevant.

C. Timing

Supervisory Visits must be conducted at least once every 3 years, and should be conducted more frequently for projects with management that is unfamiliar with Agency requirements, or for projects experiencing occupancy or operational difficulties.

D. Key Staff

Trained and experienced field staff, assisted by the State Architect as needed, perform supervisory visits. An experienced Loan Servicer should accompany inexperienced staff during their first two visits to the property.

To conduct a compliance review, the Loan Servicer must go through training and obtain a special certification; therefore, only certified State Office or Field Office Loan Servicers can complete the Civil Rights and Fair Housing review requirements.

E. Preparing for the Supervisory Visit

The Loan Servicer should complete the following steps before going to the project site, or the office of the borrower or management agent to perform the Supervisory Visit:

- Step 1. Review MFIS and the borrower's case file to determine if outstanding issues, areas of concern, or indicators of noncompliance with Agency requirements and Civil Rights laws exist. The following documents should be included in this review:
 - ◇ Physical inspection reports
 - ◇ Tenants complaints (if applicable)

- ◇ Current Management Plan
 - ◇ Borrower's operating regulations (e.g. grounds for eviction)
 - ◇ Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan
 - ◇ Work Out Plan (if applicable)
 - ◇ Quarterly/monthly reports
 - ◇ Current Annual Budget
 - ◇ Current Balance Sheet
 - ◇ Current Notice of Payment Due Report
- Step 2. Notify the borrower, in writing, of the upcoming Supervisory Visit. The borrower should receive handbook Letter 202 (3560) Notification Letter for Supervisory Visit, within 2 weeks of the visit to ensure the necessary records and staff is available. Since access to individual units will be required for inspection, the borrower or management agent must provide adequate notice to the tenants.
 - Step 3. Obtain Multi-Family Housing Project Supervisory Visit form from MFIS.

F. Completing the Review

Physical Inspection:

The Loan Servicer should use the Worksheet for MFH Exterior Physical Standards and the Worksheet for MFH Interior Physical Standards and Tenant Interviews portions of the Multi-Family Housing Project Supervisory Visit form from MFIS for guidance.

To complete the review, the Loan Servicer will:

- Examine the project's grounds, exteriors, common areas, and 20 percent of the totals units (or at least six units).
- Complete all parts of the Form RD 3560-11
- Review the extent of borrower compliance with the physical accessibility requirements of civil rights laws. Review the ability of the project's current budgeting and capital planning to implement any improvements identified by the borrower's transition plan.
- Photograph any deficiencies noted during the examination.

Occupancy Review:

The Loan Servicer should complete the Worksheet for MFH Occupancy Review portion of the Multi-Family Housing Project Supervisory Visit form from MFIS.

To perform the occupancy review, the Loan Servicer must complete the following steps:

- Review project records including marketing materials, applications, and waiting lists. The Loan Servicer should determine whether the marketing materials indicate that the project is complying with the Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan. The Loan Servicer should also determine whether the applications and waiting list records indicate that the borrower is complying with tenant selection requirements.
- Review tenant files, which should include such information as income verifications, back-up documentation, the leases, and documentation showing how the rental rates were determined. The sample files should include accepted and rejected applicants. The reviewer must determine whether:
 - ◇ The borrower is maintaining adequate documentation; and
 - ◇ The borrower is complying with program requirements for marketing the project, qualifying tenants, determining rents, using waiting lists, and rejecting applicants.
- The Loan Servicer must complete the Occupancy summary section on page 1 of the Multi-Family Housing Project Supervisory Visit form.

Management Review:

The Loan Servicer should complete the Worksheet for MFH Project Management Review portion of the Multi-Family Housing Project Supervisory Visit form from MFIS.

To perform the management review, the Loan Servicer will review the following:

- Financial compliance and condition and rent collection practices;
- Accounts receivable and accounts payable;
- Reserve accounts;
- Capital planning;
- Cash control; and
- Cost controls.

HB-2-3560

The Loan Servicer must complete the Project Management summary section on page 1 of the Multi-Family Housing Project Supervisory Visit form.

Compliance Review:

To perform the compliance review, the Loan Servicer will:

- Review the management plan to determine project management's method of informing tenants and applicants regarding requests for reasonable accommodations.
- Review the lease agreement, application, and other documentation used by the borrower to determine if policies and procedures represent barriers to occupancy
- If a tenant is an ineligible occupant of a fully accessible unit, determine if there is an executed lease attachment that requires the tenant to move if an individual needing the handicapped features applies for occupancy
- Visually inspect the project to determine if there are physical barriers, and compare it to the self-evaluation and transition plan to determine if those barriers are addressed in the plan and are scheduled to be removed.
- Where transition plans are scheduled to remove barriers over more than a one-year period, review the transition plan and the most recently approved budget to ensure that borrower budgeting and the project's financial condition is supportive of the transition plan as written. Transition plans should include the potential cost of removing identified barriers.
- Interview tenants to determine if the borrower has provided information and made reasonable accommodations upon request by the tenant
- Interview tenants in the fully accessible units to determine if the tenant has need of the accessibility features of the unit and is an eligible occupant

G. Exit Conference

Upon completing the supervisory visit, the Loan Servicer should conduct an exit conference with the borrower to address findings, cause of findings, and possible resolutions. Advise borrower of any Health and Safety Issues, which must be addressed within 10 days.

H. MFIS

Enter the results of the inspection into MFIS.

I. Borrower Notification of Review Results

The Loan Servicer must prepare a written description of the review results for the project case file. They must also issue a letter to the borrower summarizing the conclusions of the supervisory visit and indicate specific follow-up actions the borrower is required to take. In addition, the results of the supervisory visit should be forwarded to other RD offices working with this borrower or agent.

This letter is sent to the borrower within 30 days of the supervisory visit. This letter requests the borrower to respond with procedures and time frames for correcting the noted deficiencies within 30 days. However, if the noted findings involve issues of health and safety, the borrower is required to resolve those specific issues within 10 days of the letter.

If the results of a physical inspection indicate a finding or violation pertaining to “Common Area Accessibility,” “Fully Accessible Units,” or other relevant physical or accessibility standards, the Loan Servicer should include the specific language in communications with the borrower as shown below in Exhibit 9-4.

Exhibit 9-4
Sample Language – Civil Rights Violations
Detected During Physical Inspections

“Recent Agency monitoring of the subject project indicates that you are not currently meeting your responsibilities under applicable Civil Rights laws. Since project operating or reserve account funds may be required to address this situation, we request that you advise the Agency of how you intend to comply with the law. In addition to any penalties, liabilities, or loss of tax credits that may result from legal action brought against you by third parties, continued noncompliance may result in your ineligibility to receive further loan funds from the Agency. You failed to meet the following MFH physical standard(s):

1. Common Area Accessibility (Specify)
2. Fully Accessible Units (Specify)
3. Other (Specify).”

If the results of the supervisory visit indicate noncompliance with other Civil Rights laws the Loan Servicer should also include the specific language regarding noncompliance as shown in Exhibit 9-5.

Exhibit 9-5
Sample Language to Use When Compliance
Reviews Uncover Violations to Civil Rights Laws

“Recent Agency monitoring of the subject project indicates that you are not currently meeting your responsibilities under applicable Civil Rights laws. Since project operating or reserve account funds may be required to address this situation, we request that you advise the Agency of how you intend to comply with the law. In addition to any penalties, liabilities, or loss of tax credits that may result from legal action brought against you by third parties, continued noncompliance may result in your ineligibility to receive further loan funds from the Agency. You are in noncompliance with the following: (Specify).”

J. Follow Up

If the borrower does not respond within the established timeframes, Handbook Letter 301 (3560) in Chapter 10 of HB-3-3560 is to be sent to the borrower within 15 days from the deadlines initially given.

If a third party is involved in financing or providing subsidy to the property and a formal arrangement exists with this third party, the Agency will provide a copy of the notice to the third party source to share information concerning the Agency’s findings.

Servicing Offices must notify the State Civil Rights Coordinator/Manager (SCRC/M) if borrowers fail to bring themselves into compliance with Civil Rights Laws or fail to submit an acceptable transition plan. The State Director will forward the issue of noncompliance to the National Office Civil Rights Staff. The National Office Civil Rights Staff will notify the State Director if further review and processing of the finding will either resolve the finding or require that it be forwarded to the National Office Civil Rights Staff or the Justice Department to resolve the noncompliance issue. The SCRC/M will notify the State Office and the Servicing Office of the disposition of the finding of noncompliance. The SCRC/M will notify the State Office and the Servicing Office of the disposition of the finding of noncompliance. HB-2-3560

SECTION 3: AGENCY MONITORING FOR LABOR HOUSING PROJECTS

9.11 OFF-FARM LABOR HOUSING

Off-Farm Labor Housing projects should be monitored in accordance with the requirements established in this chapter for other multi-family housing projects.

9.12 ON-FARM LABOR HOUSING

On-Farm Labor Housing projects should be reviewed by the Agency at least once every three years. During the monitoring visit, Loan Servicers should review:

A. Eligibility Documentation

Borrowers should properly document that each resident is eligible to live in the On-Farm Labor Housing unit. At a minimum the borrower should have an executed lease or employment contract with each tenant and each tenant should meet the eligibility requirements established for On-Farm Labor Housing tenants in Section 9 of Chapter 6 of this Handbook.

B. Financial Information

The borrower must document that the on-farm labor housing unit(s) are being operating in a nonprofit manner. At a minimum the borrower should develop an operating budget that demonstrates revenues equal expenses and the borrower is not receiving a return from the property.

C. Operating Plan

The review of the operating plan should also ensure that the property is being managed in a nonprofit manner and that tenant requests and grievances are being handled in a timely manner and in accordance with the management plan.

D. Loan Agreement

The review of the loan agreement should ensure that the borrower is in compliance with the agreement made to the Agency to provide adequate housing to the employees in the borrower's employment and not to charge rent, unless otherwise approved by the Agency.

E. Security Deposits

If the borrower has charged security deposits to the tenants, then the review should ensure that security deposits are being managed in accordance with state and/or local law.

F. Payment of Taxes and Insurance

The review of taxes and insurance should ensure that taxes are being paid in a timely manner and at the very minimum to ensure that the borrower has adequate insurance in place to cover replacement of the property in the event of a loss.

SECTION 4: STATE OFFICE OVERSIGHT OF SERVICING ACTIVITIES

Once the Servicing Office has conducted routine oversight and reviewed its portfolio, the State Office has a responsibility for additional oversight in a broad sense. The goals and responsibilities of State Offices are described below.

The State Office must use MFIS as the database for maintaining and analyzing project financial information as well as recording and tracking project supervisory activity and servicing efforts.

9.13 PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT GOALS

Proper asset management of the Agency's multi-family housing portfolio begins with a thorough evaluation of the entire portfolio to obtain a clear understanding of existing and potential problems. Close monitoring, timely follow-up, and a consistent administration of the regulations will be beneficial in the resolution of problems and will contribute to the stability of the program.

Staff, at all levels, need to be better prepared to address the challenges relating to their portfolio. Staff must be provided with training, resources, and support to meet these challenges. The mission and goals, and plan of action for effective loan servicing and portfolio management are described below. For tracking adherence to these goals, State Offices should look at the appropriate MFIS or AMAS report unless specified otherwise.

1. RECEIVERSHIP PROPERTIES. Reduce Receivership Periods to No More Than 12 Months

(Measurement Tool: MFIS TRK 2000 – Servicing Effort Tracking Report)

The oversight process of a property held in receivership by the Agency requires close monitoring and supervision by the National Office, State Office, and Servicing Office. This will include the review of property financial records such as monthly reports, year-end reports, and annual audits. Additionally, the staff is responsible for review and approval of the payment of certain expenses, such as management fee, taxes and insurance.

Receivership properties may have special needs and may need to be serviced within the parameters of a workout plan. Others will require sales and/or other liquidation plans. To transition out of the receivership, it will be necessary to focus efforts on obtaining new substitute general partners, transfers of ownership, or to liquidate accounts.

States should input servicing data into the comment section of MFIS to provide updated status.

2. INVENTORY PROPERTIES: Reduce Inventory Property Holding Periods to No More Than 12 Months

(Measurement Tool: States will input comments to update the status of inventory properties in MFIS on a monthly basis. The National Office will review the status of inventory properties by compiling AMAS Reports and then reviewing MFIS TRK 2000.)

State Offices must review their inventory property portfolio and take necessary actions to effectively dispose of these properties. To accomplish this, all efforts should be given to marketing the properties, including reducing the price, sealed bids, or sale as a non-program property. All inventory properties should be managed and made ready for sale in the most expeditious manner using the authorities in 7 CFR part 3560, subpart K.

The National Office should be contacted for assistance in the sale of a property experiencing marketing difficulties.

3. DELINQUENT LOANS: Maintain a Delinquency Rate of Two Percent or Less

(Measurement Tool: AMAS RC 545 Report)

All states with delinquency rates that exceed two percent are required to work with borrowers and take appropriate servicing actions to reduce their delinquency rates to two percent or less.

Borrowers who are consistently delinquent require aggressive servicing and counseling regarding late payments. If long-term delinquency is the result of pending litigation for liquidation, appropriate officials should be notified and encouraged to expedite such litigation. When states are experiencing difficulties with litigation officials or when the loan is part of a long-term work-out agreement, the National Office should be contacted for assistance.

A number of long-term delinquencies are the result of inactive accounts with loan balances remaining after the asset is liquidated (i.e., foreclosure, sale, or transfer for less than the debt, compromise offer, bankruptcy, etc.). These accounts need to be settled due to their negative impact on the overall multi-family housing delinquency rate. State Offices are to immediately request assistance of OGC, the Assistant U.S. Attorney, and/or the National Office when accounts in this category are determined to exist.

Any state with average delinquency rates above the two percent national average will be closely monitored and contacted by the National Office to determine what efforts are being made to reduce the delinquency, and to identify whether assistance or training is needed. Delinquency status reports may be required from those states identified as having problems. Similarly, any states exhibiting a trend in increasing delinquencies may be required to submit an explanation or a plan of action. Any instances of Servicing Offices holding payments and not processing them in a timely manner must be discontinued immediately. All payments are to be processed when received.

4. OPERATING BUDGETS/UTILITY ALLOWANCES: Take Appropriate Action on All Budgets/ Utility Allowances Prior to the Beginning of a Project's Fiscal Year

(Measurement Tool: MFIS TRK 3000 – Tracking Step Summary Report)

Budgets are to be reviewed and approved on MFIS prior to the start of the borrower's fiscal year. If not received or if unacceptable, a finding and a follow up date must be entered in MFIS. Loan Servicers must take action on all budgets within 60 days of receipt.

5. ANNUAL FINANCIAL REVIEWS: Complete All Year-End Financial Reviews Within the Required Time Frame

(Measurement Tool: MFIS TRK 3000 – Tracking Step Summary Report)

The “Actuals” listed on Form RD 3560-7 and Form RD 3560-10, and the engagement are to be reviewed and any findings entered on MFIS within 60 days of receipt. The borrower is to be notified of the results of the review and MFIS is to be updated accordingly. If financial information is not received or is unacceptable, a finding and a follow-up date must be entered in MFIS.

6. ANNUAL PHYSICAL INSPECTIONS: Complete All Required Annual Physical Inspections.

(Measurement Tool: MFIS TRK 3000 – Tracking Step Summary Report)

The purpose of the annual physical inspection is to determine whether or not there are problems that may require immediate attention. In addition, a determination should be made if the exterior and common areas are accessible as required by applicable Federal law. All findings and follow-ups must be entered into MFIS.

7. SUPERVISORY VISITS: Complete All Required Supervisory Visits and Compliance Reviews.

(Measurement Tool: MFIS TRK 3000 – Tracking Step Summary Report)

The Supervisory Visit is the Agency's primary tool to complete in-depth analysis of the borrower operations with regard to Management Plan/Agreement, Fair Housing, tenant eligibility, file review, budget compliance, building security and maintenance. The borrower is to be notified of findings and deficiencies and given a timetable to correct all problems. Any summary level findings must be entered into MFIS.

8. STATE OFFICE OVERSIGHT OF MFIS DATA: State Office responsibility is to select and review 5 percent of projects receiving the Supervisory Visit during the year and to ensure that all the data elements in MFIS have been input.

State Office staff must continuously monitor supervisory activities and borrower status to ensure that each project is receiving timely and effective supervision. MFIS will be used to accomplish these monitoring responsibilities.

When used correctly, MFIS enables the Agency to effectively manage the multi-family housing portfolio and ensure the proper use of Federal housing resources. Staff at National, State, and Servicing Office levels has immediate access to portfolio information in order to make better program management decisions, and more effectively deploy limited resources. With the implementation of MFIS, the ability to review portfolio activity now extends to borrowers and management agents as well as servicing office jurisdictions.

State and Servicing Offices are required to input the current status of all servicing actions into MFIS. The State Office must monitor the MFIS activities of Servicing Offices to ensure that data are accurate, consistent, timely, and complete and that regulatory authorities are effectively used to manage the portfolio and determine that Agency resources are effectively used to obtain compliance.

At least quarterly, State Offices must print out and review the MFIS project classification report. For projects classified with a D or C, State Offices must review the project's supervisory and servicing status on MFIS.

National Office will issue monthly reports on status of portfolio and semi-annual reports on the state's accomplishment on servicing goals.

SECTION 5: NATIONAL OFFICE INITIATIVES AND OVERSIGHT

9.14 WAGE AND BENEFIT MATCHING

States are required to obtain wage and benefit matching agreements with State Departments of Labor (SDOL) and to fully implement and utilize income matching of tenants applying for assistance and rental subsidies under the Multi-Family Housing programs.

State Office staff will:

- Execute a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) or other appropriate agreement with the state agency charged with administering information required to be kept by the US Department of Labor (DOL) on wage earnings and benefits. The purpose of the MOU is to improve the controls over income certifications and subsidy payment accuracy by providing an independent source for verifying incomes of participants. Before entering into such agreements, states are reminded that the advice and consent of the Office of the General Counsel (OGC) must be obtained.
- Aggressively pursue implementation of MOUs. If assistance is needed to overcome implementation barriers such as statutory prohibitions, automation issues, or a lack of cooperation from the state agency, the Deputy Administrator for Multi-Family Housing Programs should be contacted.
- Approve computer-matching arrangements. The administrative oversight required for a fully interactive wage and benefit-matching system involves considerable resources to meet the stringent administrative oversight required by law.
 1. Where two or more Agency automated systems are to be linked to merge data, the advice and consent of the Deputy Administrator, Multi-Family Housing must be obtained prior to implementation of such a system. (Example: Rural Development may arrange to access a State Wage and Benefit Information Collection Agency's database and pull up information on Agency hardware platforms. Rural Development can then manually compare the results on computer screen or printout with Agency data.)
 2. When the data from two or more agencies is being merged to facilitate efficient comparison between incomes and benefits reported via use of automated software routines comparing database records, approval by the Department of Agriculture's Data Integrity Board is required. In addition, publication of the action in the Federal Register and notification to Congress is required.
- Determine when and how often to conduct wage and benefit matches. State Offices will establish routines to require and ensure that wage matches are performed each year on at least 10 percent of all initial and subsequent tenant certifications of those households earning income, for those residents scheduled to be interviewed prior to conducting supervisory visits, and for projects where the supervisory visits reveal significant discrepancies. (Normally, wage and benefit matches will not exceed a 20 percent level.)

Other incidences when wage and benefit matches may be obtained, but are not required, are for tenant households who are moving into projects for the first time, for tenants or applicants claiming zero or unreasonably low incomes, and for existing tenants where the management agent or the servicing official deems wage matching appropriate.

- Wage and benefit matching for MFH programs includes Labor Housing residents whose eligibility or receipt of subsidy is determined in whole or in part on wage and benefit data.
- Establish notification routines for initiating MFH wage and benefit matching. States may use the notices to borrowers, management agents, and residents, set out in Appendix 4 of this Handbook, as guides in implementing the wage and benefit matching system for MFH programs.
- Identify illegal or improper assistance and service suspected or confirmed abuses in the MFH program. If the DOL verification and investigation reveals that a tenant has submitted inaccurate or false information regarding household income, the servicing staff is required to notify the borrower of the findings. The borrower must attempt to correct the tenant certification and/or seek restitution of any improperly received rental assistance. See Appendix 4 of this Chapter for guidance in notifying the borrower of any discrepancies discovered. The borrower will provide the tenant a notice of lease violation and an opportunity for repayment. If the tenant refuses or is unable to repay, the borrower will initiate eviction proceedings. If the tenant moves out of the unit without repaying, the borrower will provide the Agency all relevant tenant records so the Agency can begin the process of recouping the improper assistance through the use of US Treasury offsets

State Offices can contact the Deputy Chief Financial Office, Program Reporting Branch of the St. Louis Office to request assistance in further servicing and collection processing.

- The Agency will confirm that the benefits received under the current tenant certification period are accurate. The Agency does not intend to require past tenant certifications to be reviewed for accuracy by wage and benefit matching unless there is evidence of substantial abuse and the amount of the past-unauthorized assistance exceeds $1,000. In addition, any recovery efforts must not begin without first having been assured that tenants have had the opportunity to review the accuracy of the information and appeal any disagreements in accordance with the provisions of CFR 3560.160.

Report Quarterly to the National Office on State’s progress in obtaining MOUs.

States listed in Attachment 9-A that do not have MOUs in place (except those where State Law prohibits wage matching) must submit quarterly progress reports on actions taken to implement an MOU by memorandum or e-mail to the National Office, Multi-Family Housing Portfolio Management Division (MFHPMD).

9.15 RENEWAL RENTAL ASSISTANCE (RA) UNITS

A. Allocation

The allocation for RA renewal units (see Exhibits 9-6, 9-7 and 9-8) have been approved for FY 2005 based on summarized data obtained from Servicing and State Office surveys. The allocations of the RA units will be loaded in AMAS as follows:

RA Units Expiring during:	RA Units loaded into AMAS:
January – March 2005	January 10, 2005
April – June 2005	March 21, 2005
July – September 2005	June 13, 2005
October – December 2005	August 8, 2005

The AMAS Coordinator should regularly monitor the AMAS system to ensure that RA units are immediately obligated to the approved properties in order to alleviate an accumulation of unobligated RA units on the system. If any deviation from the allocation is necessary, Guide Letter 208, must be submitted to the National Office for approval. Examples of necessary deviations may be quarter changes due to accelerated RA usage or mistakes in rental coding such as elderly, family or labor housing. All renewal units must be obligated by August 26, 2005.

Due to limited funds, the borrowers listed as expiring in December 2005 have been removed from the allocation at this time. After August 26, 2005, the National Office will prioritize the list based on availability of funds.

The AMAS Coordinator should regularly monitor the AMAS System during the allocation period to determine the number and type of RA units available to your state(s) at any given time, and to ensure that all allocated renewal RA units have been properly obligated. The National Office will be regularly monitoring AMAS to determine the obligation activity of each state.

B. Special Language for FY 05 RA Obligations.

For FY 05, the appropriation language has established a set term of four years for FY 05 RA Obligations, only. Therefore, the following instructions should be used for completing Form RD 1944-27, "Rental Assistance Agreement" regarding ALL FY 05 RA obligations.

1. All FY 05 obligations will ALWAYS need to have a separate Form RD 1944-27, "Rental Assistance Agreement"
2. Changes to the form:
 - a. Above title: "Rental Assistance Agreement" add "FOUR YEAR"

b. Section 8 (a) - cross out "...individually and automatically upon total disbursement or credit to the borrower's account" and insert - "four (4) years from _____ * _____, unless the funds are fully expended prior to that time."

*If agreement is for the original obligation, enter the date the agreement is prepared.

If the agreement is for units transferred, enter the date of the agreement from the original Form RD 1944-27, "Rental Assistance Agreement."

C. Updates

The National Office will provide an update to this Handbook as each year's RA allocation is made.

9.16 UNUSED RENTAL ASSISTANCE

It is the intent of the National Office to recapture all available unused rental assistance into an Administrator's Rental Assistance (RA) Reserve account. This account will be used at the Administrator's discretion. The intent behind establishment of the Reserve is maximum utilization of available RA. The effective use of Rental Assistance is a major goal of Rural Development.

A. Unused Rental Assistance Reports

State Directors must report quarterly on the status of the unused RA in their State using Attachment 9-B, "Report of Status of Unused RA units." The basis for this information comes from MFIS Report PRJS 4100, "Vacancy Summary." In addition to vacancies, the report identifies unused RA units as of the 1st day of the current quarter. States must identify the proposed disposition of unused RA according to categories listed in the Report and the following guidance below:

- State Directors may designate unused RA units to be used in conjunction with new construction, rehabilitation, transfers, or equity loans that are expected to be approved and funded in the current FY.
- Unused RA units may only go to tenants experiencing the highest percent of rent overburden within the State. Any units identified for this purpose must be used within 3 months.
- State Directors will not be authorized to transfer unused RA units outside of their state jurisdiction without prior approval of the Administrator.

An action date for completion of the disposition must be indicated. Any units remaining after deducting these categories will result in "Units Available for the Administrator's RA Reserve".

Reports are due no later than 30 days after the start of a new quarter (e.g. the Status Report as of January 1 is due February 1).

B. Evaluation of Report

The National Office will review the Status report within 30 days of receipt. If the National Office determines that State Offices are not aggressively utilizing the unused RA, the Administrator may determine the placement of unused RA units, including transfer to rent overburdened tenants or to the Administrator's RA Reserve account. If units are to be transferred to the Reserve, the National Office will advise the State Office so that all required administrative actions can be undertaken to affect the transfer. If unused units will not be transferred to the Reserve, the National Office will advise the State Office so that all unused units can be effectively utilized.

7 CFR Part 3560

7 CFR PART 3560 – DIRECT MULTI-FAMILY HOUSING LOANS AND GRANTS

Subpart A--General Provisions and Definitions

§3560.1 Applicability and purpose.

(a) This part sets forth requirements, policies, and procedures for multi-family housing (MFH) direct loan and grant programs to serve eligible very-low, low- and moderate-income households. The programs covered by this part are authorized by title V of the Housing Act of 1949 and are:

(1) Section 515 Rural Rental Housing, which includes congregate housing, group homes, and Rural Cooperative Housing. Section 515 loans may be made to finance multi-family units in rural areas as defined in §3560.11.

(2) Sections 514 and 516 Farm Labor Housing loans and grants. Housing under these programs may be built in any area with a need and demand for housing for farm workers.

(3) Section 521 Rental Assistance. A project-based tenant rent subsidy which may be provided to Rural Rental Housing and Farm Labor Housing facilities.

(b) The programs covered by this part provide economically designed and constructed rural rental, cooperative, and farm labor housing and related facilities operated and managed in an affordable, decent, safe, and sanitary manner.

(c) Internal Agency procedures containing details for Agency processing under these regulations can be found in the program handbooks, available in any Rural Development office, or from the Rural Development Web site.

§3560.2 Civil rights.

(a) As per the Fair Housing Act, as amended and section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, all actions taken by recipients of loans and grants will be conducted without regard to race, color, religion, sex, familial status, national origin, age, or disability. These actions include any actions in the sale, rental, or advertising of the dwellings, in the provision of brokerage services, or in residential real estate transactions involving Rural Housing Service (RHS) assistance. It is unlawful for a borrower or grantee or an agent of a borrower or grantee:

(1) To refuse to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, practices, or services that would provide a person with a disability an opportunity to use or continue to use a dwelling unit and all public and common use areas; or

(2) To refuse to provide a reasonable accommodation at the borrower's expense that would not cause an undue financial or administrative burden, or to refuse to allow an individual with a disability to make reasonable modifications to the unit at their own expense with the understanding that the owner may require the tenant to return the unit to its original condition when the unit is vacated by the tenant making the modifications (see §3560.104(c)).

(b) Borrowers and grantees must take reasonable steps to ensure that Limited English Proficiency (LEP) persons receive the language assistance necessary to afford them meaningful access to USDA programs and activities, free of charge. Failure to ensure that LEP persons can effectively participate in or benefit from federally-assisted programs and activities may violate the prohibition under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. 2000d and Title VI regulations against national origin discrimination. USDA has issued guidance to clarify the responsibilities of recipients and subrecipients who receive financial assistance from USDA and to assist them in fulfilling their responsibilities to LEP persons under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act, as amended, and implementing regulations.

(c) Any tenant/member or prospective tenant seeking occupancy in or use of facilities financed by the Agency who believes he or she is being discriminated against because of race, color, religion, sex, familial status, national origin, or disability may file a complaint in person with, or by mail to the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Office of Civil Rights, Room 326-W, Whitten Building, 14th and Independence Avenue, Washington, DC 20410. Complaints received by Agency employees must be directed to the National Office Civil Rights staff through the State Civil Rights Manager/Coordinator.

(d) Borrowers or grantees that fail to comply with the requirements of federal civil rights requirements are subject to sanctions authorized by law. The following are the major civil rights laws affecting multifamily housing loan and grant programs:

- (1) Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA).
- (2) Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.
- (3) Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968.
- (4) Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.
- (5) Age Discrimination Act of 1975.
- (6) Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972.

§3560.3 Environmental requirements.

RHS will consider environmental impacts of proposed housing as equal with economic, social, and other factors. By working with applicants, Federal agencies, Indian tribes, state and local governments, interested citizens, and organizations, RHS will formulate actions that advance program goals in a manner that protects, enhances, and restores environmental quality. Loan and grant processing and servicing actions taken by RHS under this part are subject to an environmental review conducted in accordance with 7 CFR part 1940, subpart G or any successor regulation.

§3560.4 Compliance with other Federal requirements.

RHS is responsible for ensuring that the application is in compliance with all applicable Federal requirements, including the following specific requirements:

- (a) Intergovernmental review. 7 CFR part 3015, subpart V, or any successor regulation, including the Agency supplemental administrative instruction, RD Instruction 1940-J, available in any Rural Development office.
- (b) National flood insurance. The National Flood Insurance Act of 1968, as amended by the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973; the National Flood Insurance Reform Act of 1994; and 7 CFR part 1806, subpart B, or any successor regulation.

(c) Clean Air Act and Water Pollution Control Act Requirements. For any contract, all applicable standards, orders or requirements issued under section 306 of the Clean Air Act; section 508 of the Clean Water Act, Executive Order 11738, and 40 CFR part 32.

(d) Historic preservation requirements. The provisions of 7 CFR part 1901, subpart F or any successor regulation.

(e) Lead-based paint requirements. The applicable provisions of 24 CFR part 35, subparts A through D, J, and R, as published by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

§3560.5 State, local or tribal laws.

Borrowers must comply with all applicable state and local laws, and laws of Federally-recognized Indian tribes to the extent they are not inconsistent with this part.

§3560.6 Borrower responsibility and requirements.

(a) Borrower responsibilities and requirements specified in this part may be carried out by an individual or entity designated by the borrower to act on behalf of the borrower such as a resident manager or management agent. Ultimate accountability to the Agency, however, is with the borrower whether or not the borrower designated another person or entity to act on the borrower's behalf.

(b) Borrowers who have not executed a loan agreement, and who were not required to execute a loan agreement by the regulations in effect at the time of their loan closing are exempt from the requirements of subparts D through G of this part, as long as the borrower is not in default of any applicable requirement, security instrument, payment, or any other agreement with the Agency. Such borrowers must provide evidence of tenant income eligibility in accordance with §3560.152(a), except in Farm Labor Housing where the tenant is not paying shelter cost.

§3560.7 Delegation of responsibility.

The RHS Administrator may delegate, on an individual or other basis, any decision-making responsibility for Agency programs, unless otherwise noted.

§3560.8 Administrator's exception authority.

The RHS Administrator may make an exception to any provision of this part or address any omissions provided that the exception is consistent with the applicable statute, does not adversely affect the interest of the Federal Government, and does not adversely affect the accomplishment of the purposes of the MFH programs or application of the requirement would result in undue hardship on the tenants. Exception requests presented to the RHS Administrator must have the concurrence of a Rural Development State Director or a Deputy Administrator for MFH.

§3560.9 Reviews and appeals.

Rural Housing Service decisions may be appealed pursuant to 7 CFR part 11.

§3560.10 Conflict of interest.

To reduce the potential for employee conflict of interest, all RHS activities will be conducted in accordance with 7 CFR part 1900, subpart D.

(2) The facilities will either be provided for the exclusive use of the proposed housing project, or Agency funds are limited to the prorated part of the total cost of the facility according to the use and benefit to the MFH project. If entities other than the housing project financed by the Agency use the facilities on a reimbursable fee basis, the loan applicant must agree, in writing, to apply any fees collected in excess of operating expenses to their Agency loan account as an extra loan payment.

(k) Initial operating capital. Loan funds equal to 2 percent of total development cost or appraised value, whichever is less, may be used by a state or political subdivision thereof, Indian tribe, consumer cooperative, or any public or private nonprofit borrower who is not receiving low-income housing tax credits (LIHTC), to make the initial operating capital contribution required by §3560.64. Other borrowers must use their own resources to make the required initial operating capital contribution and may not use loan funds for that purpose.

(q) Interest and customary charges. Funds may be used for interest accrued and customary charges necessary to obtain interim financing.

(r) Purchase housing from an interim lender. Funds may be used to purchase MFH from an interim lender that holds fee simple title to Agency-financed housing upon which construction commenced and a letter of commitment had been issued by the Agency but the original applicant for whom funds were obligated will not or cannot continue with construction of the housing. Processing requirements for farm labor housing proposals are found in subpart L of this part for Off-Farm and subpart M of this part for On-Farm.

(a) Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) responses.

(1) The Agency will publish an annual NOFA with deadlines and other information related to submission of new construction MFH proposals, including expansion of existing MFH in designated places selected in accordance with §3560.57.

(2) To be eligible for funding consideration, MFH proposals must be submitted in accordance with the NOFA and must provide information requested in the NOFA for the Agency to score and rank the proposals.

(3) MFH proposals needing rental subsidies must include requests for Agency rental assistance or a description of any non-Agency rental subsidy to be used with the proposal and must provide information required by §3560.260 (c).

(4) The Agency will consider housing proposals requesting rental assistance in rank order to the extent rental assistance is available. When there is no rental assistance available, the Agency will consider only those housing proposals in rank order that do not require rental assistance.

(b) Preliminary proposal assessment. The Agency will make a preliminary assessment of the application using the following criteria and will reject those applications which do not meet all of these criteria:

(1) The proposal was received by the submission deadline specified in the NOFA,

(2) The proposal is complete as specified in the NOFA,

(3) The proposal is for an authorized purpose, and

(4) The applicant meets Agency eligibility requirements.

(c) Scoring and ranking project proposals. The Agency will score and rank each housing proposal that meets the criteria of paragraph (b) of this section.

(1) The following criteria will be used to score housing proposals as more completely established in the NOFA:

(i) The presence and extent of leveraged assistance in the proposal for the units that will serve tenants meeting Agency income limits at basic rents comparable to what the rent would be if the Agency provided full financing.

(ii) The proposal will provide rental units in a colonia, tribal land, Rural Economic Area Partnership (REAP) community, Enterprise Zone or Empowerment Community (EZ/EC) or in a place identified in the state Consolidated Plan or a state needs assessment as a high need community for MFH.

(iii) The proposal supports Agency initiatives announced in the NOFA.

(iv) The proposal uses a donated site which meets the following conditions:

(A) The site is donated by a state, unit of local government, public body or a nonprofit organization;

(B) The site is suitable for the housing proposals and meets Agency requirements;

(C) Site development costs do not exceed what they would be to purchase and develop an alternative site;

(D) The overall cost of the MFH is reduced by the donation of the site; and

(E) A return on investment is not paid to the borrower for the value of the donated site nor is the value of the site considered as part of the borrower's contribution.

(2) The Agency will rank housing proposals based on their scoring.

(i) When proposals have an equal score, preference will be given to Indian tribes as defined in §3560.11 and local nonprofit organizations or public bodies whose principal purposes include low-income housing that meet the conditions of §3560.55(c) and the following conditions.

(A) Is exempt from Federal income taxes under section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue code;

(E) The entity or its members will not be receiving any direct or indirect benefits pursuant to LIHTC.

(ii) A drawing will be held in the event of a tie score, first for proposals from applicants who meet the conditions of paragraph (c)(2)(i) of this section and next for proposals from applicants for which paragraph (c)(2)(i) of this section is not applicable. Each proposal will be numbered in the order in which it is drawn.

(3) The Agency will request initial loan applications from parties who submitted the housing proposals with the highest ranking, taking into consideration available funds. The Agency will notify non-selected parties with the reasons for their non-selection, and the process that may be used to seek a review of the non-selection decision.

(d) Processing initial loan applications. The Agency will review all initial loan applications submitted in accordance with Agency requirements to further evaluate the eligibility and feasibility of the housing proposals. This determination will include:

(1) A review of the preliminary plans and cost estimates,

(e) Processing order of initial loan applications. The Agency will process initial loan applications in rank order, taking into account available funds. If any initial loan applications are withdrawn, rejected, or delayed for a period of time that will not permit funding in the current funding cycle, the Agency will process, in rank order, the next initial loan application as funding levels permit.

(f) Other assistance. During each stage of loan application processing, loan applicants must notify the Agency of all other assistance, including other Federal Government assistance proposed or approved for use in connection with the loan application.

(g) Proposal withdrawal or rejection. An applicant may withdraw a housing proposal, an initial loan application, or a final loan application at any time during the Agency review process with a written request. The Agency may reject a housing proposal, an initial loan application, or a final loan application at any time during the Agency review process when an applicant fails to provide information requested by the Agency within the time frame specified by the Agency.

(h) Final applications. Applicants, with initial loan applications that are selected by the Agency for further processing, must submit a final application, with any additional information requested by the Agency, to confirm and document a housing proposal's eligibility and feasibility, including an affirmative fair housing marketing plan. The Agency will notify applicants with initial loan applications that are not selected for further processing of their non-selection, the reasons for their non-selection, and the process that may be used to seek a review of the non-selection decision.

(i) Rural cooperative housing proposals. Rural cooperative housing loan proposals will be solicited through a NOFA and will be assessed and processed in the same manner described in paragraphs (a) through (h) of this section.

§3560.57 Designated places for section 515 housing.

(a) Establish a list of designated places. The Agency will establish a list of designated places from which loan proposals will be accepted. The list is updated each fiscal year and is available when the NOFA is published. The NOFA provides information on obtaining the list. This list will be developed from a list of rural places which the Agency identifies as having the greatest need for multifamily housing based on the following factors:

(1) Qualification as a rural area as defined in §3560.11,

(2) Lack of mortgage credit, and

(3) Demonstrated need for MFH based on:

(i) The incidence of poverty,

(ii) The existence of substandard housing,

(iii) The lack of affordable housing, and

(iv) The following high need areas:

(A) Places identified in the state Consolidated Plan or similar state plan or needs assessment report,

(B) Indian reservations or communities located within the boundaries of tribal allotted or trust land, and

(C) EZ/EC or REAP communities.

(b) Establishing partnership designated place list. The Agency, in states with an active leveraging program and formal partnership agreement with the state agency, may establish a partnership designated place list consisting of places identified by the partnership as high need areas based on criteria consistent with the Agency's and the state's authorizing statutes. The partnership agreement and partnership designated place list must have the concurrence of the Administrator.

(c) Administrator's discretion. The Administrator may add to the list of designated places any place that is determined to have a compelling need for MFH, for example, a place that has had a substantial increase in population not reflected in the most recent census data, or a place that has experienced a loss of affordable housing because of a natural disaster.

(d) Restrictions on loans in certain designated places.

(1) Initial loan applications will not be requested and final loan applications will not be closed for housing proposals in designated places where any of the following conditions exist:

(i) The Agency has selected another MFH proposal in the designated place for processing.

(ii) A previously funded Agency, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), low-income housing tax credit or other similar assisted MFH in the designated place has not been completed or has not reached projected occupancy levels.

(iii) Existing assisted MFH in the designated place is experiencing high vacancy levels.

(iv) A special note rent or other loan servicing tool is pending or in effect for other assisted housing in the designated place, or

(v) The need in the market area is for additional rental assistance and not additional rental units.

(2) Exceptions to the provisions in §3560.57(d)(1) may be made:

(i) When a group home is proposed for persons with disabilities in an area where the existing MFH is insufficient or unavailable for their needs; or

(ii) There is a compelling need for additional MFH, for example when the units that have been approved or are under development represent only a small portion of the total units needed in the community.

§3560.58 Site requirements.

(a) Location.

(1) New construction section 515 loans will be made only in designated places selected by the Agency in accordance with the requirements of §3560.57.

(2) Agency-financed MFH must be located in residential areas as part of established rural communities, except as permitted in §3560.58(b), and for farm labor housing units financed under sections 514 and 516, which may be developed in any area where a need for farm labor housing exists.

(3) Communities in which Agency-financed MFH is located must have adequate facilities and services to support the needs of tenants.

(4) Housing complexes will not be located in areas where there are undesirable influences such as high activity railroad tracks; adjacent to or near industrial sites; bordering sites or structures which are not decent, safe, or sanitary; or bordering sites which have potential environmental concerns such as processing plants. Sites which are not an integral part of a residential community and do not have reasonable access, either by location or terrain, to essential community facilities such as water, sewerage removal, schools, shopping, employment opportunities, medical facilities, may not be acceptable. Consistent with Federal law and Departmental Regulation, the Agency must conduct an environmental assessment and a civil rights impact analysis before a site can be accepted. Sites may be determined by the Agency to be unacceptable if any of the adverse conditions described in this paragraph exist.

(b) Structures located in central business areas. The Agency will consider financing construction or the purchase and substantial rehabilitation of an existing structure located in the central business area of a rural community. With prior consent from the Agency, a portion of such a structure may be designated for commercial use on a lease basis. RHS funds may not be used to finance any cost associated with the commercial space.

(c) Site development costs and standards. The cost of site development must be less than or comparable to the cost of site development at other available sites in the community and the site must be developed in accordance with 7 CFR part 1924, subpart C and any applicable standards imposed by a state or local government.

(d) Densities. Allowable site densities will be determined based on the following criteria:

(1) Compatibility and consistency with the community in which the MFH is located;

(2) Impact on the total development costs; and

(3) Size sufficient to accommodate necessary site features.

(e) Flood or mudslide-prone areas.

(1) The Agency will not approve sites subject to 100-year floods when non-floodplain sites exist. The environmental review process will assess the availability of a reasonable site outside the 100-year floodplain.

(2) Sites located within the 100 year floodplain are not eligible for federal financial assistance unless flood insurance is available through the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP). The Agency will complete Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Form 81-93, Standard Flood Hazard Determination, to document the site's location in relation to the floodplain and the availability of insurance under NFIP.

§3560.59 Environmental requirements.

Under the National Environmental Policy Act, the Agency is required to assess the potential impact of the proposed action on protected environmental resources. Measures to avoid or at least mitigate adverse impacts to protected resources may require a change in the site or project design. Therefore, a site cannot be approved until the Agency has completed the environmental review in accordance with 7 CFR part 1940, subpart G, or any successor regulation. Likewise, the applicant should be informed that the environmental review must be completed and considered before the Agency can make a commitment of resources to the project.

§3560.60 Design requirements.

(a) Standards. All Agency-financed MFH will be constructed in accordance with 7 CFR part 1924, subpart A and will consist of two or more rental units plus appropriate related facilities. Single family structures may be used for group homes and cooperative housing. Also, manufactured homes may be used to create MFH and single family housing originally financed through section 502 of the Housing Act of 1949 may be converted to MFH. Maintenance requirements are listed in §3560.103(a)(3).

(b) Residential design. All MFH must be residential in character, except as provided for in §3560.58(b), and must meet the needs of eligible residents.

(c) Economical construction, operation and maintenance. Taking into consideration life-cycle costs, all housing must be economical to construct, operate, and maintain and must not be of elaborate design or materials.

(1) Economical construction means construction that results in housing of at least average quality with amenities that are reasonable and customary for the community and necessary to appropriately serve tenants.

(2) Economical operating and maintenance means housing with operational and maintenance costs that allow a basic rent structure less than or consistent with conventional rents for comparable units in the community or in a similar community except that when determined necessary by the Agency to allow for decent, safe and sanitary housing to be provided in market areas where conventional rents are not sufficient to cover necessary operating, maintenance, and reserve costs. Basic rents may be allowed to exceed comparable rents for conventional units, but in no case may the rent exceed 150% of the comparable rent for conventional unit rent level.

(3) In meeting the Agency objective of economical construction, operation and maintenance, housing proposals must:

(i) Contain costs without jeopardizing the quality and marketability of the housing;

(ii) Employ life-cycle cost analyses acceptable to the Agency to determine the types of materials which will reduce overall costs by lowering operation and maintenance costs, even though their initial costs may be higher; and

(iii) Provide assurances that costs will be reduced when the Agency determines that housing costs are not economical. If assurances cannot be provided, funding may be withdrawn.

(4) The housing proposal will give maximum consideration to energy conservation measures and practices.

(d) Accessibility. All housing will meet the following accessibility requirements.

(1) For new construction of MFH, at least 5 percent of the units (but not less than one) must be constructed as fully accessible units to persons with disabilities. The Uniform Federal Accessibility Standards (UFAS) will be followed. Individual copies of these standards are available from the Architectural and Transportation Barriers Compliance Board, 1331 F Street, NW, Suite 1000, Washington, DC 20004-1111, Telephone: (202) 272-0080, TTY: (202) 272-0082, e-mail address: info@access-board.gov. When calculating how many accessible units are required, always round up to the next whole number to ensure the 5 percent requirement is met.

(2) For existing properties that do not have fully accessible units, the 5 percent requirement will apply when making substantial alterations as defined by UFAS. The UFAS defines substantial alteration as "alteration to any building or facility is to be considered substantial if the total cost for a twelve month period amounts to 50 percent or more of the full and fair cash value of the building * * *" UFAS further defines full and fair cash value as "the assessed valuation of a building or facility as recorded in the assessor's office of the municipality and as equalized at one hundred percent (100%) valuation, or the replacement cost, or the fair market value." The 5 percent rule will also apply to repair or renovation work on a single unit. For instance, if a unit is damaged by fire and extensive repair is necessary, to the extent possible the unit is to be converted to a fully accessible unit.

(3) The variety of bedroom quantities of fully accessible units will be comparable to the variety of bedroom quantities of units which are not fully accessible. Borrowers will not, however, be required to exceed the 5 percent requirement simply to have an accessible unit of each bedroom quantity. In addition, accessible units should be distributed throughout the complex so not to concentrate the units in one location.

(4) All MFH must meet:

(i) The accessibility requirements as contained in section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973;

(ii) The requirements of the Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988;

(iii) The requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as applicable; and

(iv) All other Federal, State, and local requirements. When architectural standards differ, the most stringent standard will be followed.

§3560.61 Loan security.

(a) General. Each loan made by the Agency will be secured in a manner that adequately protects the financial interest of the Federal Government throughout the period of the loan.

(b) Lien position.

(1) The Agency will seek a first or parity lien position on Agency-financed property in all instances. The Agency may accept a junior lien position if the Federal Government's interests are adequately secured.

(2) The Agency will seek a first or parity lien on revenue from rent; Agency, HUD, state or private rental subsidy payments; chattels; assignments; and operating and reserve accounts. The Agency will accept a junior lien position if the Federal Government's interests are adequately secured.

(c) Liability. Personal liability will be required of all individual borrowers. Personal liability will not be required for the members or stockholders of any corporation or trust or any partners in a limited partnership.

(d) Housing and land ownership. Applicants must own the MFH and related land for which the loan is being requested, or become the owner when the loan is closed or have a leasehold interest in the land. If an applicant is not the owner of the housing and the related land, the following conditions must be met prior to or at loan closing.

(1) A recorded mortgage on the improvements is given as collateral.

(2) The amount of the loan against the collateral does not exceed its estimated security value.

(3) The unexpired term of the lease on the date of loan closing is at least 50 percent longer than the term of the loan and rent charged for the lease does not exceed the rate being paid for similar leases in the area.

(4) The applicant's leasehold interest is not subject to summary foreclosure or cancellation.

(5) The lease permits:

(i) The Agency to foreclose the mortgage and to transfer the lease;

(ii) The Agency to bid at a foreclosure sale or to accept voluntary conveyance of the security in lieu of foreclosure;

(iii) The Agency to occupy the property, sublet the property, or sell the leasehold for cash or credit if the leasehold is acquired through foreclosure, if the Agency accepts voluntary conveyance in lieu of foreclosure, or if the borrower abandons the property; and

(iv) The applicant, in the event of default or inability to continue with the lease and the loan, to transfer the leasehold subject to the mortgage to a transferee that will assume the property ownership obligations.

§3560.62 Technical, legal, insurance, and other services.

(a) Legal services. Applicants must have written contracts for any legal services that are to be paid out of Agency loan funds.

(b) Title clearance. Applicants must obtain title clearance in accordance with the provisions of 7 CFR part 1927, subpart B applicable to title clearance, which would include title insurance or title opinion, unless the loan applicant is leasing the property or is an organization or an individual with special title or loan closing problems, in which case title clearance and related legal services will be obtained in accordance with procedures approved by the Agency.

(c) Architectural services. Applicants must obtain a written contract for architectural services in accordance with the provisions of 7 CFR part 1924, subpart A.

(d) Insurance. Applicants must have property and liability coverage at loan closing as well as flood insurance, if needed. Fidelity coverage must be in force as soon as there are assets within the organization and it must be obtained before any loan funds or interim financing funds are made available to the borrower. At a minimum, applicants must meet the property, liability, flood, and fidelity insurance requirements in §3560.105.

(e) Surety bonding. Applicants must comply with the surety bonding provisions of 7 CFR part 1924, subpart A.

§3560.63 Loan limits.

(a) Determining the security value. The security value for an Agency loan is the lesser of the total development cost (exclusive of any developer's fee as provided by paragraph (d)(2) of this section) or the housing project's security value as determined by an appraisal conducted in accordance with subpart P of this part, minus any prior or parity liens on the housing project. For purposes of determining security value:

(1) Total development cost must be calculated excluding costs not considered allowable under §3560.54(a), and excluding costs related to compliance with the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Act of 1970.

(2) The appraisal, which will determine the market value, subject to restricted rents, will be obtained by the Agency and conducted in accordance with subpart P of this part.

(b) Limitations on loan amounts. The Agency will not make any loans without adequate security. The following limitations will be set on loan amounts:

(1) For all loan applicants who will receive benefits from the low-income housing tax credit program, the amount of Agency financing for the housing will not exceed 95 percent of the security value available for the Agency loan.

(2) For all loan applicants who will not receive low-income housing tax credit benefits and who are comprised solely of nonprofit organizations, consumer cooperatives, or state or local public agencies, the amount of the loan will be limited to the security value available for the Agency loan, plus the 2 percent initial operating capital and any necessary relocation costs incurred.

(3) For all other loan applicants who will not receive low-income housing tax credit benefits, the loan amount will be limited to no more than 97 percent of the security value available for the Agency loan.

(c) Equity contribution. Loan applicants, with the exception of nonprofit organizations, consumer cooperatives, or state or local public agencies who will not be receiving tax credits, must make an equity contribution from their own resources.

(1) Loan applicants who will receive benefits from the low-income housing tax credit program must make an equity contribution in the amount of 5 percent of the Agency loan. The maximum Agency loan will be determined in accordance with §3560.63(b).

(2) Loan applicants who will not receive benefits from the low-income housing tax credit program and are not nonprofit organizations, consumer cooperatives, or state or local public agencies must make an equity contribution in the amount of 3 percent of the Agency loan. The maximum Agency loan will be determined in accordance with §3560.63(b).

(d) Review of assistance from multiple sources. The Agency will analyze Federal Government and other assistance provided to any MFH project to establish the maximum loan amount and to assure that the assistance is not more than the minimum necessary to make the housing affordable, decent, safe, and sanitary to potential tenants.

(1) Determining minimum assistance. For purposes of determining minimum assistance, the total amount paid for builder's profit, overhead, and general requirements may not exceed 21 percent of the construction contract. Unless specified differently in a Memorandum of Understanding between the Agency and the state agency that allocates low-income housing tax credits, limits will be those specified in §3560.53(l).

(2) Developer's fee. While, in accordance with §3560.54(a)(9), payment of a developer's fee is not an eligible use of Agency loan funds, the Agency will include in total development costs a developer's fee paid from other sources when analyzing the Federal Government assistance to the housing. The Agency may recognize a developer's fee paid from other sources on construction or rehabilitation of up to 15 percent of the total development costs authorized for low-income housing tax credit purposes, or by another Federal Government program. Likewise for transfer proposals that include acquisition costs, the developer's fee on the acquisition cost may be recognized up to 8 percent of the acquisition costs only when authorized under a Federal Government program providing assistance. The developer's fee is not included in determining the Agency's maximum debt limit and loan amount.

(e) Limits on equity loans. For equity loans to avert prepayment, the amount of the Agency equity loan will be limited to no more than the difference between 90 percent of market value of the property when appraised as conventional unsubsidized MFH and all current unpaid balances. For information on appraisal issues, refer to subpart P of this part.

(f) Cost overruns.

(1) All applicants must agree in writing to provide funds at no cost to the housing and without pledging the housing as security to pay any cost for completing planned construction after the maximum debt limit is reached.

(2) After loan approval, the Agency will only approve cost increases for housing proposals involving new construction or major rehabilitation when the additional costs will not cause the limits specified in §3560.53(1) or the maximum debt limit to be exceeded and the cost increases were caused by:

(i) Unforeseen factors that are determined by the Agency to be beyond the borrower's control;

(ii) Design changes required by the Agency, state, or the local government; or

(iii) Financing changes approved by the Agency.

§3560.64 Initial operating capital contribution.

Borrowers are required to make an initial operating capital contribution to the general operating account in the amount of at least 2 percent of the total development cost or appraised value, whichever is less.

(a) Borrowers that are nonprofit organizations, consumer cooperatives, or state or local public agencies and are not receiving low-income housing tax credits, may use loan funds for their initial operating capital contribution. All other borrowers must fund the initial operating capital contribution from their own resources.

(b) Borrowers must provide to the Agency for approval a list of materials and equipment to be funded from the general operating account for initial operating expenses. As specified in §3560.304(b), initial operating capital may be used only to pay for approved budgeted expenses. If total initial operating expenses exceed 2 percent, the additional amount must be paid by the borrower from its own resources, except that borrowers meeting the provisions of §3560.64(a) who do not have sufficient resources for this purpose may request Agency assistance. Withdrawals from the reserve account will not be approved for such expenses.

(c) Borrowers must provide the Agency with documentation of their initial operating capital contribution deposited into the general operating account prior to the start of construction or loan closing, whichever comes first, and such funds thereafter, may only be used for authorized budgeted purposes.

(d) If the conditions specified in §3560.304(c) are met, funds contributed as initial operating capital may be returned to the borrower.

§3560.65 Reserve account.

To meet major capital expenses of a housing project, borrowers must establish and fund a reserve account that meets requirements of §3560.306. At a minimum, the borrower must agree to make monthly contributions to the reserve account at the rate of 1 percent annually of the amount of the total development cost until the reserve account equals 10 percent of the total development cost.

§3560.66 Participation with other funding or financing sources.

(a) General requirements. The Agency encourages the use of funding or financing from other sources in conjunction with Agency loans. When the Agency is not the sole source of financing for MFH, the following conditions must be met.

(1) The Agency will enter into a participation (or intercreditor) agreement with the other participants that clearly defines each party's relationship and responsibilities to the others.

(2) The rental units that will serve tenants eligible for housing under the Agency's income standards must meet Agency standards and the number of units that will serve the Agency's tenants are at least equal to the units financed by the Agency.

(3) All rental units must be operated and managed in compliance with the requirements of the Agency and the other sources. To the extent these requirements overlap, the most stringent requirement must be met. The Agency may negotiate the resolution of overlapping requirements on a case-by-case basis; however, at a minimum, Agency requirements must be met.

(4) If the number of units subject to the LIHTC rent and income restrictions is greater than the number of units projected to receive Agency rental assistance (RA) or similar tenant subsidy, the market feasibility documentation must clearly reflect a need and demand by LIHTC income-eligible households financially able to afford the projected rents without such a subsidy for the units not receiving RA or similar tenant subsidy.

(b) Rental assistance. The Agency may provide rental assistance with MFH loans participating with other sources of funding under the following conditions:

(1) The Agency's loan equals at least 25 percent of the housing's total development cost.

(2) The rental assistance is provided only to those rental units where the basic rents do not exceed what basic rents would have been had the Agency provided full financing.

(3) The provisions of subpart F of this part are met.

(c) Security requirements. The security requirements of 3560.61 must be met for all Agency-financed MFH participating with other sources of funding.

(d) Reserve requirements. Reserve account requirements will be determined on a case-by-case basis, taking into consideration the reserve requirements of the other participating lenders, so that the aggregate fully funded reserve account is consistent with the requirements of §3560.65. Reserve requirements and procedures for reserve account withdrawals must be agreed upon by all lenders and included in the intercreditor or participation agreement.

(e) Design requirements. Housing and related facilities must be planned and constructed in accordance with 7 CFR 1924, subparts A and C. If housing includes non-Agency financed common facilities, the following conditions must be met:

(1) The non-Agency-financed common facility's operating and maintenance costs must be paid through collection of a user fee from residents who use the facility,

(2) The non-Agency-financed common facility must be designed and operated with appropriate safeguards for the health and safety of tenants, and

(3) The facility must be fully available and accessible to all tenants.

§3560.67 Rates and terms for section 515 loans.

Rates and terms for farm labor housing loans are found in subpart L of this part for Off-Farm and subpart M of this part for On-Farm.

(a) Interest. Loans will be closed at the lower of the interest rate in effect at the time of loan approval or the interest rate that is in effect at time of loan closing.

(b) Interest credit. The Agency will provide interest credit to subsidize the interest on the Agency loan to a payment rate of 1 percent for all of the Agency's initial and subsequent loans.

(c) Amortization period and term.

(1) Except for manufactured housing, loans will be amortized over a period not to exceed the lesser of the economic life of the housing being financed or 50 years and paid over a term not to exceed 30 years from the date of loan. The Agency may make a loan to the borrower to finance the final payment of a loan in accordance with §3560.74.

(2) Loans for manufactured housing will be amortized and paid over a term not to exceed 30 years as specified in §3560.70(c).

§3560.68 Permitted return on investment (ROI).

(a) Permitted return. Borrowers operating on a limited profit basis will be permitted a return not to exceed 8 percent of their required initial investment determined at the time of loan approval in accordance with §3560.63(c).

(b) Calculation of permitted return. The permitted return will be based on the borrower's contributions from their own resources, which, when added to the Agency loan amount and all sources of funding or financing, do not exceed the security value of the MFH project as specified in §3560.63(a).

(1) Proceeds received by the borrower from the syndication of low-income housing tax credit and contributed to the MFH project may be considered funds from the borrower's own resources for the portion of the proceeds which exceeds:

(i) The allowable developer's fee determined by the state agency administering the low-income housing tax credit, and

(ii) The borrower's expected contribution to the transaction, as determined by the state agency administering the low-income housing tax credit.

(2) A building site contributed by the borrower will be appraised by the Agency to determine its market value. A return may not be allowed on the amount above the equity contribution required by §3560.63(c) if the market value as determined by the Agency, when added to the loan and grant amounts from all sources, exceeds the security value of the MFH project as specified in §3560.63(a).

(c) Return on additional investment. The initial investment may exceed the equity contribution required by §3560.63(c) and a return allowed on the investment if the additional return does not increase basic rents and rental assistance costs above what basic rents and rental assistance costs would have been with the Agency financing 95 or 97 percent of the total development cost.

(d) Compensation to nonprofit organizations. Although nonprofit organizations are not eligible to take a return on investment, with prior Agency approval, cooperatives and nonprofit organizations may use housing project funds to pay asset management expenses directly attributable to ownership responsibilities, as described in §3560.303(b)(1)(ii).

§3560.69 Supplemental requirements for congregate housing and group homes.

(a) General. Congregate housing and group homes must be planned and developed in accordance with 7 CFR part 1924, subparts A and C.

(b) Design criteria. Congregate housing and group homes must be designed to accommodate all special services that will be provided.

(c) Services. Congregate housing and group home loan applicants, as part of their loan request, must submit a plan to make affordable services available to residents to assist the residents in living independently. The plan must address the availability of this assistance from service providers throughout the term of the loan.

(1) For congregate housing, the resident services plan must address how the following services will be provided or made available:

(i) One cooked meal per day, seven days per week;

- (ii) Transportation to and from the property;
- (iii) Assistance in housekeeping;
- (iv) Personal services;
- (v) Recreational and social activities; and
- (vi) Access to medical services.

(2) For group homes, the resident services plan must address how access to the following services will be provided or made available:

- (i) A common kitchen in which to prepare meals;
- (ii) Transportation;
- (iii) Nearby recreational and social activities which may be coordinated by the resident assistant, if applicable; and
- (iv) Medical services as necessary.

(d) Necessary items. Borrowers must ensure items such as tables, chairs, and cookware necessary to furnish common areas are made available to congregate housing or group homes. The 2 percent initial operating capital may be used to purchase these items.

(e) Association with other organizations. Congregate housing and group homes may coordinate services or training with another organization, such as a workshop for the developmentally disabled. However, the housing facility must be a separate entity and not dependent on the other organization.

(f) Market feasibility documentation. Market feasibility documentation for congregate housing and group homes is subject to the following requirements:

- (1) Must address the need for housing with services and include information concerning alternative service providers;
- (2) Must contain demographic information pertaining to the population that is to be served by the congregate housing or group home project; and
- (3) May consider an expanded market area that includes nondesignated places, but the facility must be located in a designated place.

(g) Rental assistance for group homes. A unit in a group home consists of a space occupied by a specific tenant household, which may be an apartment unit, a bedroom, or a part of a bedroom. Agency rental assistance will be made available to tenants sharing a unit so long as the total rent for the unit does not exceed conventional rents for comparable units in the area or a similar area.

§3560.70 Supplemental requirements for manufactured housing.

- (a) Design requirements. Manufactured housing must meet the requirements of 7 CFR part 1924, subpart A applicable to manufactured housing.
- (b) Eligible properties. The manufactured housing must include two or more housing units. The applicant will become the first owner purchasing the manufactured homes for purposes other than resale. The following exceptions may be made to this provision:
- (1) A housing proposal may include the purchase of the real property with existing manufactured housing which will be redeveloped with the placement of new manufactured homes.
 - (2) A housing proposal may include the rehabilitation of existing manufactured housing only if the units to be rehabilitated are currently financed by the Agency. The proposal will include the results of the applicant's consultation with the manufacturer to determine if the proposed rehabilitation work will affect the structural integrity of the unit and, if so, the statement will include an explanation as to how.
- (c) Terms. The maximum loan amount will be determined in accordance with the requirements of §3560.63. The amortization period and term of loans for manufactured housing will not exceed the lesser of the economic life of the housing being financed or 30 years.
- (d) Security. A mortgage or deed of trust will be taken on the entire property purchased or improved with the loan. The encumbered property must be covered under a standard real estate title insurance policy or attorney's title opinion that identifies the housing as real property and insures or indemnifies against any loss if the manufactured home is determined not to be part of the real property. The property must be taxed as real estate by the jurisdiction where the housing is located if such taxation is permitted under applicable law when the loan is closed.
- (e) Special warranty requirements. The general contractor or dealer-contractor, as applicable, must provide a warranty in accordance with the provisions of 7 CFR part 1924, subpart A.
- (1) The warranty must establish that the manufactured homes, foundations, positioning and anchoring of the units to their permanent foundations, and all contracted improvements, are constructed in conformity with applicable approved plans and specifications.
 - (2) The warranty must include provisions that the manufactured homes sustained no hidden damage during transportation and, for double-wide units, that the sections were properly joined and sealed.
 - (3) The general contractor or dealer contractor must warrant that the manufacturer's warranty is in addition to and does not diminish or limit all other warranties, rights, and remedies that the borrower or lender may have.
 - (4) The seller of the manufactured homes must deliver to the borrower the manufacturer's warranty with an additional copy for RHS. The warranty must identify the units by serial number.

§3560.71 Construction financing.

(a) Construction financing plan. Prior to loan approval, applicants must submit to the Agency for its concurrence a plan for the construction financing and securing of the loan.

(b) Interim financing. Interim financing is required by the Agency for any construction, except as noted in paragraph (c) of this section.

(1) The Agency reserves the right to review and approve the interim financing arrangements proposed by the applicant.

(2) When interim financing is used, the Agency will obligate the funds and provide an interim financing letter to the lender that will confirm the procedures and conditions for the construction financing. The take-out loan will be closed and the interim lender paid off when the conditions of the interim financing letter have been met.

(3) The applicable provisions of 7 CFR part 1924, subpart A will be used to monitor the construction.

(4) An environmental review must be completed in accordance with 7 CFR part 1940, subpart G, prior to issuance of the interim financing letter.

(c) Multiple advances. When interim financing is not available or when it is in the best interest of the Federal Government, the Agency may provide for multiple advances of the funds to cover the cost of construction.

(1) The Agency will review and approve the multiple advances proposed by the borrower.

(2) When multiple advances are used, the Agency will close the loan prior to any advancement of funds and the relevant provisions of 7 CFR part 1924, subpart A will be used to monitor the construction.

(3) The loan check will be handled in accordance with 7 CFR part 1902, subpart A.

§3560.72 Loan closing.

(a) Requirements. Loans will be closed in accordance with 7 CFR part 1927, subpart B and any state supplements. In all cases, the borrower must:

(1) Provide evidence that an Agency-approved accounting system is in place;

(2) Execute a restrictive-use contract acceptable to the Agency that establishes the borrower's obligation to operate the housing for program purposes for the term of the Agency loan;

(i) For all section 514 loans, except as provided in §3560.621, made pursuant to a contract entered into on or after the effective date of this regulation, the following language will be included in the mortgage and deed of trust: “The borrower and any successors in interest agree to use the housing for the purpose of housing people eligible for occupancy as provided in sections 514 and 516 of title V of the Housing Act of 1949, and Rural Housing Service regulations then in effect. The restrictions are applicable for a term of 20 years from the date on which the last loan was closed. No eligible person occupying the housing will be required to vacate nor any eligible person denied occupancy for housing prior to the close of such period because of a prohibited change in the use of the housing. A tenant or person wishing to occupy the housing may seek enforcement of this provision as well as the Government.”

(ii) All other loans are subject to restrictive-use provisions as outlined in subpart N of this part.

(3) Provide evidence that construction financing arrangements are adequate when interim financing is going to be used;

(4) Provide evidence that all the funds from other sources as proposed in the application are available and that there have been no changes in the Sources and Uses Comprehensive Evaluation (SAUCE).

(5) Provide evidence of the title to all security required by the Agency;

(6) Provide a certification that all construction in the case of interim financing has been or, in the case of multiple advances, will be paid;

(7) Provide, in the case of interim financing, a dated and signed statement from the owner's architect certifying to substantial completion of the housing project;

(8) Provide a certification that all construction in the case of interim financing has been or, in the case of multiple advances, will be in accordance with the plans and specifications concurred in by the Agency;

(9) Provide evidence, if applicable, that the conditions of the interim financing letter have been met; and

(10) Attend a pre-occupancy conference with the Agency.

(b) Cost certification. In all cases, the borrower must report actual construction costs. Whenever the State Director determines it appropriate, and in all situations where there is an identity of interest as defined in 7 CFR 1924.4 (i), the borrower, contractor and any subcontractor, material supplier, or equipment lessor having an identity of interest must each provide certification as to the actual cost of the work performed in connection with the construction contract in accordance with 7 CFR part 1924, subpart A. The construction costs must also be audited in accordance with Governmental Auditing Standards, by a Certified Public Accountant (CPA). In some cases, the Agency will contract directly with a CPA for the cost certification. Funds that were included in the loan for cost certification and which are ultimately not needed because Agency contracts for the cost certification will be returned on the loan. Agency personnel will utilize exhibit M of 7 CFR part 1924, subpart A to assist in the evaluation of the cost certification process.

(c) Notification of loan cancellation. Loans may be canceled after approval and before loan closing. The Agency will notify all parties of the cancellation and the reasons for the cancellation in accordance with 7 CFR part 1927, subpart B.

§3560.73 Subsequent loans.

(a) Applicability. The Agency may make a subsequent loan to a borrower to complete, improve, repair, or make modifications to MFH initially financed by the Agency or for equity for preservation purposes. Loan requests to add units to comply with accessibility requirements may be processed as a subsequent loan; however, loan requests to add units to meet market demand will be processed as an initial loan request and must compete under the NOFA.

(b) Application requirements and processing. Upon receipt of a subsequent loan request, the Agency will inform the applicant what information is required based on the nature and purpose of the loan request. Subsequent loan requests do not have to compete for funding against initial loan proposals.

(c) Amortization and payment period. Subsequent loans will be amortized over a period not to exceed the lesser of the economic life of the housing being financed or 50 years and paid over a term not to exceed the lesser of the economic life of the housing or 30 years from the date of the loan.

(d) Equity contribution. Applicants for subsequent loans must make contributions on the loans in the same proportion as outlined in §3560.63(c). Loan applicants will not be given consideration for any increased equity value that the property may have since the initial loan.

(1) Excess initial investment on an initial loan may be credited toward the required investment on a subsequent loan.

(2) An initial operating capital contribution to the general operating account as described in §3560.64 is required for a subsequent loan approved under the conditions set in §3560.63(f) to complete housing construction but is not required for a subsequent loan to repair or improve existing housing.

(e) Environmental requirements. Subsequent loans are subject to the completion of an environmental review in accordance with 7 CFR part 1940, subpart G.

(f) Design requirements. All improvements, repairs, and modifications will be in accordance with 7 CFR part 1924, subparts A and C.

(g) Architectural services. The applicant must obtain architectural services when any of the following conditions exist:

(1) Enclosed space is being added,

(2) When required by state law, and

(3) When the Agency determines that the work being proposed requires architectural services.

(h) Restrictive-use requirements. Subsequent loans are subject to restrictive-use provisions as outlined in §3560.662(a) and borrowers must execute a restrictive-use contract in accordance with §3560.72(a)(2).

(i) Designation changes from rural to nonrural. If the designation of an area changes from rural to nonrural after the initial loan is made, a subsequent loan may be made only to make necessary improvements and repairs to the property or for equity when needed to avert prepayment.

(j) Agency's discretion. The Administrator may approve a subsequent loan in a place that is not on the list of designated places as a servicing action, for example, to replace units destroyed by a natural disaster.

§3560.74 Loan for final payments.

(a) Use. The Agency may finance final payments for borrowers holding existing loans for which the Agency approved an amortization period that exceeded the term of the loan.

(b) Requirements. The Agency may finance final payments if documentation regarding the market area shows that a need for low-income rental housing still exists for that area and one of the following conditions has been met.

(1) It is more cost efficient and serves the tenant base more effectively to maintain existing MFH than to build another property in the same location; or

(2) The MFH has been maintained to such an extent that it can be expected to continue providing affordable, decent, safe and sanitary housing for 20 years beyond the date of the loan to finance a final payment; and

(3) Funds are available.

(c) Term. The term of Agency loans to finance final payments will not exceed 20 years from the date of the initial loan final payment.

§§3560.75-3560.99 [Reserved]

§3560.100 OMB control number.

The information collection requirements contained in this regulation have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and have been assigned OMB control number 0575-0189. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to vary from 15 minutes to 18 hours per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. A person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Subpart C--Borrower Management and Operations Responsibilities

§3560.101 General.

This subpart sets forth borrower obligations regarding management and operations of multi-family housing (MFH) projects financed by the Agency. As noted in §3560.6, the borrower requirements listed in this subpart must be complied with by the borrower. The borrower may designate in writing a person to act as the borrower's authorized agent.

§3560.102 Housing project management.

(a) General. Borrowers hold final responsibility for housing project management and must ensure that operations comply with the terms of all loan or grant documents, Agency requirements and applicable local, state and Federal laws and ordinances.

Project operations shall be conducted to meet the actual needs and necessary expenses of the property or for any other purpose authorized under Agency regulations. Any party not meeting these responsibilities may be subject to penalties. It is expected that only typical and reasonable expenses be incurred for the services rendered. Consequently, methods to inflate, duplicate, obscure, or failure to disclose the true nature and cost of work performed for the services rendered will cause the Agency to deny budget requests for the services or issue a demand for recovery and reimbursement for unauthorized actions.

(b) Management plan. Borrowers must develop and maintain a management plan for each housing project covered by their loan or grant. The management plan must establish the systems and procedures necessary to ensure that housing project operations comply with Agency requirements.

(1) At a minimum, management plans must address the following items:

(i) Maintenance systems, including procedures for routine maintenance, capital item repair and replacement, and effective energy conservation practices;

(ii) Personnel policies, job descriptions, staffing plans, training procedures for on-site staff. The Borrower will include specific duties and responsibilities of each property manager, site manager and caretaker;

(iii) Front-line management functions to be performed by off-site staff;

(iv) Plans and procedures for providing supplemental services including laundry, vending, and security;

(v) Plans for accounting, record keeping and meeting Agency reporting requirements;

(vi) Procurement procedures;

(vii) Rent and occupancy charge collection procedures, and procedures for requesting and implementing changes in rents, utility allowances, or occupancy charges;

(viii) Plans and procedures for marketing rental units and maintaining compliance with the Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan in accordance with §3560.104;

(ix) Unit leases and leasing policies and procedures, including procedures for maintaining and purging waiting lists, determining applicant eligibility, certifying and recertifying income, tenant selection, and occupancy policies such as security deposit amounts, occupancy rules, termination of leases or occupancy agreements and eviction;

(x) Plans for allowing tenant participation in property operations and for fostering tenant relationships with management;

(xi) Procedures for applicant and tenant appeals; and

(xii) Describe how management will make known to tenants and applicants that management will provide reasonable accommodations under the Fair Housing Act, section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and regulations implemented there under at the borrower's expense unless to do so would cause an undue financial or administrative burden, how such requests are to be made, and who within management will have the authority to approve or disapprove a request for an accommodation.

(2) Loan or grant applicants must submit a management plan before the Agency will give final approval to the loan or grant application. The plan must address the required items identified in paragraph (b)(1) of this section in sufficient detail to enable the Agency to monitor housing project performance.

(c) Management plan effective period. A management plan remains in effect as long as it accurately reflects housing project operations and the housing project is in compliance with the Agency requirements.

(1) Borrowers must submit an updated management plan to the Agency if operations change or are no longer consistent with the management plan on file with the Agency.

(2) When there are no changes in operations, borrowers must submit a certification to the Agency every 3 years stating that operations are consistent with the management plan and the plan is adequate to assure compliance with the loan and grant documents and Agency requirements or applicable local, state and Federal laws.

(3) If the Agency determines that operations are in compliance with Agency requirements, loan or grant agreements, or applicable local, state, and Federal laws, but are not consistent with the management plan, the Agency will require the borrower to:

(i) Revise the management plan to accurately reflect housing operations;

(ii) Take actions to ensure the management plan is followed; or

(iii) Advise the Agency in writing of the action taken.

(4) When a housing project is being transferred from one borrower to another, the transferee must submit a management plan that addresses the required items identified in paragraph (b)(1) of this section in sufficient detail to enable the Agency to give final approval of the transfer.

(d) Housing projects with compliance violations. Upon receiving notice of compliance violations in accordance with §3560.354, borrowers must submit to the Agency:

(1) Revisions to the management plan establishing the changes in housing operations that will be made to restore compliance;

(2) If the borrower determines the compliance violations were due to a failure to follow the management plan, the borrower must certify to the Agency that the management plan is adequate to assure compliance with the applicable requirements of this part and submit a written description of the actions they will take to ensure the management plan is followed; or

(3) If the Agency discovers continued discrepancies between a management plan and housing project operations or compliance violations, the Agency may require the borrower to install a different management agent acceptable to the Agency as described in paragraph (e) of this section.

(e) Acceptable management agents. Borrowers must obtain Agency approval of the agent proposed to manage a housing project prior to entering into any formal agreement with the agent and prior to allowing the agent to assume responsibility for housing project operations. Borrowers that plan to self-manage a housing project also must receive Agency approval before assuming responsibility for housing operations.

(1) Borrowers must submit a written request for Agency approval of the proposed management agent at least 45 days prior to the date the agent is to assume responsibility for operations. This request must include a profile of the proposed management agent that provides sufficient information to allow the Agency to evaluate whether the agent is acceptable.

(2) The Agency will deny approval of any proposed management agent that cannot provide evidence of at least two years of experience and satisfactory performance in directing and overseeing the management of similar federally-assisted MFH.

(3) The Agency may issue approval of a management agent that does not meet the requirements of §3560.102(e)(2) if the management agent can provide evidence that indicates the ability to successfully manage a MFH project in accordance with Agency requirements.

(4) If a borrower enters into an agreement with a management agent or begins to self-manage prior to receiving Agency approval, the Agency will place the borrower in non-monetary default status and will require the borrower to immediately terminate the contract with the management agent.

(f) Self-management. Borrowers may self-manage a housing project but must receive Agency approval before assuming responsibility for housing operations. Borrowers that plan to self-manage must meet all requirements of §3560.102, except for paragraph (h) of this section.

(g) Identity-of-interest disclosure. Borrowers and management agents must disclose to the Agency all identity-of-interest relationships which they have with firms and must receive Agency approval to use such firms prior to entering into any contractual relationships with such entities that involve Agency funds.

(1) This disclosure must include any identity-of-interest relationships between:

(i) The borrower and the management agent;

(ii) The borrower or management agent and the providers of supplies and services to the housing project; and

(iii) The borrower or the management agent and employees of any of the above.

(2) Failure to disclose such relationships may subject the borrower, the management agent, and the other firms or employees found to have an identity of interest relationship to suspension, debarment, or other remedies available to the Agency.

(3) After disclosure of an identity-of-interest relationship:

(i) The borrower, management agent, and supplier of goods and services must provide documentation proving that use of identity-of-interest firms is in the best interest of the housing project;

(ii) Any supplier of goods and services must certify in writing to the Agency that the individual or organization has a viable, on-going trade or business qualified and licensed, if appropriate, to do the work for which a contract is being proposed;

(iii) The borrower, management agent, and supplier of goods and services must agree, in writing, that all records related to the housing project will be made available to the Agency, Office of the Inspector General (OIG), General Accountability Office (GAO), or a representative of the Agency, upon request; and

(iv) The Agency will deny the use of an identity-of-interest firm when the Agency determines such use is not in the best interest of the Federal Government or the tenants.

(h) Management agreement. Borrowers contracting with a management agent must execute a management agreement that establishes:

(1) The management agent's responsibility to comply with Agency requirements and local, state, and Federal laws;

(2) That the management fee is payable out of the housing project's general operating account consistent with the requirements of paragraph (i) of this section; and

(3) The Agency's authority to terminate the agreement for failure to operate the housing project in accordance with Agency requirements or local, state, or Federal laws.

(i) Management fees. Management fees will be an allowable expense to be paid from the housing project's general operating account only if the fee is approved by the Agency as a reasonable cost to the housing project and documented on the management certification. Management fees must be developed in accordance with the following:

(1) The management fee may compensate the management entity only for the specifically identified bundle of services to be provided to the housing project. Costs and services to be paid as part of the bundle of services include:

- (i) Supervision by the management agent and its staff (time, knowledge, and expertise) of overall operations and capital improvements of the site.
- (ii) Hiring, supervision, and termination of on-site staff.
- (iii) General maintenance of project books and records (general ledger, accounts payable and receivable, payroll, etc.). Preparation and distribution of payroll for all on-site employees, including the costs of preparing and submitting all appropriate tax reports and deposits, unemployment and workers' compensation reports, and other IRS- or state-required reports.
- (iv) Training provided to on-site staff at the project site.
- (v) Preparation and submission of proposed annual budgets and negotiation of approval with the Agency, other governmental agencies and the borrowers.

- (xiii) Overhead of management agent, including:
 - (A) Establish, maintain, and control an accounting system sufficient to carry out accounting supervision responsibilities.
 - (B) Maintain agent office arrangements, staff, equipment, furniture, and services necessary to communicate effectively with the properties, the Agency or other governmental agency and with the borrowers.
 - (C) Postage expenses related to the normal responsibility for mailings to the properties, the Agency or other governmental agency, the tenants, the vendors, and the owners.

(D) Expense of telephone and facsimile communication to the properties, tenants, the Agency or other governmental agency, and the borrowers.

(E) Direct costs of insurance (fidelity bonds covering central office staff, computer and data coverage, general liability, etc.) directly related to protection of the funds and records of the borrower.

(F) Central office staff training and ongoing certifications.

(G) Maintenance of all required profession and business licenses and permits. (This does not include project site office permits or licenses.)

(H) Insurance coverage for agent's office and operations (Property, Auto, Liability, E&O, Casualty, Workers Compensation, etc.)

(I) Travel of agent staff to the properties for on-site inspection, training, or supervision activities.

(xxii) Storage of records and adherence to records retention requirements.

(xxiii) Assist on-site staff with tenant relations and problems. Provide assistance to on-site staff in severe actions (eviction, death, insurance loss, etc.).

(xxiv) Oversight of general and preventive maintenance procedures and policies.

(xxv) Development and oversight of asset replacement plans.

(xxvi) Oversight of preparation of section 504 reviews, development of plans, and implementation of improvements necessary to comply with plans and section 504 requirements.

(xxvii) Reporting to general and limited partners and State agencies for Low Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC)-compliance purposes.

(2) Management fees may consist of a base per occupied unit fee and add-on fees for specific housing project characteristics. Management entities may be eligible to receive the full base per occupied unit fee for any month or part of a month during which the unit is occupied.

(i) Periodically, the Agency will develop a range of base per occupied unit fees that will be paid in each state. The Agency will develop the fees based on a review of housing industry data. The final base for occupied unit fees for each state will be made available to all borrowers.

(ii) Periodically, the Agency will develop the amount and qualifications to receive add-on fees. The final set of qualifications will be made available to all borrowers.

(3) Allowable Administrative Expenses.

(i) Identifying the Type of Administrative Expense. Management Plans and Agreements must describe if administrative expenses are to be paid from the management fee or paid for as a project cost.

(A) A management plan is required for all projects. The management plan should describe administrative expenses paid from management agent fees or project operations. The management plan should provide job descriptions for the site manager, the management agent and other personnel. It is important that these documents accurately reflect the duties being performed by the various personnel. The management plan must meet the standards set out in this rule.

(B) A task list should be used to identify which services are included in the management fee, which services are included in project operations, and which are pro-rated along with the methodology used to pro-rating of expenses between management agent fees and project operations. Some property responsibilities are completed at the property and some offsite. Agent responsibilities may be performed at the property, the management office, or at some other location.

(C) Disputes may arise as to who performs certain services. The management plan and job descriptions should normally provide sufficient clarity to avoid or resolve any such disputes; however, sometimes clarifications and supporting materials may be required to resolve disputes. The decision must be made based on the most complete evaluation of the facts presented.

(ii) Allowable Administrative Expenses. Payroll related administrative expenses are allowable expenses. Postage expense to mail out rental applications, third-party (asset income and adjustments to income) verifications, application processing correspondence (acceptance or denial letters), mailing project invoice payments, required correspondence, and report submittals to various regulatory authorities for the managed property are allowable project expenses no matter what location or point of origin the mail is generated. Photocopying or printing expense related to actual production of project brochures, marketing pieces, forms, reports, notices, and newsletters are allowable project expenses no matter what location or point of origin the work is performed including outsourcing the work to a professional printer. Correspondence or reports required for record retention or project compliance are allowable project expenses. The cost or expense of equipment and any related equipment service contract is a management agent direct expense, unless the machine becomes the property of the project after purchase.

(iii) Determining if Expenses are Reasonable. Generally, expenses charged to project operations, whether for management agent services or other expenses, must be reasonable, typical, necessary and show a clear benefit to the residents of the property. Services and expenses charged to the property must show value added and be for authorized purposes. If such value is not apparent, the service or expense should be examined.

(A) Administrative expenses for project operations exceeding 23 percent, or those typical for the area, of gross potential basic rents and revenues (i.e., referred to as gross potential rents in industry publications) highlight a need for closer review for unnecessary expenditures. Budget approval is required and project resources may not always permit an otherwise allowable expense to be incurred if it is not fiscally prudent in the market.

(B) Excessive administrative expenses can result in inadequate funds to meet other essential project needs, including expenditures for repair and maintenance needed to keep the project in sound physical condition. Actions that are improper or not fiscally prudent may warrant budget disapproval and/or a demand for recovery action.

(4) Unallowable Administrative Expenses.

(i) Certain expenses are not allowable such as legal fees, association dues, bonuses or monetary performance awards, parties, computer hardware and some software, and telephone purchases.

(ii) It is inappropriate to charge for legal services to represent any interest other than the borrower's interest (i.e., representing a general partner or limited partner to defend their individual owner interest is not allowable).

Where there is no finding of a borrower's fault, commercially reasonable legal expenses and costs for defending or settling lawsuits (without admission of liability) are allowable.

(iii) Charging for payment of penalties, including opposition legal fees resulting from an award finding improper actions on the part of the owner or management agent is generally an inappropriate project expense. The party responsible generally pays such expenses for violating the standards or by their insurance carriers.

(iv) Association dues to be paid by the project should only be related to training for site managers or management agents. To the extent that association dues can document training for site managers or management agents related to project activities by actual cost or pro-ratio, a reasonable expense may be billed to the project.

(v) It is inappropriate for the project to pay for bonuses or monetary performance awards to site managers or management agents that are not clearly provided for by the site manager salary contract.

(vi) Billing the project for parties that are large or unreasonable, such as renting expensive party halls or hotel rooms and payment for alcoholic beverages or gifts to management agent staff are also inappropriate.

(vii) It is inappropriate to bill the project for computer hardware, some software, and internal connections that are beyond the scope and size reasonably needed for the services supplied (i.e., purchasing equipment or software for use by a site manager that is clearly beyond that needed to support project operations). Note that computer learning center activities benefiting tenants are not covered in this prohibition.

(viii) It is inappropriate to bill the project for practices that are inefficient such as routine use of collect calls from a site manager to a management agent office.

(j) Management certification.

(1) As a condition of approval of the management agent and the management fee, the borrower and the management agents must execute an Agency-approved certification establishing an allowable management fee to be paid out of the housing project's general operating account and certifying that:

(i) The borrower and management agent agree to operate the housing project in accordance with the management plan;

(ii) The borrower and the management agent will comply with Agency requirements, loan or grant agreements, applicable local, state and Federal laws and ordinances, and contract obligations, will certify that no payments have been made to anyone in return for awarding the management contract to the management agent, and will agree that such payments will not be made in the future;

(iii) The borrower and the management agent will comply with Agency notices or other policy directives that relate to the management of the housing project;

(iv) The management agreement between the borrower and management agent complies with the requirements of this section;

(v) The borrower and the management agent will comply with Agency requirements regarding management fees as specified in paragraph (i) of this section, and allocation of management costs between the management fee and the housing project financial accounts specified in §3560.302(c)(3);

(vi) The borrower and the management agent will not purchase goods and services from entities that have an identity-of-interest (IOI) with the borrower or the management agent until the IOI relationship has been disclosed to the Agency according to paragraph (g) of this section, not denied by the Agency under paragraph (d)(3) of this section, and it has been determined that the costs are as low as or lower than arms-length, open-market purchases; and

(vii) The borrower and the management agent agree that all records related to the housing project are the property of the housing project and that the Agency, OIG, or GAO may inspect the housing records and the records of the borrower, management agent, and suppliers of goods and services having an IOI with the borrower or with a management agent acting as an agent of the borrower upon demand.

(2) A certification will be executed each time a management agent is proposed and a management agreement is executed or renewed. Any amendment to a management certification must be approved by the Agency and the borrower.

(k) Procurement. The borrower and the agents of the borrower must obtain contracts, materials, supplies, utilities, and services at a reasonable cost and seek the most advantageous terms to the housing project. Any discounts, rebates, fees, proceeds, or commissions obtainable with respect to purchases, service contracts, or other transactions must be credited to the housing project.

(l) Electronic Submission of Data to Agency. For properties with eight or more housing units, the Agency may specify that borrowers submit information required by this part electronically.

§3560.103 Maintaining housing projects.

(a) Physical maintenance.

(1) The purposes of physical maintenance are the following:

(i) Provide decent, safe, and sanitary housing; and

(ii) Maintain the security of the property.

(2) Borrowers are responsible for the long-term, cost-effective preservation of the housing project.

(3) At all times, borrowers must maintain housing projects in compliance with local, state and federal laws and regulations and according to the following Agency requirements for affordable, decent, safe, and sanitary housing. Agency design requirements are discussed in §3560.60. The Agency acknowledges that property maintenance is an ongoing process and will not penalize borrowers for less than 100 percent compliance as long as it is evident that the borrower is striving to achieve the standards listed in this paragraph. In addition, the Agency understands that although its multifamily housing portfolio is relatively homogeneous, no one standard is appropriate for all properties.

(i) Utilities. The housing project must have an adequate and safe water supply, a functional and safe waste disposal system, and must be free of hazardous waste material.

(ii) Drainage and erosion control. The housing project must have drainage that effectively protects the housing project from water damage from standing water and erosion. Units, basements, and crawl spaces must be free of water seepage.

Brick veneers must be free of missing mortar or bricks.

(xi) Roofs, flashing, and gutters. The housing project must have gutters and downspouts, where appropriate for climatic conditions, that are securely attached, clean, and finished or painted properly with splash blocks or extenders that direct water flow away from the building. The housing project must have a roof that is free of leaks, defective covering, curled or missing shingles and which is not sagging or buckling. Fascia and soffits must be intact.

(xii) Windows, doors, and exterior structures. The housing project must have screens that are free of tears, breaks and rips and windows that are unbroken. Elevators or mechanical lifts must be functional and kept in good repair.

(xiv) Common area signage. The following must be posted in a conspicuous place in a common area: "Justice for All" poster, HUD equal housing opportunity poster including the Spanish version if there are Hispanic Limited English Proficiency tenants or applicants, current affirmative fair housing marketing plan, the tenant grievance and appeal procedure, housing project occupancy rules, office hours and phone number, and emergency hours and phone number.

(xv) Flooring. If a housing project has carpeting, the carpet must be clean, without excessive wear, and seams that are secure and stretched properly. If the housing project has resilient flooring, the flooring must be clean, unstained, free of tears and breaks, and seams that are secure.

(xxii) Insect or vermin infestation. The housing project must have all units free of visible signs of insects or rodents and must be free of signs of insect or rodent damage.

(xxiii) Range and range hood. The housing project must have range units in which all elements are operable, electrical connections are secure and insulated, doors and drawers which are secure, control knobs and handles which are in place and secure, and housing which is sound and the finish is free of chips, damage, or signs of rust. The range hood fan and light must be operable.

(xxiv) Refrigerator. The housing project must have refrigerators in which the cooler and freezer are operating properly, the shelves and door containers are secure and free of rust, door gaskets are in good condition and functioning properly, and the housing is sound and the finish is free of chips, damage, or signs of rust.

(xxv) Sinks. The housing project must have sinks in which the fittings work properly and are free of leaks, plumbing connections under the cabinet which are free of leaks, the finish is free of chips, damage, or signs of rust, the strainer is in good condition and in place, and which are secured to a wall, counter, or vanity top.

(xxvi) Cabinets. The housing project must have cabinets and vanities which are secure to walls or floor and have faces, doors, and drawer fronts that are in good condition and free of breaks and peeling. Shelving must be in place, fastened securely, and free of warps. The housing project must have counter tops which are secure and free of burn marks or chips, bottoms under sinks which are free of evidence of warping, breaks, or being water soaked. Kitchen counter, vanity tops, and back splashes must be properly caulked.

(xxvii) Water closets. The housing project must have the base of the water closets at the floor properly caulked. The tanks must be free of cracks or leaks and have a lid which fits and is in good condition. The seats must be secure and in good condition, and the flushing mechanisms must be in good condition and operating properly. The stools must be free of cracks and breaks and be securely fastened to the floor.

(xxviii) Bathtub and shower stalls. The housing project must have tubs or shower stalls which are free of cracks, breaks, and leaks, and a strainer in good condition and in place. The housing project must have walls and floors of the bathtubs which are properly caulked, tops and sides of shower stalls must be properly caulked, and the finish is free of chips, damage, or signs of rust.

(4) The Agency expects that upon discovery of a condition not in compliance with the standards listed in this section that the borrower will remedy the situation in a timeframe required by the Agency. The Borrower must provide documentation and justification for any failure to meet such timeframe. Properties with deficiencies in the process of being addressed will not be deemed to be out of compliance unless there are so many deficiencies that it would result in a declaration of substantial noncompliance and call into questions the viability of the property and the effectiveness of the borrower's maintenance program. Failure to make such corrections or repairs constitutes a non-monetary default under §3560.452(e).

(b) Maintenance systems. Borrowers must establish the following maintenance systems and must describe these systems in their management plan.

(1) A system for routine maintenance, including:

- (i) Regular maintenance tasks that can be prescheduled or planned; and
- (ii) Tasks performed on a regular basis to maintain compliance with the standards established in paragraph (a)(3) of this section.

(2) A system for responsive maintenance including:

- (i) A process for responding to requests for maintenance from tenants;
- (ii) A process for responding to unexpected malfunctions of equipment or damages to building systems such as a furnace breakdown or a water leak; and
- (iii) A 'work order' process for managing and tracking responses to maintenance requests and the performance of maintenance tasks.

(3) A system for preventive maintenance including:

- (i) Maintenance of mechanical systems, building exteriors, elevators, and heating and cooling systems which require specially trained personnel; and
- (ii) Maintenance that supports energy-efficient operation of the housing project.

(4) A system for correcting deficiencies identified by periodic inspections, which must include:

- (i) A move-in inspection;
- (ii) A move-out inspection; and
- (iii) An annual inspection of occupied units.

(c) Capital budgeting and planning.

(1) Borrowers must develop a capital budget as part of their annual housing project budget required under §3560.303. The capital budget must include anticipated expenditures on the long-term capital needs of the housing project to assure adequate maintenance and replacement of capital items.

(2) If the borrower requests an increase in the project's reserve for replacement account, the borrower must have a capital needs assessment prepared and submitted to the Agency to reflect anticipated needs of the housing project for replacement of capital equipment and systems. The cost for preparation of a capital needs assessment will be approved by the Agency as an eligible housing project expense provided the capital needs assessment is reasonable in cost and meets Agency requirements.

(3) [Reserved].

(4) As a part of the annual budget process, borrowers may request an increase in the amount to be contributed and held in the housing project reserve account to fund the needs identified in an Agency-approved capital needs assessment.

(5) At any time, borrowers may request and the Agency may approve amendments to loan or grant documents to increase the amount of funds to be contributed and held in a reserve account to cover the cost of capital improvements based on the needs identified in an Agency approved capital needs assessment. Borrowers must assure improvements are performed as specified in the capital needs assessment.

§3560.104 Fair housing.

(a) General. Borrowers must comply with the requirements of the Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988, and this section to meet their fair housing responsibilities.

(b) Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan.

(1) Borrowers with housing projects that have four or more rental units must prepare and maintain an Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan (AFHMP) as defined in 24 CFR part 200, subpart M.

(2) Loan or grant applicants must submit an AFHMP for Agency approval prior to loan closing or grant approval. Plans must be updated by the borrower whenever components of the plan change.

(3) Borrowers must post the approved AFHMP for public inspection at the housing project site, rental office, or at any other location where tenant applications for the project are received.

(4) When developing the plan, the following items must be considered by the borrower:

(i) Direction of marketing activities. The plan should be designed to attract applications for occupancy from all potentially eligible groups of people in the housing marketing area, regardless of race, color, religion, sex, age, familial status, national origin, or disability. The plan must show which efforts will be made to reach very low-income or low-income groups who would least likely be expected to apply without special outreach efforts.

(ii) Marketing program. The applicant or borrower should determine which methods of marketing such as radio, newspaper, TV, signs, etc., are best suited to reach those very low-income or low-income groups who are in the market area but who are least likely to apply for occupancy. Marketing must not rely on “word of mouth” advertising.

(A) Advertising.

(1) Frequency. The borrower should advertise availability of housing units in advance of their availability to allow time to receive and process applications. Advertising by newsprint or electronic media must occur at least annually to promote project visibility, even if there is an adequate waiting list.

(2) Posters, brochures, etc. Any radio, TV or newspaper advertisement, pamphlets, or brochures used must identify that the complex is operated on an equal housing opportunity basis. This must be done through the use of the equal housing opportunity statement, slogan, or logo type. Copies of the proposed material must be sent when requesting approval of the plan.

(B) Community contacts. Community leaders and special interest groups such as community, public interest, religious organizations, and organizations for the disabled must be contacted. Owners and managers of projects with fully accessible apartments must adopt suitable means to ensure that information regarding the availability of accessible units reaches eligible persons with disabilities. In addition, owners and managers of elderly housing must ensure that information regarding eligibility reaches people who are less than 62 years old but who are eligible because they are disabled. Appropriate contacts are with physical rehabilitation centers, hospitals, workshops for the disabled, commissions on aging, and veterans' organizations.

(C) Rental staff. All staff persons responsible for renting the units must have had training provided on Federal, state, and local fair housing laws and regulations and in the requirements of fair housing marketing and in those actions necessary to carry out the marketing plan. Copies of instructions to the staff regarding fair housing and a summary of the training they have received must be attached to the plan when requesting approval.

(iii) Marketing records. Records must be maintained by the borrower reflecting efforts to fulfill the plan. These records will be reviewed by the Agency during civil rights compliance reviews. Plans will be updated as needed.

(c) Accommodations and communication. The borrower must take appropriate steps to ensure effective communication with applicants, tenants, and members of the public with disabilities. At a minimum, the following steps must be taken:

(1) Furnish appropriate auxiliary aids (electronic, mechanical, or personal assistance) where necessary, to afford an individual with disabilities an equal opportunity to participate in and enjoy the benefits of Agency financed housing.

(i) In determining what auxiliary aids are necessary, the borrower must give primary consideration to the requests of individuals with disabilities.

(ii) The borrower is not required to provide individually prescribed devices, readers for personal use or study, or other devices of a personal nature.

(2) Where a borrower communicates with applicants and tenants by telephone, telecommunication devices for deaf persons or equally effective communication systems must be available for use.

(3) The borrower must implement procedures to ensure that interested persons, including persons with impaired vision or hearing, can obtain information concerning the existence and location of accessible services, activities, and facilities in the housing project and community.

(4) The borrower is required to provide reasonable accommodations at the project's expense unless doing so would result in undue financial or administrative burden on the project. Examples of reasonable accommodations may include such items as the installation of grab bars, ramps, and roll-in showers. Reasonable accommodations may also include the modification of rules or policies such as permitting a disabled tenant to have a two-bedroom unit to accommodate a resident assistant or to permit a disabled tenant to have a companion animal. The decision whether the requested accommodation is reasonable or unreasonable or whether to provide the accommodation would cause an undue financial or administrative burden lies with the borrower and would be for the borrower to defend should a complaint subsequently be filed. Borrowers may wish to consult with their legal counsel prior to denying a request. If the borrower takes the position that providing an accommodation would cause an undue financial or administrative burden, the borrower must permit the tenant to make reasonable modifications at the tenant's expense. Requests for reasonable accommodations must be handled in accordance with the management plan.

(d) Housing sign requirements.

(1) A permanent sign identifying the housing project is required for all housing projects approved on or after September 13, 1977. Permanent signs are recommended for all housing projects approved prior to September 13, 1977. The sign must meet the following requirements:

(i) Must be located at the primary site entrance and be readable and recognizable from the roadside;

(ii) Must be located near the site manager's office when the housing project has multiple sites and portable signs must be placed where vacancies exist at other site locations of a "scattered site" housing project;

(iii) May be of any shape;

(iv) Must be not less than 16 square feet of area for housing projects with 8 or more rental units (smaller housing projects may have smaller signs);

(v) Must be made of durable material including its supports;

(vi) Must include the housing project name;

(vii) Must show rental contact information including but not limited to the office location of the housing project and a telephone number where applicant inquiries may be made;

(viii) Must show either the equal housing opportunity logotype (the house and equal sign, with the words equal housing opportunity underneath the house); the equal housing opportunity slogan "equal housing opportunity"; or the equal housing opportunity statement, "We are pledged to the letter and spirit of U.S. policy for the achievement of equal housing opportunity throughout the nation. We encourage and support an affirmative advertising and marketing program in which there are no barriers to obtaining housing because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin." If the logotype is used, the size of the logo must be no less than 5 percent of the total size of the project sign.

(ix) May display the Agency or Department logotype; and

(x) Must comply with state and local codes.

(2) Accessible parking spaces must be reserved for individuals with disabilities by a sign showing the international symbol of accessibility. The sign must be mounted on a post at a height that is readily visible from an occupied vehicle. In snow areas, the sign must be visible above piled snow. If there is an office, the designated parking space must be van accessible.

(3) When the continuous unobstructed ingress or egress disabled accessibility route to a primary building entrance is other than the usual or obvious route, the alternate route for disabled accessibility must be clearly marked with international accessibility symbols and directional signs to aid a disabled person's ingress or egress to the building, through an accessible entrance, and to the accessible common use and public and living areas.

§3560.105 Insurance and taxes.

(a) General. Borrowers must purchase and maintain property insurance on all buildings included as security for an Agency loan. Also, borrowers must furnish fidelity coverage, liability insurance, and any other insurance coverage required by the Agency in accordance with this paragraph to protect the security of the asset. Failure to maintain adequate insurance coverage or pay taxes may lead to a non-monetary default under §3560.452(c).

(b) General insurance requirements. All insurance policies must meet the requirements established by the loan documents and this section.

(1) At loan closing, prior to loan approval, applicants must provide documentary evidence that insurance requirements have been met. The borrower must maintain insurance in accordance with requirements of their loan or grant documents and this section until the loan is repaid

(2) Insurance companies must meet the requirements of paragraph (e) of this section.

(3) Insurance coverage amount, terms, and conditions must meet the requirements of paragraph (f) of this section.

(4) The Agency must be named as loss co-payee on all property insurance policies where it holds first lien position. The Agency must be named as an additional insured if its lien position is other than first.

(c) Borrower failure or inability to meet insurance requirements. The Agency will take the following actions in cases where a borrower is unwilling or unable to meet the Agency's insurance requirements:

(1) The Agency will obtain insurance for Agency financed property if the borrower fails to do so. If borrowers refuse to pay the insurance premium, the Agency will pay the insurance premium and charge the premium payment amount to the borrower's Agency account and will place the borrower in default as described in §3560.452(c).

(2) If borrowers habitually fail to pay premiums in a timely manner, the Agency will require borrowers to escrow amounts appropriate to pay insurance premiums.

(3) If insurance that meets the Agency's specified requirements is not available (e.g. flood or hurricane insurance), the Agency may accept the insurance policy that most nearly conforms to established requirements.

(4) If the best insurance policy a borrower can obtain at the time the borrower receives the loan or grant contains a loss deductible clause greater than that allowed by paragraph (f)(8) of this section, the insurance policy and an explanation of the reasons why more adequate insurance is not available must be submitted to the Agency prior to loan or grant approval.

(d) Credits, refunds, or rebates. Borrowers must credit any refund or rebate from an insurance company to the project's general operating account or reserve account.

(e) Insurance company requirements. All insurers, insurance agents, and brokers must meet the following requirements:

- (1) Be licensed or authorized to do business in the state or jurisdiction where the housing project is located; and
- (2) Be deemed reputable and financially sound as determined by the Agency.

(f) Property insurance. The following conditions apply to property insurance purchased for Agency-financed housing projects.

(1) At a minimum, borrowers must obtain the following types of property insurance:

(i) Hazard insurance. A policy which generally covers loss or damage by fire, smoke, lightning, hail, explosion, riot, civil commotion, aircraft, and vehicles. These policies may also be known as “Fire and Extended Coverage,” “Homeowners,” “All Physical Loss,” or “Broad Form” policies.

(ii) Flood insurance. This coverage is required for properties located in Special Flood Hazard Areas (SFHA) as defined in 44 CFR part 65, as determined by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).

(iii) Builder's risk insurance. A policy that insures dwellings under construction or rehabilitation.

(iv) Elevators, boiler, and machinery coverage. This coverage is required for properties that operate elevators, steam boilers, turbines, engines, or other pressure vessels.

(2) Other types of insurance that the Agency may require:

(i) Windstorm Coverage.

(ii) Earthquake Coverage.

(iii) Sinkhole Insurance or Mine Subsidence Insurance.

(3) For property insurance, the minimum coverage amount must equal the “Total Estimated Reproduction Cost of New Improvements,” as reflected in the housing project's most recent appraisal. At a minimum, property insurance coverage must be adequate to cover the lesser of the depreciated replacement value of essential buildings or the unpaid balance of all secured debt, unless such coverage is financially unfeasible for the housing project.

(i) If the cost of the minimum level of property insurance coverage exceeds what the housing project can reasonably afford, the borrower, with Agency concurrence, must obtain the maximum amount of property insurance coverage that the housing project can afford.

(ii) If the coverage amount is less than the depreciated replacement value of all essential buildings, borrowers must obtain coverage on one or more of the most essential buildings, as determined by the Agency.

(iii) When required, the coverage amount for flood insurance must equal the outstanding loan balance or the maximum coverage allowed by FEMA's "National Flood Insurance Program."

(4) Except for flood insurance, property insurance is not required if the housing project:

(i) Has a depreciated replacement value of $2,500 or less; or

(ii) Is in a condition which the Agency determines makes insurance coverage not economical.

(5) Policies for several buildings or properties located on noncontiguous sites are acceptable if the insurer provides proof that each secured building or property related to the housing project is as fully protected as if a separate policy were issued.

(6) Borrowers must notify the Agency and their insurance company agents of any loss or damage to insured property and collect the amount of the loss.

(7) When the Agency is in the first lien position and an insurance settlement represents a satisfactory adjustment of a loss, the insurance settlement will be deposited in the housing project's general operating account unless the settlement exceeds $5,000. If the settlement exceeds $5,000, the funds will be placed in the reserve account for the housing project.

(i) Insurance settlement funds which remain after all repairs, replacements, and other authorized disbursements have been made retain their status as housing project funds.

(ii) If the indebtedness secured by the insured property has been paid in full or the insurance settlement is in payment for loss of property on which the Agency has no claim; a loss draft which includes the Agency as co-payee may be endorsed by the Agency without recourse and delivered to the borrower.

(8) When the Agency is not in the first lien position and the insurance settlement represents satisfactory adjustment of the loss, the Agency will release the settlement funds to the primary mortgagee upon agreement of all parties to the provisions contained in agreements between the Agency and the primary lienholder.

(9) Allowable deductible amounts are as follows:

(i) Hazard/Property Insurance.

(A) $1,000 on any housing project with an insurable value under $200,000; or

(B) One-half of one percent (0.0050) of the insurable value, up to $10,000 on housing projects with insurance values over $200,000.

(ii) Flood Insurance. The Agency allows a maximum deductible of $5,000 per building.

(iii) Windstorm Coverage. When windstorm coverage is excluded from the "All Risk" policy, the deductible must not exceed five percent of the total insured value.

(iv) Earthquake Coverage. In the event that the borrower obtains earthquake coverage, the Agency is to be named as a loss payee. The deductible should be no more than 10 percent of the coverage amount.

(v) Sinkhole Insurance or Mine Subsidence Insurance. The deductible for sinkhole insurance or mine subsidence insurance should be similar to what would be required for earthquake insurance.

(10) Deductible amounts (excluding flood, windstorm, earthquake and sinkhole insurance or mine subsidence insurance) must be accounted for in the replacement reserve account. Borrowers who wish to increase the deductible amount must deposit an additional amount to the reserve account equal to the difference between the Agency's maximum deductible and the requested new deductible. The Borrower will be required to maintain this additional amount so long as the higher deductible is in force.

(g) Liability insurance. The borrower must carry comprehensive general liability insurance with coverage amounts that meet or exceed Agency requirements. This coverage must insure all common areas, commercial space, and public ways in the security premises. Coverage may also include borrower exposure to certain risks such as errors and omissions, environmental damages, or protection against discrimination claims. The insurer's limit of liability per occurrence for personal injury, bodily injury, or property damage under the terms of coverage must be at least $1 million.

(h) Fidelity coverage. Borrowers must provide fidelity coverage on any personnel entrusted with the receipt, custody, and disbursement of any housing monies, securities, or readily salable property other than money or securities. Borrowers must have fidelity coverage in force as soon as there are assets within the organization and it must be obtained before any loan funds or interim financing funds are made available to the borrower. In addition, the following conditions apply to fidelity insurance:

(1) Fidelity insurance coverage must be documented on a bond form acceptable to the Agency.

(2) Fidelity coverage policies must declare in the insuring agreements that the insurance company will provide protection to the insured against the loss of money, securities, and property other than money and securities, through any criminal or dishonest act or acts committed by any employee, whether acting alone or in collusion with others, not to exceed the amount of indemnity stated in the declaration of coverage.

(i) The fidelity insurance policy, at a minimum, must include an insuring agreement that covers employee dishonesty.

(ii) Fidelity coverage amounts and deductible:

Fidelity coverage	Deductible level
Under $50,000.....	$1,000
In the area of $100,000.....	2,500
In the area of $250,000.....	5,000
In the area of $500,000.....	10,000
In the area of $1,000,000.....	15,000

(3) Blanket crime insurance coverage or fidelity bonds are acceptable types of fidelity coverage.

(4) At a minimum, borrowers must provide an endorsement, listing all of the borrower's Agency financed properties and their locations covered under the policy or bond as evidence of required fidelity insurance. The policy or bond may also include properties or operations other than Agency financed properties on separate endorsement listings.

(5) Individual or organizational borrowers must have fidelity coverage when they have employees with access to the MFH complex assets. Borrowers who use a management agent with exclusive access to housing assets must require the agent to have fidelity coverage on all principals and employees with access to the housing assets. If active management reverts to the borrower, the borrower must obtain fidelity coverage, as a first course of business.

(6) Fidelity coverage is not required under the following circumstances:

(i) The borrower is an individual or a general partnership and the individual or general partner will be responsible for the financial activities of the housing project.

(ii) In the case of a land trust where the beneficiary is responsible for management, the beneficiary will be treated as an individual.

(iii) A limited partnership (or its general partners) unless one or more of its general partners perform financial acts within the scope of the usual duties of an "employee."

(7) The premium for fidelity coverage of employees and general partners at a housing project is an eligible operating account expense.

(i) The premium of a management agent's fidelity coverage for the agent's principals and employees will be the management agent's business expense (i.e., it is included within the management fee).

(ii) When a housing project employee is covered under the "umbrella" of the management agent's fidelity coverage, the premium may be prorated among the housing projects covered..

(8) Borrowers must review fidelity coverage annually and adjust it as necessary to comply with the requirements of this section.

(i) Taxes. The borrower is responsible for paying all taxes and assessments on a housing project before they become delinquent.

(1) An exception to the above may be made if the borrower has formally contested the amount of the property assessment and escrowed the amount of taxes in question in a manner approved by the Agency.

(2) Failure to pay taxes and assessments when due will be considered a default. If a borrower fails to pay outstanding taxes and assessments, the Agency will pay the outstanding balance and charge the tax or assessment amount, assessed penalties, and any additional incurred costs to the borrower's Agency account.

(3) The Agency will require borrowers who have demonstrated an inability to pay taxes in a timely manner to escrow amounts sufficient to pay taxes.

§§3560.106-3560.149 [Reserved].

§3560.150 OMB control number.

The information collection requirements contained in this regulation have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and have been assigned OMB control number 0575-0189. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to vary from 15 minutes to 18 hours per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. A person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Subpart D--Multi-Family Housing Occupancy

§3560.151 General.

(a) Applicability. This subpart contains borrower and tenant requirements and Agency responsibilities related to occupancy of Agency-financed multi-family housing (MFH) projects. Occupancy eligibility requirements apply to the following:

- (1) Family housing projects, including farm labor housing;
- (2) Elderly housing projects; and
- (3) Congregate housing or group homes for persons with special needs.

(b) Civil rights requirements. All occupancy policies must meet applicable civil rights requirements, as stated in §3560.2.

§3560.152 Tenant eligibility.

(a) General requirements. Except as specified in paragraph (b) of this section, a tenant eligible for occupancy in Agency-financed housing must either:

- (1) Be a United States citizen or qualified alien, and

(2) Qualify as a very low-, low-, or moderate-income household; or

(3) Be eligible under the requirements established to qualify for housing benefits provided by sources other than the Agency, such as U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Section 8 assistance or Low Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC), when a tenant receives such housing benefits.

(b) Exception. Households with incomes above the moderate-income level may occupy housing projects with an Agency loan approved prior to 1968 with a loan agreement that does not restrict occupancy by income.

(c) Requirements for elderly housing, elderly units in mixed housing, congregate housing, and group homes. In addition to the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section, the following occupancy requirements apply to elderly housing, elderly units in mixed housing, and congregate housing or group homes:

(1) For elderly housing, elderly units in mixed housing, and congregate housing the following provisions apply:

(i) Households must meet the definition of an elderly household in §3560.11 to be eligible for occupancy in elderly or congregate housing.

(ii) If non-elderly persons are members of a household where the tenant or co-tenant is an elderly person, the non-elderly persons are eligible for occupancy in the tenant's or co-tenant's rental unit.

(iii) Applicants who will agree to participate in the services provided by a congregate housing project may be given occupancy priority.

(2) For group homes, the following provisions apply:

(i) Occupancy may be limited to a specific group of tenants, such as elderly persons or persons with developmental disabilities, or mental impairments, if such an occupancy limitation is contained in the borrower's management plan.

(ii) Tenants must be able to demonstrate a need for the special services provided by the group home.

(iii) Tenants cannot be required to participate in an ongoing training or rehabilitation program.

(iv) Tenants must be selected from the market area prior to considering applicants from other areas.

(d) Ineligible tenant waiver. The Agency may authorize the borrower in writing, upon receiving the borrower's written request with the necessary documentation, to rent vacant units to ineligible persons for temporary periods to protect the financial interest of the Government. Likewise, this provision may extend to a cooperative. This authority will be for the entire project for periods not to exceed one year. Within the period of the lease, the tenant may not be required to move to allow an eligible applicant to obtain occupancy, should one become available. The Agency must make the following determinations:

(1) There are no eligible persons on a waiting list.

(2) The borrower provided documentation that a diligent but unsuccessful effort to rent any vacant units to an eligible tenant household has been made. Such documentation may consist of advertisements in appropriate publications, posting notices in several public places, including places where persons seeking rental housing would likely make contacts, holding open houses, making appropriate contacts with public housing agencies and organizations, Chambers of Commerce, and real estate agencies.

(3) The borrower agrees to continue with aggressive efforts to locate eligible tenants and retain documentation of all marketing.

(4) The borrower is temporarily unable to achieve or maintain a level of occupancy sufficient to prevent financial default and foreclosure. The Agency's approval of the waiver would then be for a limited duration.

(5) The lease agreement will not be more than 12 months and at its expiration will convert to a month-to-month lease. The monthly lease will require that the unit be vacated upon 30 days notice when an eligible applicant is available.

(6) Tenants residing in Rural Rental Housing (RRH) units who are ineligible because their adjusted annual income exceeds the maximum for the RRH project will be charged the Rural Housing Service (RHS) approved note rent for the size of unit occupied in a Plan II RRH project. In projects operated under Plan I, ineligible tenants will be charged a rental surcharge of 25 percent of the approved note rent.

(e) Tenant certification and verification. Tenants and borrowers must execute an Agency-approved tenant certification form establishing the tenant's eligibility prior to occupancy. In addition, tenant households must be recertified and must execute a tenant certification form at least annually or whenever a change in household income of $100 or more per month occurs. Borrowers must recertify for changes of $50 per month, if the tenant requests that such a change be made.

(1) Tenant requirements.

(i) Tenants must provide borrowers with the necessary income and other household information required by the Agency to determine eligibility.

(ii) Tenants must authorize borrowers to verify information provided to establish their eligibility or determination of tenant contribution.

(iii) Tenants must report all changes in household status that may affect their eligibility to borrowers.

(iv) Tenants who fail to comply with tenant certification and recertification requirements will be considered ineligible for occupancy and will be subject to unauthorized assistance claims, if applicable, as specified in subpart O of this part.

(2) Borrower requirements.

(i) Borrowers must verify household income and other information necessary to establish tenant eligibility for the requested rental unit type, in a format approved by the Agency, prior to a tenant's initial occupancy and prior to annual or other recertifications.

(ii) Borrowers must review all reported changes in household status and assess the impact of these changes on the tenant's eligibility or tenant contribution.

(iii) Borrowers must submit initial or updated tenant certification forms to the Agency within 10 days of the effective date of an initial certification or any changes in a tenant's status. The effective date of an initial or updated tenant certification form will always be a first day of the month.

(iv) Since tenant certifications are used to document interest credit and rental assistance eligibility and are a basic responsibility of the borrower under the loan documents, borrowers who fail to submit annual or updated tenant certification forms within the time period specified in paragraph (e)(2)(iii) of this section will be charged overage, as specified in §3560.203(c). Unauthorized assistance, if any, will be handled in accordance with subpart O of this part.

(v) Borrowers must submit tenant certification forms to the Agency using a format approved by the Agency.

(vi) Borrowers must retain executed tenant certification forms and any supporting documentation in the tenant file for at least 3 years or until the next Agency monitoring visit or compliance review, whichever is longer.

(3) The Agency maintains the right to independently verify tenant eligibility information.

§3560.153 Calculation of household income and assets.

(a) Annual income will be calculated in accordance with 24 CFR 5.609.

(b) Adjusted income will be calculated in accordance with 24 CFR 5.611.

§3560.154 Tenant selection.

(a) Application for occupancy. Borrowers must use tenant application forms that collect sufficient information to properly determine household eligibility and to enable the Agency to monitor compliance with the Fair Housing Act, section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 during compliance reviews. At a minimum, borrowers must use application forms that collect the following information:

(1) Name of the applicant and present address;

(2) Number of household members and their birthdates;

(3) Annual income information calculated in accordance with §3560.153(a);

(4) Adjustments to income calculated in accordance with §3560.153(b);

- (5) Net assets calculated in accordance with §3560.153(c);
- (6) Indication of a need for a unit accessible to individuals with disabilities and any disability adjustments to income;
- (7) Certification by the applicant that the unit will serve as the household's primary residence, and a certification that the applicant is a U.S. citizen or a qualified alien as defined in §3560.11;
- (8) Signature of the applicant and date;
- (9) Race, ethnicity, and sex designation. The following disclosure notice shall be used:

“The information regarding race, ethnicity, and sex designation solicited on this application is requested in order to assure the Federal Government, acting through the Rural Housing Service, that the Federal laws prohibiting discrimination against tenant applications on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, age, and disability are complied with. You are not required to furnish this information, but are encouraged to do so. This information will not be used in evaluating your application or to discriminate against you in any way. However, if you choose not to furnish it, the owner is required to note the race, ethnicity, and sex of individual applicants on the basis of visual observation or surname,” and
- (10) Social security number.

(b) Additional information. Applicants are to be provided a list of any additional information that must be submitted with the application for the application to be considered complete (an application will be considered complete without verification of the applicant information). The list of information will be restricted to the same items for all Agency-assisted properties of a particular type, such as a family or elderly complex.

(c) Application submission. Borrowers must establish when applications may be submitted. Information on the place and times for tenant application submission must be documented in the housing project's management plan and Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing Plan.

(d) Selection of eligible applicants.

(1) Applicants may be determined ineligible for occupancy based on selection criteria other than Agency requirements only if such criteria are contained in the borrower's management plan. Borrower established selection criteria may not contain arbitrary or discriminatory rejection criteria, but may consider an applicant's past rental and credit history and relations with other tenants.

(2) Borrowers with projects receiving low-income housing tax credits (LIHTCs), may leave a housing unit vacant if they are required to rent the available unit to an LIHTC-eligible applicant, and none of the applicants on the waiting list meet the applicable LIHTC eligibility requirements.

(e) Recordkeeping. Borrowers must retain all tenant application forms for at least 3 years. The Agency may require borrowers to submit application information for Agency review.

(f) Waiting lists.

(1) When an applicant has submitted an application form the borrower must place the applicant on the waiting list. All applications, whether complete, eligible, or ineligible, will be placed on the list. The waiting list will document the final disposition of all applications (rejected, withdrawn, or placed in a unit).

(2) The date and time a complete application was submitted will be recorded on the waiting list and will establish priority for selection from the list. If an applicant submits an incomplete application (see paragraph (a) of this section), they must be notified in writing within 10 days of the items that are needed for the application to be considered complete and that priority will not be established until the additional items are received.

(3) The race and the ethnicity of each applicant shall be recorded on the waiting list. This information shall be collected for statistical purposes only and must not be used when making eligibility determinations or in any other discriminatory manner. The information shall be recorded using the race and ethnicity codes that are utilized on the Agency tenant certification form available in the servicing office.

(4) Within 10 days of receipt of a complete application, the Borrower must notify the applicant in writing that he has been selected for immediate occupancy, placed on a waiting list, or rejected.

(5) Selections from the completed applications on the waiting list shall be made in the following priority order:

- (i) Very low-income applicants;
- (ii) Low-income applicants; and
- (iii) Moderate-income applicants.

(g) Priorities and preferences for admission.

(1) Eligible applicants that meet the following conditions must be given priority for occupancy over all other tenants regardless of income. Such applicants, however, will be ranked among themselves by income level, giving priority first to very low-income households, then to low-income households, and finally to moderate-income households.

- (i) Persons who require the special design features of a unit accessible to individuals with disabilities will have priority only for units with these features.
- (ii) In congregate housing facilities, persons who agree to use the services provided by the facility will have priority over other applicants.

(2) Eligible applicants that meet any of the following conditions must be given priority over other applicants in their same income category.

(i) The applicant has a Letter of Priority Entitlement (LOPE) issued in accordance with §3560.660(c).

(ii) The applicant was displaced from Agency-financed housing but was not issued a LOPE.

(iii) The applicant was displaced in a Federally declared disaster area.

(3) Borrowers receiving Section 8 project-based assistance may establish preferences in accordance with U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) regulations. The use of such preferences must be documented in the project's management plan.

(h) Notices of ineligibility or rejection. Borrowers must provide written notification to applicants who are determined to be ineligible or who are rejected for occupancy. Notices of ineligibility or rejection must give specific reasons for the ineligibility determination or rejection and, in accordance with §3560.160, the notice must advise the applicant of “the right to respond to the notice within ten calendar days after receipt” and of “the right to a hearing in accordance with §3560.160 which is available upon request.” When an applicant is rejected based on the information from a credit bureau report, the source of the credit bureau report must be revealed to the applicant in accordance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

(i) Purging waiting list. Procedures used by borrowers to purge waiting list must be documented in the project's management plan and must be based on the length of the waiting list or the extent of time an applicant will be expected to wait for housing. At a minimum, borrowers must document removal of any names from the waiting list with the time and date of the removal. If an electronic waiting list is used, borrowers must periodically print out electronic waiting lists or preserve backup copies showing how the waiting list appeared before and after the removal of each name.

(j) Criminal activity. Borrowers may deny admission for criminal activity or alcohol abuse by household members in accordance with the provisions of 24 CFR 5.854, 5.855, 5.856, and 5.857.

§3560.155 Assignment of rental units and occupancy policies.

(a) General. Available rental units are assigned in accordance with the requirements of this section and the priorities and preferences outlined in §3560.154.

(b) Rental units accessible to individuals with disabilities. If a rental unit accessible to individuals with disabilities is available and there are no applicants that require the features of the unit, borrowers may rent the unit to a non-disabled tenant subject to the inclusion of a lease provision that requires the tenant to vacate the unit within 30 days of notification from management that an eligible individual with disabilities requires the unit and provided the accessible unit has been marketed as an accessible unit, outreach has been made to organizations representing the disabled, and marketing of the unit as an accessible unit continues after it has been rented to a tenant who is not in need of the special design features.

(c) Transfer of existing tenants within a housing project. When a rental unit becomes available for occupancy and an eligible tenant in the housing project is either over housed or under housed as provided for in paragraph (e) of this section, the borrower must use the available unit for the over housed or under housed tenant, if suitable, prior to selecting an eligible applicant from the waiting list.

(d) Applicant placement. When a specific rental unit type becomes available for occupancy, borrowers must select eligible applicants suitable for the available unit according to the priorities established in §3560.154.

(e) Occupancy policies. Borrowers must establish occupancy policies for each housing project. Households living in a rental unit with more bedrooms than persons in the household will be considered over housed and must be relocated in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section. Households under housed as defined by the project's occupancy standards must be relocated in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section. Borrowers with no one-bedroom units in a housing project may make an exception to this requirement in their occupancy policies. In addition, a borrower's occupancy policies must establish:

(1) Reasonable standards for determining when a tenant household is considered under housed. The standards will describe the maximum number of persons that may occupy units of a given size based on occupancy guidelines provided by the Agency or another governmental source;

(2) The order in which eligible applicants and existing tenants will be housed or re-housed; and

(3) How fair housing requirements will be met, including how reasonable accommodations will be made for applicants and tenants with disabilities.

(f) Agency concurrence. The Agency must concur with a borrower's occupancy rules prior to initial occupancy of the housing project. All modifications to occupancy rules must be posted for tenant comment in accordance with §3560.160 and receive Agency concurrence prior to implementation.

§3560.156 Lease requirements.

(a) Agency approval. Borrowers must use a lease approved by the Agency. The lease must be consistent with Agency requirements and the requirements of all programs participating in the housing project. Prior to submitting the lease to the Agency for approval, borrowers must have their attorney certify that the lease complies with state and local laws, Agency requirements, and the requirements of all programs participating in the housing project. If there are conflicting requirements the borrower shall notify the Agency of the conflict and request guidance. Borrowers must execute their Agency approved lease with each tenant household prior to tenant occupancy of a rental unit.

(b) Lease requirements.

(1) All leases must be in writing.

(2) Initial leases must be for a 1-year period.

(3) If the tenant is not subject to occupancy termination according to §3560.158 and §3560.159, a renewal lease or lease extension must be for a 1-year period.

(4) In areas with a concentration of non-English speaking populations, leases (including the occupancy rules) must be available in both English and the non-English language.

(5) Leases must give the address of the management agent to which tenants may direct complaints.

(6) Leases must include a statement of the terms and conditions for modifying the lease.

(c) Required items and provisions.

(1) Leases for tenants who hold a Letter of Priority Entitlement (LOPE) issued according to §3560.655(d) and are temporarily occupying a unit for which they are not eligible must include a clause establishing the tenant's responsibility to move when a suitable unit becomes available in the housing project.

(2) Leases must contain a clause permitting escalation in the tenant contribution when there is an Agency-approved change in basic or note rate rents prior to the expiration of the lease. The escalation clause also must specify that the tenant contribution may be changed prior to expiration of the lease if the change is due to changes in tenant status, as documented on the tenant certification form, or the tenant's failure to properly recertify.

(3) Leases must specify that no change in the tenant contribution will occur due to monetary or non-monetary default or when rental assistance or interest credit, is suspended, canceled, or terminated due to the borrower's fault. For information on tenant contributions when a borrower prepays the Agency loan, refer to subpart N of this part.

(4) Leases must contain a requirement that tenants make restitution when unauthorized assistance is received due to applicant or tenant fraud or misrepresentation and a statement advising tenants that submission of false information could result in legal action.

(5) Leases must include a statement that the housing project is financed by the Agency and that the Agency has the right to further verify information provided by the applicant.

(6) Leases must state that the housing project is subject to:

(i) Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964;

(ii) Title VIII of the Fair Housing Act;

(iii) Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973; and

(iv) The Age Discrimination Act of 1975.

(7) Leases must establish the tenant's responsibility according to the housing project's occupancy rules to move to the next available appropriately sized rental unit if the household becomes over housed or under housed in the unit they occupy.

(8) Leases must include provisions that establish when a guest will be considered a member of the household and be required to be added to the tenant certification.

(9) Leases must include a provision stating that tenancy continues until the tenant's possessions are removed from the housing either voluntarily or by legal means, subject to state and local law.

(10) Leases must include a requirement that tenants who are no longer eligible for occupancy under the housing project's occupancy rules or do not meet the criteria set forth in §3560.155(c) and (e) must vacate the property within 30 days of being notified by the borrower that they are no longer eligible for occupancy or at the expiration of their lease, or whichever is greater, unless the conditions cited in §3560.158(c) exist;

(11) Leases for rental units receiving rental assistance must include clauses that specify that the tenant's monthly tenant contribution and a description of the circumstances under which the tenant's contribution may change.

(12) Leases must include a requirement that tenants notify borrowers when changes occur in their income or assets, their qualifications for adjustments to income, their citizenship status, or the number of persons living in the unit.

(13) A requirement that tenants agree to fulfill the tenant income verification and certification requirements established under §3560.152.

(14) Leases for tenants living in Plan II interest credit rental units must include provisions establishing the net monthly tenant contribution.

(15) Leases, including renewals, must include the following language:

“It is understood that the use, or possession, manufacture, sale, or distribution of an illegal controlled substance (as defined by local, State, or federal law) while in or on any part of this apartment complex or cooperative is an illegal act. It is further understood that such action is a material lease violation. Such violations (hereafter called a “drug violation”) may be evidenced upon the admission to or conviction of the use, possession, manufacture, sale, or distribution of a controlled substance (as defined by local, state, or Federal law) in any local, state, or Federal court.

The landlord may require any lessee or other adult member of the tenant household occupying the unit (or other adult or non-adult person outside the tenant household who is using the unit) who commits a drug violation to vacate the leased unit permanently, within timeframes set by the landlord, and not thereafter to enter upon the landlord's premises or the lessee's unit without the landlord's prior consent as a condition for continued occupancy by the remaining members of the tenant's household. The landlord may deny consent for entry unless the person agrees to not commit a drug violation in the future and is either actively participating in a counseling or recovery program, complying with court orders related to a drug violation, or has successfully completed a counseling or recovery program.

The landlord may require any lessee to show evidence that any non-adult member of the tenant household occupying the unit, who committed a drug violation, agrees not to commit a drug violation in the future, and to show evidence that the person is either actively seeking or receiving assistance through a counseling or recovery program, complying with court orders related to a drug violation, or has successfully completed a counseling or recovery program within timeframes specified by the landlord as a condition for continued occupancy in the unit. Should a further drug violation be committed by any non-adult person occupying the unit the landlord may require the person to be severed from tenancy as a condition for continued occupancy by the lessee.

If a person vacating the unit, as a result of the above policies, is one of the lessees, the person shall be severed from the tenancy and the lease shall continue among any other remaining lessees and the landlord. The landlord may also, at the option of the landlord, permit another adult member of the household to be a lessee.

Should any of the above provisions governing a drug violation be found to violate any of the laws of the land the remaining enforceable provisions shall remain in effect. The provisions set out above do not supplant any rights of tenants afforded by law.”

(16) Leases for rental units accessible to individuals with disabilities occupied by those not needing the accessibility features must establish the tenant's responsibility to move to another unit when an appropriate unit becomes available or when the unit is needed by an eligible individual with disabilities. Additionally, the lease clause must require the borrower to provide tenants written notification of the date by which they must move to another unit in the project.

(17) If loan prepayment occurs and the housing project is subject to restrictive use provisions, leases and renewals must be amended to include a clause specifying the tenant protections required under subpart N of this part.

(18) All leases must contain the following information and provisions:

- (i) The name of the tenant, any co-tenants, and all members of the household residing in the rental unit;
- (ii) The identification of the rental unit;
- (iii) The amount and due date of monthly tenant contributions, any late payment penalties, and security deposit amounts;
- (iv) The utilities, services, and equipment to be provided for the tenant;
- (v) The tenant's utility payment responsibility;
- (vi) The certification process for determining tenant occupancy eligibility and contribution;
- (vii) The limitations of the tenant's right to use or occupancy of the dwelling;
- (viii) The tenant's responsibilities regarding maintenance and consequences if the tenant fails to fulfill these responsibilities;

(ix) The agreement of the borrower to accept the tenant contribution toward rent charges prior to payment of other charges that the tenant owes and a statement that borrowers may seek legal remedy for collecting other charges accrued by the tenant;

(x) The maintenance responsibilities of the borrower in buildings and common areas, according to state and local codes, Agency regulations, and Federal fair housing requirements;

(xi) The responsibility of the borrowers at move-in and move-out to provide the tenant with a written statement of rental unit's condition and provisions for tenant participation in inspection;

(xii) The provision for periodic inspections by the borrower and other circumstances under which the borrower may enter the premises while a tenant is renting;

(xiii) The tenant's responsibility to notify the borrower of an extended absence;

(xiv) A provision that tenants may not assign the lease or sublet the property;

(xv) A provision regarding transfer of the lease if the housing project is sold to an Agency-approved buyer;

(xvi) The procedures that must be followed by the borrower and the tenant in giving notices required under terms of the lease including lease violation notices;

(xvii) The good-cause circumstances under which the borrower may terminate the lease and the length of notice required;

(xviii) The disposition of the lease if the housing project becomes uninhabitable due to fire or other disaster, including rights of the borrower to repair building or terminate the lease;

(xix) The procedures for resolution of tenant grievances consistent with the requirements of §3560.160;

(xx) The terms under which a tenant may, for good cause, terminate their lease, with 30 days notice, prior to lease expiration; and

(xxi) The signature and date clause indicating that the lease has been executed by the borrower and the tenant.

(d) Prohibited provisions. Borrowers are prohibited from including any of the following clauses in the lease:

(1) Clauses prohibiting families with children under 18;

(2) Clauses requiring prior consent by tenant to any lawsuit that borrowers may bring against the tenant in connection with the lease;

- (3) Clauses authorizing borrowers to hold any of a tenant's property until the tenant fulfills an obligation;
- (4) Clauses in which tenants agree not to hold borrowers liable for anything they may do or fail to do;
- (5) Clauses in which tenants agree that borrowers may institute suit without any notice to the tenant that the suit has been filed;
- (6) Clauses in which tenants agree that borrowers may evict the tenant or sell their possessions whenever borrowers determine that a breach or default has occurred;
- (7) Clauses authorizing the borrower's attorneys to appear in court on behalf of the tenant, and to waive the tenant's right to a trial by jury;
- (8) Clauses authorizing the borrower's attorneys to waive the tenant's right to appeal or to file suit; and
- (9) Clauses requiring the tenant to agree to pay legal fees and court costs whenever the borrower takes action against the tenant, even if the court finds in favor of the tenant.

(e) Housing projects and units receiving HUD assistance.

- (1) In housing projects receiving Section 8 project-based assistance, borrowers may use the HUD model lease. The provisions of the HUD model lease will prevail, unless they conflict with Agency lease requirements in accordance with this section. If there is conflict between HUD requirements and Agency requirements, the provision that will be enforced will be the one that is most favorable to the tenant.
- (2) For units occupied by Section 8 certificate and voucher holders, borrowers may use:
 - (i) A standard HUD-approved lease;
 - (ii) A HUD-approved lease that includes a number of modifications from the standard HUD-approved lease; or
 - (iii) An Agency-approved lease may be used if acceptable by HUD or the local housing authority.

(f) State and local requirements. Borrowers must use a lease that is consistent with state and local requirements.

- (1) If any lease provision is in violation of state or local law, the lease may be modified to the extent needed to comply with the law, but any changes must be consistent with the provisions established in paragraph (c) of this section.
- (2) Leases must include a procedure for handling tenant's abandoned property, as provided by state or local law.

§3560.157 Occupancy rules.

(a) General. The purpose of a borrower's occupancy rules is to outline the basis for the tenant and management relationship. Prior to Agency approval of occupancy rules, borrowers must provide written certification from their attorney that the housing project's occupancy rules are consistent with applicable Federal, state, and local laws, as well as Agency requirements, and the requirements of all programs participating in the housing project. Borrowers must obtain Agency approval of the occupancy rules prior to initial occupancy and obtain Agency approval prior to the implementation date of any subsequent modifications to the rules.

(b) Requirements. The occupancy rules must be in writing and posted for easy tenant access. A copy of these rules must be attached to the tenant's lease upon initial occupancy. At a minimum, the occupancy rules must address:

- (1) The tenant's rights and responsibilities under the lease or occupancy agreement;
- (2) The rent payment or occupancy charge policies;
- (3) The policies regarding periodic inspection of units;
- (4) The system for responding to tenant complaints;
- (5) The maintenance request and work order procedures;
- (6) The housing services and facilities available to tenants or members;
- (7) The office locations, hours, and emergency telephone numbers;
- (8) The restrictions on storage and prohibitions on non-functional vehicles in the housing project area;
- (9) Other requirements related to a subsidy provided to a tenant from non-Agency sources;
- (10) When a guest becomes a member of the tenant household; and
- (11) The procedures tenants must follow to request reasonable accommodations.

(c) Modification of occupancy rules. The Agency must concur with any modification to the occupancy rules prior to implementation. Proper notice must be given to each tenant at least 30 days in advance of implementation of such rules in accordance with §3560.160.

(d) Federal, state and local requirements. The occupancy rules must be consistent with Federal, state, and local law.

(e) Pets/Assistance Animals. All housing projects should establish reasonable written pet rules. No rules may be promulgated that would prevent occupancy by a household member who requires a service or assistance animal. In elderly housing, borrowers must not prohibit tenants from keeping domestic animals in their rental units as pets.

(f) Tenant organizations. Borrowers must not infringe on the rights of tenants to organize an association of tenants. Borrowers (or a designated management representative) should be available and willing to work with a tenant organization.

(g) Community rooms. Borrowers may not place unreasonable restrictions on tenants that desire to use a community room.

§3560.158 Changes in tenant eligibility.

(a) General requirements. Tenants must continue to meet the requirements of §3560.152 to remain eligible for occupancy.

(b) Tenants no longer eligible. Tenants who are no longer eligible for occupancy under the housing project's occupancy rules or do not meet the criteria set forth in §3560.155(c) and (e) must vacate the property within 30 days of being notified by the borrower that they are no longer eligible for occupancy or at the expiration of their lease, whichever is greater, unless the conditions specified in paragraph (c) of this section exist.

(c) Temporary continuation of tenancy. If conditions described in §3560.454(b) or the following conditions exist, borrowers may permit tenants who are no longer eligible for occupancy to continue to reside at the housing project with prior approval of the Agency.

(1) The waiting list for the specific rental unit type has no eligible applicants; or

(2) The required time period for vacating the rental unit would create a hardship on the tenant household.

(d) Surviving and remaining household members.

(1) Members of a household may continue to reside in a housing project after the departure or death of the tenant or co-tenant, provided that:

(i) They are eligible with respect to adjusted income;

(ii) They occupied a rental unit in the housing project at the time of the departure or death of the tenant or co-tenant;

(iii) They execute a tenant certification form establishing their own tenancy; and

(iv) They have the legal ability to sign a lease for the rental unit, except where a legal guardian may sign when the tenant or member is otherwise eligible.

(2) Surviving or remaining members of the household may remain in the housing project, taking into consideration the conditions of paragraph (d)(1) of this section, but must move to a suitably sized rental unit within 30 days of its availability.

(3) After the death of a tenant or co-tenant in elderly housing, the surviving members of the household, regardless of age but taking into consideration the conditions of paragraph (d)(1) of this section, may remain in the rental unit in which they were residing at the time of the tenant's or co-tenant's death, even if the household is over housed according to the housing project's occupancy rules as follows:

(i) Continued occupancy of the rental unit will not be allowed when in either situation of paragraph (d)(1) or (d)(3) of this section, the rental unit has accessibility features for individuals with disabilities, the household no longer has a need for such accessibility features, and the housing project has a tenant application from an individual with a need for the accessibility features;

(ii) If the housing project does not have a tenant application from an individual with a need for the accessibility features, the household may remain in the rental unit with such features until the housing project receives an application from an individual with a need for accessibility features. The household in the unit with accessibility features will be required to move within 30 days of the housing project's receipt of a tenant application requiring accessibility features if another suitably sized unit without accessibility features is available in the project. If a suitably sized unit is not available in the project within 30 days, the tenant may remain in the unit with accessibility features until the first available unit in the project becomes available and then must move within 30 days.

§3560.159 Termination of occupancy.

(a) Tenants in violation of lease. Borrowers, in accordance with lease agreements, may terminate or refuse to renew a tenant's lease only for material non-compliance with the lease provisions, material non-compliance with the occupancy rules, or other good causes. Prior to terminating a lease, the borrower must give the tenant written notice of the violation and give the tenant an opportunity to correct the violation. Subsequently, termination may only occur when the incidences related to the termination are documented and there is documentation that the tenant was given notice prior to the initiation of the termination action that their activities would result in occupancy termination.

(1) Material non-compliance with lease provisions or occupancy rules, for purposes of occupancy termination by a borrower, includes actions such as:

(i) Violations of lease provisions or occupancy rules that are substantial and/or repeated;

(ii) Non-payment or repeated late payment of rent or other financial obligations due under the lease or occupancy rules; or

(iii) Admission to or conviction for use, attempted use, possession, manufacture, selling, or distribution of an illegal controlled substance when such activity occurred on the housing project's premises by the tenant, a member of the tenant's household, a guest of the tenant, or any other person under the tenant's control at the time of the activity.

(2) Good causes, for purposes of occupancy terminations by a borrower, include actions such as:

(i) Actions by the tenant or a member of the tenant's household which disrupt the livability of the housing by threatening the health and safety of other persons or the right of other persons to enjoyment of the premises and related facilities;

(ii) Actions by the tenant or a member of the tenant's household which result in substantial physical damage causing an adverse financial effect on the housing or the property of other persons; or

(iii) Actions prohibited by state and local laws.

(b) Lease expiration or tenant eligibility. A tenant's occupancy in an Agency-financed housing project may not be terminated by a borrower when the lease agreement expires unless the tenant's actions meet the conditions described in paragraph (a) of this section, or the tenant is no longer eligible for occupancy in the housing. Borrowers must handle terminations of occupancy due to a change in tenant eligibility status in accordance with §3560.158. At a minimum, the occupancy termination notice must include the following information:

(1) A specific date by which lease termination will occur;

(2) A statement of the basis for lease termination with specific reference to the provisions of the lease or occupancy rules that, in the borrower's judgment, have been violated by the tenant in a manner constituting material non-compliance or good cause; and

(3) A statement explaining the conditions under which the borrower may initiate judicial action to enforce the lease termination notice.

(c) Other terminations. If occupancy is terminated due to conditions which are beyond the control of the tenant, such as a condition related to required repair or rehabilitation of the building, or a natural disaster, the tenants who are affected by such a circumstance are entitled to benefits under the Uniform Relocation Act and may request a Letter of Priority Entitlement (LOPE) from the Agency. If tenants need additional time to secure replacement housing, the Agency may, at the tenant's request, extend the LOPE entitlement period.

(d) Criminal activity. Borrowers may terminate tenancy for criminal activity or alcohol abuse by household members in accordance with the provisions of 24 CFR 5.858, 5.859, 5.860, and 5.861.

§3560.160 Tenant grievances.

(a) General.

(1) The requirements established in this section are designed to ensure that there is a fair and equitable process for addressing tenant or prospective tenant concerns and to ensure fair treatment of tenants in the event that an action or inaction by a borrower, including anyone designated to act for a borrower, adversely affects the tenants of a housing project.

(2) Any tenant/member or prospective tenant/member seeking occupancy in or use of Agency facilities who believes he or she is being discriminated against because of age, race, color, religion, sex, familial status, disability, or national origin may file a complaint in person with, or by mail to the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Office of Civil Rights, Room 326-W, Whitten Building, 14th and Independence Avenue, SW., Washington DC 20250-9410 or to the Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), Washington, DC 20410. Complaints received by Agency employees must be directed to the National Office Civil Rights Staff through the State Civil Rights Manager/Coordinator.

(b) Applicability.

(1) The requirements of this section apply to a borrower action regarding housing project operations, or the failure to act, that adversely affects tenants or prospective tenants.

(2) This section does not apply to the following situations:

(i) Rent changes authorized by the Agency in accordance with the requirements of §3560.203(a);

(ii) Complaints involving discrimination which must be handled in accordance with §3560.2(b) and paragraph (a)(2) of this section;

(iii) Housing projects where an association of all tenants has been duly formed and the association and the borrower have agreed to an alternative method of settling grievances;

(iv) Changes required by the Agency in occupancy rules or other operational or management practices in which proper notice and opportunity have been given according to law and the provisions of the lease;

(v) Lease violations by the tenant that would result in the termination of tenancy and eviction;

(vi) Disputes between tenants not involving the borrower; and

(vii) Displacement or other adverse actions against tenant as a result of loan prepayment handled according to subpart N of this part.

(c) Borrower responsibilities. Borrowers must permanently post tenant grievance procedures that meet the requirements of this section in a conspicuous place at the housing project. Borrowers also must maintain copies of the tenant grievance procedure at the housing project's management office for inspection by the tenants and the Agency upon request. Each tenant must receive an Agency summary of tenant's rights when a lease agreement is signed. If a housing project is located in an area with a concentration of non-English speaking individuals, the borrower must provide grievance procedures in both English and the non-English language. The notice must include the telephone number and address of USDA's Office of Civil Rights and the appropriate Regional Fair Housing and Enforcement Agency.

(d) Reasons for grievance. Tenants or prospective tenants may file a grievance in writing with the borrower in response to a borrower action, or failure to act, in accordance with the lease or Agency regulations that results in a denial, significant reduction, or termination of benefits or when a tenant or prospective tenant contests a borrower's notice of proposed adverse action as provided in paragraph (e) of this section. Acceptable reasons for filing a grievance may include:

- (1) Failure to maintain the premises in such a manner that provides decent, safe, sanitary, and affordable housing in accordance with §3560.103 and applicable state and local laws;
- (2) Borrower violation of lease provisions or occupancy rules;
- (3) Modification of the lease;
- (4) Occupancy rule changes;
- (5) Rent changes not authorized by the Agency according to §3560.205; or
- (6) Denial of approval for occupancy.

(e) Notice of adverse action. In the case of a proposed action that may have adverse consequences for tenants or prospective tenants such as denial of admission to occupancy and changes in the occupancy rules or lease, the borrower must notify the tenant or prospective tenant in writing. In the case of a Borrower's proposed adverse action including denial of admission to occupancy, the Borrower shall notify the applicant/tenant in writing. The notice must be delivered by certified mail return receipt requested or a hand-delivered letter with a signed and dated acknowledgement of receipt from the applicant/tenant. The notice must give specific reasons for the proposed action. The notice must also advise the tenant or prospective tenant of "the right to respond to the notice within ten calendar days after date of the notice" and of "the right to a hearing in accordance with §3560.160 (f), which is available upon request." The notice must contain the information specified in paragraph (a)(2) of this section. For housing projects in areas with a concentration of non-English speaking individuals, the notice must be in English and the non-English language.

(f) Grievances and responses to notice of adverse action. The following procedures must be followed by tenants, prospective tenants, or borrowers involved in a grievance or a response to an adverse action.

- (1) The tenant or prospective tenant must communicate to the borrower in writing any grievance or response to a notice within 10 calendar days after occurrence of the adverse action or receipt of a notice of intent to take an adverse action.
- (2) Borrowers must offer to meet with tenants to discuss the grievance within 10 calendar days of receiving the grievance. The Agency encourages borrowers and tenants or prospective tenants to make an effort to reach a mutually satisfactory resolution to the grievance at the meeting.
- (3) If the grievance is not resolved during an informal meeting to the tenant or prospective tenant's satisfaction, the borrower must prepare a summary of the problem and submit the summary to the tenant or prospective tenant and the Agency within 10 calendar days. The summary should include: The borrower's position; the applicant/tenant's position; and the result of the meeting. The tenant also may submit a summary of the problem to the Agency.

(g) Hearing process. The following procedures apply to a hearing process.

- (1) Request for hearing. If the tenant or prospective tenant desires a hearing, a written request for a hearing must be submitted to the borrower within 10 calendar days after the receipt of the summary of any informal meeting.

(2) Selection of hearing officer or hearing panel. In order to properly evaluate grievances and appeals, the borrower and tenant must select a hearing officer or hearing panel. If the borrower and the tenant cannot agree on a hearing officer, then they must each appoint a member to a hearing panel and the members selected must appoint a third member. If within 30 days from the date of the request for a hearing, the tenant and borrower have not agreed upon the selection of a hearing officer or hearing panel, the borrower must notify the Agency by mail of the situation. The Agency will appoint a person to serve as the sole hearing officer. The Agency may not appoint a hearing officer who was earlier considered by either the borrower or the tenant, in the interest of ensuring the integrity of the process.

(3) Standing hearing panel. In lieu of the procedure contained in paragraph (g)(2) of this section for each grievance or appeal presented, a borrower may ask the Agency to approve a standing hearing panel for the housing project.

(4) Examination of records. The borrower must allow the tenant the opportunity, at a reasonable time before a hearing and at the expense of the tenant, to examine or copy all documents, records, and policies of the borrower that the borrower intends to use at a hearing unless otherwise prohibited by law or confidentiality agreements.

(5) Scheduling of hearing. If a standing hearing panel has been approved, a hearing will be scheduled within 15 calendar days after receipt of the tenant's or prospective tenant's request for a hearing. If a hearing officer or hearing panel must be selected, a hearing will be scheduled within 15 calendar days after the selection or appointment of a hearing panel or a hearing officer. All hearings will be held at a time and place mutually convenient to both parties. If the parties cannot agree on a meeting place or time, the hearing officer or hearing panel will designate the place and time.

(6) Escrow deposits. If a grievance involves a rent increase not authorized by the Agency, or a situation where a borrower fails to maintain the property in a decent, safe, and sanitary manner, rental payments may be deposited by the tenant into an escrow account, provided the tenant's rental payments are otherwise current.

(i) The escrow account deposits must continue until the complaint is resolved through informal discussion or by the hearing officer or panel.

(ii) The escrow account must be in a Federally-insured institution or with a bonded independent agent.

(iii) Failure to make timely rent payments into the escrow account will result in a termination of the tenant grievance and appeals procedure and all sums will immediately become due and payable under the lease.

(iv) Receipts of escrow account deposits must be available for examination by the borrower.

(7) Failure to request a hearing. If the tenant or prospective tenant does not request a hearing within the time provided by paragraph (f)(1) of this section, the borrower's disposition of the grievance or appeal will become final.

(h) Requirements governing the hearing. The following requirements will govern the hearing process.

(1) Subject to paragraph (f)(2) of this section, the hearing will proceed before a hearing officer or hearing panel at which evidence may be received without regard to whether that evidence could be used in judicial proceedings.

(2) The hearing must be structured so as to provide basic due process safeguards for both the borrower and the tenants or prospective tenants, which must protect:

(i) The right of both parties to be represented by counsel or other person chosen as their representative;

(ii) The right of the tenant or prospective tenant to a private hearing unless a public hearing is requested;

(iii) The right of the tenant or prospective tenant to present oral or written evidence and arguments in support of their grievance or appeal and to cross-examine and refute the evidence of all witnesses on whose testimony or information the borrower relies; and

(iv) The right of the borrower to present oral and written evidence and arguments in support of the decision, to refute evidence relied upon by the tenant or prospective tenant, and to confront and cross-examine all witnesses in whose testimony or information the tenant or prospective tenant relies.

(3) At the hearing, the tenant or prospective tenant must present evidence that they are entitled to the relief sought, and the borrower must present evidence showing the basis for action or failure to act against that which the grievance or appeal is directed.

(4) The hearing officer or hearing panel must require that the borrower, the tenant or prospective tenant, counsel, and other participants or spectators conduct themselves in an orderly manner. Failure to comply may result in exclusion from the proceedings or in a decision adverse to the interests of the disorderly party and granting or denial of the relief sought, as appropriate.

(5) If either party or their representative fails to appear at a scheduled hearing, the hearing officer or hearing panel may make a determination to postpone the hearing for no more than five days or may make a determination that the absent party has waived their right to a hearing under this subpart. If the determination is made that the absent party has waived their rights, the hearing officer or hearing panel will make a decision on the grievance. Both the tenant or prospective tenant and the borrower must be notified in writing of the determination of the hearing officer or hearing panel.

(i) Decision. Hearing decisions must be issued in accordance with the following requirements.

(1) The hearing officer or hearing panel has the authority to affirm or reverse a borrower's decision.

(2) The hearing officer or hearing panel must prepare a written decision, together with the reasons thereof based solely and exclusively upon the facts presented at the hearing within 10 calendar days after the hearing. The notice must state that the decision is not effective for 10 calendar days to allow time for an Agency review as specified in paragraphs (i)(3) and (i)(4) of this section.

(3) The hearing officer or hearing panel must send a copy of the decision to the tenant, or prospective tenant, borrower, and the Agency.

(4) The decision of the hearing officer or hearing panel shall be binding upon the parties to the hearing unless the parties to the hearing are notified within 10 calendar days by the Agency that the decision is not in compliance with Agency regulations.

(5) Upon receipt of written notification from the hearing officer or hearing panel, the borrower and tenant must take the necessary action, or refrain from any actions, specified in the decision.

§3560.200 OMB control number.

The information collection requirements contained in this regulation have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and have been assigned OMB control number 0575-0189. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to vary from 15 minutes to 18 hours per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. A person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Subpart E--Rents

§3560.201 General.

This subpart sets forth the requirements for establishing and collecting rents charged to occupants of multi-family housing (MFH) projects financed by the Agency.

§3560.202 Establishing rents and utility allowances.

(a) General. Rents and utility allowances for rental units in Agency-financed housing projects are set by the borrower and must be based on the operating, management and maintenance expenses and other costs related to the housing project including loan payment amounts due to the Agency.

(b) Agency approval. All rents and utility allowances set by borrowers are subject to Agency approval.

(c) Rents. As applicable, borrowers must establish the following rents:

(1) Note rent;

(2) Basic rent;

(3) U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) contract rents; and

(4) Low-income housing tax credit (LIHTC) rents.

(d) Utility allowances. In projects where tenants pay the utilities, borrowers must establish utility allowances for each size and type of rental unit in the housing project based on estimated utility costs. Borrowers must review utility allowances annually, adjust for accuracy, and submit any utility allowance changes to the Agency for approval. If no changes are needed, the borrower must notify the Agency that no changes were made. Documentation to justify utility allowances must be maintained in the housing project files.

(e) Funds contributed to reduce rents. If borrowers use funds contributed from sources other than the Agency (e.g., state or local grants, private contributions) to reduce general operating and management expenses, housing project rents must be reduced to reflect the funding being used to offset housing project expenses. When funds contributed from sources other than the Agency are used for housing project expenses, the borrower must certify to the Agency, in writing, that the funds provided will not need to be repaid with Agency funds. Funds from borrower contributions or rehabilitation loans will not be counted towards reducing rents.

(f) Rents for resident manager, caretaker, or owner-occupied unit.

(1) If approved as a part of a management plan, a borrower may occupy a rental unit in a housing project when they are acting as a management agent or resident manager as specified in §3560.102(e).

(2) If the rental unit being occupied by a borrower or resident manager is designated as a revenue-producing unit, borrowers must calculate the rental charge to the borrower or resident manager in the same manner as tenant contributions.

(3) If the rental unit being occupied by a borrower or resident manager is designated as a non-revenue producing unit, borrowers must treat the cost of providing the unit the same as other non-revenue producing portions of the housing project.

(g) LIHTC. Borrowers who receive LIHTCs may establish rents in accordance with LIHTC requirements. However, borrowers are obligated to ensure that sufficient annual funds are available to cover expenses in the housing project's approved budget, including the required payments on the borrower's Agency loan. Borrowers must not use housing project funds to make up any difference between rents required under Agency program requirements and the maximum allowed rents under the LIHTC program.

§3560.203 Tenant contributions.

(a) Tenant contributions. A tenant's contribution to rent charged for a rental unit in an Agency financed housing project is based on the tenant's income, as calculated on the Agency's tenant certification forms, and the availability of Agency or non-Agency rental subsidies.

(1) Tenant contributions. Borrowers must set tenant contributions to rent at the highest of the following standards but never more than the note rent:

- (i) Thirty percent of monthly adjusted income;
- (ii) Ten percent of gross monthly income;
- (iii) An amount equal to the portion of an assistance payment specifically designated to meet the household's shelter costs if the household is receiving assistance payments from a public agency; or
- (iv) The basic rent, unless RHS rental assistance is provided to the household.

(2) Tenant contribution surcharge. Tenants in a Plan I housing project with incomes above the eligibility standards set in §3560.152(a)(1) must pay a 25 percent surcharge in addition to note rent.

(b) Adjustment of tenant contribution. Borrowers must adjust the tenant contribution whenever there is a change in tenant household status or income sufficient to generate a revised tenant certification in accordance with §3560.152(e) or an Agency approved rent or utility allowance change that affects the tenant contribution amount.

(c) Overage. If a tenant's tenant contribution is higher than basic rent, borrowers must remit to the Agency the rent collected in excess of the basic rent and up to the note rent.

§3560.204 Security deposits and membership fees.

(a) General. Borrowers may collect security deposits when it is reasonable and customary for the area in which the housing is located. Borrowers must hold security deposits in a separate bank or bookkeeping account in accordance with §3560.302(c)(3).

(b) Allowable amounts. Borrowers may charge security deposits that are typical for the area in which the housing is located, as long as the security deposit charged a tenant does not exceed that tenant's net contribution for one month's rent or basic rent, whichever is greater.

(1) As noted in §3560.102(b)(1)(viii) and §3560.156(c)(18)(iii), borrowers must specify in the housing project's management plan how the amount to be charged as a security deposit will be established and must specify the amount to be charged to individual tenants in the lease to be signed by the tenant.

(2) Borrowers may charge security deposits to households receiving HUD assistance in accordance with HUD requirements.

(3) Members of a cooperative shall be required to pay a membership fee no greater than one month's occupancy charge.

(4) Additional security deposits for pets may be charged as long as the additional deposit is not greater than basic rent for 1 month. No additional security deposit for assistance animals is allowed where an assistance animal is necessary for the normal functioning of a household member with a disability.

(5) Borrowers must not charge additional security deposits based on disabilities of tenants or other personal characteristics.

(c) Payment plans. Borrowers must offer, for persons who are eligible for rental assistance or Section 8 assistance, the option of paying the security deposit on an installment payment plan. Should installments not be met, the total charge may become due and payable in full.

(d) Charges for damage or loss. Borrowers may charge tenants for damage or loss caused or allowed by the tenant equal to the cost of the damage or loss.

(1) Borrowers must consider expenses due for addressing normal wear and tear as normal operating expenses and must not charge tenants a fee or withhold security deposits to pay for such costs.

(2) Borrowers may withhold security deposits and may charge tenants for damage or loss costs above security deposit amounts.

(e) State and local security deposit requirements. Borrowers must follow all state and local laws and other requirements governing the handling and disposition of security deposits.

(1) Resolution of any security deposit disputes must be handled in accordance with state and local law.

(2) Any interest earned on security deposits will accrue in accordance with state law.

(f) Unclaimed security deposits. Any funds in the housing project's security deposit account unclaimed by a tenant must be deposited into the housing project's general operating account.

§3560.205 Rent and utility allowance changes.

(a) General. Borrowers must fully document that changes to rents and utility allowances are necessary to cover housing or utility costs allowed under the approved budget for the housing. Any changes must apply to all similar units in the housing project.

(b) Agency approval. Borrowers must submit a fully documented request to the Agency to effect any rent or utility allowance change.

(1) Borrowers must obtain written consent or approval from the Agency as specified in paragraph (e) of this section before implementing any changes in the rents or utility allowances.

(2) If a borrower implements an unauthorized rent or utility allowance charge, the Agency will require the borrower to roll back rents to the last authorized rent charge, and the borrower must reimburse tenants for any unauthorized rents collected.

(c) Timing of request for changes. Borrowers must submit rent and utility allowance change requests in conjunction with the annual budget submission as required under §3560.303(d). The effective dates of any approved changes will coincide with the start of the housing project's fiscal year or the start of the season for seasonally occupied farm labor housing. However, the Agency will accept borrower requests for rent or utility allowance changes anytime during the year if a change is necessary to preserve the financial integrity of the housing complex and the financial distress is due to circumstances beyond the borrower's control.

(d) Tenant notification. Borrowers must notify tenants and solicit their comments to proposed rent or utility allowance change requests that are submitted to the Agency at the same time that the initial request is made to the Agency.

(1) Tenants will be given 20 calendar days to provide their comments to the Agency.

(2) Borrowers must deliver the proposed rent or utility allowance change request notice to each tenant and post at least one copy of the notice at the housing project site in a visible location frequented by tenants.

(e) Approval. If the Agency approves a rent or utility allowance increase request on which the comments were solicited, the borrower will deliver a notice announcing the rent or utility allowance change to the tenants to be effective 30 calendar days from the date of the notification.

(f) Denial of change request. The Agency may deny a rent or utility allowance increase request in the following circumstances.

(1) The Agency determines that the borrower did not provide sufficient information to justify operating costs.

(2) The borrower is out of compliance with Agency requirements including any corrective action requirements agreed to in a workout agreement developed according to subpart J of this part.

(3) Sufficient funds are being collected under existing rents to meet approved expenses.

(g) Notice of denial. If the rent change will not be approved as requested, the Agency will notify the borrower of the denial in accordance with §3560.303(d).

§3560.206 Conversion to Plan II (Interest Credit).

The Agency encourages any borrower not on Plan II to convert to Plan II to provide more favorable rent costs to very-low, low, and moderate-income households.

§3560.207 Annual adjustment factors for Section 8 units.

(a) General. For rental units receiving project-based Section 8 assistance, the Agency will review rents annually without regard to HUD's automatic annual adjustment.

(b) Establishing rents in housing with HUD rent assistance. Borrowers will set note and basic rents for housing receiving HUD project based Section 8 assistance, as specified in §3560.202(c)(3).

(1) Borrowers must notify the Agency of any HUD rent changes.

(2) If allowed by the interest credit agreement, the borrower will remit the amount collected in excess of the basic rent up to the note rent to the Agency as overage.

(3) When HUD contract rents exceed note rents, borrowers must deposit HUD funds equal to the difference between the Agency approved note rent and the HUD approved rent into the reserve account for the housing project.

(c) Excess HUD rents. When permitted by the Agency interest credit agreement, the Agency may reduce or cancel the interest credit on the housing, if excess HUD rents deposited in the reserve account result in the reserve account being funded beyond the fully funded level approved by the Agency.

§3560.208 Rents during eviction or failure to recertify.

(a) Rents during eviction. If a tenant is appealing an eviction and the borrower refuses to accept rent payment during the appeal of the eviction, the tenant must escrow required rent payments to safeguard their occupancy, unless State or local laws specify otherwise.

(b) Rents when tenants fail to recertify. If a borrower can document that a tenant received a notice specifying a tenant recertification date and the tenant fails to comply by the specified date or fails to cooperate with verification or other procedures related to the tenant's recertification so that the tenant recertification cannot be completed by the recertification date, the borrower, within 10 days of the recertification date, shall give the tenant and the Agency written notification that:

(1) Termination proceedings are being initiated, in accordance with §3560.159; and

(2) The tenant will be charged note rent until the tenant's lease is terminated.

(c) Unauthorized assistance due to tenant recertification failure. Any unauthorized assistance received because of the tenant's failure to be recertified will be collected in accordance with the provisions of subpart O of this part.

(d) Rents when borrowers fail to recertify tenants. If a borrower cannot document that a tenant received a recertification notice, and a tenant is not recertified within 12 months of the most recently executed tenant certification, tenants shall continue to make net tenant contributions to rent based on their most recent tenant certification and the borrower must remit to the Agency full overage as if the tenant was paying the note rent until the tenant is recertified.

(e) Unauthorized assistance due to borrower recertification failure. Any unauthorized assistance received as a result of the borrower's failure to recertify a tenant will be collected from the borrower in accordance with the provisions of subpart O of this part and may not be paid from housing project funds or funds collected from the tenant.

§3560.209 Rent collection.

(a) General. Borrowers must collect rents on a monthly basis and maintain a system for collecting and tracking rents.

(b) Fees for late rent payments. Borrowers may adopt a late fee schedule for overdue rental payments. Late fee schedules must be submitted to the Agency for approval as part of the housing project's management plan, be in accordance with State and local law, and consistent with the following requirements:

- (1) A grace period of 10 days from the rental payment due date must be allowed for all tenants.
- (2) The late fee must not exceed the higher of $10 or an amount equal to 5 percent of the tenant's gross tenant contribution.
- (3) Tenants receiving housing benefits from sources other than the Agency may be subject to the late rent fee requirements of the other funding sources.

(c) Improperly advanced rents. Improperly advanced interest credit or rental assistance is considered unauthorized assistance and is subject to recapture in accordance with subpart O of this part.

§3560.210 Special note rents (SNRs).

When a Plan II housing project is experiencing severe vacancies due to market conditions, the Agency may allow the borrower to charge an SNR, which is less than note rent but higher than basic rent, to attract or retain tenants whose income level would require them to pay special note rent. The requirements for requesting and receiving an SNR are established under §3560.454.

§§3560.211-3560.249 [Reserved]

§3560.250 OMB control number.

The information collection requirements contained in this regulation have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and have been assigned OMB control number 0575-0189. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to vary from 15 minutes to 18 hours per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. A person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Subpart F--Rental Subsidies

§3560.251 General.

This subpart contains policies for borrower administration and tenant use of rental subsidies in Agency financed multi-family housing (MFH) projects.

§3560.252 Authorized rental subsidies.

(a) General. The purpose of rental subsidies is to reduce amounts paid by tenants for rent. Rental subsidies equal the difference between the approved shelter costs and tenant contributions as calculated in accordance with §3560.203(a)(1).

(b) Forms of rental subsidies. Rental subsidies may be in the form of:

- (1) Agency rental assistance;
- (2) HUD section 8 assistance, including project-based and vouchers;

- (3) Private rental subsidies; or
- (4) State or local government rental subsidies.

(c) Multiple rent subsidies.

- (1) Multiple types of rent subsidies may be used in the same MFH project.
- (2) Tenants with subsidies from sources other than the Agency may be eligible for Agency rental assistance if the following conditions are met.
 - (i) The tenant qualifies for Agency rental assistance.
 - (ii) The rental subsidy the tenant is receiving is not a HUD voucher.
 - (iii) The rental subsidy being received by the tenant is less than the full amount of Agency rental assistance for which the tenant would qualify. In such cases, the Agency may provide the difference between the subsidy received by the tenant and the amount of Agency rental assistance for which the tenant qualifies.

(d) Agency rental assistance (RA). Agency RA is obligated to MFH projects on a rental unit basis. The obligation is composed of a number of rental units and associated dollar amounts of RA specified in a RA agreement with a borrower. The following types of Agency RA may be obligated to a housing project.

- (1) Renewal units. RA may be assigned to a housing project to replace existing rental unit obligations because funds associated with the units have been fully disbursed.
- (2) New construction units. RA may be provided in conjunction with initial Agency loans for construction or substantial rehabilitation of MFH projects.
- (3) Servicing units. Additional RA may be provided to operational MFH projects as a part of the Agency's general loan servicing or preservation activities.

§3560.253 [Reserved]

§3560.254 Eligibility for rental assistance.

- (a) Eligible housing. Housing projects eligible for Agency RA include the following types of projects.
 - (1) Housing projects that operate under an Interest Credit Plan II RA agreement.
 - (2) Housing projects financed with an Agency off-farm labor housing loan or grant. On-farm labor housing is not eligible for rental assistance.
 - (3) Housing projects financed with a direct or insured Rural Rental Housing loan approved prior to August 1, 1968, and operated under an interest credit agreement that identifies the housing project as a Plan RA project.
 - (4) Housing projects financed from Agency and other sources if the conditions of §3560.66 are met.

(b) Eligible units. Borrowers may not request RA for rental units that the Agency determines are not habitable in accordance with §3560.103.

(c) Eligible households. Households eligible for rental assistance are those:

- (1) With very low-or low-incomes who are eligible to live in MFH;
- (2) Whose net tenant contribution to rent determined in accordance with §3560.203(a)(2) is less than the basic rent for the unit;
- (3) Whose head of the household is a U.S. citizen or a legal alien as defined in §3560.11;
- (4) Who meet the occupancy rules established by the borrower in accordance with §3560.155(e); and
- (5) Who have a signed, unexpired tenant certification form on file with the borrower.

§3560.255 Requesting rental assistance.

(a) Submitting requests. Borrowers seeking an allocation of rental assistance for MFH must request the rental assistance from the Agency as follows.

- (1) Renewal rental assistance. To the extent sufficient funds are available, the Agency will automatically renew expiring rental assistance agreements at the existing number of units.
- (2) New construction units. Loan applicants proposing to use Agency rental assistance must include their request for rental assistance in their loan proposal in accordance with §3560.56.
- (3) Servicing units. Borrowers requesting rental assistance must have tenants or eligible tenant applicants on a waiting list who are RA eligible.

(b) Denial of requests.

- (1) If a rental assistance request is denied due to the loan applicant's or borrower's ineligibility, the Agency will send the loan applicant or borrower written notification of the decision with an explanation of the denial.
- (2) If a rental assistance request to renew expiring rental assistance agreements is denied because funding is not available, the Agency will notify the borrower and the borrower must notify the tenants of rent increases in accordance with their lease and state and local law. Tenants losing rental assistance due to a lack of Agency funding may quit the lease and vacate the housing without penalty in accordance with the terms of their lease.
- (3) Loan applicants or borrowers determined to be eligible for RA as a result of an appeal or funding review will receive RA, if RA funding is available, beginning with the month following the date of the appeal or funding review decision or beginning in the first month that RA funding becomes available.

§3560.256 Rental assistance payments.

- (a) Borrower submission requirements. The borrower must submit monthly requests for RA payments to the Agency based on occupancy as of the first day of the month previous to the month in which the request is being made.
- (b) Basis of RA requests. Borrower requests for RA payments must be based on the difference between the basic rent plus utility allowances for each rental unit eligible for RA and the net tenant contribution of the tenant.
- (c) Payments to borrower. Prior to making RA payments to a borrower, the Agency will deduct from the approved RA payment amount any unpaid loan payments, late fees, and other amounts which the borrower owes to the Agency.
- (d) Utility payments to tenants. The borrower must pay tenants the difference between the utility allowance and the tenant's net contribution to rent when a tenant receiving RA is billed directly for utilities and the utility allowance exceeds the net tenant contribution to rent. Such utility payments to tenants must be made on a monthly basis.
- (e) Administrative errors. Borrowers are responsible for correcting borrower errors made in regard to RA requests for payments. In accordance with subpart O of this part, borrowers will be required to repay the Agency for any unauthorized RA received or any unauthorized use of RA except in certain cases of tenant error or fraud.

§3560.257 Assigning rental assistance.

(a) Priorities for rental assistance.

(1) Borrowers must use the following priorities when assigning available rental assistance.

(i) First priority is to eligible very low-income tenants paying the highest percentage of their adjusted annual income for Agency approved shelter costs.

(ii) Second priority, if the housing project has vacant rental units, is to eligible very low-income applicants on the waiting list.

(iii) Third priority is to eligible low-income tenants paying the highest percentage of their adjusted annual income for Agency approved shelter costs.

(iv) Fourth priority, if the housing project has vacant rental units, is to eligible low-income applicants on the waiting list.

(v) Fifth priority is to households which are residing in a rental unit for which they do not qualify on the basis of an occupancy waiver or other special approval situations.

(2) In order to provide rental assistance to the third, fourth, and fifth priority categories, a borrower must fully document either that there are no very low-income households on the housing project's waiting list or that occupancy by low-income households is limited as follows:

(i) For housing occupied on or after November 30, 1983, no more than 5 percent of the units in the housing are occupied by low-income households; or

(ii) For housing occupied before November 30, 1983, no more than 25 percent of the units in the housing are occupied by low-income households.

(b) Continued eligibility. Tenants receiving rental assistance may continue to do so as long as they remain eligible for occupancy and for rental assistance under §3560.254(c), and as long as rental assistance units are available.

(c) Assignment of rental assistance. Except as provided in §3560.454(c) and using the priorities given in paragraph (a) of this section, borrowers must assign available rental assistance units as soon as rental assistance units become available.

(1) When a rental assistance unit is assigned to an eligible existing tenant on a day other than the first day of a month, the Agency will not provide the borrower rental assistance for the newly assigned existing tenant and the tenant will not pay reduced rental charges until the first of the month following the assignment of the rental assistance.

(2) When an eligible applicant moves into a rental assistance unit on a day other than the first day of a month, they will pay a prorated rent based on the number of days they occupy the rental assistance unit and the amount of rental assistance they will be receiving.

(d) Incorrectly assigned rental assistance. Incorrectly assigned rental assistance is viewed as unauthorized assistance and handled in accordance with subpart O of this part.

§3560.258 Terms of agreement.

(a) Term of agreement. Rental assistance agreements will be consistent with available funding. Rental assistance agreements expire when the funds obligated for rental assistance units are fully disbursed in accordance with the conditions of the agreement.

(b) Replacing expiring obligations. To the extent funds are available for replacement units, the Agency will renew rental assistance agreements.

§3560.259 Transferring rental assistance.

(a) Agency authority. The Agency may transfer rental assistance in the following instances:

(1) To accompany the transfer of a housing project to a different borrower;

(2) After a voluntary conveyance or a foreclosure sale;

(3) After a liquidation or prepayment;

(4) To the extent permitted by law, when any rental assistance units have not been used for a 6-month period; or

(5) When the loan cannot be closed.

(b) Agency review before transferring rental assistance. The Agency must perform a review to determine if all eligible tenants in the project are receiving rental assistance before the Agency transfers it to another project.

(c) Transferring rental assistance for displaced tenants. The Agency may transfer rental assistance from one housing project to another eligible housing project for a tenant who is moving due to displacement as a result of prepayment, liquidation, or a natural disaster. The tenant must begin using the rental assistance within 4 months of the transfer or the RA will become available for use by the next rental assistance eligible tenant in the housing project.

§3560.260 Rental subsidies from non-Agency sources.

(a) General. The Agency may authorize the use of rental subsidies from sources other than the Agency in Agency financed housing projects. The Agency will make no commitment to providing Agency rental assistance at the expiration of the rental subsidies from other sources.

(b) HUD vouchers. For tenants with HUD vouchers, the borrower must set the rental unit rent at the basic rent or the rent standard set by the public housing authority, whichever is less. The public housing authority distributing the HUD vouchers may set the utility allowance.

(c) Loan proposals using non-Agency rental subsidy. Loan applicants or borrowers proposing to use rental subsidy from sources other than the Agency must provide:

(1) Documentation demonstrating that a market exists for households eligible for the subsidy and the households are at income levels that would benefit from the amount of rental subsidy that will be provided;

(2) A plan describing actions to be taken when the rental subsidy expires to minimize the impact on tenants losing the rental assistance and to avoid displacement; and

(3) A copy of the project-based rental assistance agreement to be signed by the borrower and the provider of the rental assistance.

(d) Rental subsidy agreement. The borrower and the provider of rental subsidies from sources other than the Agency must execute a rental subsidy agreement and submit a copy of the agreement to the Agency. At a minimum, the rental subsidy agreement between the borrower and the source of the rental subsidy must include the following provisions:

(1) A description of how the subsidy will be paid. The rental subsidy payments may be paid directly to the tenants, to the borrower on behalf of the tenants, or deposited to a separate account established for the subsidy. The tenants must be advised of the amount and source of the subsidy through the lease or a supplement to the lease.

(2) The life of a project-based rental subsidy agreement with a non-Agency source must be similar to existing or current Agency rental assistance funding levels and sufficient funds must be set aside to assure availability of the rental subsidy for this term. The method of supplying the funds must be clearly established.

§3560.261 Improperly advanced rental assistance.

Improperly advanced RHS rental assistance resulting from tenant or borrower error or fraud constitutes unauthorized assistance and the provisions of subpart O of this part apply.

§§3560.262-3560.299 [Reserved]

§3560.300 OMB control number.

The information collection requirements contained in this regulation have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and have been assigned OMB control number 0575-0189. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to vary from 15 minutes to 18 hours per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. A person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

§3560.301 General.

This subpart contains requirements for the financial management of Agency-financed multi-family housing (MFH) projects, including accounts, budgets, reports, and engagements. Financial management systems and procedures must cover all housing operations and provide adequate documentation to ensure that program objectives are met.

§3560.302 Accounting, bookkeeping, budgeting, and financial management systems.

(a) General. Borrowers must establish the accounting, bookkeeping, budgeting and financial management procedures necessary to conduct housing project operations in a financially safe and sound manner. Borrowers must maintain records in a manner suitable for an engagement and must be able to report accurate operational results to the Agency from these accounts and records.

(b) Acceptable methods of accounting.

(1) Borrowers may use a cash, accrual, or modified accrual method of accounting, bookkeeping, and budget preparations as long as the method is consistent with the statements required by the engagement in accordance with the standards identified in §3560.308.

(2) Borrowers must describe their accounting, bookkeeping, budget preparation, and financial reporting procedures, including Agency-approved engagements, in their management plan.

(3) Borrowers must notify the Agency of any changes in their accounting, bookkeeping, budget preparation, and financial management reporting systems through a revision of their management plan.

(c) Account requirements.

(1) As used in this paragraph, the term account is used interchangeably to mean a bookkeeping account (ledger) or a bank account.

(2) At a minimum, borrowers must maintain the accounts required by their loan agreement or resolution.

(3) The following list identifies the financial accounts that are required for each housing project. Additional accounts may be required by third-party lenders. Accounts are to be funded in the following priority order, except that paragraphs (c)(3)(iv), (v), and (vi) of this section are funded directly by tenant security deposits or patron capital receipts respectively:

- (i) General operating account;
- (ii) Real estate tax and insurance account (if not part of the general operating account);
- (iii) Reserve account;
- (iv) Tenant security deposit account;
- (v) Membership fee account for cooperative housing; and
- (vi) For cooperative housing only, a patron capital account.

(4) Amounts escrowed for taxes and insurance may be kept in the general operating account as long as the accounting system reflects the amount escrowed.

(5) Regardless of the number or types of accounts established, the borrower must meet the following requirements:

- (i) All housing project funds must be held only in financial institution accounts insured by an agency of the Federal Government, backed by collateral provided by the bank, or held in securities meeting the conditions in this subpart.
- (ii) Funds maintained in an institution may not exceed the limit established for Federal deposit insurance. If funds exceed the amount covered by Federal deposit insurance, borrowers must obtain a collateral pledge from the institution to cover all funds or must move funds to an institution that will insure the funds.
- (iii) All funds and proceeds in any account must be used only for authorized purposes as described in Agency's regulations, loan or grant documents. Use of funds for non-program purposes constitutes non-monetary default as described in §3560.452(c).
- (iv) All funds received and held in any account, except the tenant security deposit, membership fee, and patron capital accounts, must be held in trust by the borrower for the loan obligation until used and serve as security for the Agency loan or grant.
- (v) Borrowers must be able to account for housing project funds with accounting methods or practices that maintain the proprietary identity of the funds for each project. A borrower may operate one account for multiple projects as long as the funds for each project themselves are accounted for separately.

(vi) Each borrower must have access to at least one demand deposit or checking account.

(vii) Housing project funds may not be pledged as collateral for debts without Agency approval. If such a need arises for an eligible program purpose, the borrower must obtain prior Agency approval.

(6) Tenant security deposit accounts or membership fee accounts and patron capital accounts must be maintained in a separate account in trust for the tenants or members and handled in a manner consistent with state and local laws.

(d) Documentation of separate accountability. Housing project funds may be combined in one or more bank accounts for two or more housing projects as long as the borrower's accounting system segregates and tracks funds for each project separately.

(1) When borrowers request Agency approval of an accounting system that combines funds from two or more housing projects, they must demonstrate to the Agency that the accounting systems are structured to segregate and maintain separate accountability for each housing project. Such demonstration must include a statement issued by a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) stating that the accounting system is structured to meet this principle of separate accountability.

(2) The accounting system and management plan must document the method for prorating revenue and expenses that are not clearly identifiable as being associated with a particular housing project.

(3) Funds for housing projects managed by the same management company must not be co-mingled.

(e) Records.

(1) Borrowers must retain all housing project financial records, books, and supporting material for at least three years after the issuance of the engagement and financial reports. Upon request, these materials will immediately be made available to the Agency, its representatives, the USDA Office of the Inspector General (OIG), or the General Accountability Office (GAO).

(2) Borrower accounts and records will be kept or made available in a location with reasonable access for inspection, review, and copying by the Agency, other authorized representatives of the USDA, OIG, or GAO.

(3) Automated records may be used if they meet the conditions of paragraph (f) of this section.

(f) Forms generated by automated systems.

(1) The forms and formats approved for use by borrowers may be prepared on automated systems when they meet the requirements of this paragraph.

(2) Forms may be automated if they meet the following requirements:

- (i) The identical wording and nomenclature of an official form must be included in the automated version of the form, including the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) approval number.
- (ii) The logic or mathematical calculation of an official form must be the same in an automated version of the form.
- (iii) The name or logo of the source of the automated form must be visible on each output of the automated form.
- (iv) Output size must be 8\1/2\ x 11 inches.
- (v) Nominal spacing adjustment and colored paper are allowed.

(g) Farm Labor Housing. Borrowers with on-farm labor housing units will be considered in compliance with this section by virtue of completing the record keeping and reporting requirements outlined in subpart M of this part.

§3560.303 Housing project budgets.

(a) General requirements.

- (1) Using an Agency-approved format, borrowers must submit to the Agency for approval a proposed annual housing project budget prior to the start of the housing project's fiscal year. The capital budget section of the annual project budget must include anticipated expenditures on the project's long-term capital needs as specified in §3560.103(c).
- (2) Budget projections regarding income, expenses, vacancies, and contingencies must be realistic given the housing project's history, current circumstances, and market conditions.
- (3) Borrowers must document that the operating expenses included in the budget accurately reflect reasonable and necessary costs to operate the housing project in a manner consistent with the objectives of the loan and in accordance with the applicable Agency requirements.

(B) Board of Director review and approval of proposed Agency's annual operating budgets, including proposed repair and replacement outlays and accruals.

(C) Board of Director review and approval of capital expenditures, financial statements, and consideration of any management comments noted.

(5) Other authorized expenditures; and

(6) Return on owner investment.

(d) Agency review and approval.

(1) The Agency will only approve housing project budgets that meet the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section.

(2) If no rent change is requested, borrowers must submit budget documents for Agency approval 60 calendar days prior to the start of the housing project's fiscal year. The Agency will notify borrowers if the budget submission does not meet the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section. The borrower will have 10 days to submit the additional material.

(3) If a rent change is requested, the borrower must submit budget documents to the Agency and notify tenants of the requested rent change at least 90 calendar days prior to the start of the housing project's fiscal year.

(i) The Agency will notify borrowers if the budget submission does not meet the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section, or if the rent and utility allowance request has been denied in accordance with §3560.205(f). The borrower will have 10 days to submit the additional material to address any issues raised by the Agency.

(ii) The rent change is not approved until the Agency issues a written approval. If there is no response from the Agency within the 30-day period, the rent change is considered automatic. The following budgets are not eligible for automatic approval:

(A) Budgets with rent increases above $25 per unit; and

(B) Budgets that are submitted late or that miss other deadlines set by the Agency.

(4) If the Agency denies the budget approval, the Agency will notify the borrower in writing.

(5) If budget approval is denied, the borrower shall continue to operate the housing project on the basis of the most recently approved budget.

§3560.304 Initial operating capital.

(a) Purpose. To provide a source of capital for start-up costs, such as the purchase of equipment, and paying operating, maintenance, and debt service expenses. Borrowers are required to make an initial operating capital contribution to the general operating account as described in §3560.64.

(b) Authorized uses of initial operating capital. Initial operating capital may be used only to pay for approved budgeted expenses.

(c) Withdrawal of initial operating capital. Initial operating capital funds may be withdrawn by a borrower if:

(1) The initial operating capital was provided from the borrower's own funds;

(2) The borrower requests the withdrawal after the second year of housing project operations and prior to the 7th year of operations;

(3) The housing project has had a 90 percent occupancy rate for a period of 12 months prior to the withdrawal request;

- (4) The withdrawal will not affect the financial viability of the housing project;
- (5) Contributions to the reserve account are at authorized levels;
- (6) The withdrawal request will not result in rent increases; and
- (7) There are no outstanding deficiencies in management's physical maintenance of the housing project.

§3560.305 Return on investment.

(a) Borrower's return on investment. Borrowers may receive a return on their investment (ROI) in accordance with the terms of their loan agreement and the following:

(1) If there is a positive net cash flow in housing project operations, the ROI may be taken by the borrower after the housing project's fiscal year, provided that the balance of the reserve account is equal to or greater than required deposits minus authorized withdrawals. If the annual financial reports indicate that an ROI should not have been taken, borrowers will be required to return any unauthorized ROI.

(2) If there is negative cash flow in housing project operations, the Agency may authorize the borrower to take the ROI only after the Agency has reviewed the housing project's annual financial reports and determines:

(i) Surplus cash exists in either the general operating account as defined in §3560.306(d)(1) or the reserve account, if the balance is greater than the required deposits minus authorized withdrawals.

(ii) The housing project has sufficient funds to address identified capital or operational needs.

(b) Unpaid return on investment. An earned, but unpaid ROI for the previous year only may be requested by the borrower and authorized by the Agency under the provisions of §3560.305(a)(2) provided the current year's ROI has been paid first and a rent increase is not required to generate funds to pay the unpaid ROI.

§3560.306 Reserve account.

(a) Purpose. To meet the major capital expense needs of a housing project, borrowers must establish and maintain a reserve account.

(b) Financial management of the reserve account. Borrower management of the reserve account is subject to the requirements of 7 CFR part 1902, subpart A regarding supervised bank accounts.

(c) Funding of the reserve account. Borrowers must make payments to the reserve account in the amount established in loan documents, beginning with the first loan payment or a date specified in loan documents.

(d) Transfer of surplus general operating account funds.

(1) The general operating account will be deemed to contain surplus funds when the balance at the end of the housing project's fiscal year, after all payables, exceeds 20 percent of the operating and maintenance expenses. If the borrower is escrowing taxes and insurance premiums, include the amount that should be escrowed by year end and subtract such tax and insurance premiums from operating and maintenance expenses used to calculate 20 percent of the operating and maintenance expenses.

(2) If a housing project's general operating account has surplus funds at the end of the housing project's fiscal year, the Agency will require the borrower to use the surplus funds to address capital needs, make a deposit in the housing project's reserve account, reduce the debt service on the borrower's loan, or reduce rents in the following year. At the end of the borrower's fiscal year, if the borrower is required to transfer surplus funds from the general operating account to the reserve account, the transfer does not change the future required contributions to the reserve account.

(e) Account requirements. Borrowers must establish and maintain the reserve account according to §3560.65, §3560.302(c)(5), and the following requirements:

(1) Reserve accounts must be deposited in interest-bearing accounts or securities; and

(2) Reserve accounts must be supervised accounts that require Agency countersignatures on all withdrawals.

(f) Funds invested in securities. In addition to the requirements specified in paragraph (e) of this section, the following requirements apply when reserve funds are invested in securities:

(1) The reserve account must be held either at a Federally insured domestic institution such as a bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or at a domestic institution authorized to sell securities.

(2) The borrower must record the price actually paid for the securities. When designated as a reserve deposit, the price paid must equal the required contribution to reserves.

(3) Borrowers must be knowledgeable about industry practices and consider the impact of typical fees and charges for purchases and sales and maintenance of an account when making investment decisions. Such fees may be paid for out of reserves, only with the consent of the Agency. Housing project funds may not be used to pay for a financial advisor.

(g) Use of the reserve account.

(1) Borrowers must request Agency approval of reserve account withdrawals prior to the withdrawal. Borrowers must inform the Agency of planned uses of reserve accounts in their annual capital budget if known at budget planning time. Any item on the approved capital budget does not require additional pre-approval by the Agency.

(2) The Agency will indicate any conditions governing withdrawals from a reserve account at the time it approves the withdrawal.

(3) In emergency situations, the Agency may specify special procedures to provide an expedited approval process for the use of the reserve account.

(4) The Agency may approve the use of reserve funds for operating costs when circumstances that are determined by the Agency to be beyond the borrower's control have resulted in a shortfall in the housing project's general operating account.

(h) Allowable uses. Allowable uses of reserve funds include the following:

(1) Major capital improvements and replacements.

(2) Housing project operating expenses provided the requirement of paragraph (g)(4) of this section has been met, including:

(i) Payments due on the loan, or

(ii) Payment of a return on investment at the end of the borrower's fiscal year if such payment comes from surplus operating funds in the reserve account.

(3) With Agency approval, borrowers operating on a for-profit or a limited profit basis may make an annual withdrawal from the reserve account, equal to no more than 25 percent of the interest earned on a reserve account during the prior year.

(4) For other purposes, which in the judgment of the Agency will promote the loan purposes, strengthen the security or facilitate, improve, or maintain the housing and the orderly collection of the loan without jeopardizing the loan or impairing the adequacy of the security.

(i) Records. Borrowers must maintain records documenting all expenses that were paid by withdrawals from the reserve account.

(j) Changes to reserve requirements.

(1) As projects age, the required reserve account level may be adjusted to meet anticipated "life-cycle" needs, including equipment and facility replacement costs, by amending the loan agreement/resolution.

(2) The Agency may approve a change in the reserve account funding level based on the findings of an approved capital needs assessment. The approval to increase reserve account funding levels will take into consideration the housing project's approved budget and the housing project's ability to support increased reserve account deposits without causing basic rents to exceed conventional rents for comparable units in the area.

(k) Excess reserves. Amounts in the reserve account which exceed the total required by the loan or grant agreement must be used, at the direction of the Agency, for any of the following:

(1) Pay for expenses specified in a long-term capital plan;

(2) Make payments and reamortize the Agency loan;

(3) Reduce rents by a transfer to the general operating account;

- (4) Fund preservation incentives authorized in subpart N of this part; or
- (5) Cover other expenditures determined to be related to the purpose of the housing project and in the best interest of the Federal Government.

(l) Procurement. The requirements of §3560.102(g), (j), and (k), and all other Agency requirements relating to procurement, bidding, identity-of-interest, cost-reasonableness, and construction management apply to any work or services paid out of reserve funds. Structural repairs and other significant work on major building systems such as heating or air conditioning must be done in accordance with the requirements of 7 CFR part 1924, subpart A.

§3560.307 Reports.

- (a) Required reports. Borrowers must submit required reports using Agency-approved formats.
- (b) Quarterly and monthly reports. The Agency may require quarterly or monthly reports to monitor financial progress when closer supervision is warranted.

§3560.308 Annual financial reports.

(a) General. Borrowers must submit annual financial reports that meet the requirements of this section. The annual financial reports to be submitted are the Multi-Family Housing (MFH) Project Budget with actual expenditures and the MFH Balance Sheet. Annual financial reports are due to the Agency within 90 days of the end of the borrower's fiscal year.

(1) Borrowers with 16 or more units in their housing project must base their annual financial reports on an engagement report completed according to agreed upon procedures established by the Agency as specified in paragraph (b) of this section. Borrowers must include the engagement report with their annual financial reports submitted to the Agency.

(2) Borrowers with less than 16 units in their housing project must submit annual financial reports using a limited scope engagement based on Agency approved procedures and certify that the housing meets the performance standards established in paragraph (c) of this section. Borrowers may use a CPA to prepare this report. For properties that prepare a limited scope engagement, the Agency may undertake random audits, once every two or three years.

(3) If a third party requires it, the borrower may have a CPA prepare an audit in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards (GAGAS). Costs incurred to obtain this audit are an allowable project expense.

(b) Engagement requirements. Borrowers required to submit annual financial reports based on an engagement performed by a CPA must meet the following requirements:

(1) Borrowers must use an Agency approved engagement letter. Borrowers must submit the results of an engagement that examines specific records using agreed upon procedures established by the Agency and that describes the borrower's performance in meeting the standards described in paragraph (c) of this section.

(2) The engagement will be initiated by the borrower using the Agency's engagement letter, which will specify the engagement program and establish the reporting requirements for the engagement.

(3) The engagement must be conducted by a CPA in accordance with American Institute of Certified Public Accountant (AICPA) Standards and Agency requirements.

(4) All engagement reports must be prepared for use by the Agency.

(c) Performance standards. Borrowers must ensure that:

(1) Required accounts are properly maintained and tracked separately;

(2) Payments from operating accounts are disclosed and accurately represented on financial reports;

(3) The reserve amount is at the authorized level and there are no encumbrances;

(4) Tenant security deposit accounts are fully-funded and are maintained in separate accounts and meet state and local requirements;

(5) Amount of payment of owner return was consistent with the terms of the applicable loan agreement;

(6) The borrower has maintained proper insurance in accordance with the requirements of §3560.105(b); and

(7) All financial records are adequate and suitable for examination.

(d) Other financial reports.

(1) Nonprofit and public borrower entities must submit audits in accordance with 7 CFR part 3052 that must also include the requirements set forth in the limited scope engagement.

(2) The Agency may require additional opinions of financial condition and compliance, such as audits, to assure the security of the asset, determine whether the housing project is being operated at a reasonable cost, or to detect fraud, waste, or abuse.

(3) Any audits independently obtained by the borrower also must be submitted to the Agency.

§3560.309 Advancement (loan) of funds to a RRH project by the owner, member of the organization, or agent of the owner.

(a) Prior written approval by the Servicing Office is required. Such advances may be authorized when justified by unusual short-term conditions. When conditions are not short-term in nature, a servicing plan may be developed and advances may be approved in accordance with the provisions set out in §3560.453 of this part. Justification will be based on the following:

(1) A review of the documented circumstances and the project operating budget before any funds are advanced (loaned). The financial position of the project must not be jeopardized.

(2) Funds are not immediately available from any of the following sources:

- (i) Reserve funds;
- (ii) Initial operating capital; and
- (iii) An imminent rent increase.

(b) The funds will be applied to ordinary project operating and maintenance expenses.

(c) Interest may be charged or paid on the loan from project income; however, interest must be reasonable. The proposal may be denied if Rural Development financing can be provided to resolve the problem in a more cost-effective manner.

(d) No lien in connection with the loan will be filed against the property securing the Rural Development loan or against project income. The advance may show as an unsecured project liability on financial statements prepared for year-end reports until such time as it is authorized to be repaid.

(e) The payback of the advance (loan) may be permitted by the Servicing Official provided the terms and conditions were mutually agreed to by the borrower and Rural Development at the time of the advance and the financial position of the project will not be jeopardized. Payback should only be permitted on the advance when the Rural Development debt is current and the reserve requirements are being maintained at the authorized levels.

§3560.350 OMB control number.

The information collection requirements contained in this regulation have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and have been assigned OMB control number 0575-0189. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to vary from 15 minutes to 18 hours per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. A person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Subpart H--Agency Monitoring

§3560.351 General.

This subpart contains policies for Agency monitoring of operations and management at multi-family housing (MFH) projects.

(02-24-05) SPECIAL PN

§3560.352 Agency monitoring scope, purpose, and borrower responsibilities.

(a) Scope of Agency monitoring activities. The Agency will review reports, records, and other materials related to the housing project, including borrower financial reports, housing project records, and other communications. The Agency also will review material related to a housing project submitted by a tenant or other source. To assess conditions such as a housing project's physical condition, record keeping procedures, and operations and management activities, including borrower compliance with Federal, state, and local laws and Agency requirements, the Agency will conduct periodic on-site monitoring reviews of a housing project.

(b) Purpose of Agency monitoring activities. Agency monitoring activities are designed to assess borrower and tenant compliance with Agency requirements, and to:

(1) Ensure housing projects are managed in accordance with the goals and objectives of the Agency's MFH programs and are maintained in accordance with Agency requirements for affordable, decent, safe, and sanitary housing;

(2) Preserve the value of the Agency-financed housing projects;

(3) Detect waste, fraud, and abuse in housing project operations or management and to ensure the cost of operations and management are necessary and reasonable;

(4) Verify compliance with Affirmative Fair Housing Marketing requirements, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended, section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, other applicable Federal laws, and Agency requirements related to occupancy and tenant eligibility.

(c) Borrower responsibilities. The borrower is responsible for cooperating fully and promptly with Agency monitoring activities. Agency monitoring activities do not diminish borrower operation and management responsibilities and do not relieve borrowers from any Agency requirements including, but not limited to, borrower requirements to comply with:

(1) The terms of all agreements with the Agency, including the loan or grant agreement, assurance agreement, loan resolution, promissory note, mortgage, interest credit agreement, rental assistance agreement, mitigation measures contained in the environmental review document, and workout agreement;

(2) The requirements contained in this part;

(3) The requirements of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended; section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990; and

(4) Applicable Federal, state, and local laws.

§3560.353 Scheduling of on-site monitoring reviews.

Generally, the Agency will provide the borrower prior notice of an on-site monitoring review and will conduct the on-site monitoring review in the presence of the borrower. However, the Agency may visit a housing project, without prior notice, to observe physical conditions, operations and management activities, or other borrower or tenant activities. In addition, the Agency may conduct on-site reviews without the presence of the borrower, the management agent, or other designated representative of the borrower.

§3560.354 Borrower response to monitoring review notifications.

The Agency will notify borrowers, in writing, whenever Agency monitoring activities result in deficiency findings or compliance violations. The monitoring review notification will describe the deficiencies findings or compliance violations and will specify a time period by which corrective action must be taken by the borrower. The notification will offer borrowers an opportunity to discuss the reported deficiency findings or compliance violations with the Agency and will explain enforcement actions that the Agency may take if corrective action is not taken within the time period specified in the monitoring review notification. When civil rights non-compliance is found, the State Civil Rights Coordinator or Manager (SCRC/M) will be notified. If voluntary compliance cannot be obtained, appropriate enforcement or remedial action will be taken.

§§3560.355-3560.399 [Reserved]

(b) Required conversion to PASS. Borrowers with Daily Interest Accrual System (DIAS) accounts must convert to PASS whenever a loan servicing action on the account involves a change in the loan rates or terms or whenever a subsequent loan to the borrower is closed.

(c) Exceptions. Seasonal farm labor housing loans and on-farm labor housing loans may be closed on DIAS, monthly, or annual payment schedules.

§3560.403 Account servicing.

(a) Payment due dates. Loan or other payments due to the Agency are due on the first day of each month unless otherwise established in the debt instrument or other agreement executed with the Agency.

(b) Payment application order. Loan payments will be applied to the borrower's account in the following order of priority:

- (1) Amortized audit receivables. (i.e., amounts due to the Agency, over a period of time, as a result of a finding from an audit or other monitoring activity.)
- (2) Unamortized audit receivables. (i.e., amounts due to the Agency, in a lump sum payment, as a result of a finding from an audit or other monitoring activity.)
- (3) Late fees. (i.e., amounts due to the Agency as a result of late payments.)
- (4) Amortized recoverable costs. (i.e., amounts due to the Agency, over a period of time, as a result of Agency payments made on behalf of a borrower for housing project related expenses such as taxes or insurance premiums.)

- (7) Interest. (i.e., amounts due to the Agency as a result of scheduled interest on a loan and as a result of interest charged on unpaid delinquent principal amounts.)
- (8) Principal. (i.e., amounts due to the Agency as the loan principal.)

(9) Advance payments. (Any funds remaining after disbursement of a payment to all other payment priorities will be applied to the borrower's account as an advance regular payment unless a borrower specifically designates, in writing, another application.)

(c) Late fees. If payments on a borrower's account, under PASS, are more than $15 delinquent after the close of business on the 10th day after the payment due date, a late fee will be charged to the borrower's account.

(1) Late fees charged to a borrower's account will equal 6 percent of the total regular payments due as specified in any promissory notes, assumption agreements, or reamortization agreements related to the borrower's account.

(2) Late fees are a borrower expense and must not be paid from housing project funds.

(3) The Agency may waive late fees for circumstances beyond a borrower's control and when a waiver is determined by the Agency to be in the best financial interest of the Federal Government.

(d) Interest on unpaid overdue principal. On the first day of the month following a payment due date, the Agency will charge interest at the note rate on any unpaid principal payment due according to the loan's amortization schedule (i.e., interest will be charged on delinquent principal). The interest charged on the unpaid principal payment due will be charged to the borrower in addition to the scheduled interest due on payments according to the loan's amortization schedule.

§3560.404 Final loan payments.

(a) Payoff statements. At the borrower's request, the Agency will provide a statement indicating the pay off amount necessary to pay the borrower's account in full.

(b) Final payments. A borrower's final loan payment must include repayment of all outstanding obligations to the Agency.

(1) Any supervised funds being held by the Agency will be applied to the borrower's account or, at the borrower's option, will be returned to the borrower following acceptance of final payment on all outstanding obligations.

(2) If a balance due remains on a borrower's account after Agency acceptance of a final payment, due to borrower error or fraud or Agency error, the Agency will initiate collection action in accordance with the unauthorized assistance collection procedures described in subpart O of this part.

(c) Final payment loans. Borrowers with loans for which the Agency approved an amortization period that exceeded the term of the loan may request a loan to finance the final payment in accordance with the requirements of §3560.74.

(d) Loan prepayment requests. If prepayment of an Agency loan is requested, the applicable preservation requirements of subpart N of this part, including the execution of any appropriate restrictive-use agreements, must be met prior to the Agency's acceptance of a final loan payment under the prepayment request.

(e) Payment forms. Final payments may be made by cashier's check, certified check, money order, bank draft, or other withdrawal instruments approved by the Agency.

(1) If borrowers use forms of payment requiring special handling, the borrower is responsible for the cost of the special handling.

(2) When payment is provided in a form that is not the equivalent of cash, the Agency will consider the payment to be received at the time the payment has been converted to cash and funds have been transferred to the Agency.

(f) Release of security instruments. The Agency will release security instruments, subject to applicable restrictive-use agreements referenced in subpart N of this part, when full payment of all outstanding obligations to the Agency has been received, accepted, and the funds have been transferred to the Agency.

(1) If the Agency and the borrower agree to settle an account for less than the full amount owed, the Agency will release security instruments when the borrower has paid in full all agreed upon obligations.

(2) Recording costs for the release of the security instruments will be the responsibility of the borrower, except where state law requires the mortgagee to record or file the satisfaction.

(g) Special circumstances--Refund of entire principal. If the entire principal of the loan is refunded after the loan is closed, the borrower must pay interest from the date of the note to the date of receipt of the refund.

§3560.405 Borrower organizational structure or ownership interest changes.

(a) General. The requirements of this section apply to changes in a borrower entity's organizational structure or to a change in a borrower entity's controlling interest. If 100 percent of a borrower entity's ownership interest is transferred, within a 12-month period, the change will be considered a housing project transfer and the provisions of §3560.406, which covers transfers or sales of housing projects, will apply.

(b) Agency requirements. Borrowers must notify the Agency prior to the implementation of any changes in a borrower entity's organizational structure. The Agency must give its consent prior to the implementation of changes in a borrower entity's controlling interest.

(1) Borrowers must submit written requests for Agency consent to the Agency at least 45 days prior to the anticipated effective date of the proposed organizational change. The request must document that the proposed changes will not adversely affect the program purposes or security interest of the Agency and will not adversely affect tenants.

(2) If the controlling interest change involves a transfer of interest to an entity not previously holding an ownership interest in the borrower entity, the request for consent must include a written certification, executed by the party receiving the ownership interest, certifying that the recipient of the ownership interest agrees to assume responsibilities and obligations required of a borrower as established in Agency program requirements including requirements in the promissory note, loan agreement, or other document related to Agency loans held by the borrower entity.

(3) The Agency will not take a consent request for a controlling interest change under consideration if the borrower's request fails to meet the requirements specified in paragraph (b)(2) of this section.

(c) Documentation of organizational structures and ownership interest. Borrowers must annually document their organizational structure and ownership.

(1) Documentation must be submitted with the annual financial reports required by §3560.308 and must reflect any changes made during the 12-month period preceding the submission of the annual financial reports.

(2) If no changes in a borrower entity's organizational structure or ownership were made during the 12-month period prior to submission of the annual financial reports, borrowers are not required to submit documentation, but must submit a statement certifying that no changes have been made in the documents on file with the Agency.

(3) Organizational structure and ownership documentation must include the following items:

(i) A current organization description reflecting all approved changes in the organizational structure of the borrower entity and listing the names, addresses, and tax identification numbers of all parties with an ownership interest in the borrower entity; and

(ii) A written statement by the borrower certifying that the changes in the borrower entity's organizational structure or ownership interests were completed in compliance with state and local laws and in accordance with organizational requirements of the borrower entity.

§3560.406 MFH ownership transfers or sales.

(a) General. The provisions of this section apply to ownership transfers or sales (e.g., title transfers) involving an Agency financed housing project. The provisions cover situations where Agency loans are being assumed as a part of a housing project transfer or sale.

(b) Agency consent requirements. Agency consent must be obtained prior to an ownership transfer or sale and Agency consent will only be given when the transfer or sale is in the best interest of the Federal Government. Any ownership transfer or sale without the consent of the Agency will be considered a default and will be handled in accordance with subpart J of this part.

(1) Priority consideration will be given to ownership transfers or sales needed to remove a hardship to the borrower that was caused by circumstances beyond the borrower's control.

(2) Ownership transfers or sales with an assumption of debt at an amount less than the borrower's debt amount will only be approved by the Agency when all persons in the borrower entity who are transferring their ownership interest or are involved in the selling of the property are not part of the transferee organization.

(c) Consent request requirements. Borrowers must submit written requests for Agency consent to an ownership transfer or sale of a housing project to the Agency at least 45 days prior to proposed ownership transfer or sale date. The consent request must document that the proposed transfer or sale meets the requirements of paragraph (d) of this section and must include the following items:

- (1) A statement disclosing any identity-of-interest between the borrower and the party to which the housing project ownership is being transferred or sold.
- (2) A statement certifying that the housing project's financial accounts are funded at required levels, less authorized withdrawals, and that payments due for operation and maintenance expenses, tax assessments, insurance premiums, any required tenant security deposit accounts, and other obligations incurred as a part of the housing project operations are paid in full with no overdue balances or a statement explaining the housing project's financial situation and the reasons for overdue payments or under funded accounts.
- (3) A proposed housing project budget covering the partial year, if applicable, and first full year operation following the ownership transfer or housing project sale.
- (4) A written statement, signed by the proposed transferee or buyer, certifying that the transferee or buyer will assume the borrower responsibilities and obligations specified in Agency program requirements including requirements in a promissory note, loan agreement or other documents related to Agency loans held by the borrower entity.
- (5) A certification from the borrower and the proposed transferee or buyer that the borrower does not and will not have a reversionary interest in the housing project.

(d) Requirements for ownership transfers or sales. An ownership transfer or sale of a housing project with an assumption of Agency loans by the transferee or buyer must comply with the following conditions:

- (1) The transferee or buyer must be an eligible borrower under the requirements established by subpart B of this part;
- (2) The transferee or buyer must agree to set basic rents at the housing project covered by the assumed loans at levels that do not exceed conventional rents for comparable units in the area, except that when determined necessary by the Agency to allow for decent, safe and sanitary housing to be provided in market areas where conventional rents are not sufficient to cover necessary operating, maintenance, and reserve costs. Basic rents may be allowed to exceed comparable rents for conventional units, but in no case by more than 150% of the comparable rent for conventional unit rent level; and
- (3) The value of the housing project covered by the loans to be assumed, at the time of an ownership transfer or sale, must be sufficient to ensure that all Agency loans being assumed and all subsequent loans being offered as a part of the transfer or sale can be secured to a level that fully protects the Agency's interest. Loans from third-party sources that are not dependent on project revenue for payment will not be included in this determination.
 - (i) If the total value of the loans being offered as a part of an ownership transfer or sale is $100,000 or less, the security value of the housing project may be determined through either: An Agency review of monitoring reports conducted in accordance with the requirements in subpart H of this part or an appraisal paid for by the borrower and conducted in accordance with subpart P of this part.

(ii) If the total value of the loans being offered as a part of an ownership transfer or sale exceeds $100,000, the security value of the housing project must be determined through an appraisal obtained by the Agency and conducted in accordance with subpart P of this part.

(iii) The Agency may approve a loan write-down, in accordance with §3560.455, prior to an ownership transfer or sale to reduce the amount of debt being assumed by the transferee or buyer.

(4) Prior to Agency approval of an ownership transfer or sale, an environmental review, as required under the National Environmental Policy Act and in accordance with 7 CFR part 1940, subpart G, must be conducted on all property related to the ownership transfer or sale. If contamination from hazardous substances or petroleum products is found on the property, the finding must be disclosed to the Agency and the transferee or buyer and must be taken into consideration in the determination of the housing project's value.

(5) All immediate and long-term repair and rehabilitation needs must be identified by a capital needs assessment. The reserve requirements for the housing project will be reviewed by the Agency and adjusted, if necessary, to adequately cover the cost of addressing the property's capital needs. The Agency may approve the release of the current reserve amount to the transferor provided the transferee agrees to deposit the amount to cover the project's immediate needs into the reserve account at closing.

(6) The borrower and transferee must disclose to the Agency all terms, conditions, or other considerations related to the ownership transfer or sale. All side or other agreements must be disclosed and all sources and uses of funds related to the ownership transfer or sale must be disclosed.

(7) An agreement must be signed between the borrower and the transferee listing all repairs known by the borrower to be necessary to bring the housing project into compliance with Agency requirements for decent, safe, and sanitary housing as listed in subpart C of this part.

(i) The agreement must include repairs required to correct compliance violations cited in a compliance violation notice issued by the Agency.

(ii) The agreement must specify whether each repair listed will be completed by the borrower prior to the ownership transfer or by the transferee in accordance with a workout agreement developed in accordance with the requirements of §3560.453 and executed between the transferee or buyer and the Agency.

(8) A civil rights compliance review, as required by 7 CFR part 1901, subpart E, will be conducted by the Agency prior to the ownership transfer or sale.

(9) During or immediately after the transfer, a review of the property must be conducted to ensure that it complies with or will comply with section 504(c) of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), which covers accessibility requirements, and the Title VI of the Fair Housing Act of 1968.

(10) A transferee must ensure that tenant certifications in compliance with subpart D of this part for all occupied rental units are on file with the Agency.

(11) A transferee must comply with insurance and bonding requirements established in subpart C of this part at the time of the transfer.

(12) A transferee must agree to submit financial reports to the Agency according to subpart G of this part.

(13) A transferee must establish that there are no liens, judgments, or other claims against the housing project other than those by the Agency and those to which the Agency has previously agreed.

(14) A limited profit Rural Rental Housing transferee's initial investment and return on investment will remain the same as that originally provided to the transferor unless:

(i) The property is transferred to a non-profit entity and the return on investment is eliminated; or

(ii) The transferee contributes additional funds for repair or rehabilitation and the Agency agrees to recognize a higher initial investment.

(e) Equity payments. The Agency will withhold any equity payment due to the borrower, as part of an ownership transfer or sale, if any of the following conditions exist:

(1) The borrower's indebtedness to the Agency has not been paid in full or is not being assumed by the transferee. The Agency will require that all or part of an equity payment be applied against other Agency loans owed by the borrower if payments on the other loans are not current.

(2) Any non-Agency prior liens against a housing project are not paid in full.

(3) Any housing project financial accounts are not funded at required levels, less authorized withdrawals, or any payments due for operation and maintenance expenses, tax assessments, insurance premiums, tenant security deposits or other obligations incurred as a part of housing project operations are not paid in full.

(4) Any management deficiencies cited in a compliance violation notice issued by the Agency to the borrower have not been corrected or the housing project is not operating under an approved management plan or, if applicable, an approved management agreement.

(5) Any operation and maintenance deficiencies cited in compliance violation notices issued by the Agency have not been corrected or are not scheduled for correction in a workout agreement developed in accordance with the requirements of §3560.453.

(6) The borrower entity is, at the time of the ownership transfer or sale, cited by the Agency or other Federal, state, or local agencies for violations of Fair Housing or Equal Opportunity requirements.

(7) The borrower entity is, at the time of the ownership transfer or sale, cited by the Agency or any other entity involved in the financing of the housing project for misappropriation of funds.

(f) Equity payment funding sources. Equity may be provided in cash or through a loan. If a full equity payment to the transferor is not paid at the time of the ownership transfer or sale or has not been paid through an Agency equity loan or third-party equity loan approved by the Agency to the borrower, the transferee must certify that equity payments due to the borrower will be paid from sources other than housing project's funds and must identify the sources of such payments.

(g) Restrictive-use requirement. Transferees assuming Agency loans, including loans approved prior to December 21, 1979, will be required to execute a restrictive-use agreement that contains the language specified in §3560.662. The restrictive-use agreement will require the housing project to be used for program purposes for a specified period of time beyond the date that the ownership transfer or sale is closed. When an equity loan is involved at the time of transfer, the restrictions will be for 30 years.

(h) Subsequent loans. The Agency may approve a subsequent loan or permit a loan from a third-party source in conjunction with an ownership transfer or sale of a housing project. The subsequent loan may be in the form of a junior or parity lien.

(1) Subsequent loans on a housing project proposed in conjunction with an ownership transfer or sale must be requested and processed in accordance with the Agency loan origination requirements in subpart B of this part.

(2) The Agency may amortize the subsequent loan over a period not to exceed the remaining economic life of the housing or 50 years, whichever is less.

(3) The Agency may extend the term of the existing loan to a period not to exceed 30 years or the remaining economic life of the housing, whichever is less.

(i) Loan assumption interest rates. The interest rate for Agency loans assumed in conjunction with an ownership transfer or sale will be determined as follows:

(1) The interest rate for all loans, except farm labor housing loans, will be set at the lower of:

(i) The note rate of the existing Agency loan;

(ii) The Agency note rate on the day the transfer is approved;

(iii) The Agency note rate on the day the transfer is closed; or

(iv) If the rents are increased due to a transfer, the transfer will be done under new rates and terms when the Agency determines that it is in the best interest of the government. Subsequent loan may be in the form of a senior, junior or parity lien or soft second.

(2) The interest rate on farm labor housing loans will be the rate specified in the note, except that loans transferred to public bodies, nonprofit organizations of farm workers, and broadly-based nonprofit corporations for farm labor housing purposes may be at a one percent interest rate regardless of the rate specified in the note if the Agency determines that such a reduction is necessary to maintain affordable rental rates for tenants.

(j) Loan assumption terms. The amount of the loan balance that may be assumed through an ownership transfer or sale must not exceed the security value of the housing project determined according to §3560.406(d)(3)(i).

(1) The Agency may reamortize a loan assumed at the time of the transfer or sale, to a monthly payment amortization and will be made subject to PASS. When on- or off-farm labor housing projects are involved in an ownership transfer or sale, the related loans may be transferred on a DIAS basis or converted to PASS if the Agency determines that such a conversion will not be detrimental to the operation of the farm labor housing.

(k) Processing ownership transfers or sales.

(1) At the time of the transfer, the Agency will require the borrower to transfer all equipment, related facilities, and housing project financial accounts to the transferee including the operation and maintenance account, reserve account, tenant security deposit account, tax and insurance escrow accounts.

(i) Any funds remaining in a rental assistance contract not dispersed by the transferor will be assigned to the transferee unless the rental assistance is not needed for tenants or another form of rental subsidy is to be used.

(ii) Any rental assistance determined to be unnecessary will be reassigned to other housing projects in accordance with the provisions of subpart F of this part.

(2) The Agency will require that appropriate loan documents are executed by the transferee. The Agency may require such documents to be referenced in security instruments (e.g., mortgage or deed of trust).

(3) If all of a borrower's outstanding Agency debt is not assumed or paid off at the time of the transfer or sale, the Agency will not release a borrower from liability unless the Agency determines that the borrower is unable to pay the remaining debt from assets taken as security through the debt settlement procedure in accordance with §3560.457.

(l) Ownership transfers or sales under special rates, terms, and conditions. Housing projects may be transferred or sold to entities that do not meet borrower eligibility requirements for the type of loans being assumed. However, such a transfer or sale will only be considered when it is determined by the Agency to be in the best interest of the Federal Government and the objectives of the original loan can no longer be met. The following special rates, terms, and conditions will apply to such situations.

(1) The transferee makes a down payment of at least 10 percent of the remaining loan balance to be assumed.

(2) The transferee has the ability to pay the Agency debt.

(3) Monthly or annual installments will be amortized over the term of the loan and the interest rate will be at a rate of interest at least one percent higher than the interest rate offered to eligible borrowers as specified in paragraphs (i)(1) or (2) of this section.

§3560.407 Sales or other disposition of security property.

(a) General. Borrowers must obtain Agency approval prior to selling or exchanging all or a part of, or an interest in, property serving as security for Agency loans. Agency approval also must be requested and received prior to the granting or conveyance of rights-of-way through property serving as security property. An environmental review must be completed in accordance with 7 CFR part 1940, subpart G, before the Agency approves all such sales or other dispositions of security property.

(b) Request requirements. Requests for Agency approval of transactions related to security property must document that the following conditions will be met.

(1) The borrower's ability to repay the Agency debt will not be impaired;

(2) The transaction will not interfere with the successful operation of the housing project or prevent the borrower from carrying out the purpose for which the loan was made.

(3) The monetary or other consideration offered in the transaction is equal to or greater than the market value of the security property being disposed of or the rights being granted, except that right-of-way easements may be granted or conveyed with minimal or no consideration being offered if:

(i) The value of the security property will not be reduced;

(ii) The suitability of the security property for the intended purpose will not be impaired; and

(iii) The easement is granted to allow the borrower to develop additional lots or units that will be integrated into the housing project or for enhancement of streets, utilities or other services provided by a public body.

(4) The property that will remain as security for Agency loans, after any transaction related to security property, will fully secure the borrower's debt to the Agency.

(5) Borrowers must report to the Agency the total of all proceeds derived from the sale or other disposition of property serving as security for Agency loans. The proceeds from the disposition of the security property will be used for purposes approved by the Agency.

§3560.408 Lease of security property.

(a) General. Borrowers must obtain Agency approval prior to entering into a lease agreement related to any property serving as security for Agency loans. An environmental review must be completed in accordance with 7 CFR part 1940, subpart G, before the Agency can give lease approval for real property serving as security for Agency loans.

(b) Leases to public housing authorities. Borrowers may not lease all or part of their housing facilities to a housing authority. Lease agreements in place prior to the effective date of this regulation may be continued provided that leases are in a form acceptable to the housing authority and are on terms that will enable the borrower to comply with Agency program requirements, to meet Agency program objectives, and make loan and other required payments to the Agency on an Agency approved schedule.

(c) Lease of a portion of the security property. The Agency may, subject to the applicable provisions governing loan purposes found in of §3560.53, §3560.553 and §3560.603, approve the leasing of facilities related to a housing project (e.g., central kitchens, recreation facilities, laundry rooms, and community rooms) when the borrower will continue to operate the facilities for the purposes for which the loan was made. Agency approval is not required for leases with a term of less than 30 days. The Agency will only approve a lease with a term over 30 days if the following conditions are met:

- (1) The lease is in the best interest of the borrower, the tenants, and the Federal Government.
- (2) The amount of the consideration agreed to in the lease is adequate to pay all prorated operating and maintenance expenses, a prorated share of the annual reserve deposit, and the prorated part of the loan amortization at the note rate of interest.
- (3) All compensation and considerations, whether payments, a share of proceeds, or improvements to the property paid for by the lessee, must be disclosed to the Agency. No payments or compensation for entering into a lease shall flow to the borrower or any identity-of-interest related to the borrower.
- (4) The lease provides at its termination for the restoration of the leased space to its original condition or a condition acceptable to the owner and the Federal Government.
- (5) Consent to the lease will not exceed 3 years at a time unless the Agency determines that a longer lease is advantageous to the borrower, the tenants, and the Federal Government.
- (6) When another lienholder's mortgage requires that lienholder's consent to a lease, the borrower must obtain written consent from the lienholder before the Agency will consider approving the lease.

(d) Mineral leases. Mineral leases will be handled according to 7 CFR 3550.159 except that all references to County Supervisor will be construed to mean District Director when applied to the MFH Programs.

§3560.409 Subordinations or junior liens against security property.

(a) General. Borrowers must obtain Agency consent prior to entering into any financial transaction that will require a subordination of the Agency security interest in the property (i.e., granting of a prior interest to another lender.) An environmental review must be completed in accordance with 7 CFR part 1940, subpart G, before the Agency can consent to a subordination or junior lien against the property. Borrowers must use an Agency approved subordination agreement.

- (1) If a lien is placed against property serving as security for an Agency loan without prior Agency consent, the Agency will declare the borrower to be in default and will pursue liquidation of the borrower's loans in accordance with the procedures specified in §3560.457, unless an agreement can be reached between the borrower and the Agency to work out removal of the lien or post approve the lien.

(2) Subordinations or junior liens need not encompass the entire site, (e.g., a subordination or junior lien requested to permit an interim lender to advance construction funds may only cover the portion of the site proposed for construction.)

(3) The subordination or junior lien must be for a specific amount.

(4) The subordination or junior lien must not adversely impact the Agency's ability to service the loan according to the requirements of this part.

(b) Consent request requirements. Borrowers proposing to have the Agency subordinate its interest to another lender or to give a creditor a junior lien against property serving as security for an Agency loan must submit a consent request to the Agency. The consent request must document the following:

(1) The action will enable the borrower to obtain financial resources for improvements or repairs on the security property that are consistent with the purposes of the Agency loan secured by the property.

(2) The action will not adversely impact the borrower's financial condition and the borrower's ability to repay the Agency loan being secured by the property.

(3) The action will not result in basic rents at the security property that exceed conventional rents for comparable units in the area.

(4) The terms and conditions of the credit to be secured by the subordination or junior lien are not expected to adversely affect the borrower's ability to meet the terms and conditions of the Agency loan secured by the property.

(5) The proposed use of the funds obtained through the granting of a subordination or junior lien will not adversely affect the borrower's ability to meet Agency program requirements or to operate and manage the housing project in a manner consistent with program objectives.

(6) The creditor receiving the "subordination" of interest in the property or the junior lien will agree that a foreclosure or acceptance of a deed-in-lieu of foreclosure will not be initiated without at least 30 days prior notice to the Agency.

(7) The subordination or junior lien is not being secured with any funding from housing project financial accounts.

(8) The "subordination" of interest or junior lien will not cause the debt from all sources to exceed the value of the security property.

(9) The transaction related to the placement of a "subordination" of interest or junior lien against the property serving as security for an Agency loan is in the best interest of the Federal Government.

(c) Required conditions for subordinations and junior liens. Subordinations of interest in or junior liens against property serving as security for an Agency loan may be approved by the Agency only if they improve a borrower's financial condition and allow for improvements or repairs that are consistent with the purposes of the Agency loan secured by the property.

(1) Farm Labor Housing loans on farm tracts may be subordinated for essential farm improvements and operations.

(2) Any proposed development must be planned and performed according to 7 CFR part 1924, subpart A, or in a manner directed by the other lienholder that meets the objectives of 7 CFR part 1924, subpart A.

(d) Other liens against a property or other assets.

(1) Borrowers must not enter into any agreements to place a lien on a housing project or any equipment related to a housing project without prior Agency approval and unless the following conditions are met:

(i) The transaction will not adversely affect the Agency's security position;

(ii) The lien is not related to a non-program eligible action;

(iii) The items to be acquired by the funding related to the lien is needed for the operation of the property; and

(iv) The financing arrangements are otherwise sound.

(2) In cases where the above criteria are met, borrowers must complete and provide the Agency a copy of the financing statement, loan document, or contract, as applicable, as well as a security agreement acceptable to the Agency.

§3560.410 Consolidations.

(a) General. With Agency approval, loans, loan agreements, or loan resolutions may be consolidated to reduce the administrative burden (i.e., record keeping, budgeting), to improve the cost effectiveness and efficiencies of housing project operations, and to effectively utilize facilities common to housing projects.

(b) Loan consolidations. Loan consolidations will only be considered when:

(1) Multiple loans to the one borrower entity are being transferred to a different borrower entity in accordance with §3560.406, or

(2) One borrower entity has an initial loan and one or more subsequent loans for the same housing project and all the loans were closed on the same date and with the same rates and terms.

(c) Loan agreement or loan resolution consolidations. Loan agreements or loan resolutions may be consolidated, even if the loans related to the agreement or resolution are not consolidated, to allow borrowers to comply with reporting, accounting, and other Agency requirements as a single housing project.

(1) The loan agreements or loan resolutions may only be consolidated when they are related to loans made for the same purposes, to the same borrower, and operating under the same type of interest credit, if applicable.

(2) All of a borrower's loan accounts must be current after the loan agreement or loan resolution consolidation is processed, unless otherwise approved by the Agency.

§§3560.411-3560.449 [Reserved]

§3560.450 OMB control number.

The information collection requirements contained in this regulation have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and have been assigned OMB control number 0575-0189. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to vary from 15 minutes to 18 hours per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. A person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Subpart J--Special Servicing, Enforcement, Liquidation, and Other Actions

§3560.451 General.

This subpart contains special servicing, enforcement, liquidation, and other actions that the borrower may request or the Agency may implement when compliance violations, monetary defaults, or non-monetary defaults cannot be resolved through regular servicing.

(a) Agency obligations. The Agency is under no obligation to offer or agree to any special servicing actions.

(b) Relationship to workout agreements. Special servicing actions may be implemented either as a part of a workout agreement, developed in accordance with §3560.453, or as an action approved by the Agency separate from a workout agreement unless indicated otherwise in this subpart.

§3560.452 Monetary and non-monetary defaults.

(a) General. Borrowers are in default when they have received a compliance violation notice, issued in accordance with §3560.354, and have failed to correct the compliance violation identified in the compliance violation notice within the time period specified in the notice. Compliance violations include, but are not limited to, violations of promissory note provisions, loan or grant agreement provisions, regulatory, or other Agency requirements, including requirements imposed on a borrower through a workout agreement developed in accordance with §3560.453.

(b) Monetary defaults. A monetary default exists when any amount due to the Agency or a third party (such as real estate taxes and insurance) under a promissory note, loan or grant agreement, workout agreement, or other agreement remains due more than 30 days after the due date.

(c) Nonmonetary defaults. A nonmonetary default exists when a borrower fails to correct a compliance violation, other than a monetary amount past due, within the time period specified in a compliance violation notice issued in accordance with §3560.354. Nonmonetary defaults include, but are not limited to, failure to:

- (1) Operate and manage a housing project in accordance with the Agency approved management plan or Agency requirements;
- (2) Maintain the physical condition of a housing project in a decent, safe, and sanitary manner and in accordance with Agency requirements;
- (3) Keep general operating expense, reserve, and other financial accounts related to a housing project at required funding levels;
- (4) Occupy rental units with eligible tenants, unless granted an exception by the Agency;
- (5) Charge correct rents or to correctly calculate net tenant contributions, utility allowances, or rental assistance payments or to properly administer the Agency rental assistance assigned to the housing project;
- (6) Submit required annual financial reports to the Agency within time periods specified in §3560.308;
- (7) Submit management plans, leases, occupancy rules, and other required materials to the Agency in accordance with Agency requirements; and,
- (8) Comply with applicable Federal laws including laws related to civil rights, fair housing, disabilities, and environmental conditions.

(d) Default notice. When borrowers are in default, the Agency will notify borrowers, in writing, that they are in default. The default notice will identify the compliance violation that led to the default, will specify actions necessary to cure the default, and will establish a date by which the default must be cured to preclude Agency initiation of enforcement actions, liquidation, or other actions.

(e) Agency action. If a borrower fails to cure a default within the time period specified in the default notice, the Agency may initiate the enforcement actions described in §3560.461 or liquidation as described in §3560.456. Also, Agency compliance violation notices and related default notices may be referred to Federal, state, and local agencies with jurisdictions related to the violations for handling, in accordance with their requirements.

§3560.453 Workout agreements.

(a) General.

- (1) Prevention or resolution of compliance violations or default cures are a borrower's responsibility.
- (2) A borrower may develop and submit to the Agency for approval a workout agreement that proposes actions to be taken over a period of time to prevent or correct a compliance violation or to cure a monetary or non-monetary default.

(3) A borrower developed workout agreement may propose, but is not limited to, the following actions:

(i) A combination of one or more of the special servicing actions outlined in §§3560.454 and 3560.455;

(ii) A change in operations and management at a housing project; or

(iii) A commitment of additional financial resources to the housing project with the amount and source of the additional resources to be committed to the housing project specifically identified.

(b) Workout agreement approval.

(1) The Agency is under no obligation to approve a workout agreement as submitted by a borrower or to act with forbearance when a housing project is in monetary or non-monetary default.

(2) Borrower developed workout agreements may not be implemented until the borrower receives written approval from the Agency.

(3) The Agency will only approve a workout agreement if the Agency determines that the actions proposed are likely to prevent or correct compliance violations or cure a default and approval is in the best interest of the Federal Government and tenants.

(4) The Agency will only approve a workout agreement if the proposed actions are consistent with the borrower's management plan. If proposed actions are not consistent with the borrower's management plan, applicable revisions to the borrower's management plan must be made before approval of the workout agreement is given.

(c) Workout agreement required content.

(1) Workout agreements submitted to the Agency for approval must be in writing and signed by the borrower. Workout agreements must describe proposed actions in sufficient detail to demonstrate the likelihood of the actions to prevent or correct compliance violations or cure defaults.

(2) At a minimum, workout agreements must include the following.

(i) The name and address of the housing project, project number, borrower's tax identification number, and other information necessary to identify the housing project.

(ii) A description of the potential or actual compliance violation or default situation, including an explanation of related causes, such as cash flow concerns, budget revisions, deferred maintenance, vacancies, or violations of statutes.

(iii) A definition and description of the housing project's market area, including information on housing availability, rents, and vacancy rates in the market area.

(iv) A description of the proposed actions to prevent or correct compliance violations or to cure defaults along with a date specific schedule indicating when interim and final actions will be taken to correct the compliance violation or cure the default.

(v) A description of financial and other resources necessary to prevent or correct the compliance violation or cure the default including an identification of the sources for such resources.

(d) Workout agreement budgets. Budget revisions submitted as a part of a workout agreement for a housing project experiencing cash flow problems must prioritize cash disbursements in the following order:

- (1) Prior lienholder, if any;
- (2) Critical operating and maintenance expenses, including taxes and insurance;
- (3) Agency debt payments;
- (4) Reserve account requirements; and
- (5) Other authorized expenditures.

(e) Workout agreement terms and cancellation.

(1) Workout agreements shall be in effect for no longer than a 2-year time period, beginning on the date of Agency approval. If an approved workout agreement calls for actions that extend beyond a 2-year period, borrowers must submit an updated and, if necessary, revised workout agreement to the Agency for approval. The updated workout agreement must be submitted to the Agency, 30 days prior to the expiration of the workout agreement in effect.

(2) The Agency may cancel a workout agreement at any time if the borrower fails to comply with the terms of the agreement. The Agency will provide notice to the borrower upon cancellation of the workout agreement.

§3560.454 Special servicing actions related to housing operations.

(a) Changing rents or revising budgets. The Agency may approve a borrower request for a rent change, rent incentives, or a revised budget, at any time during a housing project's fiscal year.

(b) Occupancy waivers. If the Agency determines that a housing project with high vacancies could be kept operationally and financially viable by allowing the borrower to accept as tenants persons with incomes above the income eligibility standards specified in §3560.152(a), the Agency, in writing, may grant the borrower an occupancy waiver to allow such persons as tenants. Occupancy waivers will be in effect only during the time period specified by the Agency when the waiver is granted. In addition, borrowers must rent to all eligible applicants on the housing projects waiting list prior to accepting persons with incomes above the Agency standards as tenants.

(c) Additional rental assistance (RA). If the Agency determines that a housing project with high vacancies could be kept operationally and financially viable by increasing the amount of RA allocated to the housing project, the Agency, subject to available funds, may offer the housing project RA as a means of preventing or correcting a compliance violation or curing a default.

(d) Special note rents. When a Plan II housing project is experiencing severe vacancies due to market conditions, the Agency may approve a rent less than the note rent to attract and keep tenants whose incomes, according to the formula in §3560.203, would require them to pay the note rent. The reduced rent is called a Special Note Rent (SNR) and, as noted in §3560.210, approval of an SNR may affect approvals of loan proposals submitted to the Agency for the market area where the SNR is in effect.

(1) An SNR rent may only be requested as a part of a proposed workout agreement and must include documentation of market conditions, the housing project's vacancy rates, evidence of marketing efforts, and other concerns necessitating the request for an SNR.

(2) Borrowers must forego the annual return to owner for each housing project's fiscal year that an SNR is in effect for all or part of a fiscal year at a housing project.

(3) SNR's may be increased, decreased, or terminated any time during a housing project's fiscal year when market conditions, vacancy rates, or other concerns that necessitated the SNR warrant a change.

(4) In addition to any state lease law requirements that might be related to the implementation of an SNR, the borrower must notify each tenant of any change in rents or utility allowances that result from approval of an SNR, in accordance with §3560.205(c) and must submit the appropriate budget changes to the Agency for approval.

(e) Termination of management agreement. If the Agency determines that a compliance violation or loan default was caused, in full or in part, by actions or inactions of the housing project's management agent, the Agency will require the borrower to terminate the management agreement with that agent, or in the case of a borrower managed housing project, to enter an agreement with a third-party non-identity of interest management agent, unless the borrower and the Agency agree on a written plan to prevent reoccurrence of the violation. Housing project funds may not be used to pay a management fee to a management agent after the Agency has directed the borrower to terminate a management agreement with that agent, except during an Agency approved transition period.

§3560.455 Special servicing actions related to loan accounts.

(a) General. To prevent or correct a compliance violation or to prevent or cure a default in a situation that cannot be resolved through regular servicing, the Agency may approve a deferral of loan payments or a loan restructuring. Nothing herein precludes the Agency from initiating appropriate legal action to correct a compliance violation if the Agency determines such action is more in the Government's interest than entering into a special servicing agreement as provided for in this section. Procedures for debt collection are discussed in §3560.460. As part of a workout agreement, the Agency may agree to accept less than full monthly payment installments due on an Agency loan for a specified period of time, not to exceed the effective period of the workout agreement.

(b) Loan reamortizations. A loan reamortization is a restructuring of loan terms and conditions over a period of time that does not exceed the remaining useful life of the housing project.

(1) Loan reamortizations will only be approved when they are in the best interest of the Federal Government and tenants and when the following conditions are met.

(i) The Agency determines that the borrower will be unable to meet their obligations without a reduction in monthly payment installments; and

(ii) The Agency is satisfied that the security, including the potential income for debt service, will be adequate to protect the Agency's interest over the term of the reamortization and that the reamortization will not adversely affect the Federal Government's lien priority.

(2) If the Agency approves a reamortization of a loan under this section, it will be at the existing note rate, or the current interest rate at the time of reamortization closing or approval, whichever is less.

(3) Loan reamortization may be used to:

(i) Restructure loan repayments to prevent or correct a compliance violation or cure a default caused by circumstances beyond the borrower's control in situations where the borrower is otherwise in compliance with Agency requirements;

(ii) Repay principal, outstanding interest, overage, and advances made by the Agency for recoverable cost items when less than full payments were authorized under the provisions of an Agency approved workout agreement;

(iii) Restructure a borrower's loan payments in conjunction with an incentive package developed in accordance with §3560.656 to prevent prepayment of the loan;

(iv) Restructure an existing loan in conjunction with a subsequent loan for rehabilitation; or

(v) Restructure remaining debt when a portion of the property serving as loan security is sold and there is a need to reestablish the financial stability of the housing project.

(c) Loan writedowns. A loan writedown is a reduction of a borrower's debt approved by the Agency.

(1) Loan writedowns will only be approved when they are in the best interest of the Federal Government and when the following conditions exist:

(i) Sound management of the housing project is evident or sound management practices are proposed for correction in accordance with an Agency approved workout agreement; and

(ii) The housing project's financial stability is being affected by conditions beyond the borrower's control, such as market weaknesses, unforeseen site problems, or natural disasters.

(2) Prior to Agency approval for a loan writedown, the borrower must obtain an appraisal of the housing project that concludes the 'as-is' market value, subject to restricted rents, conducted in accordance with subpart P of this part. The Agency will not approve a loan write-down unless the appraisal indicates the Federal Government's interests are secured at the proposed writedown level.

(3) Any writedown will be conditioned on a finding that the borrower does not have the ability to pay a higher loan payment, even if the loan is reamortized.

(4) Loan writedowns may be used to allow for a loan transfer and assumption for less than the total amount of outstanding debt.

§3560.456 Liquidation.

Prior to any servicing action which might lead to the acquisition of real property by the Agency, the Agency must complete a due diligence report to assess any potential contamination of the property from hazardous substances, hazardous wastes, or petroleum products. The borrower must cooperate with the Agency in the development of this report.

(a) Before acceleration. Before accelerating a project loan, the Agency will consider the possibility that the borrower is forcing an acceleration to circumvent the prepayment process. If it is found that this is the borrower's motivation, the Agency will consider alternatives to acceleration, such as suing for specific performance under loan and management documents.

(b) Acceleration. When a borrower is in monetary or non-monetary default, the Agency will accelerate the loan unless the Agency decides other enforcement measures are more appropriate.

(1) If the borrower does not pay the full account balance and meet the other terms of the acceleration notice within the time period set forth in the acceleration notice, the Agency will foreclose or acquire the security property through deed in lieu of foreclosure.

(2) The Agency will suspend interest credit and rental assistance.

(3) The Agency will not accept partial payment of an accelerated loan unless required by state law.

(c) Voluntary liquidation. After acceleration, borrowers may voluntarily liquidate through either of the following mechanisms:

(1) Deed in lieu of foreclosure. RHS may accept a deed in lieu of foreclosure to convey title to the security property only after the debt has been accelerated and when it is in the Government's best interest.

(2) Offer by third party. If a junior lienholder or cosigner makes an offer in the amount of at least the net recovery value, RHS may assign the note and mortgage after all appeal rights have expired.

(d) Foreclosure.

(1) The Agency will initiate foreclosure when a borrower is in monetary or non-monetary default and foreclosure is in the best interest of the Federal Government.

(2) When a junior lienholder foreclosure does not result in payment in full of the Agency debt but the property is sold subject to the Agency lien, the Agency will liquidate the account.

(e) Acquisition of chattel properties.

(1) The Agency will accept voluntary conveyance of chattel property only when the borrower can convey ownership free of other liens and the Agency has agreed to release the borrower from further liability on the account.

(2) If the Agency decides to accept an offer of voluntary conveyance of chattel property, the borrower must provide an itemized listing of each chattel property item being conveyed and provide title to vehicles or other equipment, where applicable.

§3560.457 Negotiated debt settlement.

(a) Borrower proposals to settle debt. A borrower who cannot pay the full amount of loan payments may propose an offer to settle an outstanding debt for less than the full amount of that debt. The Agency may approve a negotiated debt settlement only in cases where a default is evident and doing so is in the best interest of the Federal Government and tenants.

(b) Required information. Borrowers requesting debt settlement must submit complete and accurate information from which a full determination of financial condition can be made. Debt settlement offers will not be approved by the Agency unless the financial information submitted by the borrower indicates that the borrower will be able to make the debt settlement payments as proposed.

(c) Effective date of approval. Debt settlement offers will not be accepted until the borrower receives written approval from the Agency.

(d) Appraisal requirement. No debt settlement offer will be accepted for less than the net recovery value of the security as determined by a licensed appraiser or other qualified official, and concurred in by the Agency's qualified appraisal review official or other qualified official.

(e) Disposition of security prior to offer. Borrowers are not required to dispose of security prior to making a debt settlement offer. However, if a borrower has disposed of security prior to making a debt settlement offer, the proceeds from the disposed security must be applied to the borrower's account prior to any negotiations on the debt settlement offer.

(f) Final release condition. Upon full payment of the approved debt settlement, the Agency will release the borrower from liability.

§3560.458 Special property circumstances.

(a) Abandonment. When the Agency determines that a borrower has abandoned security for a loan under this part, the Agency will take the steps necessary to protect the Federal Government's interest in the security. Costs associated with managing abandoned property are the responsibility of the borrower and will be charged to the borrower's account until liquidation is completed.

(b) Other security. The Agency will service security such as collateral assignments, assignments of rents, Housing Assistance Payments Contracts, and notices of lienholder interest according to acceptable practices in the respective states.

(c) Taking of additional security to protect Agency interests. The Agency may require borrowers to provide additional security in the form of real estate, cash reserves, letters of credit, or other security when needed to improve the chances that the Agency will not suffer a loss, and when:

(1) The account is in default; or

(2) The property has not been properly managed or maintained.

(d) Due diligence. When the Agency has completed an environmental review in accordance with 7 CFR part 1940, subpart G, and decides not to acquire security property through liquidation action or chooses to abandon its security interest in real property, whether due in whole or in part, to the presence of contamination from hazardous substances, hazardous wastes, or petroleum products, the Agency will provide the appropriate environmental authorities with a copy of its due diligence report.

§3560.459 Special borrower circumstances.

(a) Deceased borrower, bankruptcy, insolvency, and divorce actions. The Agency will address borrower accounts affected by special circumstances such as death, bankruptcy, insolvency, and divorce on a case-by-case basis. The Agency will make servicing decisions in such cases on the basis of best interest to the Federal Government and tenants. The Agency will bring a legal action to establish the legal capacity of the borrower to administer the project if found necessary to protect the government's interests. In order for the Agency to make servicing decisions in such cases, the borrower or the borrower's representative will provide to the Agency:

(1) On the part of the heirs or executor of the borrower's estate, evidence of legal action due to a will or court actions that establish who is to become the owner;

(2) The financial status of the borrower and any member pledging additional security for the debt;

(3) The status of the security property; and

(4) The impact of the identified actions on the operation of the project.

(b) Membership liability agreements. If a borrower's note is endorsed by individuals other than the borrower or a borrower has security agreements with members of the organization for the purchase of shares of stock or for the payment of a pro rata share of the loan in the event of default, or has individual liability agreements, which are usually assigned to and held by the Agency as additional security for the loan, the security and liability agreements must be adequate to protect the Agency's interest.

(c) Security issues in participation loans. When a multi-family housing (MFH) project is receiving financing or a subsidy from sources other than the Agency, the Agency will service the account in accordance with the participation agreements made with the Agency and the other funding sources under §3560.65.

§3560.460 Double damages.

(a) Action to recover assets or income.

(1) The Agency may request to the Attorney General to bring an action in a United States district court to recover any assets or income used by any person in violation of the provisions of a loan made by the Agency under this section or in violation of any applicable statute or regulation.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a use of assets or income in violation of the applicable loan, statute, or regulation includes any use for which the documentation in the books and accounts does not establish that the use was made for a reasonable operating expense or necessary repair of the project or for which the documentation has not been maintained in accordance with the requirements of the Agency and in reasonable condition for proper audit.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the term “person” means:

(i) Any individual or entity that borrows funds in accordance with programs authorized by this section;

(ii) Any individual or entity holding 25 percent or more interest in any entity that the Agency funds in accordance with programs authorized by this section; and

(iii) Any officer, director, or partner of an entity that borrows funds in accordance with programs authorized by this section.

(b) Amount recoverable.

(1) In any judgment favorable to the United States entered under this section, the Attorney General may recover double the value of the assets and income of the project that the court determines to have been used in violation of the provisions of a loan made by the Agency under this section or any applicable statute or regulation, plus all costs related to the actions, including reasonable attorney and auditing fees.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the Agency may use amounts recovered under this section for activities authorized under this section and such funds must remain available for such use until expended.

(c) Time limitation. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, an action under this section may be commenced at any time during the six-year period beginning on the date that the Agency discovered or should have discovered the violation of the provisions of this section or any related statutes or regulations.

(d) Continued availability of other remedies. The remedy provided in this section is in addition to and not in substitution of any other remedies available to the Agency or the United States.

§3560.461 Enforcement provisions.

(a) Equity skimming.

(1) Criminal penalty. Whoever, as an owner, agent, employee, or manager, or is otherwise in custody, control, or possession of property that is security for a loan made under this title, willfully uses, or authorizes the use, of any part of the rents, assets, proceeds, income, or other funds derived from such property, for any purpose other than to meet actual, reasonable, and necessary expenses of the property, or for any other purpose not authorized by this title or the regulations adopted pursuant to this title, must be fined under title 18, United States Code, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

(2) Civil sanctions. An entity or individual who as an owner, operator, employee, or manager, or who acts as an agency for a property that is security for a loan made under this title where any part of the rents, assets, proceeds, income, or other funds derived from such property are used for any purpose other than to meet actual, reasonable, and necessary expenses of the property, or for any other purpose not authorized by this title of the regulations adopted pursuant to this title, must be subject to a fine of not more than $25,000 per violation. The sanctions provided in this paragraph may be imposed in addition to any other civil sanctions or civil monetary penalties authorized by law.

(b) Civil monetary penalties.

(1) When civil monetary penalties may be imposed. The Agency may, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, impose a civil monetary penalty in accordance with this section against any individual or entity, including its owners, officers, general partners, limited partners, or employees, who knowingly and materially violate, or participate in the violation of, the provisions of this title, the regulation issued by the Agency pursuant to this title, or agreements made in accordance to this title by:

(i) Submitting information to the Agency that is false.

(ii) Providing the Agency with false certifications.

(iii) Failing to submit information requested by the Agency in a timely manner.

(iv) Failing to maintain the property subject to loans made under this title in good repair and condition, as determined by the Agency.

(v) Failing to provide management for a project that received a loan made under this title that is acceptable to the Agency.

(vi) Failing to comply with the provisions of applicable civil rights statutes and regulations.

(2) Amount.

(i) The amount of a civil penalty imposed under this section must not exceed the greater of twice the damages the Agency or the project that is secured for a loan under this section suffered or would have suffered as a result of the violation, or $50,000 per violation.

(ii) Determination. In determining the amount of a civil monetary penalty under this section, the Agency must take into consideration:

(A) The gravity of the offense;

(B) Any history of prior offenses by the violator (including offenses occurring prior to the enactment of this section);

(C) Any injury to tenants;

(D) Any injury to the public;

(E) Any benefits received by the violator as a result of the violation;

(F) Deterrence of future violations; and

(G) Such other factors as the Agency may establish by regulation.

(3) Payment of penalties. No payment of a penalty assessed under this section may be made from funds provided under this title or from funds of a project which serve as security for a loan made under this title.

(4) Remedies for noncompliance.

(i) Judicial intervention. If a person or entity fails to comply with a final determination by the Agency imposing a civil monetary penalty, the Agency may request the Attorney General of the United States to bring an action in an appropriate district court to obtain a monetary judgment against such an individual or entity and such other relief as may be available. The monetary judgment may, in the court's discretion, include attorney's fees and other expenses incurred by the United States in connection with the action.

(ii) Reviewability of determination. In an action under this paragraph, the validity and appropriateness of a determination by the Agency imposing the penalty must not be subject to review.

(c) Conditions for renewal extension. The Agency may require that expiring loan or assistance agreements entered into under this title must not be renewed or extended unless the owner executes an agreement to comply with additional conditions prescribed by the Agency, or executes a new loan or assistance agreement in the form prescribed by the Agency.

Subpart K--Management and Disposition of Real Estate Owned (REO) Properties

§3560.501 General.

This subpart contains Agency procedures and other policies related to the management and disposition of multi-family housing (MFH) projects in the Agency's inventory (Real Estate Owned (REO) property). Housing projects will not be accepted into the Agency's inventory unless one of the following has occurred:

- (a) The borrower has abandoned the housing project and the Agency has performed the required steps to take the housing project into custody.
- (b) The housing project title has been transferred to the Agency as a result of foreclosure, voluntary conveyance, redemption, or other action.

§3560.502 Tenant notifications and assistance.

Each tenant in an REO property designated to be sold as a non-program property will be notified by the Agency, in writing, of the housing projects' non-program designation and will be given an opportunity to obtain a Letter Of Priority Entitlement (LOPE) as specified in §3560.159(c).

§3560.503 Disposition of REO property.

(a) Preference will be given to offers from bidders who are determined eligible by the Agency to purchase REO property designated to be sold as program property. It is the Agency's priority that property previously operated as program property prior to becoming REO inventory property be sold as program property. However, REO property may be sold under whatever Agency program is most appropriate for the property and the community needs regardless of the program under which the property was originally financed or whether the property was being used to secure loans under more than one Agency program.

(b) When the Agency determines that the REO property to be sold is not decent, safe, and sanitary and/or does not meet cost effective energy conservation standards, it will disclose the basis for this determination to prospective purchasers. The deed by which such an REO property is conveyed will contain a covenant restricting it from residential use until it is decent, safe, and sanitary, and meets the Agency's cost effective conservation standards. The Agency will also notify any potential purchaser of any known lead based paint hazards.

§3560.504 Sales price and bidding process.

(a) The loan documents related to REO property sold for program purposes must contain the restrictive-use language specified in §3560.662(a).

(b) Entities bidding on REO property designated to be sold as program property must submit a loan application package that meets the requirements specified in subpart B of this part.

(1) Bidders on REO property designated to be sold as program property must meet the eligibility requirements established under §3560.55.

(2) Bidders determined by the Agency to be ineligible to purchase REO property designated to be sold as program property will be notified in writing. The bidding process will continue regardless of pending appeals.

(3) All offers from bidders determined to be eligible to purchase REO property designated to be sold as program property will be considered in the bidding process and must provide evidence of financial stability and credit worthiness.

(c) The Agency will determine the successful bidder on REO property designated to be sold as program property by conducting a drawing of sealed bids.

(1) The Agency may authorize the sale of an REO property by sealed bid or public auction when it is in the best interest of the Government. The Agency will publicly solicit requests for sealed bids and publicize auctions. If the highest bid is lower than the minimum acceptable bid established by the Agency, or if no acceptable bids are received, the Agency may negotiate a sale without further public notice.

(2) Bidders who desire to withdraw their bids must do so prior to the drawing date.

(d) Property designated to be sold as non-program property may be sold to entities that do not meet the Agency's eligible borrower requirements specified in §3560.55, and must be sold for cash or on terms approved by the Agency. Cash sales will be given first preference and will be drawn before any sales on terms.

§3560.505 Agency loans to finance purchases of REO properties.

(a) Agency loans to finance the purchase of REO property designated to be sold as program property must meet the same requirements as specified in subparts A and B of this part. In addition, the following provisions apply.

(1) At the borrower's option, the interest rate will be the prevailing rate at the time of loan approval or the prevailing rate at loan closing.

(2) Purchasers may pay closing costs from their own funds or, if allowable under subparts B, L, or M of this part, as applicable, may finance such costs as part of the Agency loan.

(b) Agency loans to finance the purchase of REO property designated to be sold as non-program property must meet the following terms.

(1) A down payment of not less than 10 percent of the purchase price is required at closing.

(2) The interest rate will equal the lesser of the prevailing interest rate at the time of loan approval or loan closing for MFH loans plus one-half percent.

(3) The note amount will be amortized over a period not to exceed 10 years. If the Agency determines that more favorable terms are necessary to facilitate the sale, the note amount may be amortized using a 30-year factor with payment in full due no later than 10 years from the date of closing (balloon payment). In no case will the term be longer than the useful life of the property.

(4) Agency loans to finance the purchase of non-program REO property are subject to the availability of funds.

(c) Loan limits and allowable uses of loan funds specified in subparts B, L, and M of this part, as applicable, are applicable to any Agency-financed (credit) sale of REO property.

(d) Title clearance and loan closing for an Agency financed sale and any subsequent loan to be closed simultaneously with the sale must meet the requirements in subpart B of this part for an initial loan, with the following exceptions:

(1) A "Quit Claim" or other non-warranty deed will be used; and

(2) The buyer must pay attorney's fees, insurance costs, recording fees and other customary fees unless they are included in a subsequent loan and the subsequent loan is for purposes other than closing costs and fees.

(e) After approval of an Agency-financed sale of occupied REO property designated to be sold as program property, but prior to closing, the purchaser must prepare a budget for housing operations in accordance with subpart B of this part. If a rent increase is necessary, procedures specified in subparts E and F of this part for calculating rents, net tenant contributions, and rental assistance will be followed by the borrower.

§3560.506 Conversion of single family type REO property to MFH use.

Single family type REO property may be sold for conversion to MFH program use under the following conditions:

(a) The Agency will allow nonprofit organizations, public bodies, or for-profit entities to purchase single family type REO property for conversion to MFH program use. When the Agency finances the sale of single family-type REO property for conversion to rural rental housing program use (i.e., MFH including group homes and homes for the elderly or disabled, farm labor housing, or rural cooperative housing), the sale price will be the lesser of the Federal Government's investment or an amount based on the "as-is" market value of the housing project as determined by an appraisal conducted in accordance with subpart P of this part.

(b) The Agency will only accept written offers to purchase two or more single family type REO properties for conversion to rural rental housing from nonprofit organizations, public bodies, or for-profit entities with a good record of providing housing under the Agency's MFH programs. The single family type properties are not required to be contiguous, however, they must be located in close enough proximity so that management capabilities are not diminished because of distance.

However, total rent charged for a unit must not exceed conventional rent for comparable units in the area or a similar area and per bed rents must be comparable to per bed rents in the market.

§3560.574 Operating assistance.

Operating assistance may be used in lieu of tenant-specific rental assistance in off-farm labor housing projects financed under section 514 or section 516(i) of the Housing Act of 1949 (U.S.C. 1486(i)) that serve migrant farmworkers. Owners of eligible projects may choose tenant-specific rental assistance as described in §3560.573 or operating assistance, or a combination of both, however, any tenant or unit assisted under this section may not receive rental assistance under §3560.572. The objective of this program is to provide assistance toward the cost of operating the project so that rents may be set at rates that are affordable to very low and low-income migrant farmworkers.

(a) Project eligibility requirements. To be eligible for the operating assistance program, projects must be:

(1) Off-farm labor housing projects financed under section 514 or section 516 with units that are for migrant farmworkers. Housing units for year-round farmworker households are ineligible; and

(2) Eligible for the Agency's rental assistance program as defined in §3560.573.

(b) Operating assistance limits. The amount of operating assistance requested by the owner must be based on the project's actual income and expenses and must be approved by the Agency. In the case of a mixed project, the amount of operating assistance must be based on the portion of actual income and expenses that are attributable to the units that are for migrant farmworkers. In no instance may the annual amount of operating assistance exceed 90 percent of the annual operating costs that are attributable to the migrant units.

(c) Owner responsibilities.

(1) Requesting for operating assistance program. Owners of off-farm labor housing projects with units for migrant farmworkers may request operating assistance by submitting a request to the Agency, which must include a budget. The budget must include:

(i) Estimated operating costs for the migrant units, including authorized expenditures such as reserve deposits;

(ii) Proposed rental rates for the migrant units to generate sufficient funds for operating costs of those units, taking into consideration all other sources of project income; and

(iii) Estimated rental income from tenants, based on a tenant contribution of 30 percent of the average adjusted monthly income of migrant farmworker households in the area.

(2) Requesting operating assistance payments. Each month, the owner will submit a request for operating assistance to the Agency.

(3) Verifying tenant income eligibility. Owners are responsible for verifying tenant income eligibility. Only very low or low-income households are eligible for the operating assistance rents. Households with incomes above the low-income limits must pay the full rent.

(4) Reporting requirements.

(i) Owners will complete and submit to the Agency tenant certifications to document tenant income and eligibility.

(ii) Owners will complete and submit monthly to the Agency a project worksheet for operating assistance.

(iii) Owners must submit an annual planning budget to the Agency prior to the project's fiscal year.

§3560.575 Rental structure and changes.

Off-farm labor housing is subject to the tenant contribution and rental unit rent requirements for Plan II housing established under subpart E of this part, except where seasonal housing will be occupied for less than a 3-month period. In such instances the best available and practical income verification methods may be used with prior approval of the Agency.

§3560.576 Occupancy restrictions.

(a) Restrictions on conditions of occupancy.

(1) No borrower or grantee will be permitted to require that an occupant work on any particular farm or for any particular owner or interest as a condition of occupancy of the housing.

(2) Tenant selection should be in accordance with the loan agreement, subpart D of this part and §3560.577.

(3) No borrower or grantee will discriminate, or permit discrimination by any agent, lessee, or other operator in the use or occupancy of the housing or related facilities because of race, color, religion, sex, age, disability, familial status, or national origin.

(b) Eligible households. To be eligible for occupancy in off-farm labor housing, households must meet the following requirements.

(1) Occupational. An eligible household must include a domestic tenant or co-tenant farm laborer, a retired domestic farm laborer, or a disabled domestic farm laborer.

(2) Income. The household must meet the definition of income eligible as established in §3560.152 and the tenant or co-tenant must receive a substantial portion of income from farm labor employment. To determine if a substantial portion of income is from farm labor employment, the following measures will be used.

(i) For housing rented to farm laborers and owned by public bodies, public or private nonprofit organizations, and limited partnerships when charging rent.

(A) Actual dollars earned from farm labor by domestic farm laborers other than migrant farmworkers must equal at least 65 percent of the annual income limits indicated for the Standard Federal regions as published by the Agency for their particular region of the country. For migrant farmworkers living in seasonal housing the actual dollars earned from farm labor by a domestic farm laborer must equal at least 50 percent of annual income limits indicated for the Standard Federal regions, as published by the Agency.

(B) An alternate measure for determining substantial portion of income when actual earnings are not available may be the duration of time a farm laborer worked on a farm or other farming enterprise as a domestic farmworker during the preceding 12 months. In order to be considered as substantial the farm laborer must have worked at least 110 whole days in farm work. For purposes of this section one whole day is the equivalent of at least 7 hours. When using a period of more than 1 year, a yearly average must amount to at least 110 days per year.

(ii) For housing owned by a farmer, family-farm partnership, family-farm corporation, or an association of farmers which was initially provided on a non-rental basis, a substantial portion of income is earned when housing is provided by the owner as part of employment compensation for farm labor.

(iii) When a natural disaster has occurred, such as a drought, flood, freeze, etc., figures for the 12 months preceding such disaster will be used to determine substantial portion of income under paragraph (b)(2) of this section.

(iv) The tenant who qualifies as a domestic farm laborer residing in a property with a nonrestrictive farm labor clause in the mortgage covenants must not have adjusted income which exceeds the moderate income limit for the appropriate household size and appropriate geographical area.

(3) Occupancy. The household must remain in compliance with the borrower's occupancy policy as established in §3560.155.

(c) Tenant eligibility requirements for operating assistance rents. To be eligible for operating assistance rents, tenants must meet the rental assistance eligibility requirements described in §3560.573 and in §3560.252.

(d) Ineligible tenants. Tenants who, at any time, fail to meet all the requirements in paragraph (b) of this section will be deemed ineligible for occupancy in off-farm labor housing. Ineligible tenants in off-farm labor housing will be addressed in accordance with the requirements of §3560.158.

(e) Non-farm laborer tenants. When there is a diminished need for housing for persons or families in the above categories, units in off-farm labor housing complexes may be made available to persons or families eligible for occupancy under §3560.152. Eligible tenants under this section may occupy the labor housing until such time the units are again needed by persons or families eligible under paragraph (b) of this section. As the basis for Agency approval or disapproval of the borrower's determination of diminished need, the borrower must submit a current analysis of need and demand to the Agency, identical to the market analysis that is required of loan applicants in the loan origination process. The borrower's determination and the State Director's recommendation should be forwarded to the National Office for concurrence. The procedures specified in §3560.158 shall be followed when tenants are required to vacate housing to allow for occupancy by persons eligible under paragraph (b) of this section.

§3560.577 Tenant priorities for labor housing.

Tenant occupancy in off-farm labor housing is based on eligible farm labor certified through the income certification process required by §3560.152 and is prioritized in the following order.

(a) First priority is to be given to eligible active farm laborer households with first priority going to very low-income households, next priority to low-income households, and last to moderate-income households.

(b) Second priority is given to retired domestic farm laborer households and disabled domestic farm laborer households who were active in the local farm labor market area at the time of retiring or becoming disabled. Occupancy priority will be given in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Third priority is to be given to retired domestic farm laborer households and disabled domestic farm laborer households who were not active in the local farm labor market at the time of retiring or becoming disabled. Occupancy priority will be given in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section.

§3560.578 Financial management of labor housing.

The requirements established in subpart G of this part will apply to all off-farm labor housing.

§3560.579 Servicing off-farm labor housing.

The requirements established in subparts I and J of this part will apply to all off-farm labor housing. Servicing according to subparts I and J of this part shall apply throughout the term of the loan or grant, whichever is longer.

§§3560.580-3560.599 [Reserved]

Subpart M--On-Farm Labor Housing

§3560.601 General.

This subpart contains the requirements for making loans for on-farm labor housing and for ongoing operation and management of on-farm labor housing. Unless otherwise specified in this subpart, the requirements of subparts A through K, N, O, and P of this part will apply in addition to requirements given in this subpart.

§3560.602 Program objectives.

In addition to the objectives stated in §3560.52, on-farm labor housing funds will be used to increase:

- (a) The supply of affordable housing for farm labor; and
- (b) The ability of the farmer to provide affordable, decent, safe and sanitary housing for farm workers.

§3560.603 Loan purposes.

On-farm labor housing loans may be made only for the purposes established in §3560.553. Grants are not available for on-farm labor housing.

§3560.604 Restrictions on use of funds.

On-farm labor housing loans may not be used for any purpose prohibited by §3560.54 except §3560.54(a)(1). On-farm labor housing may be used to serve migrant workers. In addition, on-farm labor housing loan funds may not be used to provide housing for members of the immediate family of the applicant when the applicant is an individual farm owner, family farm corporation, family farm partnership, or a member of an association of farmers. Immediate family includes mother, father, brothers, sisters, sons, and daughters of the applicant and spouse.

§3560.605 Eligibility requirements.

(a) To be eligible for an on-farm labor housing loan, the applicant must meet the requirements of §3560.55(a) with the exception of §3560.55(a)(1), (5), and (6) and the following requirements.

(1) The applicant must be a farm owner, family farm partnership, family farm corporation, or an association of farmers engaged in agricultural or aquacultural farming operations whose farming operations demonstrate a need for on-farm labor housing and who will own the housing and operate it on a nonprofit basis.

(2) The applicant must agree to use the labor housing to engage in the farming operations of the individual farm owner applicant, or in the farming operations of its members if it is a family farm corporation or partnership, or an association of farmers.

(3) The applicant must, as determined by the Agency, be unable to provide the necessary housing from the applicant's own resources and be unable to obtain credit from any other source upon terms and conditions which the applicant could reasonably be expected to fulfill. If the applicant is an association of farmers or family farm corporation or partnership, the individual members, individually and jointly, must be unable to provide the necessary housing by utilizing their own resources and be unable, by pledging their personal liability, to obtain other credit that would enable them to provide housing for farm workers at rental rates they can afford to pay. The individual resources of family farm corporation or partnership members with less than a 10 percent corporate or partnership interest should not be considered when determining if the applicant can obtain credit elsewhere.

(b) The Agency may make an exception to the requirement that an individual farm owner, family farm corporation, family farm partnership or an association of farmers be unable to obtain the necessary credit elsewhere when all of the following conditions exist:

(1) There is a housing need in the area for domestic farmworkers who are migrants and the applicant will provide such housing; and

(2) There are no qualified state or political subdivisions or public or private nonprofit organizations available, or likely to become available within 12 months of the application, that are willing and able to provide the housing.

(c) When an applicant is determined eligible under paragraph (b) of this section, the interest rate for such loans will be determined in accordance with 7 CFR part 1810, subpart A.

(d) On-farm labor housing that consists of buildings with less than three units is not subject to the requirement that five percent of the units be constructed as fully accessible units, as described in §3560.60(d).

§3560.606 Application requirements and processing.

(a) On-farm labor housing loan applications will be processed according to 7 CFR part 1940, subpart L. Applicants must submit an application in an Agency-approved format that adequately documents the need for the housing and the eligibility of the applicant.

(b) The applicant must certify that the farm workers for which the housing is intended are or will be involved in the applicant's agricultural or aquacultural farming operations.

(c) The applicant must certify that housing operations will be conducted in a non-profit manner such that income from the housing does not exceed eligible expenses associated with the housing. Eligible expenditures for the housing include, but are not limited to housing repairs and upkeep, payment of installments on the loan, taxes, insurance and reserves and other essential uses needed for success of the operations.

§3560.607 [Reserved]

§3560.608 Site and construction requirements.

(a) General. Cost and development standards for on-farm labor housing will be consistent with the requirements, standards, and cost limits specified in subpart B of this part, if the housing is a multi-family housing type structure, or consistent with section 502 of the Housing Act of 1949, if the housing is a single family type structure.

(b) Permanent units. On-farm labor housing occupied for 8 months or more of the year will be required to meet the following requirements.

(1) Housing may be multi-family or single family in type and may be located on the farm away from farm service buildings, or in the nearby community. Single-family type housing is defined as an individual or a group of individual single family detached dwelling units. All sites and housing shall be planned and constructed in accordance with 7 CFR part 1924, subparts A and C.

Subpart N--Housing Preservation

§3560.651 General.

- (a) This subpart contains the Agency's housing preservation requirements as related to prepayment requests and restrictive-use provisions (RUPs). The requirements of this subpart support the Agency's commitment to the preservation of decent, safe, sanitary, and affordable multi-family housing (MFH) for very low-, low-, and moderate-income households.
- (b) The Agency will coordinate, direct, and monitor the Agency's MFH preservation activities from the National Office level.

 - (1) All loans made after December 21, 1979, but prior to December 15, 1989;
 - (2) Subsequent loans made on or after December 15, 1989, for purposes other than additional rental units; or

(3) Loans subsequently restricted by servicing actions including transfers.

(c) Loans without prepayment prohibitions or restrictive-use provisions include all loans made on or before December 21, 1979, or loans that had restrictive-use provisions that have expired. Such loans are eligible to receive incentives subject to the provisions of this subpart.

(d) Loans may be prepaid if another loan or grant from the Agency imposes the same or more stringent restrictive-use provisions on the housing project covered by the loan being prepaid.

§3560.653 Prepayment requests.

(a) Borrowers seeking to prepay an Agency loan must submit a written prepayment request to the Agency at least 180 days in advance of the anticipated prepayment date and must obtain Agency approval before the Agency will accept prepayment.

(b) Prior to submitting a prepayment request, borrowers must take whatever actions are necessary to provide the following items:

(1) A clear description of the loan to be prepaid, the housing project covered by the loan being prepaid, and the requested date of prepayment.

(2) A statement documenting the borrower's ability to prepay under the terms specified.

(3) A certification that the borrower will comply with any federal, state, or local laws or regulations which may relate to the prepayment request and a statement of actions needed to assure such compliance.

(4) A copy of lease language to be used during the period between the submission date and the final resolution of the prepayment request notifying tenant applicants that the housing project has submitted a prepayment request to the Agency and explaining the potential affect of the request on the lease.

(5) Borrowers are required to submit a signed release of information form along with the prepayment request. The Agency will notify nonprofit organizations and public bodies involved in providing affordable housing or financial assistance to tenants of the receipt of a borrower's request to prepay their MFH (MFH) loan(s). Additionally, the Agency is to notify nonprofit organizations and public bodies whenever a borrower, who has requested prepayment, is required or elects to offer their property for sale to a nonprofit or public body.

(6) A certification that the borrower has notified all governmental entities involved in providing affordable housing or financial assistance to tenants in the project of the prepayment request and a statement specifying how long financial assistance from such parties will be provided to tenants after prepayment.

(7) A statement affirming that units in the property applying for prepayment will continue to be available for rent by eligible residents during the prepayment process.

(2) The borrower has the ability to prepay; and

(3) The borrower has complied or has the ability to comply with applicable Federal, state, and local laws related to the prepayment request.

(d) If a prepayment request lacks full and complete information on any item, the Agency will return the prepayment request to the borrower with a letter citing the deficiencies in the prepayment request. The Agency will offer borrowers an opportunity, within 30 days following the date of the return, to address the reasons given by the Agency for the return of the prepayment request and will allow the borrower to submit a revised prepayment request appropriately satisfies all the conditions listed in paragraph (d) of this section, the Agency will process the prepayment request and make a reasonable effort to enter into a new restrictive-use agreement with the borrower in accordance with §3560.662 or §3560.655. If the Agency determines that a loan is ineligible for prepayment or the borrower does not have the ability to prepay, the Agency will return the prepayment request to the borrower with a written explanation of the Agency's determinations.

§3560.654 Tenant notification requirements.

(a) Within 30 calendar days of receiving a complete prepayment request, the Agency will send a prepayment request notice to each tenant in the housing project. Borrowers must post the Agency's prepayment request notice in public areas throughout the housing project from the date of the notice until the final resolution of the prepayment request. The prepayment request notice will establish a date and place where tenants may meet with the Agency to discuss the prepayment request and will advise tenants that:

(1) They may review all information submitted with the prepayment request except financial information regarding the borrower entity, which the Agency will withhold from tenant review unless given written permission for the release of the information from the borrower; and,

(2) They have 30 days from the date of the prepayment request notice to give the Agency comments on the prepayment request.

(b) Borrowers may provide a prepayment request notice of their own directly to tenants and may establish a date and place where tenants may meet with the borrower to discuss the prepayment request. The Agency and other providers of housing assistance for very-low, low, and moderate-income households may attend a borrower's prepayment request meeting with tenants.

(c) If the Agency agrees to accept prepayment on a loan, the Agency will send a prepayment acceptance notice to each tenant in the housing project at least 60 days prior to the prepayment date. Borrowers must post copies of the Agency's prepayment acceptance notice in public areas throughout the housing project until prepayment is made. If the prepayment acceptance was based on a borrower's agreement to comply with restrictive-use provisions, the notice will describe the restrictive-use provisions that will apply to the housing project after prepayment and the tenant's rights to enforcement of the provisions.

(d) If the borrower withdraws the prepayment request, the Agency will provide a prepayment request cancellation notice to each tenant in the housing project. Borrowers must post copies of the prepayment request cancellation notice in the public areas throughout the housing project for a period of 60 days following the date of the prepayment request cancellation notice.

(e) If the borrower agrees to accept incentives and restrictive-use provisions, the Agency will notify each tenant, in writing, of the agreement and provide a description of the restrictive-use provision.

(f) If a borrower agrees to sell a housing project involved in a prepayment request to a nonprofit organization or public body, the Agency will notify each tenant, in writing, of the proposed sale to a nonprofit organization or public body and will explain the timeframes involved with the proposed sale, any potential impact on tenants, and the actions tenants may take to alleviate any adverse impact. Borrowers must post copies of the Agency's proposed sale notice in public areas throughout the housing project until the housing project is sold or the offer to sell is withdrawn.

(g) If a tenant applicant signs a lease in a housing project for which a prepayment request has been submitted, the borrower must provide the tenant with copies of all notifications provided to tenants by the Agency or the borrower prior to the tenant's occupancy in the housing project.

(h) If a borrower is unable to sell a housing project involved in a prepayment request to a nonprofit organization or public body within 180 days as specified in §3560.659, the Agency will send a notice to each tenant in the housing project explaining the potential impact of the borrower's inability to sell the housing project on tenants and the actions tenants may take to alleviate any adverse impact. Borrowers must post the Agency's notice in public areas throughout the housing project for a period of 60 days following the date of the notice.

§3560.655 Agency requested extension.

Before accepting an offer to prepay from a borrower with a restricted loan, the Agency must first make a reasonable effort to enter into a new restrictive-use agreement with the borrower. Under this agreement, the borrower would make a binding commitment to extend the low-income use of the housing and related facilities for 20 years for loans with interest credit, beginning on the date on which the new agreement is executed. If the borrower is unwilling to enter into a new restrictive-use provisions and restrictive-use agreement, the Agency should proceed to take the actions described in §3560.658.

§3560.656 Incentives offers.

(a) The Agency will offer a borrower, who submits a prepayment request meeting the conditions of §3560.653(d), incentives to agree to the restrictive-use period in §3560.662 if the following conditions are met:

(1) The market value of the housing project is determined by the Agency, based on an appraisal conducted in accordance with subpart P of this part.

(2) There are no restrictive-use agreements or prepayment prohibitions in affect.

(b) Specific incentives offered will be based on the Agency's assessment of:

(1) The value of the housing project as determined by the Agency based on an “as-is” market value appraisal conducted in accordance with subpart P of this part;

(2) An incentive amount that will provide a fair return to the borrower;

(3) An incentive amount that will not cause basic rents at the housing project to exceed conventional rents for comparable units; except that when determined necessary by the Agency to allow for decent, safe and sanitary housing to be provided in market areas where conventional rents are not sufficient to cover necessary operating, maintenance, and reserve costs. Basic rents may be allowed to exceed comparable rents for conventional units, but in no case by more than 150% of the comparable rent for conventional unit rent level; and

(4) An incentive amount that will be the least costly alternative for the Federal Government while being consistent with the Agency's commitment to the preservation of housing for very-low, low, and moderate income households in rural areas.

(c) The Agency may offer the following incentives:

(1) The Agency may increase the borrower's annual return on equity by one of the following two methods. The actual withdrawal of the return remains subject to the procedures and conditions for withdrawal specified in subpart G of this part.

(i) The Agency may recognize the borrower's current equity in the housing project. The equity will be determined using an Agency accepted appraisal based on the housing project's value as unsubsidized conventional housing.

(ii) When a current appraisal indicates an equity loan cannot be made, the Agency may recognize the borrower's current equity in the housing project at the higher of the original rate of return or the current 15-year Treasury bond rate plus 2 percent rounded to the nearest one-quarter percent. The equity will be determined using the most recent Agency accepted appraisal of the housing project prior to receiving the prepayment request.

(2) The Agency may agree to convert projects without interest credit or with Plan I interest credit to Plan II interest credit or increase the interest credit subsidy for loans with Section 8 assistance to lower the interest rate on the loan and make basic rents more financially feasible.

(3) The Agency may offer additional rental assistance, or an increase in assistance provided under existing contracts under Sec. §521(a)(2), 521(a)(5) of the Housing Act of 1949 (42 U.S.C. 1490a(a)(2)) or section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. §1437f).

(4) The Agency may make an equity loan to the borrower. The equity loan must not adversely affect the borrower's ability to repay other Agency loans held by the borrower and must be made in conformance with the following requirements:

- (i) The equity loan must not exceed the difference between the current unpaid loan balance and 90 percent of the housing project's value as determined by an "as-is" market value appraisal conducted in accordance with subpart P of this part.
 - (ii) Borrowers with farm labor housing loans are not eligible to receive equity loans as incentives.
 - (iii) If an incentive offer for an equity loan is accepted, the equity loan may be processed and closed with the borrower or any eligible transferee.
 - (iv) Excess reserve funds will be used to reduce the amount of an equity loan offered to a borrower.
 - (v) Equity loans may not be offered unless the Agency determines that other incentives are not adequate to provide a fair return on the investment of the borrower to prevent prepayment of the loan or to prevent displacement of project tenants.
- (5) The Agency will offer rental assistance to protect tenants from rent overburden caused by any rent increase as a result of a borrower's acceptance of an incentive offer or tenants who are currently overburdened.
- (6) In housing projects with project-based section 8 assistance, the Agency may permit the borrower to receive rents in excess of the amounts determined necessary by the Agency to defray the cost of long-term repair or maintenance of such a project.
- (d) The Agency must determine that the combination of assistance provided is necessary to provide a fair return on the investment of the borrower and is the least costly alternative for the Federal Government.
- (e) At the time the incentive is developed, the Agency must take into consideration the costs of any deferred maintenance, items in the housing project's operating budget, and any expected long-term repair or replacement costs based on a capital needs assessment developed in accordance with §3560.103(c). Deferred maintenance may include specific items identified in previous Agency inspections where the borrower has had the opportunity and resources available to take corrective actions and did not.
- (1) Deferred maintenance does not include routine repair and replacement that results from normal wear and tear of the physical asset. The amount required for the reserve account to be considered fully funded will be adjusted accordingly. To determine if basic rents exceed conventional rents for comparable units in the area, monthly contributions necessary to obtain the adjusted fully funded reserve account will be included in the calculation of basic rents.
 - (2) Deferred maintenance including any deficiencies identified in project compliance with section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 must be addressed as part of the development of the incentive and must be completed as part of an acceptance agreement of any incentive.
- (f) Existing loans must be consolidated, provided consolidation retains the Agency's lien position, and reamortized in accordance with subparts I and J of this part, provided it maintains feasibility of the housing for the tenants or reduces the debt service or the level of monthly rental assistance.

(g) The borrower must accept or reject the incentive offer within 30 days. If no answer to the offer is received within 30 days, the Agency may consider the incentive offer to be rejected.

(1) If the borrower accepts the incentive offer, procedures outlined in §3560.657 must be followed.

(2) If the borrower rejects the incentive offer, the borrower must comply with requirements listed in §3560.658.

§3560.657 Processing and closing incentive offers.

(a) Borrower responsibilities. If a borrower accepts the Agency's offer of incentives, the borrower must complete the following actions:

(1) Subject to the Agency's approval, the borrower must legally restrict the use of the project in accordance with and for the number of years stated in §3560.662.

(2) If the incentive offer accepted includes an equity loan, the borrower must complete an application for the equity loan, and the borrower must continue to qualify as an eligible borrower or transferee in accordance with subpart B of this part.

(3) If the incentive offer accepted includes rent increases, the borrower must follow the rent increase requirements established in subpart E of this part.

(b) Waiting lists. If funds for components of incentive offers are limited, the Agency will establish a waiting list of accepted incentive offers for funding in the date order that the complete prepayment request was received.

(c) Unfunded incentive offers. If the borrower accepts the incentive offer but the Agency is unable to fund the incentive within 15 months, the borrower may choose one of the following actions:

(1) The borrower may offer to sell the housing project in accordance with §3650.659. In this case the borrower will be removed from the list of borrowers awaiting incentives.

(2) The borrower may stay on the list of borrowers awaiting incentives until the borrower's incentive offer is funded. The Agency will not negotiate the incentive offer; but, at a borrower's request, may adjust the incentive amount to reflect an updated appraisal, loan balance, and terms of third party financing.

(3) The borrower may withdraw the prepayment request and be removed from the list of borrowers awaiting incentives and either continue operating the housing project for program purposes and in accordance with Agency requirements or continue processing their prepayment process in accordance with §3560.658. If the borrower chooses to withdraw their request, the borrower may resubmit an updated prepayment request, at any time, and repeat the prepayment process in accordance with this subpart.

(4) The borrower may elect to obtain a third-party equity loan provided rents will not exceed comparable rents in the market area.

§3560.658 Borrower rejection of the incentive offer.

(a) If a borrower rejects the incentive package offered by the Agency or an Agency request to extended restrictive-use provisions, made in accordance with §3560.662, the loan will only be prepaid if the borrower elects to agree to the following:

(1) The borrower agrees to sign restrictive-use provisions to extend restrictive-use by 10 years from the date of prepayment, and at the end of the restrictive-use period offer to sell the housing to a qualified nonprofit organization or public body in accordance with §3560.659.

(2) If restrictive-use provisions are in place, the borrower will agree to sign the restrictive-use provisions, as determined by the Agency, and at the end of the restrictive-use period offer to sell the housing to a qualified nonprofit organization or public body in accordance with §3560.659.

(3) If restrictive-use provisions are not in place prior to prepayment, the borrower will offer to sell the housing to a qualified nonprofit organization or public body in accordance with §3560.659.

(b) If the borrower does not elect or agree to enter an agreement in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section, then the Agency will assess the impact of prepayment on two factors: housing opportunities for minorities and the supply of decent, safe, sanitary, and affordable housing in the market area. The Agency will review relevant information to determine the availability of comparable affordable housing for existing tenants in the market area and if minorities in the project, on the waiting list or in the market area will be disproportionately adversely affected by the loss of the affordable rental housing units.

(1) If the Agency determines that prepayment will have an adverse impact on minorities, then the borrower must offer to sell to a qualified nonprofit organization or public body in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section.

(2) If the Agency determines that the prepayment will not have an adverse effect on housing opportunities for minorities but there is not an adequate supply of decent, safe, and sanitary rental housing affordable to program eligible tenant households in the market area, the loan may be prepaid only if the borrower agrees to sign restrictive-use provisions, as determined by the Agency, to protect tenants at the time of prepayment.

(3) If the Agency determines that there is no adverse impact on minorities and there is an adequate supply of decent, safe, and sanitary rental housing affordable to program eligible tenant households in the market area the prepayment will be accepted with no further restriction.

(c) If the borrower agrees to the restrictive-use provisions, as determined by the Agency, the applicable language must be included in the release documents and the borrower must execute a restrictive-use agreement acceptable to the Agency and a deed restriction.

(d) If the borrower will not agree to applicable restrictive-use provisions, as determined by the Agency, the borrower must offer to sell to a nonprofit or public body in accordance with §3560.659 or withdraw their prepayment request.

§3560.659 Sale or transfer to nonprofit organizations and public bodies.

(a) Sales price. For the purposes of establishing a sales price when a borrower is required or elects to sell a housing project to a nonprofit organization or public body, two independent appraisals will be ordered, one by the Agency and one by the borrower. Both appraisals will conclude market value and be in accordance with subpart P of this part. If the borrower's assessment of the Agency's appraised market value indicates that no further appraisal is needed, the borrower may agree to accept the Agency's appraisal.

(1) The expense of the borrower's appraisal shall be borne by the borrower. The appraiser selected may not have an identity of interest with the borrower.

(2) If the two appraisers fail to agree on the market value, the Agency and the borrower will jointly select an appraiser whose appraisal will be binding on the Agency and the borrower. The Agency and the borrower shall jointly fund the cost of the appraisal.

(b) Marketing to nonprofit organizations and public bodies. If a borrower must offer the property for sale to a nonprofit organization or public body under this paragraph, the borrower must take the following actions to inform appropriate entities of the sale:

(1) The borrower must advertise and offer to sell the project for a minimum of 180 days. The borrower may choose to suspend advertising and other sales efforts while eligibility of an interested purchaser is determined. If the purchaser is determined to be ineligible, the borrower must resume advertising for the balance of the required 180 days.

(2) The Agency will assist the borrower in initially notifying nonprofit organizations and public bodies.

(3) The borrower must provide the nonprofit organizations and public bodies contacted with sufficient information regarding the housing project and its operations for interested purchasers to make an informed decision. The information provided must include the minimum value of the housing project based on the market value determined in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section.

(4) If an interested purchaser requests additional information concerning the housing project, the borrower must promptly provide the requested materials.

(c) Preference for local nonprofit and public bodies. Local nonprofit organizations and public bodies have priority over regional and national nonprofit organizations and public bodies. The Agency may determine that no local nonprofit organizations or public bodies are available to purchase the housing project. After this determination, the borrower may accept an offer from a regional or national nonprofit organization or public body.

(d) Eligible nonprofit organizations. To be eligible to purchase properties under the conditions of this subpart, nonprofit organizations may not have among its officers or directorate any persons or parties with an identity-of-interest (or any persons or parties related to any person with identity-of-interest) in loans financed under section 515 that have been prepaid. In addition to local nonprofit organizations, eligible nonprofit organizations include regional or national nonprofit organizations or public bodies provided no part of the net earnings of which accrue to the benefit of any member, founder, contributor or individual.

(e) Requirements for nonprofit organizations and public bodies. To purchase and operate a housing project, a nonprofit organization or public body must meet the following requirements:

(1) The purchaser must agree to maintain the housing project for very low- and low-income families or persons for the remaining useful life of the housing and related facilities. However, currently eligible moderate-income tenants will not be required to move.

(2) The purchaser must agree that no subsequent transfer of the housing project will be permitted for the remaining useful life of the housing project unless the Agency determines that the transfer will further the provision of housing for low-income households, or there is no longer a need for the housing project. Language to be included in the deed, conveyance instrument, loan resolution, and assumption agreement (as applicable) is provided in §3560.662.

(3) The purchaser must demonstrate financial feasibility of the housing project including anticipated funding.

(4) The purchaser must certify to the Agency that no identity-of-interest relationships in accordance with §3560.102(g). The purchaser must not have any identity of interest with the seller or any borrower that has previously prepaid or requested prepayment of an Agency MFH loan.

(5) The purchaser must complete an Agency-approved application and obtain Agency approval in accordance with subpart B of this part.

(6) The purchaser must make a bona fide offer taking into consideration the value of the housing project as determined in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section.

(f) Selection priorities. If more than one qualified nonprofit organization or public body submits an offer to purchase the project at the same time, priority will be given to local nonprofit organizations and public bodies over regional and national nonprofit organizations or public bodies. When selecting between offers equally meeting all other criteria, the borrower will first consider the success of the nonprofit organization's or public body's previous experience in developing and maintaining subsidized housing, with preference given to the most successful. If the offers continue to be equal, the borrower will then consider the number of years experience that the nonprofit organization or public body has had in developing and maintaining subsidized housing, with preference given to the greater number of years.

(g) Loans made by the Agency or other sources to nonprofit organizations and public bodies. Agency loans to nonprofit organizations or public bodies may be made for the purposes described in this paragraph. Agency loans will be processed in accordance with subpart B of this part. Loans from other sources will be approved by the Agency in accordance with subpart I of this part.

(1) Agency loans to nonprofit organizations or public bodies for the purchase of a housing project will be based on the appraised value determined in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section.

(2) With proper justification, an Agency loan may be made to help the nonprofit organization or public body meet the housing project's first year operating expenses if there are insufficient funds in the housing project's general operating and expense account to meet such expenses. An Agency loan, for the purpose of covering first year operating expenses, may not exceed 2 percent of the housing project's appraised value determined in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section.

(h) Advances for nonprofit organizations and public bodies. The Agency may make advances, in accordance with section 502(c)(5)(c)(i), not in excess of limits established by Congress to nonprofit organizations or public bodies that are purchasing housing under this subpart. Grant funds may be used to cover any direct costs other than the purchase price, incurred by nonprofit organizations or public bodies in purchasing and assuming responsibility for the housing project.

(i) Waiting list. If funds for sales to nonprofit organizations and public bodies are limited, the Agency will add the funding requests to the waiting list for incentives and follow the process established in §3560.657(b) and (c).

(j) Withdrawal from sales process. A borrower may withdraw the prepayment request at any time prior to the sale of the property. The borrower will be responsible for any damages associated with breaking a sales contract established with a nonprofit organization or public body.

(k) When no offer to purchase is received. Prepayment with no further restriction may be accepted by the Agency when the borrower agrees to offer the housing project for sale to a nonprofit organization or public body in accordance with §3560.659 and no good faith offer is received within 180 days from the date that the housing project was advertised for sale to a nonprofit organization or public body, or a good faith offer was received within 180 days from the advertisement date but the offeror was unable to fulfill the terms of the offer within 24 months of the offer date, provided the owner cooperated with the potential purchaser.

§3560.660 Acceptance of prepayments.

(a) When the Agency agrees to accept prepayment, the Agency will notify borrowers, in writing, of the conditions under which the Agency will accept prepayment including the specific restrictive-use provisions to which the borrower has agreed and the date by which the borrower must make the prepayment.

(1) Prepayment must be made 180 days from the date of the Agency's prepayment acceptance notice to the borrower.

(2) If the borrower's prepayment is not received within 180 days of the prepayment acceptance notice and the Agency has not agreed to an alternative date based on a written request from the borrower, the Agency may cancel the prepayment acceptance agreement.

(b) Tenants will be notified of the prepayment acceptance agreement in accordance with §3560.654(c). If a prepayment is anticipated to result in increased net tenant contributions, displacements or involuntary relocations, the tenants, who are affected by such a circumstance, may request a Letter Of Priority Entitlement (LOPE) in accordance with §3560.159(c). Tenants must request a LOPE within one year of the prepayment acceptance notice date.

(c) Owners will provide certification stating that they will meet state and local laws prior to prepayment acceptance.

§3560.661 Sale or transfers.

(a) If a sale or transfer is to take place in conjunction with the Agency incentive offer, the sale or transfer must comply with the processing provisions of subpart I of this part.

(b) If a proposed transferee is determined not to be eligible for the transfer and assumption, the borrower will be given an additional 45 days to find another transferee.

(c) In cases where the existing owner is in program non-compliance or default, the Agency may make an offer of incentives contingent on the successful transfer of the housing to an acceptable purchaser. The Agency may offer a smaller incentive or no incentive if the borrower does not agree to transfer the project to an acceptable purchaser, or if the transfer does not take place.

§3560.662 Restrictive-use provisions and agreements.

All restrictions require Agency approval and must be in accordance with the following restrictions:

(a) The undersigned, and any successors in interest, agree to use the property (described herein) in compliance with 42 U.S.C. 1484 or 1485, whichever is applicable, and applicable regulations and the subsequent amendments, for the purpose of housing:

- (1) Very low-, or low-income households when required by §3560.658(a)(3), or
- (2) Very low-, low-, or moderate-income households.

(b) The period of the restriction will be inserted in accordance with the following:

- (1) 10 years if required by §3560.658(a)(1);
- (2) The last existing tenant (that occupied the property on the date of prepayment) voluntarily vacates if required by §3560.658(b)(2);
- (3) 30 years if required by §3560.406(g);
- (4) Remaining period of existing restrictive-use provisions and any agreed extension if required by §3560.655 or §3560.658 (a)(2);
- (5) The remaining useful life of the housing and related facilities if required by §3560.658(a)(3); and
- (6) 20 years in all other cases.

(c) When required by §3560.658(a)(1) or (a)(2), the undersigned agrees that at the end of the expiration of the period described in paragraph (b) of this section, the property will be offered for sale to a qualified nonprofit organization or public body, in accordance with previously cited statutes and regulations.

(d) The Agency and eligible tenants or applicants may enforce these restrictions.

(e) The undersigned also agrees to:

- (1) To set rents, other charges, and conditions of occupancy in a manner to meet these restrictions;
- (2) To post an Agency approved notice of this restriction for the tenants of the property;
- (3) To adhere to applicable local, state, and Federal laws; and
- (4) To obtain Agency concurrence for any rental procedures that deviate from those approved at the time of prepayment, prior to implementation.

(f) The undersigned will be released from these obligations before the termination period in paragraph (b) of this section only when the Agency determines that there is no longer a need for the housing or that financial assistance provided the residents of the housing will no longer be provided due to no fault, action or lack of action on the part of the borrower.

§3560.663 Post-payment responsibilities for loans subject to continued restrictive-use provisions.

(a) If a borrower prepays a loan and the housing project remains subject to restrictive-use provisions, the requirements of this section apply after prepayment.

(b) Owners of prepaid housing projects will be responsible for ensuring that the restrictive-use provisions agreed to as a condition of prepayment are observed.

(c) Owners must maintain appropriate documentation to demonstrate compliance with the restrictive-use provisions and must make the documentation and the housing project site available for Federal Government inspection upon request.

(1) Owners must document rent increases in accordance with subpart G of this part.

(2) Owners must document tenant eligibility in accordance with §3560.152.

(3) In an Agency approved format, owners must provide the agency with a signed and dated certification within 30 days of the beginning of each calendar year for the full period of the restrictive-use provisions establishing that the restrictive-use provisions are being met.

(d) Owners must observe Agency policies on tenant grievances as described in §3560.160. The Agency may enforce restrictive-use provisions through administrative and legal actions. Tenants may enforce the restrictive-use provisions by contacting the Agency or through legal action. The Agency will release the restrictive-use provisions when the Agency conditions have been met.

§3560.700 OMB control number.

The information collection requirements contained in this regulation have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and have been assigned OMB control number 0575-0189. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to vary from 15 minutes to 18 hours per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. A person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Subpart O--Unauthorized Assistance

§3560.701 General.

(a) This subpart contains the policies for recapturing unauthorized assistance when the Agency determines that a borrower or tenant was ineligible for, or improperly used, assistance received from the Agency.

(b) The Agency may seek repayment of any unauthorized assistance provided to a borrower or tenant, plus the cost of collection, regardless of whether the unauthorized assistance was due to errors by the Agency, the borrower, or the tenant.

§3560.702 Unauthorized assistance sources and situations.

(a) Unauthorized assistance can be received by a borrower or tenant in the form of loans, grants, interest credit, rental assistance, or other assistance provided by the Agency including assistance received as a result of an incorrect interest rate being applied to an Agency loan. Agency officials may pursue identification and recapture of unauthorized assistance through any legal remedies available.

(b) Unauthorized assistance may result from situations such as:

(1) Assistance being provided to an ineligible borrower or tenant;

(2) Assistance to an eligible borrower or tenant being used for an unauthorized purpose;

(3) Assistance being obtained as a result of inaccurate, incomplete, or fraudulent information provided by a borrower or tenant; or

(4) Assistance being obtained as a result of errors by the Agency, borrower, or tenant.

§3560.703 Identification of unauthorized assistance.

(a) The Agency will use all available means to identify unauthorized assistance, including Agency monitoring activities, OIG reports, GAO reports, and reports from any source, if the information provided can be substantiated by the Agency.

(b) Borrowers have the primary responsibility for identifying repayment of unauthorized assistance received by tenants.

§3560.704 Unauthorized assistance determination notice.

(a) The Agency will notify borrowers, in writing, when a determination has been made that unauthorized assistance was received by the borrower. Borrowers will notify tenants, in writing, when a determination is made that unauthorized assistance was received by the tenant and will simultaneously send the Agency of copy of the written notice to the tenant.

(b) The unauthorized assistance determination notice is a preliminary notice, not a demand letter. The unauthorized assistance determination notice will:

(1) Specify the reasons the assistance was determined to be unauthorized;

(2) State the amount of unauthorized assistance to be repaid and specify the party responsible for repayment of the unauthorized assistance (i.e., the tenant or borrower) according to the provision of §3560.708;

(3) Establish a place and time when the person receiving the unauthorized assistance determination notice may meet with the Agency or, in the case of tenants, may meet with the borrower, to discuss issues related to the unauthorized assistance notice such as the establishment of a repayment schedule; and

(4) Advise the borrower or tenant that they may present facts, figures, written records, or other information within a specified period of time which might alter the determination that the assistance received was unauthorized.

(c) Upon request, the Agency or borrower, in the case of tenants, will grant additional time for discussions related to an unauthorized assistance determination notice. Borrowers must notify the Agency of schedule revisions when additional time is granted to a tenant in unauthorized assistance claims.

§3560.705 Recapture of unauthorized assistance.

(a) The Agency will seek repayment of all unauthorized assistance received by a borrower or tenant, plus the cost of collection, to the fullest extent permitted by law. Agency efforts to collect unauthorized assistance may include offsets, the use of private or public collection agents, and any other remedies available. Agency findings related to unauthorized assistance determinations will be referred to credit reporting bureaus and other federal, state, or local agencies with jurisdictions related to the unauthorized assistance findings for suspension, debarment, civil or criminal action to the fullest extent permitted by law.

(b) If a borrower or tenant agrees to repay unauthorized assistance, the amount due will be the amount stated in the unauthorized assistance determination notice unless another amount has been approved by the Agency.

(c) Repayment may be made either with a lump sum payment or through payments made over a period of time. If a borrower or tenant agrees to repay unauthorized assistance, the borrower or tenant proposed repayment schedule must be approved by Agency prior to implementation. Agency approval of a repayment schedule will take into consideration the best interest of the borrower, the tenant, and the Federal Government.

(d) Borrowers must retain copies of all correspondence and a record of all conversations between the borrower and a tenant regarding unauthorized assistance received by a tenant.

(e) When a tenant, who has received unauthorized assistance due to tenant error or fraud as determined by the Agency, moves out of a housing project, the borrower is no longer responsible for recapturing the unauthorized assistance provided that the borrower notifies the Agency of the tenant's move and transfers all records related to the tenant's unauthorized assistance to the Agency within 30 days of the tenant's move. The Agency will pursue collection of the unauthorized assistance from the tenant.

(f) If a borrower refuses to enter into an unauthorized assistance repayment schedule with the Agency, the Agency will initiate liquidation procedures, in accordance with §3560.456, or other enforcement actions, such as suspension, debarment, civil, or criminal penalties, in accordance with §3560.461. If a tenant refuses to enter into an unauthorized assistance repayment schedule, the Agency will initiate recovery actions against the tenant.

(g) Borrowers may not use housing project funds to pay amounts due to the Agency as a result of unauthorized assistance due to borrower fraud.

§3560.706 Offsets.

Offsets and any other available remedies may be used by the Agency to recapture unauthorized assistance. Guidance concerning use of offsets can be found at 7 CFR 3550.210.

§3560.707 Program participation and corrective actions.

(a) With Agency approval, a borrower or tenant, who has received unauthorized assistance, may continue to participate in the project if they have the legal and financial capabilities to do so. Approval considerations for such forbearance and repayment are in §3560.705.

(b) A borrower or tenant who was responsible for the circumstances causing the unauthorized assistance must take appropriate action to correct the problem within 90 days of the unauthorized assistance determination notice date, unless an alternative date is agreed to by the Agency.

(c) When the interest rate shown in a debt instrument resulted in the receipt of unauthorized assistance, the debt instrument will be modified to the correct interest rate. All payments made by the borrower at the incorrect interest rate will be reapplied at the correct interest rate, and remaining payments due on the loan will be recalculated on the basis of the correct interest rate, plus any amounts due to the Agency as a result of the use of an incorrect interest rate, unless the Agency agrees to a separate repayment process.

§3560.708 Unauthorized assistance received by tenants.

(a) Tenant actions that require tenant repayment of unauthorized assistance received by tenants include, but are not limited to:

(1) Knowingly or mistakenly misrepresenting income, assets, adjustments to income, or household status to the borrower as required under subpart D of this part; or

(2) Failure to properly report changes in income, assets, adjustments to income, or household status to the borrower as required in subpart D of this part.

(b) Borrower actions that require borrower repayment of unauthorized assistance received by tenants include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Incorrect determination of tenant income or household status by the borrower, resulting in rental assistance or interest credit that is not allowable under the provisions of subparts D, E, or F of this part, as applicable; or
 - (2) Assignment of rental assistance to a household that is ineligible under the requirements of subpart F of this part.
- (c) When it is determined that a tenant has received unauthorized assistance, the borrower shall notify the tenant and the Agency through the procedure specified in §3560.704.
- (d) Borrowers may not charge tenants to pay amounts due to the Agency as a result of unauthorized assistance to tenants through borrower error.
- (e) Borrowers must notify the Agency of all collections from tenants as repayments for unauthorized assistance and must remit or credit the amounts collected to applicable housing project accounts.
- (f) When rental assistance was improperly assigned to a tenant, for any reason, the rental assistance benefit must be canceled and reassigned.
- (1) Before a borrower notifies a tenant of rental assistance cancellation, the borrower must request Agency approval. If the Agency determines that the unauthorized rental assistance was received by the tenant due to borrower fraud or error, the borrower must give the tenant 30 days notice, in writing, that the unit was assigned in error and that the rental assistance benefit will be canceled effective on date that the next monthly rental payment is due after the end of the 30-day notice period.
 - (2) Tenants also must be notified, in writing, that they may cancel their lease without penalty at the time the rental assistance is canceled. Tenants must be offered an opportunity to meet with a borrower to discuss the rental assistance cancellation.

§3560.709 Demand letter.

- (a) If a borrower fails to respond to an unauthorized assistance determination notice or fails to agree to a repayment schedule, the Agency will send the borrower a demand letter specifying:
- (1) The amount of unauthorized assistance to be repaid and the basis for the unauthorized assistance determination; and
 - (2) The actions to be taken by the Agency if repayment is not made by a specified date.
- (b) If a tenant fails to respond to the unauthorized assistance determination notice or fails to agree to a repayment schedule, the borrower will send the tenant a demand letter specifying:
- (1) The amount of unauthorized assistance to be repaid and the basis for the unauthorized assistance determination;

(2) The actions to be taken if repayment is not made by a specified date, including termination of tenancy; and

(3) The appeal rights of the tenant as specified in §3560.160.

(c) A demand letter may be sent to a borrower or tenant, in lieu of an unauthorized assistance determination notice, when the evidence documenting the unauthorized assistance determination is deemed to be conclusive by the Agency or borrower sending the letter.

§§3560.710-3560.749 [Reserved]

§3560.750 OMB control number.

The information collection requirements contained in this regulation have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and have been assigned OMB control number 0575-0189. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to vary from 15 minutes to 18 hours per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Subpart P--Appraisals

§3560.751 General.

This subpart sets forth appraisal policies for Agency-financed multi-family housing (MFH) projects consisting of five or more rental units. Agency-financed housing projects with fewer than five rental units may be appraised in accordance with the Agency's single family housing appraisal policies established under 7 CFR 3550.62.

§3560.752 Appraisal use, request, review, and release.

(a) Appraisal uses. The Agency will use appraisals to determine whether the security offered by an applicant or borrower is adequate to secure a loan or determine appropriate servicing or preservation decisions. Appraisals used for Agency decision-making must be current, unless the Agency and the applicant, or borrower, mutually agree to the use of an appraisal that is not current. A current appraisal is an appraisal with a report date that is not more than one year old.

(b) Appraisal requests. Appraisal requests must be in writing and must specify the client and other intended users, the intended use, the purpose, and the scope of work of the appraisal, including the type and definition of the value(s) to be developed.

(1) Type of Value. The appraisal request must indicate whether the “market value”, the “market value, subject to restricted rents”, or any other type of value of the housing project and related facilities is to be concluded.

(i) A request for “market value, subject to restricted rents” means the appraisal will take into consideration any rent limits, rent subsidies, expense abatements, or restrictive-use conditions that will affect the property as a result of an agreement with the Agency or any other financing source. Each type of financing involved, including, but not limited to, interest credit subsidy, low-interest loans from other sources, tax-exempt bond financing, tax credits, and grants, must be valued separately in the appraisal.

(ii) A request for “market value” means the appraisal will take into consideration the most probable price which a property should bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions requisite to a fair sale, the buyer and seller each acting prudently and knowledgeably, and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus. Implicit in this definition is the consummation of a sale as of a specified date and the passing of title from seller to buyer under conditions whereby:

(A) Buyer and seller are typically motivated;

(B) Both parties are well informed or well advised and acting in what they consider their best interests;

(C) A reasonable time is allowed for exposure in the open market;

(D) Payment is made in terms of cash in United States dollars or in terms of financial arrangements comparable thereto; and

(E) The price represents the normal consideration for the property sold unaffected by special or creative financing or sales concessions granted by anyone associated with the sale.

(2) “As-is Value” or “Prospective Value”. The appraisal request must indicate whether the “as-is value” or “prospective value” of the housing is to be concluded.

(i) “As-is value” means the value of the housing and related facilities as of the effective date of the appraisal. It relates to what physically exists and is legally permissible at the time of the appraisal and excludes all hypothetical conditions.

(ii) “Prospective value” means the forecasted value of the housing and related facilities as of a specified future date. For Agency appraisals, this date will typically be the projected completion date of proposed new construction or rehabilitation.

(3) Section 8 project-based assistance. Depending on the intended use of the appraisal, the Agency will specify whether or not section 8 project-based assistance will be considered in the valuation of the housing. The remaining term of the section 8 contract and the probability of subsequent renewal terms being authorized will be taken into consideration when making this determination.

(4) Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) and other financing sources. Depending on the intended use of the appraisal, the Agency will specify whether or not tax credits and other financing sources involved in the housing will be considered in the valuation of the housing.

(c) Appraisal review. All MFH appraisals that were not written by an Agency appraiser will be reviewed by an Agency appraiser, who will write and file a technical review report that complies with the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) and Agency requirements.

(d) Release of appraisals. MFH appraisals procured by the Agency will be released to owners/applicants, from their own files, upon their request.

§3560.753 Agency appraisal standards and requirements.

(a) General. The Agency recognizes USPAP as the basic standards for appraisals. Appraisals used by the Agency must comply with USPAP and this subpart.

(b) Appraisers. MFH appraisals prepared for the Agency will be written by Agency appraisers or independent fee appraisers who are state certified general appraisers, certified in the state where the property is located. Technical review reports will be written by Agency state certified general appraisers.

(c) Appraisal report. The appraisal report format may be a form appraisal or a narrative appraisal. The Agency will specify the appraisal format that is most appropriate for the scope of work involved when the appraisal is requested.

(1) Form appraisal reports. The Agency will accept appraisal report forms that meet generally accepted industry standards, comply with USPAP, and have been approved by the Agency.

(2) Narrative appraisal reports. Narrative appraisal reports must, at a minimum, contain the following items:

- (i) Transmittal letter;
- (ii) Factual information about the property;
- (iii) Regional and neighborhood data;
- (iv) Description of the subject property;
- (v) Description of existing and planned improvements;
- (vi) A highest and best use analysis;
- (vii) A statement regarding any environmental issues, such as potential contamination of the property from hazardous substances, hazardous wastes, or petroleum products;
- (viii) A cost approach analysis (if applicable);
- (ix) A sales comparison approach analysis (if applicable);
- (x) An income approach analysis (if applicable);
- (xi) A reconciliation of the value indications derived from the included approaches to value; and
- (xii) A signed and dated certification of value.

(3) At the time an appraisal is requested, the Agency will specify either a complete or a limited appraisal and one of the following types of appraisal reports, based upon the complexity of the appraisal assignment.

(i) A self-contained report that comprehensively describes all information significant to the solution of the appraisal problem;

(ii) A summary report that summarizes all information significant to the solution of the appraisal problem; or

(iii) A restricted use report, intended for Agency use only, that briefly states all information significant to the solution of the appraisal problem.

(d) Highest and best use statement and analysis. The highest and best use is to be concluded for the subject site as though it was vacant, and for the subject property as improved, if improvements have been made. If the highest and best use of a subject property is for something other than MFH, the appraisal report must provide this information to the Agency for consideration in the loan process. In addition to being reasonably probable and appropriately supported, the highest and best use of both the land as though vacant and the property as improved must meet four implicit criteria. The highest and best use must be:

(1) Physically possible;

(2) Legally permissible;

(3) Financially feasible; and

(4) Maximally productive.

(e) Valuation methods and variances. The final opinion of value presented in an appraisal report must have considered a cost approach, a sales comparison approach, and an income approach. If one of these standard approaches is not used, the reconciliation narrative will provide a full and complete explanation of the reasons the approach was excluded. The reconciliation will fully discuss and reconcile variances in the value indications concluded by each approach.

(f) Real estate history. Appraisals must contain a 5-year ownership and sales history for the housing project being appraised.

(g) Reserve accounts. Funds in the housing project's reserve account will not be considered in the valuation of the housing project.

(h) Escrow accounts. Short-term prepaid escrow accounts for general operating expenses, such as taxes and insurance, shall not be considered in the valuation of the housing project.

(i) Rental rates comparison. The appraisal report must document whether the housing project's basic rents are less than, equal to, or greater than market rents for comparable conventional, or non-subsidized, units in the area where the housing is located.

(j) Description of housing and property rights. The appraisal report must identify and describe both the real estate, which is the land and improvements, and the real property, or property rights, being appraised.

(k) Exclusion of rental units from valuation. The Agency will provide appraisers with instructions and supporting information on any rental units that do not produce rental income at the time of the appraisal.

(l) Non-contiguous sites. When a housing project has real property located on non-contiguous sites, a separate appraisal must be developed for each site.

§3560.754-3560.799 [Reserved]

7. Tenant grievances or appeals prosecutable under the provisions of 7 CFR part 1944, subpart L, under the multi-family housing program carried out by RHS;
8. Personnel, equal employment opportunity, and other similar disputes with any agency or office of the Department which arise out of the employment relationship;
9. The Federal Tort Claims Act, 28 U.S.C. 2671 et seq., or the Military Personnel and Civilian Employees Claims Act of 1964, 31 U.S.C. 3721;
10. Discrimination complaints prosecutable under the nondiscrimination regulations at 7 CFR parts 15, 15a, 15b, 15e, and 15f; or
11. Section 361, et seq., of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1361, et seq.) involving Tobacco Marketing Quota Review Committees.

Record review means an appeal considered by the Hearing Officer in which the Hearing Officer's determination is based on the agency record and other information submitted by the appellant and the agency, including information submitted by affidavit or declaration.

Secretary means the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 11.2 General statement.

(a) This part sets forth procedures for proceedings before the National Appeals Division within the Department. The Division is an organization within the Department, subject to the general supervision of and policy direction by the Secretary, which is independent from all other agencies and offices of the Department, including Department officials at the state and local level. The Director of the Division reports directly to the Secretary of Agriculture. The authority of the Hearing Officers and the Director of the Division, and the administrative appeal procedures which must be followed by program participants who desire to appeal an adverse decision and by the agency which issued the adverse decision, are included in this part.

(b) Pursuant to section 212(e) of the Federal Crop Insurance Reform and Department of Agriculture Reorganization Act of 1994, Pub. L. 103-354 (the Act), 7 U.S.C. 6912(e), program participants shall seek review of an adverse decision before a Hearing Officer of the Division, and may seek further review by the Director, under the provisions of this part prior to seeking judicial review.

§ 11.3 Applicability.

(a) Subject matter. The regulations contained in this part are applicable to adverse decisions made by an agency, including, for example, those with respect to:

1. Denial of participation in, or receipt of benefits under, any program of an agency;
2. Compliance with program requirements;
3. The making or amount of payments or other program benefits to a participant in any program of an agency; and
4. A determination that a parcel of land is a wetland or highly erodible land.

(b) Limitation. The procedures contained in this part may not be used to seek review of statutes or USDA regulations issued under Federal Law.

§ 11.4 Inapplicability of other laws and regulations.

(a) Reserved.

(b) The Federal Rules of Evidence, 28 U.S.C. App., shall not apply to proceedings under this part.

§ 11.5 Informal review of adverse decisions.

(a) Required informal review of FSA adverse decisions. Except with respect to farm credit programs, a participant must seek an informal review of an adverse decision issued at the field service office level by an officer or employee of FSA, or by any employee of a county or area committee established under section 8(b)(5) of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, 16 U.S.C. 590h(b)(5), before NAD will accept an appeal of a FSA adverse decision. Such informal review shall be done by the county or area committee with responsibility for the adverse decision at issue. The procedures for requesting such an informal review before FSA are found in 7 CFR part 780. After receiving a decision upon review by a county or area committee, a participant may seek further informal review by the State FSA committee or may appeal directly to NAD under §11.6(b).

(b) Optional informal review. With respect to adverse decisions issued at the State office level of FSA and adverse decisions of all other agencies, a participant may request an agency informal review of an adverse decision of that agency prior to appealing to NAD. Procedures for requesting such an informal review are found at 7 CFR part 780 (FSA), 7 CFR part 614 (NRCS), 7 CFR part 1900, subpart B (RUS), 7 CFR part 1900, subpart B (RBS), and 7 CFR part 1900, subpart B (RHS).

(c) Mediation. A participant also shall have the right to utilize any available alternative dispute resolution (ADR) or mediation program, including any mediation program available under title V of the Agricultural Credit Act of 1987, 7 U.S.C. 5101 et seq., in order to attempt to seek resolution of an adverse decision of an agency prior to a NAD hearing. If a participant:

1. Requests mediation or ADR prior to filing an appeal with NAD, the participant stops the running of the 30-day period during which a participant may appeal to NAD under §11.6(b)(1), and will have the balance of days remaining in that period to appeal to NAD once mediation or ADR has concluded.
2. Requests mediation or ADR after having filed an appeal to NAD under §11.6(b), but before the hearing, the participant will be deemed to have waived his right to have a hearing within 45 days under §11.8(c)(1) but shall have a right to have a hearing within 45 days after conclusion of mediation or ADR.

§ 11.6 Director review of agency determination of appealability and right of participants to Division hearing.

(a) Director review of agency determination of appealability.

1. Not later than 30 days after the date on which a participant receives a determination from an agency that an agency decision is not appealable, the participant must submit a written request personally signed by the participant to the Director to review the determination in order to obtain such review by the Director.
2. The Director shall determined whether the decision is adverse to the individual participant and thus appealable or is a matter of general applicability and thus not subject to appeal, and will issue a final determination notice that upholds or reverses the determination of the agency. This final determination is not appealable. If the Director reverses the determination of the agency, the Director will notify the participant and the agency of that decision and inform the participant of his or her right to proceed with an appeal.
3. The Director may delegate his or her authority to conduct a review under this paragraph to any subordinate official of the Division other than a Hearing Officer. In any case in which such review is conducted by such a subordinate official, the subordinate official's determination shall be considered to be the determination of the Director and shall be final and not appealable.

(b) Appeals of adverse decisions.

1. To obtain a hearing under §11.8, a participant personally must request such hearing not later than 30 days after the date on which the participant first received notice of the adverse decision or after the date on which the participant receives notice of the Director's determination that a decision is appealable. In the case of the failure of an agency to act on the request or right of a recipient, a participant personally must request such hearing not later than 30 days after the participant knew or reasonably should have known that the agency had not acted within the timeframes specified by agency program regulations, or, where such regulations specify no timeframes, not later than 30 days after the participant reasonably should have known of the agency's failure to act.
2. A request for a hearing shall be in writing and personally signed by the participant, and shall include a copy of the adverse decision to be reviewed, if available, along with a brief statement of the participant's reasons for believing that the decision, or the agency's failure to act, was wrong. The participant also shall send a copy of the request for a hearing to the agency, and may send a copy of the adverse decision to be reviewed to the agency, but failure to do either will not constitute grounds for dismissal of the appeal. Instead of a hearing, the participant may request a record review.

(c) If a participant is represented by an authorized representative, the authorized representative must file a declaration with NAD, executed in accordance with 28 U.S.C. 1746, stating that the participant has duly authorized the declarant in writing to represent the participant for purposes of a specified adverse decision or decisions, and attach a copy of the written authorization to the declaration.

§ 11.7 Ex parte communications.

(a) Ex parte communications.

- (1) At no time between the filing of an appeal and the issuance of a final determination under this part shall any officer or employee of the Division engage in ex parte communications regarding the merits of the appeal with any person having any interest in the appeal pending before the Division, including any person in an advocacy or investigative capacity. This prohibition does not apply to:
 1. Discussions of procedural matters related to an appeal; or
 2. Discussions of the merits of the appeal where all parties to the appeal have been given notice and an opportunity to participate.

- (2) In the case of a communication described in paragraph (a)(1)(ii) of this section, a memorandum of any such discussion shall be included in the hearing record.
- (b) No interested person shall make or knowingly cause to be made to any officer or employee of the Division an ex parte communication relevant to the merits of the appeal.
- (c) If any officer or employee of the Division receives an ex parte communication in violation of this section, the one who receives the communication shall place in the hearing record:
1. All such written communications;
 2. Memoranda stating the substance of all such oral communications; and
 3. All written responses to such communications, and memoranda stating the substance of any oral responses thereto.
- (d) Upon receipt of a communication knowingly made or knowingly caused to be made by a party in violation of this section the Hearing Officer or Director may, to the extent consistent with the interests of justice and the policy of the underlying program, require the party to show cause why such party's claim or interest in the appeal should not be dismissed, denied, disregarded, or otherwise adversely affected on account of such violation.

§ 11.8 Division hearings.

- (a) General rules.
1. The Director, the Hearing Officer, and the appellant shall have access to the agency record of any adverse decision appealed to the Division for a hearing. Upon request by the appellant, the agency shall provide the appellant a copy of the agency record.
 2. The Director and Hearing Officer shall have the authority to administer oaths and affirmations, and to require, by subpoena, the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence. A Hearing Officer shall obtain the concurrence of the Director prior to issuing a subpoena.
 - i. A subpoena requiring the production of evidence may be requested and issued at any time while the case is pending before the Division.
 - ii. An appellant or an agency, acting through any appropriate official, may request the issuance of a subpoena requiring the attendance of a witness by submitting such a request in writing at least 14 days before the scheduled date of a hearing.

The Director or Hearing Officer shall issue a subpoena at least 7 days prior to the scheduled date of a hearing.

- iii. A subpoena shall be issued only if the Director or a Hearing Officer determined that:
 - A. For a subpoena of documents, the appellant or the agency has established that production of documentary evidence is necessary and is reasonably calculated to lead to information which would affect the final determination or is necessary to fully present the case before the Division; or
 - B. For a subpoena of a witness, the appellant or the agency has established that either a representative of the Department or a private individual possesses information that is pertinent and necessary for disclosure of all relevant facts which could impact the final determination, that the information cannot be obtained except through testimony of the person, and that the testimony cannot be obtained absent issuance of a subpoena.
- iv. The party requesting issuance of a subpoena shall arrange for service. Service of a subpoena upon a person named therein may be made by registered or certified mail, or in person. Personal service shall be made by personal delivery of a copy of the subpoena to the person named therein by any person who is not a party and who is not less than 18 years of age. Proof of service shall be made by filing with the Hearing Officer or Director who issued the subpoena a statement of the date and manner of service and of the names of the persons served, certified by the person who made the service in person or by return receipts for certified or registered mail.
- v. A party who requests that a subpoena be issued shall be responsible for the payment of any reasonable travel and subsistence costs incurred by the witness in connection with his or her appearance and any fees of a person who serves the subpoena in person. The Department shall pay the costs associated with the appearance of a Department employee whose role as a witness arises out of his or her performance of official duties, regardless of which party requested the subpoena.

The failure to make payment of such charges on demand may be deemed by the Hearing Officer or Director as sufficient ground for striking the testimony of the witness and the evidence the witness has produced.

- vi. If a person refuses to obey a subpoena, the Director, acting through the Office of the General Counsel of the Department and the Department of Justice, may apply to the United States District Court in the jurisdiction where that person resides to have the subpoena enforced as provided in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (28 U.S.C. App.).
3. Testimony required by subpoena pursuant to paragraph (a)(2) of this section may, at the discretion of the Director or a Hearing Officer, be presented at the hearing either in person or telephonically.

(b) Hearing procedures applicable to both record review and hearings.

1. Upon the filing of an appeal under this part of an adverse decision by any agency, the agency promptly shall provide the Division with a copy of the agency record. If requested by the applicant prior to the hearing, a copy of such agency record shall be provided to the appellant by the agency within 10 days of receipt of the request by the agency.
2. The Director shall assign the appeal to a Hearing Officer and shall notify the appellant and agency of such assignment. The notice also shall advise the appellant and the agency of the documents required to be submitted under paragraph (c)(2) of this section, and notify the appellant of the option of having a hearing by telephone.
3. The Hearing Officer will receive evidence into the hearing record without regard to whether the evidence was known to the agency officer, employee, or committee making the adverse decision at the time the adverse decision was made.

(c) Procedures applicable only to hearings.

1. Upon a timely request for a hearing under §11.6(b), an appellant has the right to have a hearing by the Division on any adverse decision within 45 days after the date of receipt of the request for the hearing by the Division.
2. The Hearing Officer shall set a reasonable deadline for submission of the following documents:
 - i. By the appellant:
 - A. A short statement of why the decision is wrong;
 - B. A copy of any document not in the agency record that the appellant anticipates introducing at the hearing; and

- C. A list of anticipated witnesses and brief descriptions of the evidence such witnesses will offer.
- ii. By the agency:
 - A. A copy of the adverse decision challenged by the appellant;
 - B. A written explanation of the agency's position, including the regulatory or statutory basis therefor;
 - C. A copy of any document not in the agency record that the agency anticipates introducing at the hearing; and
 - D. A list of anticipated witnesses and brief descriptions of the evidence such witnesses will offer.
 - iii. Not less than 14 days prior to the hearing, the Division must provide the appellant, the authorized representative, and the agency a notice of hearing specifying the date, time, and place of the hearing. The hearing will be held in the State of residence of the appellant, as determined by the Hearing Officer, or at a location that is otherwise convenient to the appellant, the agency, and the Division. The notice also shall notify all parties of the right to obtain an official record of the hearing.
 - iv. Pre-hearing conference. Whenever appropriate, the Hearing Officer shall hold a pre-hearing conference in order to attempt to resolve the dispute or to narrow the issues involved. Such pre-hearing conference shall be held by telephone unless the Hearing Officer and all parties agree to hold such conference in person.
 - v. Conduct of the hearing.
 - i. A hearing before a Hearing Officer will be in person unless the appellant agrees to a hearing by telephone.
 - ii. The hearing will be conducted by the Hearing Officer in the manner determined by the Division most likely to obtain the facts relevant to the matter or matters at issue. The Hearing Officer will allow the presentation of evidence at the hearing by any party without regard to whether the evidence was known to the officer, employee, or committee of the agency making the adverse decision at the time the adverse decision was made.

The Hearing Officer may confine the presentation of facts and evidence to pertinent matters and exclude irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious evidence, information, or questions. Any party shall have the opportunity to present oral and documentary evidence, oral testimony of witnesses, and arguments in support of the party's position; controvert evidence relied on by any other party; and question all witnesses. When appropriate, agency witnesses requested by the appellant will be made available at the hearing. Any evidence may be received by the Hearing Officer without regard to whether that evidence could be admitted in judicial proceedings.

iii. An official record shall be made of the proceedings of every hearing. This record will be made by an official tape recording by the Division. In addition, either party may request that a verbatim transcript be made of the hearing proceedings and that such transcript shall be made the official record of the hearing. The party requesting a verbatim transcript shall pay for the transcription service, shall provide a certified copy of the transcript to the Hearing Officer free of charge, and shall allow any other party desiring to purchase a copy of the transcript to order it from the transcription service.

vi. Absence of parties.

- i. If at the time scheduled for the hearing either the appellant or the agency representative is absent, and no appearance is made on behalf of such absent party, or no arrangements have been made for rescheduling the hearing, the Hearing Officer has the option to cancel the hearing unless the absent party has good cause for the failure to appear. If the Hearing Officer elects to cancel the hearing, the Hearing Officer may:
 - A. Treat the appeal as a record review and issue a determination based on the agency record as submitted by the agency and the hearing record developed prior to the hearing date;
 - B. Accept evidence into the hearing record submitted by any party present at the hearing (subject to paragraph (c)(6)(ii) of this section), and then issue a determination; or
 - C. Dismiss the appeal.
- ii. When a hearing is canceled due to the absence of a party, the Hearing Officer will add to the hearing record any additional evidence submitted by any party present, provide a copy of such evidence to the absent party or parties, and allow the absent party or parties 10 days to provide a response to such additional evidence for inclusion in the hearing record.

- iii. Where an absent party has demonstrated good cause for the failure to appear, the Hearing Officer shall reschedule the hearing unless all parties agree to proceed without a hearing.

vii. Post-hearing procedure.

The Hearing Officer will leave the hearing record open after the hearing for 10 days, or for such other period of time as the Hearing Officer shall establish, to allow the submission of information by the appellant or the agency, to the extent necessary to respond to new facts, information, arguments, or evidence presented or raised at the hearing. Any such new information will be added by the Hearing Office to the hearing record and sent to the other party or parties by the submitter of the information. The Hearing Officer, in his or her discretion, may permit the other party or parties to respond to this post-hearing submission.

- (d) Interlocutory review. Interlocutory review by the Director of rulings of a Hearing Officer are not permitted under the procedures of this part.
- (e) Burden of proof. The appellant has the burden of proving that the adverse decision of the agency was erroneous by a preponderance of the evidence.
- (f) Timing of issuance of determination. The Hearing Officer will issue a notice of the determination on the appeal to the named appellant, the authorized representative, and the agency not later than 30 days after a hearing or the closing date of the hearing record in cases in which the Hearing Officer receives additional evidence from the agency or appellant after a hearing. In the case of a record review, the Hearing Officer will issue a notice of determination within 45 days of receipt of the appellant's request for a record review. Upon the Hearing Officer's request, the Director may establish an earlier or later deadline. A notice of determination shall be accompanied by a copy of the procedures for filing a request for Director review under §11.9. If the determination is not appealed to the Director for review under §11.9, the notice provided by the Hearing Officer shall be considered to be a notice of a final determination under this part.

§ 11.9 Director review of determinations of Hearing Officers.

(a) Requests for Director review.

1. Not later than 30 days after the date on which an appellant receives the determination of a Hearing Officer under §11.8, the appellant must submit a written request, signed personally by the named appellant, to the Director to review the determination in order to be entitled to such review by the Director. Such request shall include specific reasons why the appellant believes the determination is wrong.
2. Not later than 15 business days after the date on which an agency receives the determination of a Hearing Officer under §11.8, the head of the agency may make a written request that the Director review the determination. Such request shall include specific reasons why the agency believes the determination is wrong, including citations of statutes or regulations that the agency believes the determination violates. Any such request may be made by the head of an agency only, or by a person acting in such capacity, but not by any subordinate officer of such agency.
3. A copy of a request for Director review submitted under this paragraph shall be provided simultaneously by the submitter to each party to the appeal.

(b) Notification of Parties. The Director promptly shall notify all parties of receipt of a request for review.

(c) Responses to request for Director review. Other parties to an appeal may submit written responses to a request for Director review within 5 business days from the date of receipt of a copy of the request for review.

(d) Determination of Director.

1. The Director will conduct a review of the determination of the Hearing Officer using the agency record, the hearing record, the request for review, any responses submitted under paragraph (c) of this section, and such other arguments or information as may be accepted by the Director, in order to determine whether the decision of the Hearing Officer is supported by substantial evidence. Based on such review, the Director will issue a final determination notice that upholds, reverses, or modifies the determination of the Hearing Officer. The Director's determination upon review of a Hearing Officer's decision shall be considered to be the final determination under this part and shall not be appealable. However, if the Director determines that the hearing record is inadequate or that new evidence has been submitted, the Director may remand all or a portion of the determination to the Hearing Officer for further proceedings to complete the hearing record or, at the option of the Director, to hold a new hearing.

2. The Director will complete the review and either issue a final determination or remand the determination not later than—
 - (a) 10 business days after receipt of the request for review, in the case of a request by the head of an agency; or
 - (b) 30 business days after receipt of the request for review, in the case of a request by an appellant.
 3. In any case or any category of cases, the Director may delegate his or her authority to conduct a review under this section to any Deputy or Assistant Directors of the Division. In any case in which such review is conducted by a Deputy or Assistant Director under authority delegated by the Director, the Deputy or Assistant Director's determination shall be considered to be the determination of the Director under this part and shall be final and not appealable.
- (e) Equitable relief. In reaching a decision on an appeal, the Director shall have the authority to grant equitable relief under this part in the same manner and to the same extent as such authority is provided an agency under applicable laws and regulations.

§ 11.10 Basis for determinations.

- (a) In making a determination, the Hearing Officers and the Director are not bound by previous findings of facts on which the agency's adverse decision was based.
- (b) In making a determination on the appeal, Hearing Officers and the Director shall ensure that the decision is consistent with the laws and regulations of the agency, and with the generally applicable interpretations of such laws and regulations.
- (c) All determinations of the Hearing Officers and the Director must be based on information from the case record, laws applicable to the matter at issue, and applicable regulations published in the Federal Register and in effect on the date of the adverse decision or the date on which the acts that gave rise to the adverse decision occurred, whichever date is appropriate under the applicable agency program laws and regulations.

§ 11.11 Reconsideration of Director determinations.

- (a) Reconsideration of a determination of the Director may be requested by the appellant or the agency within 10 days of receipt of the determination. The Director will not consider any request for reconsideration that does not contain a detailed statement of a material error of fact made in the determination, or a detailed explanation of how the determination is contrary to statute or regulation, which would justify reversal or modification of the determination.
- (b) The Director shall issue a notice to all parties as to whether a request for reconsideration meets the criteria in paragraph (a) of this section. If the request for reconsideration meets such criteria, the Director shall include a copy of the request for reconsideration in the notice to the non-requesting parties to the appeal. The non-requesting parties shall have 5 days from receipt of such notice from the Director to file a response to the request for reconsideration with the Director.
- (c) The Director shall issue a decision on the request for reconsideration within 5 days of receipt of responses from the non-requesting parties. If the Director's decision upon reconsideration reverses or modifies the final determination of the Director rendered under §11.9(d), the Director's decision on reconsideration will become the final determination of the Director under §11.9(d) for purposes of this part.

§ 11.12 Effective date and implementation of final determinations of the Division.

- (a) On the return of a case to an agency pursuant to the final determination of the Division, the head of the agency shall implement the final determination not later than 30 days after the effective date of the notice of the final determination.
- (b) A final determination will be effective as of the date of filing of an application, the date of the transaction or event in question, or the date of the original adverse decision, whichever is applicable under the applicable agency program statutes or regulations.

§ 11.13 Judicial review.

- (a) A final determination of the Division shall be reviewable and enforceable by any United States District Court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with chapter 7 of title 5, United States Code.
- (b) An appellant may not seek judicial review of any agency adverse decision appealable under this part without receiving a final determination from the Division pursuant to the procedures of this part.

§ 11.14 Filing of appeals and computation of time.

- (a) An appeal, a request for Director Review, or any other document will be considered "filed" when delivered in writing to the Division, when postmarked, or when a complete facsimile copy is received by the Division.
- (b) Whenever the final date for any requirement of this part falls on a Saturday, Sunday, Federal holiday, or other day on which the Division is not open for the transaction of business during normal working hours, the time for filing will be extended to the close of business on the next working day.
- (c) The time for filing an appeal, a request for Director review, or any other document expires at 5:00 p.m. local time at the office of the Division to which the filing is submitted on the last day on which such filing may be made.

§ 11.15 Participation of third parties and interested parties in Division proceedings.

In two situations, parties other than the appellant or the agency may be interested in participating in Division proceedings. In the first situation, a Division proceeding may in fact result in the adjudication of the rights of a third party, e.g., an appeal of a tenant involving a payment shared with a landlord, an appeal by one recipient of a portion of a payment shared by multiple parties, an appeal by one heir of an estate. In the second situation, a party may desire to receive notice of and perhaps participate in an appeal because of the derivative impact the appeal determination will have on that party, e.g., guaranteed lenders and reinsurance companies. The provisions in this section set forth rules for the participation of such third and interested parties.

- (a) Third parties. When an appeal is filed, the Division shall notify any potential third party whose rights may be adjudicated of its right to participate as an appellant in the appeal. This includes the right to seek Director review of the Hearing Officer determination. Such third parties may be identified by the Division itself, by an agency, or by the original appellant. The Division shall issue one notice to the third party of its right to participate, and if such party declines to participate, the Division determination will be binding as to that third party as if it had participated. For purposes of this part, a third party includes any party for which a determination of the Division could lead to an agency action on implementation that would be adverse to the party thus giving such party a right to a Division appeal.

- (b) Interested parties. With respect to a participant who is a borrower under a guaranteed loan or an insured under a crop insurance program, the respective guaranteed lender or reinsurance company having an interest in a participant's appeal under this part may participate in the appeal as an interested party, but such participation does not confer the status of an appellant upon the guaranteed lender or reinsurance company such that it may request Director review of a final determination of the Division.

Dear Rural Development or Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Property Owners:

(02-24-05) SPECIAL PN

Revised (03-15-06) PN 396

The tenant named above is currently living in the Rural Development 515 multifamily housing property for which [insert reason for LOPE letter i.e., authorized prepayment or uninhabitable or natural disaster]. In accordance with 7 CFR 3560.11, this letter must be used within 120 days from the above date to give this tenant/family priority placement on your waiting list(s). The only other tenants who may receive priority over this tenant/family are those who have already entered your waiting list with a letter similar to this one or handicapped tenants who need the particular design features of a vacant apartment. The above named tenant/family is to remain in this position on your waiting list until they receive an apartment or the list is purged in accordance with a Rural Development-approved policy. After 120 days, they may continue to be placed on waiting lists for apartments for which they are eligible, but without priority.

NOTE: This priority places the above-named tenant/family at the top of all waiting lists in your properties, regardless of other priorities (such as income) and eligibility's for apartment size so long as your property has at least one apartment, presently occupied or not, for which this tenant/family is eligible. If this tenant/family occupies an apartment for which size or type they are not eligible for, the lease must read that this tenant/family will move to the first appropriate apartment available.

If this tenant/family is receiving Rental Assistance (RA) at the prepaying property, they will continue to receive RA at your property if it is a property operating under Plan II of the Section 515 program. If you do not have a unit of unused RA to assign to this tenant/family, you will be allocated one unit for this purpose.

If the current security deposit is returnable to the tenant/family, but has not been released to the tenant/family by the move-in date, it should be assigned directly to you by the prepaying property if allowed by the laws of the State. Otherwise, you may have to wait to receive the security deposit until it is returned to this tenant/family.

(Use the following required and/or optional paragraphs where applicable).

*You must notify the tenants (members) of Rural Development's approval of the rent (occupancy charge) and utility allowance changes by posting this letter in the same manner as the "NOTICE TO TENANTS (MEMBERS) OR PROPOSED RENT (OCCUPANCY CHARGE) AND UTILITY ALLOWANCE CHANGE." This notification must be posted in a conspicuous place and cannot be substituted for the usual written notice to each individual tenant (member).

*This approval does not authorize you to violate the terms of any lease (occupancy agreement) you currently have with your tenants (members).

For those tenants (members) receiving rental assistance (RA), their costs for rent (occupancy charge) and utilities will continue to be based on the higher of 30 percent of their adjusted monthly income or 10 percent of gross monthly income or if the household is receiving payments for public assistance from a public agency, the portion of such payments which is specifically designated by that agency to meet the household's shelter cost. If tenants are receiving Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Section 8 subsidy assistance, their costs for rent and utilities will be determined by the current HUD formula.

*You may file an appeal regarding the rate and utility allowance change as approved. An appeal must be received in the Regional Office no later than 30 calendar days after receipt of the adverse decision. The appeal should state what agency decision is being appealed and should include, if possible, a copy of the adverse decision and a brief statement of why the decision is wrong. RURAL DEVELOPMENT
[LOCATION]

Date: [insert today's date]

[Name of borrower]

[Address of borrower]

Dear [Insert Borrower/Management Agent Name]
[Insert Address]

Dear [Insert Name]:

Rural Development is implementing a wage and benefit matching system. The goal of the system is to find or prevent fraud, waste, and abuse of Federal benefits. We hope to achieve this goal through early detection of inaccurate information supplied on Tenant Certification Forms.

Rural Development is proud of its multi-family housing programs. Properties financed are generally well maintained and managed. Unfortunately, there are those who attempt to "beat the system" by providing inaccurate information to qualify for program benefits.

Beginning on [Insert appropriate date], Rural Development will have the capability to review wage and benefit information from the State Department of Labor (SDOL) for comparison with information provided on the most current Tenant Certification (Form RD 3560-8) to identify apparent inaccuracies. The Agency will be using this information to resolve discrepancies.

Should a review of SDOL data reveal a substantial discrepancy, you will have to contact the tenant household to solicit added information to explain any discrepancies, abuses, or to correct any errors. The goal is not to harass tenants but merely to resolve misunderstandings and errors as early as possible. The Agency's program will not usually look at past tenant certifications or recover any improper subsidy which may have been delivered in years past unless there is evidence of substantial abuse and the amount of the past unauthorized assistance exceeds $1,000.

Upon receipt of this notice, you should take steps to inform tenants of the wage and benefit matching initiative. You may use Handbook Letter 206 (3560) in Appendix 4 of HB-2-3560 as a guide in preparing your own tenant notification. This tenant notification must be sent within 30 days from the date of this letter and a copy of this notice forwarded to this office.

Any tenants that are contacted regarding discrepancies with SDOL data should be advised of their right to file a grievance under 7 CFR 3560.160 if the matter is not satisfactorily resolved. No corrective action will be initiated unless the tenant concurs with it in writing, or the timeframe for filing a grievance has passed, or the information presented in the grievance has been considered and acted upon.

The borrower or management agent will not be held responsible for repaying subsidies improperly received solely as a result of inaccurate information supplied by tenants. The borrower or management agent is expected to take corrective measures when inaccurate information is detected. The corrective measures should include prompt correction of inaccurate tenant certification forms, along with plans for tenant reimbursement for improperly delivered subsidy.

The reimbursement may be collected by lump sum or in a monthly amount added to the tenant's rent to recoup the improper subsidy.

If corrective measures cannot be achieved, tenant eviction proceedings should be promptly initiated. Tenants who falsify information and do not agree to corrective measures, or fail to uphold their subsidy repayment agreements, should be referred to the Agency along with supporting material.

In summary, the Agency's wage and benefit matching program will assist in detecting inaccuracies and dishonest actions. At the same time, the program should ensure that borrowers and management agents suffer no penalties as a result of a dishonest action on the part of others.

Sincerely,

Dear [Insert Tenant Name]
[Insert Address]

Dear [Insert Tenant Name]:

Rural Development is implementing a wage and benefit matching system. The goal of this system is to reduce fraud, waste, and abuse in Federal programs. This notice is to inform you about the program and how it may affect you.

Beginning on [Insert appropriate date], Rural Development will start receiving wage and benefit information from the State Department of Labor (SDOL). This information will be shared with the owners and management agents servicing your housing development. This information may then be compared against information provided on your Tenant Certification (Form RD 3560-8). Whenever differences are revealed, or result in the government providing unauthorized assistance in the form of rental subsidy, you may expect to be contacted for an explanation.

Rural Development assumes Tenant Certifications are completed as accurately as possible. However, misunderstandings and honest errors do occur. Unfortunately, there are also those who will report wrong information in order to qualify for Federal benefits. The objective of the record's check is to make sure that those needing assistance can receive assistance, while those who do not can be stopped and made to repay improperly received benefits.

Rural Development will implement a wage and benefit matching system fairly. Therefore, whenever a new or renewed Tenant Certification is completed, it will be subject to verification by the Agency and the owner or management agent servicing your housing development. If a problem is suspected, you will be contacted and asked to provide an explanation. If disagreements arise, you will be informed of your right to file a grievance under 7 CFR 3560.160. A copy of the grievance procedure is available from the owner or management agent servicing your housing development.

You can update or correct your existing Tenant Certification now until [Insert date 45 days from the date the notice was received by the borrower/management agent]. Of course, the updated and corrected Tenant Certification may result in changes to the Federal housing benefits your household is entitled to receive. However, initial changes that result in improper subsidies received by you would not be retroactive and subject to recapture if you disclose them during this grace period. Any discrepancies that result in receipt of improper assistance after this grace period ends will be subject to recapture.

If you have any further questions, please contact [Insert contact information].

Sincerely,

Dear [Insert Borrower/Management Name]:

Upon review of the attached information, we conclude that there is a discrepancy between the wages or benefits reported on Form RD 3560-8, "Tenant Certification," and those reported to [Insert the appropriate state agency name].

Please review this information with the tenants and provide a written explanation as to your findings and what, if any, corrective arrangements (e.g., recovery of improper benefit agreements, evictions, legal proceedings, etc.) you are making. Please provide the explanation within 30 days of the date of this letter.

Should recovery of improper payments be required, Agency regulations require collections be made by lump sum cash payment, or payment over a reasonable period of time (usually not to exceed 90 days). Whenever concerns cannot be mutually resolved, the tenants must be advised of the right to file a grievance under the provisions of 7 CFR 3560.160.

If your explanation is not satisfactory to us, we will contact you to resolve the matter. The Agency will seek a mutually satisfactory resolution. Should this not be possible, you will be formally advised of our concerns and advised of any applicable appeal rights.

APPENDIX 5

Civil Rights Laws' Accessibility Requirements That Apply to the Multi-Family Housing (MFH) Program

The Civil Rights laws covering accessibility have different implementation responsibilities but all provide for the protection and nondiscrimination of individuals with disabilities. Borrowers who fail to meet these requirements will make themselves vulnerable to damages and can be required to retrofit their facilities at their expense.

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973

The Department of Agriculture (USDA) implemented section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, on June 10, 1982, by issuing 7 CFR 15b. Section 504's purpose is to assure that no otherwise qualified person with a disability is solely by reason of his or her disability excluded from benefits, or subjected to discrimination under any federally assisted program or activity.

Compliance Standard: The Uniform Federal Accessibility Standards (UFAS). For more information see www.access-board.gov/ufas/ufas-html/ufas.htm.

Highlights of section 504 Requirements

*In MFH projects ready for occupancy on or before June 10, 1982:

- Borrowers are encouraged to make 5 percent of the units fully accessible. (Structural changes in existing facilities may not be needed where other methods are effective in achieving program accessibility, such as reassignment of services to accessible buildings, assignment of aides to users, and delivery of services at alternate accessible sites. Borrowers are to use the method that provides the most integrated setting.)
- Borrowers must conduct self-evaluations and, if needed, develop transition plans. (Borrowers must make these documents available to the public or Agency upon request.)
- Borrowers must make common areas accessible when financially and structurally feasible. (Common areas include mailboxes, office, community room, trash area, playground, and laundry facilities.)
- When a qualified individual with a disability applies for admission, borrowers must make the unit accessible and usable to the individual.

*In MFH projects ready for occupancy after June 10, 1982:

- 5 percent of the units, or one unit, whichever is greater, must be fully accessible.
- The mix of accessible units is to be comparable to the variety of other project units (i.e., 1, 2, and 3 bedrooms).
- All common areas must be accessible per UFAS.
- Borrowers found in non-compliance with accessibility requirements of Civil Rights laws may be required to conduct "self-evaluations" and prepare "transition plans" or respond to other administrative and legal actions.

Fair Housing Act

The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) issued 24 CFR100.205 to implement the Fair Housing Act, as amended, on January 23, 1989. The Fair Housing Act requires that buildings be constructed to be accessible to individuals with disabilities.

Compliance Standard: The Fair Housing Act/Accessibility Guidelines (FHA/AG). For more information see www.hud.gov:80/library/bookshelf09/fhefhag.cfm.

Highlights of Fair Housing Act Requirements

*In MFH projects ready for occupancy on or before March 13, 1991:

- FHA/AG architectural requirements do not apply, even during project rehabilitation.

*In MFH projects ready for occupancy after March 13, 1991:

- All first floor ground units in buildings with four or more dwelling units must be designed and constructed in a manner that is adaptable to individuals with disabilities.
- All units must be adaptable if there is an elevator.
- Covered MFH projects must have:
 1. An accessible entrance on an accessible route
 2. Accessible public and common-use areas
 3. Usable doors
 4. Accessible routes into and through the dwelling unit
 5. Accessible light switches, electrical outlets, and environmental controls
 6. Reinforced bathroom walls, and
 7. Usable kitchens and bathrooms.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)

The Department of Justice (DOJ) issued regulations at 28 CFR parts 35 and 36 to implement the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). ADA prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in areas of public accommodations. ADA does not apply to residential units.

Compliance Standard: Americans with Disabilities Act/Accessibility Guidelines (ADA/AG). For more information see www.access-board.gov/adaag/html/adaag.htm.

Highlights of ADA requirements

*In MFH projects ready for occupancy on or before January 26, 1993:

- When public areas are altered, they must be altered to ADA/AG standards. (Public areas are those areas used by individuals other than tenants and their guests. This includes offices used to pay bills or to inquire about service or employment, public restrooms, and buildings used for voting or public meetings.)

*In MFH projects ready for occupancy after January 26, 1993:

- Public areas must be designed and constructed to ADA/AG standards.

Self Evaluations and Transition Plans

On June 11, 1982, USDA issued 7 CFR 15b, which required all borrowers to conduct self-evaluations within 1 year of the USDA regulation. In the event that structural changes were necessary, recipients were required to develop transition plans that set forth the steps necessary to complete such changes.

Who must conduct self-evaluations and develop transition plans?

- Borrowers of projects ready for occupancy on or before June 10, 1982.
- Borrowers of projects ready for occupancy after June 10, 1982, where the borrower has been found in non-compliance with Civil Rights law (as a remedial action).
- Borrowers who have had complaints filed against them, and the Agency determines it is necessary.
- Borrowers transferring ownership.
- Borrowers of projects receiving rehabilitation or equity loans, when the Agency determines it necessary.
- All state and local government borrower entities. (DOJ issued a regulation on July 26, 1991, which requires all State and local governments to conduct self-evaluations, unless they had already done so to meet the requirements of section 504.)
- Borrowers receiving loans after January 1, 2001, if a self-evaluation has not been previously conducted within the last 3 years.

What standards do borrowers need to meet?

Regardless of when a project was ready for occupancy, all borrowers are required to have policies and practices that do not discriminate against persons with disabilities. The architectural accessibility standards borrowers must meet will depend on when the project was ready for occupancy and what modifications are planned. In addition, many State and local governments have their own accessibility standards that also must be met. Rural Development does not have the authority to waive any of the accessibility requirements. Waivers may only be granted by the Secretary of Agriculture. To date, no waivers have been granted.

What are the self-evaluation and transition plan requirements?

In accordance with 7 CFR 15b the following is required:

Self-Evaluation

- (1) Evaluate, with the assistance of interested persons, including persons with disabilities or organizations representing disabled persons, its current policies and practices and the effects thereof;
 - (2) Modify, after consultation with interested persons, including disabled persons or organizations representing disabled persons, any policies and practices that do not meet the requirements of this part;

- (3) Take, after consultation with interested persons, including disabled persons or organizations representing disabled persons, appropriate remedial steps to eliminate the effects of any discrimination that resulted from adherence to these policies and practices; and
- (4) To maintain a record of the self-evaluation for at least three years. The record must be made available for public inspection and be provided to the Agency upon request. The self-evaluation record must contain:
 - (a) a list of the interested persons consulted,
 - (b) a description of areas examined and any problems identified, and,
 - (c) a description of any modifications made and of any remedial steps taken.

Transition Plans

At a minimum, transition plans are required to:

- (1) Identify physical obstacles in the recipient's facilities that limit the accessibility of its program or activity to disabled persons;
- (2) Describe in detail the methods that would be used to make the facilities accessible;
- (3) Specify the schedule for taking the steps necessary to achieve full program accessibility and if the time period of the transition plan is longer than one year, identify steps that will be taken during each year of the transition period; and
- (4) Identify the person responsible for implementation of the plan.

When structural changes are necessary, such changes shall be made within three years and as expeditiously as possible.

Examples of policies and practices to be addressed include:

- How will applicants and tenants be made aware that the owner will provide reasonable accommodations (unless doing so would cause an undue/administrative burden)?
- How will requests for reasonable accommodations be handled and who is authorized to approve or deny any such requests?
- Does the project have a Telecommunication Device for the Deaf (TDD) or an equally effective communication system? (Note: If the complex has section 8 assistance from HUD, the complex is required to have a TDD)
- If the project has a TDD, is the public made aware that there is a TDD? For example, is the TDD telephone number given each time the project's telephone number is given?

- If the project relies on a relay service as an equally effective communication system (rather than having a TDD), who is the relay service operated by? Is the relay service available 24 hours a day and without any added cost to the disabled person?
 - Have procedures been established to accommodate hearing and sight impaired applicants and tenants. Examples of methods the borrower might use include readers, sign language interpreters, Braille, etc.
 - Does management give priority for fully accessible units to persons who are in need of the special design features of an accessible unit? Is priority given first to those living in the complex and then to persons on the waiting list?
 - Before accessible units are temporarily rented to people who do not need the special design features, have there been diligent marketing efforts to market the units as accessible units? Have those efforts been documented? Are lease clauses used? Do marketing efforts continue after renting the unit to someone who does not need the special design features?
 - Is management's policy for verifying a person's disability limited to only that which is needed to establish eligibility and is verification required only after a tenant or applicant has asked that their disability be considered by management?
 - Does management provide their employees with civil rights training?
 - When marketing an elderly project, has there been an effort to reach all eligible people. Persons with disabilities (of any age) are every bit as eligible as persons who are 62 or older. Marketing efforts should be designed to reach both population groups.
 - Does the recipient notify the public that they do not discriminate on the basis of disability? Do materials published by the borrower contain such a notice? Use of the Equal Housing Opportunity logo is one means of doing so (the logo is the house with the equal sign and the words Equal Housing Opportunity underneath the house).
 - Does management have a policy that permits persons with disabilities to have service and/or companion animals?
 - Does management give persons with disabilities the same choices other applicants are given? For example, both first and second floor apartments.

Monitoring compliance with the Self-Evaluation and Transition Plan

The Agency monitors MFH borrower compliance with Civil Rights laws through the compliance review process. Servicing Office staff who have been trained and designated will conduct the compliance review using the general format of Form RD 400-8. To assure compliance with the self-evaluation and transition plan requirements of Civil Rights laws, during the compliance review Agency staff will:

1. Visually inspect the project to determine if there are physical barriers.
2. Review the management plan to determine project management's method of informing tenants and applicants regarding requests for reasonable accommodations.
 - Visit and interview tenants to determine if the borrower has provided information and made reasonable accommodations upon request by the tenant.
3. Visit and interview tenants in the fully accessible units to determine:
 - If the tenant has need of the accessibility features of the unit and is an eligible occupant.
 - When the tenant is an ineligible occupant of the unit, if the tenant and borrower have executed a lease attachment that requires the tenant to move if an individual needing the handicapped features applies for occupancy.
4. Review the lease agreement, application and other documentation used by the borrower to determine if policies and procedures represent barriers to occupancy.
5. Review the self-evaluation plan and transition plan and compare the physical inspection to determine if there are barriers present that were not addressed or scheduled to be removed.
6. Where transition plans are scheduled to remove barriers over more than a one-year period, review the transition plan and the most recently approved budget to assure that borrower budgeting and the projects financial condition is supportive of the transition plan as written. Transition plans should include the potential cost of removing identified barriers.

The Agency's response to findings of non-compliance

When the compliance review determines the following:

- The borrower has not completed a self-evaluation when required.
- The borrower's self-evaluation does not adequately address required components.
- The borrower has not completed a transition plan when required by the self-evaluation.
- The borrower's transition plan does not adequately address required components.
- The borrower has failed to comply with their transition plan.
- The borrower is in non-compliance with other Civil Rights law requirements.

The Servicing Office takes the following actions:

- Enter the appropriate finding under the Supervisory Activity, "Compliance Review" and provide descriptive comments on MFIS.
- Notify the borrower in writing and provide 30 days to come into compliance. The following language should be contained in your letter to the borrower regarding their non-compliance:

"Recent Agency monitoring of the subject project indicates that you are not currently meeting your responsibilities under applicable Civil Rights laws. Since project operating or reserve account funds may be required to address this situation, we request that you advise the Agency of how you intend to comply with the law. In addition to any penalties, liabilities, or loss of tax credits that may result from legal action brought against you by third parties, continued non-compliance may result in your ineligibility to receive further loan funds from the Agency. You failed to meet the following MFH physical standard(s) OR you are in non-compliance with the following: (Specify)"

If a borrower fails to either bring themselves into compliance within 30 days or submit an acceptable transition plan to bring themselves into compliance, the Servicing Office will notify the State Civil Rights Coordinator/Manager (SCRC/M). The State Director will forward the issue of non-compliance to the National Office Civil Rights Staff.

The National Office Civil Rights Staff will notify the State Director if further review and processing of the finding will either resolve the finding or require that it be forwarded to the USDA Civil Rights Staff or the Justice Department to resolve the non-compliance issue.

The SCRC/M will notify the State Office MFH Program Director and the Servicing Office of the disposition of the finding of non-compliance.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQ) CIVIL RIGHTS-RELATED COMPLIANCE ISSUES

1. Is the International Symbol of Accessibility (ISA) required to be on a MFH project sign?

No. However, borrowers are encouraged to include the ISA on the project sign if:

- There are no physical barriers for someone wishing to inquire or apply for a service or benefit, and
- The project has an accessible route to fully accessible units.

2. Is the Telecommunication Device for the Deaf (TDD) number required to be on the project sign?

When project management communicates with hearing impaired applicants or tenants, they must use either a TTD or an “equally effective communication system.” If a borrower uses a TTD number, the TTD number must be on the project sign. If a borrower uses an equally effective communication system, the borrower must document the process in their self-evaluation and let the public know how this is to be accomplished. However, the borrower is not required to post the relay service phone number on the project sign. Borrowers with Section 8/515 projects are required by HUD to use a TTD.

3. Are assistance animals that assist the disabled subject to MFH project “Pet” rules?

No. They are permitted occupancy under the Fair Housing Act and are defined as follows:

- Assistance animals are not pets. These are animals that work, provide assistance, or perform tasks for the benefit of a person with a disability, or animals that provides emotional support that alleviates one or more identified symptoms or effects of a person’s disability. Assistance animals – often referred to as “service animals,” “support animals,” “therapy animals” or “companion animals” perform many disability-related functions including but not limited to (1) guiding individuals who are blind or have low vision, (2) alerting individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing to sounds, (3) providing minimal protection or rescue assistance, (4) pulling a wheelchair, (5) fetching items, (6) alerting persons to impending seizures, or (7) providing emotional support to persons with disabilities who have a disability-related need for such support.
- A borrower may not refuse to allow a person with a disability to have an assistance animal merely because the animal does not have formal training. Some, but not all, animals that assist persons with disabilities are professionally trained. The owners themselves train other assistance animals and, in some cases, no special training is required. The question is whether or not the animal performs the disability-related assistance or provides the disability-related benefit needed by the person with the disability.

- A borrower's refusal to modify or provide an exception to a "no pets" rule or policy to permit a person with a disability to use and live with an assistance animal would violate Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Fair Housing Act unless:
 1. The animal poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others that cannot be reduced or eliminated by a reasonable accommodation,
 2. The animal would cause substantial physical damage to the property of others,
 3. The presence of the assistance animal would pose an undue financial and administrative burden to the provider, or
 4. The presence of the assistance animal would fundamentally alter the nature of the provider's services.
- The fact that a person has a disability does not automatically entitle him or her to an assistance animal. There must be a relationship between the person's disability and his or her need for the animal.
- A borrower may not require an applicant or tenant to pay a fee or a security deposit as a condition of allowing the applicant or tenant to keep the assistance animal. However, if the individual's assistance animal causes damage to the applicant's unit or the common areas of the dwelling, at that time, the borrower may charge the individual for the cost of repairing the damage if the provider regularly charges tenants for any damage they cause to the premises.

4. Does an applicant needing special design features have priority for occupancy over a current tenant without a need for the special design features of a fully accessible unit?

Yes. While tenants without a need for the special design features may occupy a fully accessible unit, prior to occupancy the tenant must agree to move to another unit in the project if a qualified individual needing the special design features applies for occupancy of the fully accessible unit. Borrowers are required to enter into a lease agreement with the tenant without a need for the special design features to assure that a legal right exists to require the tenant to move to another available unit in the project, when necessary.

5. What are a few suggestions to improve marketing of fully accessible units?

Before fully accessible units are rented to persons not in need of the special design features, borrowers must conduct a diligent and documented marketing effort to ensure that those in need of the special design features know about the availability for the units. Such contacts may include, Area Commission on Aging, Physical Rehabilitation Centers, Hospitals and Disabled Veterans Organizations. Borrowers are encouraged to use the handicap accessibility logo as a marketing tool on the project sign, in advertising, and on contact letters, leaflets and brochures. When a tenant not needing the design features occupies a fully accessible unit, borrowers are to continue their marketing efforts until a tenant needing the design features is found.

6. How do borrowers meet 7 CFR 15b numerical requirements for fully accessible units?

In MFH projects ready for occupancy after June 10, 1982, 7 CFR 15b standards require:

- At least 5 percent or one unit, whichever is greater, must be fully accessible. To meet the 5 percent minimum, borrowers must round up to the next whole unit. For example, a 24-unit MFH project must have at least two fully accessible units (8.3 percent) rather than one (4.2 percent).
- Fully accessible units must be comparable in variety to other project units. For example, in a 24-unit project with 12 one-bedroom units and 12 two-bedroom units, one of the fully accessible units should be a one-bedroom unit and the other should be a two-bedroom unit.
- Rents for fully accessible units must be comparable to other same sized project units.
- If a project has more than one site, fully accessible units may not be clustered at one site, unless only one fully accessible unit is required.
- When a project has a wide variety of units (one, two, three or four bedrooms), borrowers are not required to exceed the 5 percent requirement simply to have a fully accessible unit of each type.

7. On-farm Farm Labor Housing is normally a single-family house. Is this housing subject to the 5 percent fully accessible requirement?

No. The 5 percent requirement appears in 7 CFR 15b.41. This section of the regulation only applies to multi-family rental housing. The Office of the General Counsel (OGC) provided an opinion on its application to a single unit Farm Labor Housing because 7 CFR 15b does not define “multi-family.” OGC advised us that we may use the definition in Uniform Federal Accessibility Standards (UFAS), which defines multi-family housing as any “building containing more than two dwelling units.” (For more information on UFAS, refer to www.access-board.gov/ufas/ufas-html/ufas.htm). Therefore, “on-farm” labor housing that consists of buildings with less than three units, is not required to meet the requirement that 5 percent of the units be constructed as fully accessible units. However, borrowers should be mindful that if a request is made for a “reasonable accommodation”, that they must address accessibility at that time.

8. Who pays for reasonable accommodations?

If an eligible applicant or tenant makes a request for a reasonable accommodation, borrowers are to use project resources to complete and pay for the accommodation. A borrower may request a waiver from the Secretary of Agriculture if they can show that the modifications or other special accommodations needed by the person with a disability would cause an undue financial/administrative burden or fundamental change in operations. The borrower must prove such a burden exists in order to receive a waiver from the Secretary.

9. What type of reasonable accommodation is made?

If an eligible applicant or tenant makes a request for a reasonable accommodation, the change to be made should be based on the tenant's assessment of their needs, even when the accommodation may vary from commonly accepted accessibility standards. All improvements should be done in a professional manner and meet local building code requirements.

10. When is it appropriate to make inquiries about a person's disability?

An appropriate question for all applicants to an elderly MFH project is:

- “If you are less than 62 years old, are you eligible for occupancy based on your status as an individual with handicaps or disabilities?”

Regarding the issue of adjustments to income or priority for a unit with special design features, the application form should give the opportunity to make a request for the added benefit. For example, it would be appropriate to ask all applicants and tenants:

- “Do you wish to have priority for an apartment with special design features for persons with disabilities?”
- “Do you wish to claim a $400 deduction from your income based on a disabling condition?”

By phrasing questions in this manner, applicants are advised of the benefit and allowed to decide for themselves if they wish to disclose a disabling condition. Once an applicant requests that their disability status be considered, inquiries can be made, but only to the extent necessary to verify eligibility. Project management should not attempt to make any determination concerning an applicant's disabling condition.

11. May a guardian sign a rental agreement on behalf of a qualified person with a disability?

While there is no Federal law preventing a guardian from signing a rental agreement on behalf of a qualified person with disabilities, state law may vary. Each borrower should check with their legal counsel. To the extent individual state laws permit a guardian to sign a rental agreement, guardian signatures are to be accepted.

12. What are the requirements for van accessible parking?

The requirements vary based on when a project became ready for occupancy. . The parking lot of all projects with public areas such as an on-site office, ready for occupancy after January 26, 1993, must be properly striped for van accessible parking and access aisles. All projects with public areas ready for occupancy before January 26, 1993, must be striped for van accessible parking and access aisles whenever the parking lot is re-striped.

13. If accessible parking is located across the drive from the building it serves, must a crosswalk be painted on the drive?

No, it's not required. However, having a crosswalk is a good idea since it would indicate a crossing exists, and hopefully would signal a driver to slow down. There is no requirement for a painted crosswalk in the accessibility standards. Further, there is no requirement for the color of paint to be used. White is most commonly used, and sometimes blue or yellow. Curb ramps from the drive to the site are required.

14. May a borrower allow a resident assistant to occupy a unit overnight to assist a tenant with a disability?

Yes. When a tenant with a disability provides a physician's statement requiring resident assistant care in excess of the established time periods for visitors, it would be a reasonable accommodation to the rules and policies to allow the resident assistant to reside in the unit in excess of established visitor's time. Further, if the need is for the resident assistant to live in the unit, it is a reasonable accommodation to rent a two-bedroom unit to a tenant at their request. The income of a resident assistant is not included in tenant household income.

15. Is the "interested person(s)" who assists or is consulted during the borrower's preparation of their self-evaluation required to visit the project site?

No. While interested persons, including disabled persons or organizations representing disabled persons must be consulted they are not required to conduct a site visit.

16. Is the self-evaluation required to be maintained at the project site?

Yes, if the project has an office. If there is no office, the borrower is still obligated to make the self-evaluation available to the public upon request. The public includes any applicant, tenant and the Agency. It is not reasonable for the borrower to expect the public to drive to a location other than the project to view the self-evaluation.

17. What can be done with projects ready for occupancy after June 10, 1982 that were not built in accordance with UFAS standards, where it is either structurally impractical or financially infeasible to make the required changes?

Typically, the borrower should seek guidance from their project architect before making this determination. The Agency will need documentation that it is structurally impractical from a knowledgeable source. For example, in a project built using a split foyer design, it may be structurally impractical to make changes. The borrower might try to establish a referral agreement with another project in the local market area with a fully accessible unit. If no referral agreement is possible to make the program accessible, the Agency may administratively recognize that the borrower is unable to address their outstanding non-compliance issues. In this case, all avenues have been explored, and the Servicing Office will document the case file to fully explain the situation and the borrower's attempts to resolve the problem, remove the finding(s) from Multi-Family Housing Information System (MFIS) and discontinue reporting the situation through the post supervisory visit and compliance review reporting process. In some instances, a borrower may claim that a project is not able to meet UFAS standards because the project's financial condition is such that the change would create an undue financial burden. For example, the project is located in a poor rental market and rents are insufficient to address capital needs. While the Agency has no mechanism for waiving the requirements of UFAS standards for financial reasons, the borrower may request a waiver from the Secretary of Agriculture. For such a waiver, the borrower must document the financial condition of the project as well as attempts to seek local, state, private and Federal funding for grants or loans to correct the condition.

18. Attachment C states that regardless of when a project was ready for occupancy, all borrowers are required to have "policies and practices" that do not discriminate against persons with disabilities which are provided on Attachment C-1. Where do the borrowers document these "policies and practices"?

Borrowers document these "policies and practices" in the management plan.

19. If these policies and practices are not presently covered in the management plan should we ask everybody to provide written documentation of the "policies" now or, do we wait until the management plan is renewed, or the next supervisory visit/compliance review (whichever comes first)?

We recommend that you be sure borrowers understand that these issues should be addressed in their management plans and that you will review these items in your supervisory visits, compliance reviews and management plan approvals. However, the Agency is not required to conduct a full review of all existing management plans at this time.

20. Attachment C also states that borrowers are supposed to maintain a record of the self-evaluation for at least three years. How are we going to document if they have one, if the three-year period is past?

Part V of Form RD 400-8, Compliance Review, should contain a record of self-evaluation status based on Agency review. While the borrower is responsible to retain records for their own protection, we can retain any self-evaluation shared with us by the borrower in our files.

21. Attachment C states that when structural changes are necessary, such changes shall be made within 3 years and as expeditiously as possible. What if major structural changes are needed and they can't be accomplished within a 3-year period?

Realistically, all structural changes should be accomplished within a three-year time frame unless funding is an issue. When changes are not made within the time frame of the transition plan, the borrower should prepare a new or revised 3-year transition plan that documents what has been done, what will be completed, and time frames for completion. Before we accept a plan, we need to be sure that the borrower is sincerely attempting to comply with the accessibility requirements. We also need to assure that rents and reserve account (RA) withdrawals are approved when necessary to make the changes.

22. Should transition plans exceed 3 years? We have seen some that just say “when funds are available.” These plans are typically in projects where there is very little or no RA and rents must be kept low to keep tenants. In these cases, there may never be funds available.

Transition plans may not exceed a 3-year period and “when funds are available” is never a good time-frame. “Upon rehabilitation” is better language to use. If a poor rental market is the real issue, the transition plan should be clear that the market is the reason the borrower can not make needed improvements. If there is some way of addressing the cash flow problem (i.e., transfer RA, seek state or local grants, etc.), then the Agency should be ready to help the borrower move in that direction. This means that if a rent increase is needed, either to fund the improvement or build up the RA, the transition plan should document the amount that is needed and the Agency should be willing to approve higher rents. Also, the borrower should document their efforts to check for funding elsewhere. Some state and local governments have grant or loan funds that can be used for providing accessibility. Borrowers should be encouraged to seek out such funds if available. Once the 3 year period is completed, if corrections have not been completed, a new or revised transition plan would be required listing those incomplete items, with a proposed timeframe.

23. There are six additional items we are to review during the compliance review. Where are these items to be documented?

You will notice that some of the answers are addressed by questions already on the physical inspection form or the compliance review. While, the Civil Rights Staff has not established a separate document for the purpose of documenting this review, your assessment of the borrowers response to the six items should be documented in part V or VI of Form RD 400-8.

24. If we should find a borrower out of compliance with accessibility requirements and the borrower comes back with a transition plan that says they will make accommodations as needed, will the Agency be able to accept that and say that the borrower is now in compliance for tracking purposes?

Yes, however the borrower is technically out of compliance until the problem is corrected. However, if the borrower has a self-evaluation and a transition plan that describes how that particular finding will be resolved, we have established that the borrower is taking the appropriate steps to resolve their problem by establishing a timetable for corrective action in the transition plan. A good analogy is how we use our workout plan. If a workout plan is in place and being followed, the Agency can recognize that the default finding is being resolved. Therefore, we treat the project differently in our classification system.

25. Could you give us an example where time frames for compliance will be provided in Agency notices and will vary according to the nature of the non-compliance issue.

For example, according to Civil Rights Staff policy, findings on the compliance review should be corrected in 30 days. This timeframe may be expanded if conditions warrant. According to MFH program direction, supervisory visit findings can be resolved using different timeframes, generally varying from 30 to 90 days. The Servicing Office has some flexibility in providing corrective deadlines for findings found on the supervisory visit. Usually these deadlines are established in relationship to the seriousness of the finding. Additionally, the letter to the borrower requesting corrective actions can combine findings and corrective time frames from both the compliance review and the supervisory visit.

26. Do you see any problem with the Agency keeping a copy of the self-evaluation and transition plan in the borrower's file? We initially told our field staff not to keep a copy because we didn't want the borrower to construe that as Agency approval of the documents; however, some of our field employees have asked for copies and are keeping them in the file.

It is a good idea to keep the self-evaluations and transition plans in the file because you should be reviewing them with each management plan and budget approval. Routine budget approvals should now include reviewing the transition plan to make sure that identified capital improvements are in the budget.

27. Are Agency field staff required to become "accessibility" police?

It is important to understand that since June 10, 1982, 7 CFR 15b requires the Agency to conduct compliance reviews regarding accessibility requirements. The bottom line is that the borrower is the party responsible for project compliance with accessibility laws. The Agency's role is to assure that the program, in general, is administered in accordance with accessibility laws. We identify non-compliance during limited reviews, make project resources available to help solve problems, report problems through an internal reporting process, and respond to continued serious instances of non-compliance using established MFH program servicing tools.

28. UFAS requires that wall cabinets in accessible units be mounted at 48" above the floor. In rehabs, that has required relocating them. One owner requested mounting a separate shelf 48" above the floor, between the base and wall cabinets. Is this OK?

The Access Board has indicated that a shelf between base cabinets provides "equivalent" accessibility when it is not possible to lower wall cabinets. The shelf should not become the standard solution, but can be considered on a case-by-case basis. For example, if funds for rehabilitation are limited, the shelf may be a less expensive solution to removing and relocating wall cabinets. If funds are available, the wall cabinets should be relocated. Although deemed "equivalent," the shelf does not have doors to cover the storage space and should not be used if relocating wall cabinets is possible.

29. Is a 30" x 34" high workspace required in an accessible dwelling unit kitchen? While UFAS 4.34.6.4 requires this, it is not included in the list in Attachment B or added to the MFH Physical Inspection Form.

Yes, it's required. The list in Attachment B was not intended to be all inclusive of UFAS standards, but to hit the big issues.

30. UFAS 4.13.9 calls for lever handles on entrance doors to accessible units. An item on the MFH Physical Inspection form asks if lever handles were provided. Does this apply to all apartment doors?

UFAS requires lever handles on apartment unit entry doors only. The question on the MFH Physical Inspection form refers to apartment unit entry doors only. If a tenant needs lever handles throughout a unit, they may be requested as a “reasonable accommodation.”

31. Where are grab bars required?

Grab bars are required in the 5 percent of units that are “fully accessible.” UFAS 4.34.5 uses the language “If provided, grab bars will” Our Agency has taken the position that grab bars will be installed in order to make the “fully accessible” unit ready for a person with disabilities. Grab bars are also provided in those units in which a tenant has requested them as a “reasonable accommodation.” In those ground floor units constructed since 1991, FHA/AG required blocking for “adaptability.” In those units, grab bars may be installed later as a form of “reasonable accommodation” when requested.

32. How do people writing Transition Plans know to require grab bars?

Since writers of Transition Plans base them on UFAS, the proposed plan may call for installing the blocking only, and not installing the grab bars. In requiring a Self Evaluation and possibly a Transition Plan from a borrower, field staff should make them aware that the Agency has taken the position that grab bars are required in 5 percent of the units that are “fully accessible.”

33. An item on the MFH Physical Inspection form refers to a “functional emergency call system.” Are emergency call systems required in all fully accessible units?

If the fully accessible unit presently has an emergency call system, it must be functional. If no emergency call system is in place, the borrower does not have to provide one at this time. It may be necessary to add one as a “reasonable accommodation” per tenant request. There has been considerable confusion on this issue, and we realize that this may be a different answer than you have received in the past.

34. Is additional maneuvering room in the bathroom required?

Some Transition Plans are indicating a need to enlarge the bathroom in an accessible unit to provide a 5' turning circle, which UFAS requires in a common use bathroom. Writers of Transition Plans are incorrectly applying this requirement to a dwelling unit. Agency staff should understand that an accessible dwelling unit bathroom must have clear floor space at the tub/shower and commode, but a 5' turning circle is not required within a dwelling unit bath. Also, UFAS provides an exception in 4.22.3 for public toilets with only one lavatory and commode. In those common use toilets, a 5' turning circle is not required.

35. In addition to the requirement that 5 percent of a project's units must be fully accessible for persons with mobility impairments, is it true that MFH projects must also meet a requirement that an additional 2 percent of the units (over and above the 5 percent) must be made fully accessible by individuals with hearing or visual impairments?

To implement Section 504, both HUD and USDA individually published regulations to apply to their respective programs. While HUD's regulation does require that 2 percent of the units (over and above the 5 percent that are made fully accessible for persons with mobility impairments) be made accessible for individuals with hearing or visual impairments, USDA's regulation does not. Consequently, MFH projects with project based HUD Section 8 that were built on or after July 11, 1988, must meet this requirement, but MFH projects without project based HUD Section 8 do not. However, even when not required, borrowers are encouraged to make an additional 2 percent of the units accessible for persons with hearing or visual impairments.

36. We have an existing MFH property with multiple laundry rooms. Must each laundry room be made accessible?

Not necessarily.

- For a property constructed for first occupancy after March 13, 1991 and subject to the Fair Housing Amendments Act design requirements, laundries for the covered units must be on an accessible route, and the space must be accessible. This would apply to all ground floor laundries (or all laundries in a building with an elevator).
- In addition, for properties constructed, or with substantial alterations, after June 10, 1982, UFAS also applies. UFAS 4.1.3(3) states "Common Areas: At least one of each type of common area and amenity in each project shall be accessible and shall be located on an accessible route to any accessible dwelling unit." This sets a minimum of one accessible laundry. If accessible units are located near one another, the nearest laundry must be made accessible. If accessible units are located on opposite ends of the property, it may be necessary to make more than one laundry room accessible, depending on location and site topography. In such a situation, the nearest laundry room to each accessible unit must be made accessible.
- Regardless of when a property was constructed, it is the policy of RHS that, to the extent possible, barriers to common use areas that prevent any mobility impaired person from having full access will be removed. This does not, however, require borrowers to exceed the above standards unless it is necessary to do so in response to a request for a reasonable accommodation from a person with disabilities.

In addition, UFAS 4.34.7.2 states that washing machines and clothes dryers in common use laundry rooms shall be front loading." RHS has taken the position that this requirement is met if at least one washer and one dryer is front loading in every laundry room that is required to be accessible by UFAS. This position is taken, in part, in recognition that there may be some increase in cost to provide front loading washers and dryers.

37. If structural accessibility requirements of the Fair Housing Act were not met due to negligence of the borrower or their architect during construction, what can be done to get them corrected?

In cases where fault is established, it is a proper servicing action to seek corrections by borrowers at their own expense. To accomplish these corrections, some borrowers may in turn seek to enforce contractual agreements with project architects.

38. What are the requirements for accessibility for a community room kitchen / kitchenette?

In many situations, the requirements for an accessible dwelling unit kitchen have been applied to a common use kitchen or kitchenette. The Fair Housing Act Accessibility Guidelines and UFAS have similar requirements.

- The community room must be accessible, including an accessible route, accessible doors, switches and outlets at proper height, etc.
- The kitchen area must have an accessible sink per UFAS 4.24. This includes a mounting height no higher than 34” (or adjustable to 34”), knee clearance underneath, clear floor space at the sink, insulated piping, and an accessible faucet.
- UFAS 4.25 and 4.1.2(11) further requires that a portion of the storage provided (shelves, drawers, and cabinets) have clear floor space and be within the reach range. This requirement is normally met with standard kitchen base cabinets.
- The kitchen must have a 60” turning circle or “T” turn around for maneuverability. Space in the community room or a hallway immediately outside the kitchen may be used to meet this requirement.
- There is no requirement in a common use kitchen for an accessible work surface, range or cooktop with accessible controls, self cleaning wall oven, or an accessible refrigerator (side by side or with 50% of freezer space within reach ranges). These requirements appear in UFAS 4.34, and only apply to an accessible dwelling unit.

These requirements for a common use kitchen or kitchenette are minimums. Provision of additional accessibility in a common use kitchen or kitchenette is encouraged, but not required.

39. Can the street be utilized as part of the accessible route to an amenity? Can the disabled travel behind parked vehicles or with the traffic in the travel lane?

The accessible route may include travel behind a parked vehicle only if it is an accessible parking space. Crossing a traffic lane between curb cuts is acceptable. A striped crosswalk is not required. Otherwise, the street or traffic lane may not be part of the accessible route for an individual using a wheelchair.

If the site amenity is located at a considerable distance from the accessible unit and its accessible parking space or if site terrain is such that an accessible route along sidewalks is not possible, a vehicle can be used. This requires an accessible parking space at the site amenity, with an accessible route from that parking space to the site amenity. In this situation, the disabled individual must travel from their unit to their accessible parking space, transfer to their vehicle, drive to the site amenity, transfer back to their wheelchair, and then go to the site amenity. As you can see, this is not a convenient solution, and should be used only on existing properties in cases where no other solution is possible.
